OF THE

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION 1907.

PRIVATE LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

SESSION 1907.

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT TO AMEND, REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF RALEIGH, IN THE COUNTY OF WAKE AND STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Incorporation.

SECTION 1. That the inhabitants of the city of Raleigh shall be and remain a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of "The City of Raleigh," and under such name and style may adopt a corporate seal, and contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded; acquire by purchase, devise, bequest or other conveyance such real and personal property anywhere within Raleigh Township as may be requisite and necessary for the proper government and needs of the city; hold, invest, improve, use, govern, control and protect, and, under the hand of the Mayor and two Aldermen, attested by the corporate seal, may sell or dispose of the same, and have all the powers, rights and privileges necessary, belonging or usually appertaining to municipal corporations.

Sec. 36. No person holding office under the Police Department shall be liable to military or jury duty, and no officer or patrolman while actually on duty shall be liable to arrest on civil process.

OF THE TREASURER.

Duties of treasurer.

Sec. 37. That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to call on all persons who may have in their hands any moneys or securities belonging to the city, which ought to be paid or delivered into the treasury, to receive and safely keep the same for the use of the city, and to disburse the funds upon the appropriation of the Board of Aldermen according to such orders as may be duly drawn on him in the manner hereinafter specified; he shall keep in a book provided for that purpose a fair and correct account of all moneys received and disbursed by him, together with the sources from whence they came and the purposes for which they were appropriated. During his continuance therein he shall faithfully perform all duties lawfully imposed upon him as City Treasurer, and at the expiration of his term of office he shall deliver to his successor all the moneys, securities, books of record and other property entrusted to him for use, safe-keeping, disbursement or otherwise.

Warrants on treasurer.

Sec. 38. That all warrants drawn on the Treasurer shall only be issued on vouchers given therefor by the Board of Audit and Finance and shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Clerk, and shall state the purpose for which the money was appropriated and the fund out of which the same is to be paid.

No claim paid but on approval of board of audit and finance.

Sec. 39. That no claim against the city shall be paid until it shall have been audited and approved by the Board of Audit and Finance and a voucher issued by them authorizing a warrant to be drawn in payment of same.

THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE SINKING FUND.

Duties of commissioner of sinking fund.

Sec. 40. That the Commissioner of the Sinking Fund shall receive from the Tax Collector the whole of the special taxes collected for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of the bonds issued under chapter eighty, Private Acts of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and seventy-five; chapter thirty-five, private acts of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five; chapter one hundred and seventeen, Private Acts of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine; chapter one hundred and twenty-nine, Private Acts of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and such other acts as may hereafter be passed which provide for the levying of a special tax by said city, and the Commissioner shall give receipts to the Collector for said payments, and pay the interest on the bonds issued under said acts, at the time said interest becomes due. And it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to demand said special taxes from time to time from the Collector, and if not paid, to report the fact to the board. The sums of money which may be paid as aforesaid to the Commissioner of the Sinking Fund shall be invested and managed as required by law; and in making investments of the same, and of all sums accruing from the securities in which the same may be invested, preference shall be given to such of the bonds of said city which will yield the largest income on the amount invested; all of such bonds of the city of Raleigh which may be purchased for the purpose aforesaid and all the coupons thereto shall be immediately and indelibly stamped with the words "The Sinking Fund of the City of Raleigh," and the number, amount and date of issue of every such bond shall be recorded by said Commissioner in a proper book kept by said Board of Audit and Finance for that purpose; and a duly certified copy of such record shall from time to time, as additional investments for said fund shall be made, be furnished by said Commissioner to the Board of Aldermen of said city, who shall cause the same to be filed by the Clerk of said city and recorded in the proper book in his office. All bonds as investments of any fund belonging to said sinking fund and all interest accruing thereon or the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be held exclusively for the use and as a part of said sinking fund, and shall not be disposed of or transferred or in any way used for any other purpose whatever.

Advertisement for purchase of bonds.

Sec. 41. That the said Commissioner shall, from time to time, under the provisions of the acts set forth in the above section, when he shall have sufficient money in his hands, advertise for ten days in the daily newspapers for sealed proposals for the sale of the bonds of the city issued under said acts. Bids shall be opened in the presence of the Mayor and Treasurer, and such bids as are most advantageous for the city shall be accepted. But said officers, in their discretion, may refuse to accept any bids made, and advertise for additional proposals. Bonds of the city so purchased shall be canceled by them.

Bids opened.

All bids may be refused.

Bonds to be canceled.

Alternative investments.

Sec. 42. That if, after reasonable diligence, none of said bonds can be purchased at their value or less, then the Commissioner shall in like manner purchase any other bonds of the city, which bonds shall be made payable to the Commissioner of the Sinking Fund in trust for the city of Raleigh, and shall be held by him in trust for the holders of the bonds authorized by the said acts mentioned in section thirty-two of this chapter, or shall make such investments of the funds in his hands as the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen shall approve, preference being given to loans upon real estate in the city.

Annual reports.

Sec. 43. That the said Commissioner shall make a report to the Board annually at their meeting in the month of May of the condition of the fund and of his action since the last report.

CITY TAX COLLECTOR.

Control and direction of finance committee.

Bond.

Sec. 44. The City Tax Collector shall be under the control and direction of the Finance Committee of the city of Raleigh; he shall give bond in such an amount as specified in this act for the diligent and faithful collection of the taxes due to the city of Raleigh, and for the proper accounting for and paying over to the proper officer of the city of all moneys that come into his hands or that lawfully should come into his hands as Tax Collector of the city of Raleigh, and the bond specified by this charter may be increased whenever the Finance Committee of the city of Raleigh deem it advisable; he shall obey all lawful orders and directions of the Finance Committee, and he may be suspended from his office by the Finance Committee, subject to the action of the Mayor or the Board of Aldermen.

Bond may be increased.

Suspension by finance committee.

BOARD OF AUDIT AND FINANCE.

Sec. 45. That at the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh in the month of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven, there shall be elected three discreet and proper persons from among the electors of the city of Raleigh, and shall constitute and be styled "The Board of Audit and Finance of the City of Raleigh." One member of this board shall be elected for a term of six years, one member shall be elected for a term of four years, and one member shall be elected for a term of two years, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. No person holding an office or appointment under the Board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh, or who may be a contractor or any agent or employee of a contractor for any work, materials, repairs or other things whatever for the use of said city, shall be eligible as a member of said Board of Audit and Finance or qualified to act as one of its members. The Board of Aldermen shall elect the successor of any member whose term expires, and the member so elected shall hold his office for a term of six years. And the Board of Aldermen shall fill all vacancies occurring in said board on account of death, resignation or any disqualification of members arising after their election or removal from office. The Board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh shall have the right to remove any member of the Board of Audit and Finance for neglect or malfeasance in office, upon charges preferred by any citizen of the city of Raleigh, after a trial of such member before the Board of Aldermen, upon a three-fourths vote sustaining such charges. Whenever charges shall be preferred against any member of the Board of Audit and Finance they shall be reduced to writing by the City Attorney, under the direction of the Mayor of the city of Raleigh, a copy of which shall be presented to such member against whom the charges are made, and a notice of ten days given such member before the meeting of the board at which he is to be tried. The member of the Board of Audit and Finance elected for six years shall be chairman of said board and shall be paid a salary of five hundred dollars per year, payable in equal monthly instalments; the other members shall receive two hundred dollars per year, each, payable in equal monthly instalments, and the said Board of Audit and Finance may employ a clerk at a salary of not

The Treasurer of said city, upon a voucher signed by the chairman and clerk of said Board of Audit and Finance and a regular city warrant issued thereon, shall pay the necessary expenses of said board, the salary of their clerk, and the salary as aforesaid of its chairman and its members.

Orders to be signed and certified. Temporary chairman.

Sec. 46. That the chairman and clerk hereinafter provided for shall sign and certify all orders of the board; and, in case such chairman shall be absent at any meeting of the board, a temporary chairman shall be chosen, who, during such meeting, shall exercise the powers of the regular chairman.

Power to administer oath and issue subpœnas.

The chairman of said Board of Audit and Finance shall have power to administer oaths and issue subpœnas for witnesses to appear before the board, who shall be required to appear and testify under like pains and penalties as if summoned to the Superior Court.

Board to be sworn.

Before entering upon their duties the members of said board shall, before the Mayor, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in section seven of this act, and cause the same to be filed in the office of the Clerk of said city.

Oath to be filed.

Clerk to board. Bond.

Sec. 47. The Board of Audit and Finance shall appoint a clerk, prescribe his duties and require him to give bond, with good and sufficient surety, payable to the city of Raleigh, in such sum as said board may determine, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Clerk to hold office at pleasure of board. Power to administer oaths. Salary.

The said clerk shall hold office at the pleasure of said board, and shall have power to administer oaths, and shall receive such compensation as said board may establish.

Meetings of board.

Sec. 48. The said Board of Audit and Finance shall hold regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month in some room in the City Hall at such an hour as the board may determine, and said meetings shall be open to the public, and the hour of holding the regular semi-monthly meetings shall not be changed unless ten days' notice of such change shall be given by publication at least three times in some daily newspaper published in said city.

Meetings open to public. Notice of change in hour of meeting.

Special meetings.

The chairman of said board may, and upon the written request of any one member shall, call special meetings of said board, of which due notice shall be given by publication in at least one issue of a daily newspaper published in said city one day in advance.

Record of proceedings.

The clerk shall, in proper books, keep a minute record of the proceedings of said meetings, recording the names of the members present, the character and amount of all claims and demands against the city, and the names of the claimants.

Claims itemized and verified.

All such claims and demands shall be made out in distinct items, verified by the affidavit of the claimant or his agent, stating that the claim is just and due; that the articles were furnished or service rendered, as the case may be, and that no part of the same has been satisfied. Notwithstanding such affidavit, the said board may require further proofs as to the validity of any claim; and any person who shall knowingly or wilfully offer or cause to be offered for audit by said board any false or fraudulent claim or demand against the city of Raleigh shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and any person who shall wilfully swear to any false statement before said board shall be guilty of perjury.

Board may require further proof.

Offer of false claim a misdemeanor.

False oath to claim, perjury.

Sec. 49. It shall be the duty of said Board of Audit and Finance to audit and pass upon the validity of all claims and demands against the city of Raleigh, and no claim or demand against said city shall be paid by the Treasurer of said city or by any other person out of any funds belonging to said city until the same has been duly audited and approved by said board and a voucher signed by the chairman and clerk issued for a proper warrant for the payment of the same. All claims, demands and accounts presented to said board in any one year, beginning at its first regular meeting in March, shall be numbered from one upwards in the order in which they are presented, and at the time of presentation the names of the persons in whose favor they are made out, and by whom presented, shall be carefully entered upon the minutes of the board; and no such account shall be withdrawn from the custody of the board or its clerk except to be used as evidence in a judicial proceeding, and after being so used it shall be promptly returned. Any member of said board who shall knowingly vote to allow any false, fraudulent or untrue claim or demand against said city shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not less than five hundred dollars and by imprisonment for not less than one year.

Board to pass upon claims.

of the fifth item shall be deducted from the aggregate value of its shares of stock as provided by the fourth item, and the remainder, if any, shall be listed by the Clerk in the name of such company or corporation as capital stock thereof. In all cases of failure or refusal of any person, officer, company or association to make such return or statement, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to make such return or statement from the best information which he can obtain.

Clerk to make return on failure of company.

Sec. 77. That every bank (not incorporated), banker, broker or stock jobber shall, at the time fixed by this charter for listing personal property, make out and furnish the Clerk a sworn statement showing:

Returns of banks, bankers, brokers and stock jobbers.

(1) The amount of property on hand or in transit.

What to contain.

(2) The amount of funds in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others, subject to draft.

(3) The amount of checks or other cash items not included in either of the preceding items.

(4) The amount of bills receivable, discounted or purchased, and other credits due or to become due, including accounts receivable and interest accrued but not due, and interest due and unpaid.

(5) The amount of bonds and stocks of every kind, State and county warrants and other municipal securities, and shares of capital stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations held as an investment or any way representing assets.

(6) All other property pertaining to said business other than real estate, which real estate shall be listed and assessed as other real estate is listed and assessed under this act.

(7) The amount of deposits made with them by other parties.

(8) The amount of all accounts payable other than current deposit accounts.

(9) The amount of bonds and other securities exempt by law from taxation, specifying the amount and kind of each, the same being included in the preceding fifth item. The aggregate amount of the first, second and third items in said statement shall be listed as moneys. The amount of the sixth item shall be listed the same as other similar personal property is listed under this chapter. The aggregate amount of the seventh and eighth items shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of the fourth item of said statement, and the amount of the remainder, if any, shall be listed as credits. The aggregate amount of the ninth item shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of the fifth item of such statement, and the remainder shall be listed as bonds or stocks.

Sec. 78. That all the real and personal property of any railroad, or so much thereof as may be located within the corporate limits of said city, including road-beds, rights-of-way, main and side-tracks, depot buildings and grounds, section and tool houses, machine and repair shops, general office buildings and storehouses, rolling stock and personal property necessary for the construction, maintenance and successful operation thereof, shall be listed for purposes of taxation by the principal officers or agents of such companies with the Clerk or other person authorized to take said list in the manner provided by law for the listing and valuation of real and personal property under the rules, regulations and methods now or hereafter to be provided by the General Assembly of North Carolina for ascertaining and listing the value thereof.

Double tax for failure to list.

Sec. 79. That if any person or company shall fail to render to the Clerk the list of property and other taxables required to be rendered by this charter within the time prescribed for listing State and county taxes, such person or company shall pay double the tax assessed on any subject for which said person is liable to be taxed.

Person examined as to other property.

Sec. 80. That the Clerk or other person taking said list shall be particular to examine each person on oath as to whether he has other property than that stated in his return which he may claim is not liable to taxation. Such property, except bonds of the United States and of this State, shall be entered and noted on the tax-list.

Exempt property entered and noted.

Clerk to make out tax books.

Sec. 81. That from the returns and lists made as provided by this charter the Clerk, or such other person as the Board of Aldermen shall select, shall, within thirty days after the expiration of the time for taking said lists, make out in a book kept or provided for that purpose an alphabetical list of the persons, companies and owners of property who have so made their returns in the same manner as tax-lists are made out by law for the State and county taxes. And the said Clerk or other person shall copy in the said book the assessments on file in the Register of Deeds' office for Wake County of all property within the city limits.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

Board of equalization appointed.

Sec. 82. That in the month of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter, the Board of Aldermen may appoint three discreet and proper persons from among the electors of the city of Raleigh, who are and have been owners of real estate and residents of the city for not less than twelve months, to be constituted and who shall constitute and be styled "The Term.

Board of Equalization of the City of Raleigh"; and the persons so appointed shall continue in office for two years and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified, unless removed from office or otherwise incapacitated to hold office as herein provided. No member of the Board of Aldermen and no person holding an office or appointment under the Board of Aldermen shall be eligible or qualified to act as a member of the Board of Equalization.

Members to qualify.

Sec. 83. That before entering on their duties the members of said board shall take and subscribe before the Mayor or some justice of the peace the oath prescribed in section four of Article VI of the Constitution of the State, and cause the same to be filed in the office of the Clerk of said city.

Oaths to be filed.

Chairman.

Power to administer oaths and issue subpœnas.

Temporary chairman.

Sec. 84. That the said board shall elect from their number a chairman, who shall have power to administer oaths and issue subpœnas for witnesses to appear before the board, who shall be required to appear and testify under like pains and penalties as if summoned to the Superior Court. In the absence of the chairman at any meeting of the board a temporary chairman shall be chosen who, during such meeting, shall have and exercise the powers of the regular chairman.

Tax-list delivered to board.

Board to act conjointly with county commissioners.

Sec. 85. That as soon as the tax-list can be completed by the City Clerk, or other person authorized by the Board of Aldermen, the same shall be by him delivered to the Board of Equalization, if the Board of Aldermen shall see fit to appoint such board, which board shall have the power and it shall be their duty to act conjointly with the Board of County Commissioners of Wake County in equalizing the valuation of all property within the corporate limits of said city, and said boards conjointly shall have all the powers given to the Board of Commissioners of a county to revise a tax-list.

Boards to examine tax-lists.

Valuations to be equalized.

Sec. 86. That said boards shall conjointly and carefully examine the tax-lists of the city and county, and shall equalize the valuations of all property within the city limits, so that each tract or lot of land, or article of personal property, and all subjects of taxation shall be entered on the respective tax-lists of the city and county at its true value in money, and shall cause the respective tax-lists to conform as nearly as possible, and for this purpose they shall have power to increase, modify, add to and change the tax-lists as made out, so that the valuation of similar property throughout the city shall be as near uniform as possible, and in doing so they shall observe the following rules and shall have the following powers:

Power to change lists.

Valuation raised.

(1) They shall, after notifying the owner or agent, raise the valuation of such tracts or lots of real property or articles of personal property and all other subjects taxed by the charter as in their opinion have been returned below their true value to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof.

Valuation reduced.

(2) They shall reduce the valuation of such tracts and lots of real property or articles of personal property and other subjects taxed by the charter as in their opinion have been returned above their value as compared with the average valuation of the real and personal property of said city. In regard to real property, they shall have due regard to the relative situation, quality of soil, improvements, natural and artificial advantages possessed by each tract or lot and the uses thereof.

Property not listed inserted.

(3) Whenever said Board of Equalization shall have reasonable ground to believe that any person, company or corporation has failed to give in a true and accurate list of such personal property and other subjects taxable by the charter as he, it, or they are required to furnish, with the true value thereof, it shall be their duty to ascertain the same and insert the same and the true value thereof in the tax-list.

Powers of board.

(4) In performing the duties required of them the said Board of Equalization shall have power to subpœna, compel the presence of and examine witnesses and parties who list or fail to list, and send for and require to be brought before them and examine records, books, papers and such other things as they may deem proper to be used in evidence before them upon the same rules and penalties as are provided for Superior Courts.

Lists received from persons in default.

Fee.

(5) The said Board of Equalization, on tendering the prescribed oath, may take a list of any person, company or corporation applying to list his or its taxables at any meeting held on or before the first day of October, upon the applicant paying the Clerk twenty-five cents for recording the same; and in ascertaining the value of property and taxables thus listed said board shall have the same powers to investigate and ascertain the true value thereof as is herein given them in other cases.

Tax book delivered to tax collector.

When collection completed.

Penalty.

Sec. 87. That as soon as the tax-list can be completed the Board of Aldermen shall place the same in the hands of the Tax Collector for collection, who shall proceed forthwith in the collection and shall complete the same on or before the first day of December next ensuing, and shall pay the moneys as they are collected to the Treasurer. On the first day of December there shall be a penalty of one per centum added to the amount of all taxes due, and an additional one per centum on the first day of each month thereafter until same are paid.

Stock or bank shares paid by cashier.

Sec. 88. The taxes imposed upon the shares or certificates of shares of stock in any bank or banking association (State or National) shall be paid by the cashier or other principal officer of such bank or banking association directly to the City Tax Collector within thirty days after notice from said Tax Collector of the amount of tax due, and upon the failure of said cashier or principal officer to pay the Tax Collector as aforesaid he shall forthwith institute an action against the bank or banking association for the recovery of the same in the proper court in said county of Wake.

Collection by distress.

Advertisement of sales.

Sec. 89. That if any person liable to taxes on subjects directed to be listed shall fail to pay them within the time prescribed for collection, the Collector shall proceed forthwith to collect the same by distress and sale, all sales to be made after public advertisement for the space of ten days in some newspaper published in the city if the property to be sold be personalty, and of twenty (20) days if the property be realty, or by posting a notice in four public places within the city. And the said Collector shall have the right to levy upon and sell any personal property situated outside of the limits of the city, within the county of Wake, belonging to a delinquent taxpayer of the city, in order to enforce the payment of taxes due the city by said delinquent. Levy on property outside of city.

Sec. 90. That the tax due on any lot or other subdivision of land is hereby declared to be a lien on the same, and if it shall remain unpaid on the first day of December next after the assessment the Tax Collector shall either proceed to collect the same by levy and sale of personal property belonging to the owner of said lot or shall report the fact to the Aldermen, together with a description of the real estate, and thereupon the Aldermen shall direct the same to be sold at the court-house door in the city of Raleigh by the Collector. The Collector shall, before selling the same, make a full advertisement of the said real estate at the court-house door and at three or more public places in said city for twenty days, and shall also serve upon the owners thereof a written or printed notice of the taxes due and the day of sale; but such notice need not be given to any person having or claiming any lien on said land by way of mortgage or otherwise. Whenever the owners are not in the city, or for any cause cannot be served with notice, then the advertisement of real estate belonging to such owners shall be made for one week in some newspaper published in the city of Raleigh, and the Collector shall divide the said land into as many parts as may be convenient (for which purpose he is authorized to employ a surveyor), and he shall sell as many thereof as may be required to pay said taxes and all expenses attendant thereon. If the same cannot be conveniently divided, the Collector shall sell the whole; and if no person shall pay the whole of the taxes and expenses for the whole land the same shall be struck off to the city, and if not redeemed as hereinafter provided shall belong to the city in fee, and the owner or occupant may be dispossessed and evicted from said premises by the city or its assignee at any time by an action of ejectment. No sale of real estate in said city for the non-payment of taxes assessed against such real estate as appearing on tax-list aforesaid shall be invalid on account of the same having been assessed as belonging to any other than the owner, or as property of an unknown owner, or on account of any informality or irregularity whatever in any of the proceedings for its assessment or sale, unless the person impeaching such sale shall show that the taxes so appearing as assessed on such property, and all the penalties and costs accruing on such assessment and the proceeding for the sale, were paid at the time of the same. That the Collector shall return an account of his proceedings to the Aldermen, specifying the portions into which the land was divided and the purchaser or purchasers thereof and the price of each, which shall be entered on the book of proceedings of the Aldermen; if there shall be a surplus after paying said taxes, the same shall be paid into the city treasury subject to the demands of the owner.

Power of redemption.

Sec. 91. That the owner of any land sold under the provision of this charter, his heirs, executors and administrators, or any person acting for them, may redeem the same within one year after the sale by paying to the purchaser the sum by him paid and twenty-five per cent. on the amount of taxes and expenses, and the Treasurer shall refund to him, without interest, the proceeds, less double the amount of taxes.

Deed if property not redeemed.

Sec. 92. That if the real estate sold as aforesaid shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the corporation shall convey the same in fee to the purchaser or his assigns by deed executed under the hand of the Mayor and two Aldermen, attested by the corporate seal; and the recital in such conveyance, or in any other conveyance of land sold for taxes due the city, that the taxes were due, or of any other matter required to be true or done before the sale might be made, shall be prima facie evidence that the same was true and done.

Recitals of deed prima facie evidence.

Real estate of persons under disability.

Sec. 93. That the real estate of infants or persons non compos mentis shall not be sold for tax; and when the same shall be owned by such, in common with other persons free of such disability, the sale shall be made according to the provisions of the general law relating thereto.

Aldermen may remit penalties.

Sec. 94. The Board of Aldermen may authorize and direct the Tax Collector to remit any part, or all, of the penalty imposed upon taxpayers for failure to pay their taxes within the time prescribed, whenever the Board of Aldermen shall deem such remission equitable and proper.

Taxes collected by city clerk.

Sec. 95. That, in addition to the subjects listed for taxation, the Aldermen may levy a tax on the following subjects, the amount of which tax, when fixed, shall be collected by the City Clerk instantly, and if the same be not paid on demand the same may be recovered by suit, or the articles upon which the tax is imposed, or any other property of the owner, may be forthwith distrained and sold to satisfy the same, namely:

Tax on: Itinerant merchants and peddlers. Exceptions.

(1) Upon all itinerant merchants or peddlers offering to vend in the city, a license tax not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars a year, except such only as sell books, charts, maps, or wares of their own manufacture, but not excepting venders of medicine by whomsoever manufactured, and not more than one person shall peddle under a single license: Provided, that such itinerant merchants or peddlers shall comply with such rules and regulations as the Board of Aldermen may make in respect to the time, places and manner of vending under such licenses.

Proviso: peddlers to comply with regulations.

Pool and billiard room, bowling alleys, etc.

(2) Upon every pool and billiard room, bowling alley or alley of like kind, bowling saloon, bagatelle table, billiard or pool table, or table, stand, or place for any other game or play, wheels of fortune or other games of chance, with or without a name, kept for hire, or kept in a house where liquor is sold, or a house used or connected with such a house, or used or connected with a hotel or restaurant, or contiguous or adjacent thereto, a license tax not exceeding one hundred dollars for each table or alley or other subject therein mentioned.

License to sell liquors.

(3) Upon every permission by the Board of Aldermen to retail spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, a tax of twelve hundred dollars; and for every permission to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in quantities of one quart and less than five gallons a license tax of four hundred dollars, and in quantities of five gallons or more a license tax of four hundred dollars: Provided, that they may issue a single license for the sale of beer only and charge therefor not exceeding three hundred dollars a year.

Proviso: beer license.

Circus riders or performers.

(4) Upon every company of circus riders or performers, by whatever name called, who shall exhibit within the city or within one mile thereof, a license tax not exceeding one hundred dollars for each performance or separate exhibition, and upon every side show connected therewith a license tax not exceeding ten dollars, the tax to be paid before exhibition, and if not, to be doubled.

Side shows.

Stage or theatrical plays and exhibitions of like character.

(5) Upon every person or company exhibiting in the city or within one mile thereof any stage or theatrical plays, sleight-of-hand performances, rope-dancing, tumbling, wire-dancing or menageries, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars for every three hours allowed for exhibiting, the tax to be paid before exhibiting or the same shall be doubled.

Exhibition of artificial curiosities.

(6) Upon every exhibition for reward of artificial coriosities (models of useful inventions excepted) in the city or within one mile thereof, a tax not to exceed twenty dollars, to be paid before exhibition or the same shall be doubled.

Exhibitions and concerts. Strolling musicians.

(7) Upon each show or exhibition of any kind, and on each concert for reward, in the city or within one mile thereof, and on every strolling musician, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars, to be paid before exhibition or the same shall be doubled.

Animals going at large.

(8) Upon every cow, goat or hog running at large in the city there may be levied a tax not exceeding three dollars, and upon every horse, mule or bull going at large a tax not exceeding ten dollars; and every such animal may be seized and impounded in an inclosure which shall be established and kept by the city therefor, and if the owner, on being notified, will not pay the tax, the animal shall be sold therefor at the pound after three days' notice at the court-house.

Dogs.

(9) Upon every dog which may be kept or brought into the city after the first day of June to be kept therein, a tax not exceeding two dollars for the permission to keep such dog in the city, which permission shall not extend further than the last day of May next ensuing.

Auctioneers.

(10) Upon every auctioneer or crier of goods at public auction, subject to the limitations provided in chapter six of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, a license tax not exceeding one hundred dollars a year.

Stock and bond brokers, etc.

(11) Upon every stock and bond broker, junk-dealer and pawnbroker, sewing-machine or bicycle company or agent for such company, dealer in or manufacturer's agent of musical instruments, keeper of sales stables or stock-yards doing business in the city, a license tax not exceeding two hundred dollars a year.

Lawyers, physicians, etc.

(12) Upon every lawyer, physician, dentist, cotton broker, billposter, street huckster, photographer, merchandise or produce broker, ice-dealer, dealer in wood and coal or either, insurance company or insurance agency for every company represented, and every skating rink or shooting gallery, a license tax not exceeding fifty dollars a year.

Surface privies.

(13) Upon every surface privy, as provided in this charter, a license tax not exceeding one dollar a year for each of said licenses, same to be collected by the Sanitary Inspector.

Other occupation, profession or business.

(14) Upon every other occupation, profession or business, not herein specially named, a license tax not exceeding one thousand dollars a year.

Auctioneers to give bond.

Sec. 96. That every auctioneer licensed by the Board of Aldermen shall give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with approved security, and shall be entitled to charge two and a half per centum commission on the amount of his sales, unless otherwise agreed between him and the owner of the goods sold; and every person who cries or sells goods at auction shall be considered an auctioneer.

Commission.

County commissioners not to grant liquor license without permission of city.

Sec. 97. That it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners of Wake County to grant any license to sell spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within the limits of the city, or within Raleigh Township, without permission in writing, attested by the clerk of the Board of Aldermen, and exhibited to the County Commissioners and filed with the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners; the same shall be utterly void and the person obtaining such license shall be liable to indictment as in other cases of selling without license, and for every offense of selling shall moreover forfeit and pay to the city the sum of one hundred dollars.

Condemnation of land.

Sec. 98. That when any land or right-of-way shall be required by said city of Raleigh for the purpose of opening new streets or for other objects allowed by this charter, and for want of agreement as to the value thereof the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by three freeholders of the city, to be chosen by the Aldermen, who shall receive a per diem of one dollar each; and in making said valuation said freeholders, after being duly sworn by the Mayor, or a justice of the peace of the county, or a clerk of a court of record, shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner or owners in consequence of the land or right-of-way being surrendered, also any special benefit or advantage such owner may receive from the opening of such street or other improvement, and shall state the value and amount of each, and the excess of loss or damage over and above the advantages shall form the measure of the valuation of said land or right-of-way: Provided, nevertheless, that if any person over whose land the said street may pass, or improvement be erected, or the Aldermen, shall be dissatisfied with the valuation thus made, then in that case either party may have an appeal to the next Superior Court of Wake County to be held thereafter; and the said freeholders shall return to the Court to which the appeal is taken their valuation, with the proceedings thereon; and the land so valued by the freeholders shall vest in the city so long as it may be used for the purposes of the same as soon as the valuation may be paid or lodged in the hands of the Clerk of the Superior Court (in case of its refusal by the owner of the land): Provided further, that in case of the discontinuance of the use of the land and its reversion to the owner, the city may remove any improvement erected under its authority and expense within sixty days of such reversion.

Procedure for condemnation.

Appeal.

Proviso: removal of improvement on reversion.

Sec. 99. That no basement, cellar, area, passage, entrance or other opening shall be excavated, made, built or permitted to remain under any sidewalks; nor shall any veranda, piazza, platform, entrance, stairway, passage, building or other projection or construction whatsoever be permitted to occupy any space on or over any sidewalk in the city whereby the free passage of persons may be hindered, obstructed, delayed or in anywise endangered, unless permission be granted by the Board of Aldermen by resolution or ordinance.

Obstruction of streets.

Sec. 100. That all the books, records, documents and papers of every name and nature belonging to the city government, or to the officers thereof in the performance of their official duties, shall be open to the inspection of any citizen and tax-payer of the city at all times during ordinary business hours.

Books, records and documents open to inspection.

Sec. 101. That on the first Monday of March in each year all of the officers of the city shall make out and file with the City Clerk a fair transcript of all receipts and disbursements in the departments over which they preside; all the officers of the city having any of the property of the city in their charge shall report an inventory of the same, and each committee of the Board of Aldermen shall submit annual reports, all of which the Board of Aldermen shall cause to be printed in book form for the general information of the citizens.

For his services in the execution of process issued by the Police Justice and executed by him or members of the police force under the provisions of this act he shall be entitled to such fees and allowances as sheriffs and constables are entitled to receive for the performance of like duty, to be taxed on the papers as part of the costs in each case and paid by the State, county or person usually charged with costs in like cases in courts of justices of the peace or in the Superior Court, as the case may be, and in no event by the city, and shall be paid when collected into the city treasury. Chief of police. Salary. Fees. Fees to use of city.

(4) To the City Clerk, for his services to the city as such clerk, per month, payable monthly by the city, one hundred dollars. City clerk.

(5) To the Treasurer, for his services as such under the provisions of this act, a salary of three hundred dollars per annum, payable in equal monthly instalments. Treasurer.

(6) To any other officer prescribed or authorized by any of the provisions of this act, such salary as to the Board of Aldermen may seem just and proper, not exceeding that prescribed for like or similar service in this section. Other officers.

Sec. 108. That from and after the passage and ratification of this act the same shall be and remain the charter of the city of Raleigh; and all laws or parts of laws heretofore enacted in relation thereto, and not heretofore repealed, which are inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 8th day of March, A. D., 1907.

CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE WINSTON-SALEM SOUTHBOUND RAILWAY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That section ten of the Private Acts of one thousand nine hundred and five, chapter thirty-four, page ninety-six, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 10. Whenever from any cause the said railroad company cannot agree with the owners of the land over which the railroads shall go, for the purchase of the land for the right-of-way, yards, shops, depots or other railway purposes, the said company may proceed to condemn and enter same in the manner set forth in chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred Proceedings for condemnation of land.

and five, and amendments thereto; or may file a petition before the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the land lies, specifying the objects for which the land is desired, with a description and plot thereof, as provided for in Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five. The Clerk of the Superior Court shall thereupon issue a summons or notice to the owner, with copy of petition and plot, returnable to a day certain after ten days' notice, and after a hearing shall, if sufficient cause is not shown against granting the prayer of the petition, make an order appointing three disinterested and competent freeholders of said county, who shall be summoned by the sheriff to meet on the premises at a time not more than ten days after the appointment, and after being duly sworn, assess the damage of the land or right-of-way taken. In assessing the damages the jurors or appraisers shall take into consideration the actual value of the land, together with any special damages likely to accrue to the owner, and likewise shall consider any special benefits thereto; but general benefits pertaining to the public shall not be considered in reduction of damages. The appraisers shall make their report to the Clerk of the Superior Court within ten days from the time of their meeting on the premises; said report shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds, after approval by the clerk, and payment of damages assessed, and shall have the force and effect of a deed. Either party may appeal to the Superior Court in term-time from the approval or disapproval of the clerk, which appeal must be prayed within ten days of the approval or disapproval of the clerk."

Sec. 2. That section eleven of said act be amended to read as follows:

Limitation on power of condemnation.

"Sec. 11. The right of said company to condemn and take land under this act shall be limited to the space of not less than fifty feet on each side of their road-bed, measuring from the center of the same, except where cuts and fills require more, and then as much as may be required for a double track at grades; but for yards, shops and depots they may condemn as much land as may be necessary for such purposes and to properly care for the business expected to be handled by the company; and in all cases where lands or right-of-way have been condemned, and where the owner shall petition for assessment of damages within two years from condemnation and occupation, and not after, except in case of legal disabilities, and in such case within two years from the removal of such disabilities."

Mortgages.

Sec. 3. That section fifteen of said act be amended by striking out the word "coupon," in line three, and in line eight by inserting, after the word "mortgage," the words "or mortgages."

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

under this act for the purposes aforesaid shall be used for no other purposes. It shall be the duty of the treasurer, as the said coupons are paid off and taken up by him, to cancel the same and report to the board of aldermen the number and the amount of the coupons so canceled. Coupons to be canceled.

Sec. 4. That the said bonds may be sold at public or private sale, with or without notice, as the board of aldermen of said town may determine, and the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be turned over to the treasurer of the said corporation of the town of Shelby, who shall give such bonds for the safe-keeping and disbursement of the said funds as shall be required of him by the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Shelby, and his compensation, both for receiving and paying out the said fund, shall be such as shall be fixed and determined by the said board of aldermen. The proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be used for the purposes for which said bonds are to be issued as hereinafter recited, and shall be used for no other purpose: Provided, that the purchaser of said bonds shall not be required to see to the application of the purchase-money. Sale of bonds. Proceeds turned over to treasurer. Bond of treasurer. Compensation. Application of proceeds. Proviso.

Sec. 5. That the aforesaid bonds shall be issued for the purpose of building and constructing, maintaining and operating a system of water-works to furnish water for the use of the town and its citizens, and for building and constructing, maintaining and operating a system of sewerage for the use of the said town and its citizens; and the board of aldermen, in addition to the powers already conferred upon it by the charter of said town, in respect to the construction and maintenance of such system of water-works and sewerage, shall have the right and is empowered to regulate the distribution and use of water for all places and for all purposes, wherever the same may be required, and from time to time to fix a price for the use thereof, and the time of payment, and shall have full power and authority to require the payment in advance for the use or rent of the water furnished in or upon any building, place or premises, and in case prompt payment shall not be made, it may shut off water from such building, place or premises, after five (5) days' notice, and shall not be compelled again to supply said premises, building or place with water until the arrears, with interest thereon, shall be fully paid; and said board shall have power to make rules and regulations with respect to the introduction of water, or sewerage, into or upon any premises, and from time to time to regulate the use thereof in such manner as may seem to it necessary and proper. Purpose of bonds. Water-works. Sewerage. Additional powers to aldermen. Water rents.

shall be given by public advertisement for thirty (30) days prior to the day of election, in some newspaper published in the town of Shelby. At such election, those electors favoring the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of said tax for the payment of the interest or coupons on said bonds, and for the payment of said bonds, shall vote a ballot with the words "For Water-works Bonds" written or printed thereon, and those electors opposing the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of said tax shall vote a ballot with the words "Against Water-works Bonds" written or printed thereon. The said election shall be held as near as practicable in the manner prescribed for the election of mayor and aldermen of the said town of Shelby, as provided by the charter of the said town of Shelby. The original returns of the result of the election shall be made by the election officers, or one of their number appointed by them for that purpose, to the board of aldermen of said town, and said board of aldermen shall, within three (3) days after the said election, canvass the said returns and declare the result of the election, and the result of said election shall be inscribed upon the records of the said town. If at the election aforesaid a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall not vote in favor of issuing said bonds, then the board of aldermen of said town may at any time, and as often thereafter as it deems best—not oftener, however, than once in any one year—order another election on said question, to be held as near as practicable under the rules and regulations prescribed in the charter of said town for the election of mayor and aldermen of said town, and after thirty (30) days' public notice thereof, and at each of said elections the ballots shall be as hereinbefore directed; and if at any such elections a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall cast ballots in favor of the issuing of said bonds as aforesaid, then the said bonds shall be issued as may be required under the terms of this act, and the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the purposes and upon the terms and conditions hereinbefore stated in this act.

How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 3. That the said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the Town of Shelby, and attested by the treasurer of said town, and shall bear the corporate seal of said town of Shelby, and the coupons on said bonds shall bear the engraved or lithographed signature of the said treasurer.

Special tax for interest.

Special tax for payment.

Sec. 4. That in order to pay the interest on said bonds as the same becomes due, or the coupons on said bonds as they become due, the board of aldermen is required and directed to levy and collect, in addition to all other taxes in said town, a tax sufficient to pay said interest or coupons, and also, on or before the time when the principal of said bonds becomes due, to levy and collect a further special tax to pay for same, or to provide for the payment thereof. That the tax so levied upon the property shall be an ad valorem tax, and the taxes upon the polls and the property to be in the proportion required by the Constitution of North Carolina. Said special tax shall be levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes upon the property and polls of the town, and turned over to the treasurer of said town: Provided, that the taxes collected under this act for the purposes aforesaid shall be kept separate and apart from the other taxes, and shall be used for no other purposes. It shall be the duty of the treasurer, as the said coupons are paid off and taken up by him, to cancel the same and report to the board of aldermen the number and the amount of the coupons so canceled.

Proviso: taxes kept separate.

Coupons to be canceled.

Sec. 5. That the said bonds may be sold at public or private sale, with or without notice, as the board of aldermen of said town may determine, and the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be turned over to the treasurer of the corporation known as the "School Committee of the Town of Shelby," the Treasurer of the Town of Shelby being the ex officio treasurer of the "School Committee of the Town of Shelby," who shall give such bonds for the safe-keeping and disbursement of the said fund as shall be required of him by the said "School Committee of the Town of Shelby," and his compensation, both for receiving and paying out said fund, shall be such as shall be fixed and determined by the said "School Committee of the Town of Shelby." How bonds to be sold. Proceeds to school committee. Bond of treasurer. Compensation.

Sec. 6. That the aforesaid bonds shall be issued for the purposes set forth in this act, and the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for paying for the erection and construction of the new graded school building on West Marion Street in the town of Shelby, and the equipment and furnishing of same, and for no other purpose, and said fund shall be expended under the supervision and direction of the "School Committee of the Town of Shelby," and upon vouchers of said committee, as provided in chapter four hundred and three (403), Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (1891): Provided, that if any surplus remains in the hands of the said Treasurer, from the sale of said bonds, after paying for said school building, furnishings and equipment, then such surplus may be used for school purposes, as may be ordered and directed by the "School Committee of the Town of Shelby": Provided further, that the purchaser of said bonds shall not be required to see to the application of the purchase-money. Application of proceeds. Fund expended by school committee. Proviso: surplus for school purposes. Proviso.

Sec. 7. That the said board of aldermen shall not issue the aforesaid bonds, nor any of them, nor levy, nor collect the aforesaid tax, until it shall have been authorized and empowered to do so by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters of the said town of Shelby at an election to be held at such time and place as the said board of aldermen shall appoint, of which election a notice shall be given by public advertisement for thirty (30) days prior to the day of election, in some newspaper published in the town of Shelby. At such election, those electors favoring the issue of said bonds, and the levy and collection of said tax, for the payment of the interest, or coupons on said bonds, and for the payment of said bonds, shall vote a ballot with the words "For School Bonds," written or printed thereon, and those electors opposing the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of said tax, shall vote a ballot with the words "Against School Bonds," written or printed thereon. CHAPTER 12.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE SOUTH AND WESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY.

Preamble. Corporation under general law.

Whereas, George L. Carter and others did, on the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five, in accordance with the statutes of the State of North Carolina in such case made and provided, make, sign, file, and cause to be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina articles of association constituting them, and all persons who should afterwards become stockholders of such company, a corporation by the name of "South and Western Railroad Company"; and Existing lines purchased.

whereas, the corporation so formed has heretofore acquired by purchase and conveyances to it a certain partially constructed line of railroad extending from Spruce Pine, Mitchell County, North Carolina, to a point five miles south of Marion, McDowell County, North Carolina, and a certain completed line of railroad extending from Spruce Pine, Mitchell County, North Carolina, to a point in Yancey County, North Carolina, on the line between the States of North Carolina and Tennessee, near where the Nolachucky or Toe River crosses said line; and whereas, the said South and Amendments desired.

Western Railroad Company desires to obtain amendments to its charter to enable it to have perpetual succession, to change its route and termini, to acquire, by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, lands which may be needed for the new location of highways and streams, the course of which may be changed by the construction or relocation of the lines of railroad, to consolidate with any other existing, proposed or future railroad corporation in or out of this State, the existing, proposed or future lines of which connect, or shall when completed connect, with the existing, proposed or future lines of the South and Western Railroad Company by direct connection or by bridge, ferry or otherwise, or over any other line or lines constructed or to be constructed; to purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire, maintain and operate any railroad property or franchises in or out of this State; to sell, lease, mortgage, and otherwise encumber or dispose of all or any part of its property and franchises in or out of this State; to authorize and empower any railroad corporation organized under the laws of this or any other State or States, or of this State and another or other States, or of the United States, to purchase or take a lease of all or any part of its properties and franchises, and by virtue of such purchase or lease to become a corporation of this State as to all properties so purchased or leased, and to confirm and ratify the purchases and acquisitions of properties heretofore made, and, in the judgment of the Legislature, the object of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That George L. Carter, J. Crawford Biggs, J. Norment Powell, M. J. Caples, A. J. Edwards and J. M. Fergnson, and all persons who may be now or shall hereafter become stockholders of South and Western Railroad Company, and their successors, shall be and continue to be a body politic and corporate under the name of "South and Western Railroad Company." The said South and Western Railroad Company, by and in that name, shall have power to have perpetual succession and a common seal, which it may alter, renew or amend at its pleasure; to sue and be sued in any court of law or equity; to contract and be contracted with; to purchase, lease and otherwise acquire, hold and enjoy such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require; to mortgage, pledge, lease, convey by way of deed of trust, and otherwise encumber, sell and convey all or any part of its real or personal estate, together with the franchises of such corporation in whole or in part; to borrow money, to make and issue its bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, payable to bearer, or otherwise, and with or without interest coupons attached, for any debts or obligations incurred by it or for any purposes of the corporation, and to secure the same by mortgages or deeds of trust on all or any part of its works, property or franchises; to appoint such officers and agents as the business of the company shall in its opinion require, and to fix their compensation; to make ordinances, by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States or of this State, fixing and altering the number of its directors, the division of same, if desired, into classes, their authority and powers, and the duration of the terms of its officers and directors, for the certification and transfer of its stock, for the calling and holding of meetings of its members; and generally for the government of all under its authority, for the management of its estates, and the due and orderly regulation and conduct of its affairs; to purchase, hold, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, guarantee and become surety in respect to shares of the capital stock of, and bonds, securities or evidence of indebtedness created by, any other corporation or corporations of this or any other State, and while owner of any such stock, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon; to wind up and dissolve itself, or to be wound up and dissolved, in the manner provided by law; to exercise all other powers granted to railroad corporations by the general laws of the State of North Carolina, and all powers conferred upon corporations by existing laws of the State of North Carolina, so far as not in conflict with this act, and by all acts hereafter passed amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto.

Sec. 7. The capital stock of said corporation shall not at any time be reduced to an amount less than six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000), par value, to be divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) each, and the capital stock of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) now authorized may be increased from time to time in the manner provided by law for increasing the capital stock of railroad companies, as the demands of the said company shall require.

Increase of capital stock.

May sell or lease property and franchise.

Sec. 8. Said company shall have power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its properties and franchises in or out of this State to any other railroad corporation, organized under the laws of this State or another State or States, or of this State and another or other States, or under the laws of the United States, and any railroad corporation organized under the laws of this State or another State or States, or of this State and another or other States, or under the laws of the United States, is hereby authorized and empowered to purchase or take a lease of, or otherwise to acquire, all or any part of the properties and franchises of said company: Provided, that any corporation so purchasing, acquiring or taking a lease, which is not incorporated under the laws of this State, shall, by virtue of such purchase, acquisition or lease, become vested with all the powers and subject to all the obligations of said company, as to the property and franchises so purchased, acquired or leased, including the power of eminent domain only as to lands needed to enable such purchaser to fully construct any portion of its road described in section two of this act, not constructed or completed at the date of such purchase, acquisition or lease: Provided, however, that any corporation, which is not a corporation of this State, so purchasing, acquiring or taking a lease, shall, by virtue of such purchase or lease, become a corporation of this State as to all properties and franchises so purchased or leased, and shall be subject to the laws and to the jurisdiction of the courts of North Carolina as fully as if incorporated under the laws of this State as to all causes of action and legal proceedings affecting and growing out of the properties and franchises so purchased, acquired or leased, and all other properties held or acquired by virtue of the powers herein conferred, and the operation and management of such properties.

Proviso: powers of purchasing company.

Proviso: purchasing company to become State corporation.

May purchase or lease other roads.

Sec. 9. Said company shall have power to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, maintain and operate all or any part of the railroad works and property, in or out of this State, together with the franchises, rights and privileges, in whole or in part, of any railroad corporation organized under the laws of this State or another State or States, or this State and another or other States, or under the laws of the United States, and may extend any line of railroad, or any branch thereof that may at any time be owned or operated by it, into or through any other State, or into or through any reservation or other property owned by the United States, with the assent of such State or of the United States, as the case may be; and such extension may pass out of this State into any other State, or into any such reservation or property and back again into this State as often as may be necessary.

Merger or consolidation.

Sec. 10. Said company shall have the power to merge with or consolidate into a single corporation with any other corporations formed or to be formed, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining or operating a railroad under the laws of this or any other State or States, or this State and another or other States, or of the United States, the existing or proposed or future line of road of which corporation or corporations connects, or shall, when completed, connect with the existing or proposed or future lines of the South and Western Railroad Company by direct connection, or by bridge, ferry or otherwise, or over any other line or lines constructed or to be constructed, and which said consolidated corporation shall thereby become a domestic corporation of this State and be subject to its laws and to the jurisdiction of its courts, and may be either one of said merged or consolidated corporations, or a new corporation to be formed by means of such merger or consolidation, so that by virtue of the authority hereby given and the proceedings had pursuant thereto, such corporations shall be consolidated or merged, so that all property, rights, franchises and privileges by law vested in all corporations so merging or consolidating shall be transferred to and vested in the corporation into which such consolidation or merger shall be made or resulting therefrom. Such consolidation or merger shall be made in the following manner and under the conditions, provisions, restrictions and with the powers following, that is to say:

Consolidated corporation to become domesticated.

Method of consolidation or merger.

Agreement by directors.

(a) The board of directors of the several corporations proposing to merge or consolidate may enter into a joint agreement under the corporate seals of their respective corporations for the merger or consolidation of such corporations, prescribing the terms and conditions thereof, the mode of carrying the same into effect, the name of the new corporation (if it be proposed to form a new one), or of the consolidated corporation, or the corporation into which said corporations are merged, as the case may be; the number, names, and places of residence of the directors and principal officers of such new or consolidated corporation (who shall hold their offices until their successors be chosen or appointed, either according to law or according to the by-laws of the said corporation); the number of shares of the capital stock, with the par value of each share, of such new or consolidated corporation, and if the capital stock is to be divided into classes, the classes thereof, with the terms on which issued; the manner of converting the capital stock of each of said merging or consolidating corporations into the stock or obligations of such new or consolidated corporation, and in the case of the creation of a new corporation, how and when the directors and principal officers to succeed those named in the agreement shall be chosen or appointed; together with all such other provisions and details as to the boards of directors entering into said agreement shall seem necessary or convenient to perfect the merger or consolidation of said corporations.

Agreement submitted to stockholders.

(b) The agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of each of said merging or consolidating corporations separately, at a meeting thereof to be called for the purpose of taking the same into consideration, of the time, place and general object of which meeting due notice shall be given by publication at least six times a week, for two successive weeks, in a newspaper published in or near the place where the principal office of this State of the corporation is located, or in the city of Raleigh, and if any of said corporations have no office in this State, as to such corporation in the city of Raleigh, and by mailing a copy of such notice at least ten days prior to such meeting to the last known post-office address of each of the stockholders of record; and at said meeting the said agreement shall be considered, and a vote by ballot, in person or by proxy, shall be taken for the adoption or rejection of the same, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote; and if a majority of all the votes cast at each of such meetings shall be in favor of approving said agreement of consolidation or merger, then the fact shall be certified by the president, or one of the vice-presidents of the corporation, under the corporate seal, attested by the secretary, and said certificates, duly acknowledged by the president or vice-president signing the same, and by the secretary of the several corporations, before an officer authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgments of deeds, together with a copy of the agreement, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, and when such certificate shall be filed for recordation in the said office, the said merger or consolidation shall be complete, and the merged or consolidated corporation may proceed to carry out the details of said merger and consolidation according to the terms of the agreement, and to transact and carry on the business for which it was formed.

Notice of meeting.

Vote by ballot.

Certificate of approval.

Effect of merger or consolidation.

(c) Upon the perfecting, as aforesaid, of the said merger or consolidation, the several corporations parties thereto shall be deemed and taken as one corporation, upon the terms and conditions and subject to the restrictions set forth in said agreement, and all and singular the rights, privileges and franchises of each of said corporations, parties to the same, and all property, real and personal, and all debts due on whatever account, as well of stock subscriptions as other things in actions, belonging to each of such corporations, shall be taken and deemed as transferred to and invested in such new or consolidated corporation without further act or deed, and all property, all rights-of-way, and all and every other interest shall be as effectually the property of the new consolidated corporation as they were of the former corporation parties to the said agreement; and the title to real estate, either by deed or otherwise, under the laws of this State vested in either corporation, shall not be deemed to revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this act: Provided, however, that the rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of either of said corporations shall be preserved unimpaired; and the respective corporations shall be deemed to continue in existence to preserve the same; and all debts, liabilities, and duties of either of said companies shall henceforth attach to said new or consolidated corporation and be enforced against it to the same extent as if the said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

Proviso: rights of creditors and liens unimpaired.

Principal office.

(d) Such new or consolidated corporation shall, as soon as convenient after such merger or consolidation, establish a principal office in this State, giving public notice thereof in some newspaper published in the city of Raleigh, and filing a memorandum thereof in the office of the Secretary of State.

Suits against consolidated corporation.

(e) Suits may be brought and maintained against such new or consolidated corporation in any of the courts of this State in the same manner as against any other corporation formed under this act. Any action or proceeding pending by or against either of the corporations consolidated may be prosecuted to judgment as if such consolidation had not taken place, or the new or consolidated corporation may be substituted in its place.

Pending actions.

Additional powers under merger.

(f) In all cases of merger or consolidation of two or more corporations under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, the said new consolidated corporation shall, in addition to the rights, privileges and franchises referred to in clause (c) of this section, have all the powers and be subject to all the restrictions imposed upon corporations of the same class formed under the laws of this State, except so far as is inconsistent with this act; and said new or consolidated corporation shall be empowered to do and perform any and all things necessary to carry out and perform the agreement of merger or consolidation in the way of issuing bonds, other evidences of debt, and securing the payment thereof by mortgage or deed of trust on all its works, property and franchises, or any part thereof, of issuing stock, or otherwise. Such new or consolidated corporation shall thereafter have the power to issue bonds, enter into obligations, secure such bonds or obligations by mortgage or deed of trust, or otherwise, increase and issue stock, and to again consolidate or merge with another corporation in the same manner and to the same extent as the first corporation recognized by this act shall or may have power to do.

Connection with other roads.

Sec. 11. Said company shall have power to cross, intersect, join and unite its railroad with any other railroad at any point on its route and upon the grounds of such other company, with necessary turn-outs, sidings, switches and other conveniences in furtherance of the object of its connections, and run parallel with any other railroad upon the grounds of such other company: Provided, such grounds be not necessary for the exercise of the franchise and the discharge of the duties of such other company; and said company may lay down and use tracks through any town or city along its proposed line with the consent of the corporate authorities for said towns and cities.

Proviso: limit to use of grounds.

Tracks through towns and cities.

Power to condemn lands.

Sec. 12. Said company shall have the power to acquire by purchase or, in the event of failure or inability to agree with the owner thereof upon the terms of purchase, by condemnation, such lands as it may deem necessary for its purposes and for the establishment and maintenance of terminals, roundhouses, machine and repair shops, viaducts and other structures in the cities, towns and counties along its proposed routes and for changes of any highways or streams which, in the judgment of its board of directors, it may be necessary to change in the construction of its proposed line of road, subject to the provisions of subsection five of section two thousand five hundred and sixty-seven of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five.

Special powers not to limit general powers.

Sec. 13. Nothing in this act, giving particular and designated powers, rights and privileges to this company, shall or be construed to limit or abridge the powers, rights and privileges of this company given generally in section one of this act, or by the general laws of this State, or by the charter of the corporation amended by this act.

Competing or parallel roads.

Sec. 14. Nothing in this act shall empower or shall be construed to empower the South and Western Railroad Company or any successor corporation to purchase, or to take a lease of, or to sell, or to lease its property to, or to consolidate with, or merge into, any railroad corporation whose existing line may be parallel to or competing with any line or lines of the said South and Western Railroad Company, or any successor corporation.

Sec. 15. This act shall be in force from its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 26th day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 13.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF IRVIN NALL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

town, may take bond for appearance of such person before the mayor on the next day, and in default of bond may commit such person to the lockup or common jail of the county, and the sheriff or the jailer of Davidson County are hereby required, without mittimus, to receive and keep in jail of the said county, as his prisoner, any person arrested in the night by any member of the police of the town, and to keep such persons safely until next morning when the persons shall be brought before the mayor to be dealt with according to law, or in case the mayor is not in town, then such person to be taken before some justice of the peace residing in the town to be dealt with according to law.

Duties of treasurer.

Record to be kept.

Sec. 12. That the town treasurer shall call on all persons who may have in their hands any money or securities belonging to the town, and collect and obtain the same, and shall safely keep all securities and funds of the town for the use of the town; to disburse the same only upon orders duly drawn upon him in the manner hereinafter provided. He shall keep a record of all moneys received and disbursed by him, showing from what source received and on what account paid out, and shall submit said record to the town commissioners whenever required by them to do so. When his term of office expires, he shall deliver to his successor all moneys, securities and other property of the town entrusted to his keeping, together with the record kept by him, and shall in all respects faithfully perform all the duties required of him.

Sec. 13. That all orders, except for payment of money for schools, drawn on the treasurer for payment of money shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the town clerk, and shall state the purpose for which the payment is applied: Provided, all claims against the town, except for schools, shall be audited by the town commissioners before any order shall issue for the payment of the same. That all orders for the payment of moneys on the account of schools shall be signed by the chairman of the school commissioners and countersigned by the secretary of the said school commissioners, which order shall issue only after the claim shall have been audited by the school commissioners. The school commissioners shall have, at any time they may designate, the right to examine the records kept by the town treasurer of the school funds.

Statements to be posted.

Sec. 14. That the town commissioners shall cause to be made out annually, a fair statement of all receipts and disbursements on account of the town for the inspection of any citizen of the town, and shall cause the same to be posted at the court-house door on the first Monday of May of each year.

Duties of chief of police and policemen.

Sec. 15. That it shall be the duty of the chief of police, and other members of the police force, to see that the laws, ordinances and all lawful orders of the mayor and town commissioners are enforced, and to report all breaches thereof to the mayor; to preserve the peace of the town by suppressing disturbances and arresting offenders, and for these purposes they shall have all the authority vested by law in sheriffs and township constables. They shall execute all precepts lawfully directed to them and, in the execution thereof, shall have the same powers which the sheriff and township constables have; they shall be entitled to receive the same fees on all processes and precepts executed by them which may be allowed to township constables in like cases, and also such further compensation which may be fixed by the town commissioners. In times of exigency the mayor may appoint temporary additional policemen for such time as may appear necessary, who shall take the same oath and be subject to the same control as the regular policemen. The mayor may, at any time upon charges preferred, or upon his finding that the chief of police, or any member of the police force, is guilty of misconduct, suspend such member from service until the town commissioners shall meet and take action in the matter, and said town commissioners, upon hearing proof upon the charges, may discharge such member, or may restore him and order that he be paid for the time during which he was suspended.

Notice of tax-listing.

Sec. 17. That the mayor, on or before the third Monday in May of each and every year, shall make advertisement in some newspaper published in said town, and by posting notices at five public places in said town, notifying all persons residing in the said town who are liable to pay poll-tax, or who own or control any property subject to taxation in the town on the first day of June, to make return to the town tax-lister during the month of June a list of their taxable property in said town; said list shall state the age of the person if liable to poll-tax, the real estate and other property owned or held by such person, now taxable, or that may be taxable by law at the time the same is listed, and the person making and returning such list shall make oath before the tax-lister as follows: "I, ..., do solemnly swear that the tax return, made out and signed by me, contains a full and accurate statement of all property owned or held by me subject to taxation in the town of Lexington, under the laws of the State, to the best of my knowledge and belief." The tax-lister shall make out from said returns, during the month of July, in a book kept for that purpose, an alphabetical list of the persons making returns in the same manner as is provided by law for making tax-lists for State and county taxes, and shall also make out a list of all persons liable for poll-tax, and also of all persons owning property in said town liable to taxation who have not listed same, with a description of such property and the valuation at which same is taxed for State and county purposes, and shall return to the town commissioners such tax-book and such list of persons and property not listed for taxation. The town commissioners shall have the same power to revise said tax returns as is given to the board of county commissioners to revise the tax-books of the county. Any person failing to make return of his poll or property, as herein provided, within the time limited, shall be liable for double tax thereon, and subject to the same penalty for such failure as is now prescribed by law of the State against persons failing to list their polls and taxable property.

Sec. 18. That as soon as the tax-lister shall have furnished the assessment roll as provided, and the same shall have been approved by the town commissioners, said town commissioners shall proceed to levy the taxes on the polls and property in said town subject to taxation, real estate, personal property, money on hand, solvent credits, and all other property subject to taxation under the laws of the State for public purposes, the taxes to be paid thereon for the ensuing year as follows, to-wit: For schools, not exceeding thirty cents on the hundred dollars valuation and not exceeding ninety cents on each poll; for payment of interest on bonds of the town issued under the provisions of chapter three hundred and four (304), Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and three (1903), and the amendment thereto, chapter one hundred and thirty-eight (138), Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five (1905), a sufficient amount to pay the interest thereon as the same accrues, and to provide for the payment of said bonds at maturity; for all other purposes, not exceeding the sum of fifty cents on the hundred dollars of valuation of property, and not exceeding the sum of one dollar and fifty cents on each poll: Provided, that in no one year shall the total tax levy exceed the sum of one dollar and thirty cents on the hundred dollar valuation of property, nor the sum of three dollars and ninety cents on each poll. That as soon as the town commissioners shall have levied the taxes and the books are completed and endorsed by the mayor, the same shall be placed in the hands of the tax collector, for collection, who shall proceed to collect the same and complete the collection thereof by the first Monday of November next ensuing, and shall pay the money collected to the town treasurer as often as he may have as much as five hundred dollars in hand, and shall pay to the said treasurer on or before the second Monday in November the entire amount collected. The collector may be paid such per centum of the amount collected as the town commissioners may allow: Provided, the town commissioners may extend the time for the collection of the said taxes and settlement therefor, and after the first Monday of November the town commissioners may, in their discretion, place a penalty for failure to pay the taxes on all delinquents of one per centum per month of the amount of taxes due and unpaid, and an additional one per centum on the first day of each month thereafter, which shall be added to the taxes until the taxes are paid and collected as other taxes are.

such real estate, and the tax collector shall so report to the mayor, who shall direct that the same be sold for the non-payment of taxes, and said collector shall, after advertisement of such real estate for sale for thirty days in some newspaper published in the town, and at court-house door and at four other public places in the town, sell said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the said taxes and costs. The collector may divide said real estate into lots and sell any one or more of the lots as may be necessary. If the same cannot be divided, then the whole shall be sold. If at any sale there shall be no bidder who will pay all the taxes and costs charged against the real estate sold for the same, then such real estate shall be knocked off to the town, and if not redeemed as hereinafter provided, the tax collector shall execute deed therefor to the town and it shall be the property of said town in fee-simple. The tax collector shall report all sales of real estate to the mayor, showing what property was sold and who was the purchaser and the price paid, and the mayor shall keep a record of the same. In case there shall be a surplus left from any sale after payment of all taxes and costs, the said surplus shall be paid to the town treasurer to be paid out to the owner upon demand by him. The owner of any real estate sold for taxes may redeem the same within one year from date of sale by paying to the purchaser the amount paid by him, and the further sum of twenty-five per centum of the amount of the taxes and expenses less any surplus paid to the said owner by the town treasurer, as provided above. If the real estate sold shall not be redeemed within the time limited, then at any time within one year from the expiration of the time of redemption the tax collector shall, upon demand of the purchaser, or his assignee, make to said purchaser, or to his assignee, a deed in fee-simple for such real estate. Any recital in such deed that the taxes were due, that said land was advertised and sold for non-payment of taxes, and any and all other acts and things required to be done before sale, shall be prima facie evidence that the same are true and were done. The sale of real estate of infants and persons non compos mentis for non-payment of taxes shall be made only in the manner provided for sale of lands of such persons in the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five.

Special taxes.

Sec. 20. That the town commissioners may levy and collect special tax on the following occupations, trades and businesses; the amount of such taxes, when levied, shall be collected by the tax collector immediately, and, if not paid on demand, may be collected by levy on any property of the person liable, or by suit; said special taxes shall be as follows:

Peddlers.

1. Upon all itinerant merchants or peddlers, selling, or offering for sale, in the town any goods, wares, merchandise, or article of traffic not exceeding fifty dollars per year, however, excepting such as sell only books, charts, maps, or productions of the growth and manufacture of this State other than drugs and medicines.

Hotels. 2. On keepers of hotels, boarding houses, eating houses, restaurants, fish or meat stands, or markets, or bread stands, fruiterers, or barber shops, not exceeding fifty dollars per year; but such persons as take boarders only during terms of the Superior Court shall not be liable for said tax on hotels or boarding-house keepers.

Drays, etc. 3. On every dray, wagon, carriage, buggy or other vehicle used in the town for the conveyance of persons or goods, for hire, not exceeding ten dollars per year.

Express companies, etc. 4. On every express company, telegraph company, telephone company, itinerant dealer in lightning rods, stoves, or sewing machines, not exceeding twenty dollars per year.

Photographs and pictures, etc. 5. On persons soliciting orders for photographs or pictures, selling jewelry, or other articles having a prize given therewith, or any itinerant person taking or enlarging a likeness of the human face on order, or otherwise, or conducting a dancing school, not exceeding ten dollars per year.

Encroachments on streets. 6. On all encroachments on streets by porches or piazzas, allowed by the town commissioners, not exceeding one dollar per front foot per year.

Circus riders. 7. On every company of circus riders, or performers by whatever name called, who shall exhibit within the town or within one mile of the limits thereof, not exceeding fifty dollars for each performance or separate exhibition, and on each side show connected therewith, not exceeding ten dollars, to be paid before performing, and, if not so paid, the tax to be doubled.

Side shows.

Stage plays. 8. On every person or company exhibiting within the town or within one mile of the limits thereof, stage or theatrical plays, sleight-of-hand performances, rope-dancing, tumbling, wire-dancing, or menageries, not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every performance and exhibition of not more than twelve hours, if tax not paid before exhibiting, to be doubled.

Other shows. 9. On each show or exhibition of any kind not mentioned, or concert for reward, except for religious or charitable purposes, within the town, or within one mile of the limits thereof, not exceeding ten dollars for each performance.

Boot-blacks. 10. On all persons engaged in the business of boot-black on the streets, or public places of the town, not exceeding five dollars per year.

Bill-posters. 11. On persons engaged in the business of bill-posters within the town, not exceeding ten dollars per year.

Liquors. Sec. 21.—That no person shall retail spirituous liquors, wines, cordials, ale, porter, lager beer, or any spirituous, vinous or malt liquor, by a less measure, or in less quantity than three gallons, within the corporate limits of the town, without first having paid the tax and obtained a license therefor, as herein provided: Provided, the town commissioners may issue license for retailing lager beer and ale, and these alone, upon the payment of an annual tax of not exceeding two hundred dollars; and said town commissioners shall have the power to revoke such license at any time upon the payment to the person holding such license that portion of the tax corresponding to the unexpired term of the license: Provided, also, said town commissioners shall grant no license to any person for such purpose until he shall have paid all taxes imposed by law and proved a good moral character by at least two good citizens of the town, and given good bond with sufficient sureties in the sum of five hundred dollars, payable to the State of North Carolina, conditioned for the keeping of an orderly and lawful house, and if said person shall violate the said bond, his license shall be revoked and the town commissioners shall proceed at once to enforce the collection of said bond: Provided, also, that no such license shall be granted unless such person shall produce and exhibit to the town commissioners a license therefor from the Board of Commissioners of Davidson County.

Proviso: requisites for license.

Proviso: county license.

Billiard tables, ten-pin alleys and gaming table.

Sec. 22. That no person shall erect, put up, keep, use, maintain, or operate, or conduct any billiard table, ten-pin alley, or any gaming table, or place by whatever name known or called, at which games of chance or skill shall be played, within the corporate limits of Lexington, without first having paid the tax and obtained license therefor as required in this act: Provided, the town commissioners may issue license for the keeping, operating and maintaining of billiard tables and pool tables and box-ball alley upon payment of an annual tax not exceeding one hundred dollars for each table or alley; the town commissioners having the right to revoke such license at any time upon the payment to the party holding the license of the proportion of the tax for the unexpired term.

Proviso: license for tables and alleys.

Licenses signed by mayor.

Sec. 23. That no sheriff, Board of Commissioners of Davidson County, nor other officer, shall grant any license to any person to carry on any of the trades, business or other thing specified in sections twenty (20), twenty-one (21), and twenty-two (22) of this act, unless such person shall first produce before such officer a license therefor, issued by the town commissioners and signed by the mayor.

Penalties.

Sec. 24. That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of sections twenty, twenty-one and twenty-two of this act shall forfeit and pay to the town the sum of fifty dollars for each offense, to be sued for and recovered by the town commissioners, and each person guilty of any such violation of any of the provisions of said sections shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the Court, and each act of selling or retailing shall be deemed a separate offense, and each day, or part of a day, in which any billiard table, pool table, ten-pin alley, box-ball alley, or any gaming table, or place where any games of chance or skill shall be kept up, maintained or played, in violation of this act, shall be deemed a separate offense. The fines imposed under this section, or for the violation of any of the provisions of this act, or of any ordinance enacted by the town commissioners in pursuance of the provisions of this act, shall accrue to the town and be paid to the town treasurer, notwithstanding the same may also be an offense against the laws of the State.

Separate offenses.

Fines to accrue to town.

Sec. 25. That the town commissioners shall have power to declare all horses, cattle, sheep, goats, hogs, dogs and geese and other animals running at large within the corporate limits of the town a nuisance, and the town commissioners may impose a fine at their discretion, not to exceed fifty dollars for each offense, upon the owner of any such animals so at large, and may treat such animals as a nuisance and impound and abate the same under such regulations as they may adopt; the town commissioners may also, by proper regulations and ordinances, prevent the erection and maintenance within the corporate limits, or any part thereof, of hog-pens and pig-sties, and may provide for their abatement, as for other nuisances.

Animals running at large.

Hog-pens and pig-sties.

Sec. 26. That the town commissioners may prevent the establishment of, or may regulate, if allowed to be established, any slaughterhouse or place for the exercise within the town of any offensive business, trade or employment; may require and compel the abatement of all nuisances within the town; may declare any public or private building, or any frame-work, smokestack, windmill or structure of any kind within the limits of the town to be a nuisance, and may provide for its removal or abatement: Provided, no such building or structure shall be declared to be a nuisance until after notice for three days has been served on the owner of the same, if within the town, and if not within the town, then notice to the occupant of said building, and if no occupant, by posting notice thereof upon said building or structure: And provided further, that said owner or occupant may be heard before the town commissioners as to the condition of said building. If upon said hearing and after said notice such building or structure shall be declared to be a nuisance, or dangerous and hazardous in any way to life or property, that same shall be at once removed or abated by the owner or occupant, and if they fail to do so, then the same shall be removed under the supervision of some member of the police, and the expense thereof shall be charged up to the owner and be a lien on his property, and shall be due at once and collected by the tax collector, as other taxes of the town are collected. The town commissioners shall have full power to prohibit all trades and occupations or acts, which are nuisances, to be carried on within one mile of the corporate limits, and may cause all such to be removed and abated, and have the same power over them as is given as to similar things within the corporate limits. The town commissioners shall have power to remove, abate and cause to be remedied, everything within the corporate limits, or within one mile of said limits, that is dangerous or prejudicial to the public health and to charge the expense thereof to the person causing or creating the same, and collect the same from such person.

Public health.

Further powers of commissioners.

Sec. 27. The town commissioners shall have power to make regulations to cause due observance of the Sabbath, preserve the health of the town from contagious and infectious diseases, to control and regulate the keeping of powder in the town, to regulate the speed of riding or driving on the public streets, to keep the sidewalks and streets clear of obstructions, to cut and remove all limbs, branches and parts of trees or shrubbery extending upon or overhanging the sidewalks or streets, which may be done at the expense of the owner, to regulate the planting, cutting and trimming of all trees on the streets and public property of the town.

Improvement of streets.

Sec. 28. That the town commissioners shall have the right to grade, pave and improve any of the streets of the town as they may deem best for the public good, and may borrow money and pledge the credit of the town for such purposes; they may assess not over fifty per cent. of the cost of the paving and improving any street or sidewalk against the land-owners along the street so paved or improved, to be assessed against the lands so abutting in proportion to the number of feet abutting thereon, and said commissioners shall cause the owners to be notified of the amount assessed against each person, and the same shall be due thirty days after said notice and shall be a lien upon lands abutting on said street, and shall be collected by the tax collector in the same manner as provided by law for the collection of the other taxes assessed on the real estate of the town, and the amount so collected shall be applied to the expense of street improvement and no other. That the town commissioners shall have the right to use the streets of the town for its sewer system, light system and water system, and may grant franchises to street railway companies, telephone or telegraph companies and allow the use of the streets to lay tracks, wires, set poles and run cars, and may charge for such franchises and privileges, in addition to the annual license tax, such amount as they may deem just, to be turned over to the general fund of the town.

Sewer, light and water systems.

Street railways.

Electric light and power plants.

Sec. 29. That the town commissioners shall have the right to own, operate and maintain an electric light and power plant to furnish lights for the streets and public buildings of the town, and to supply the citizens of the town lights and power, and to charge therefor such rates as may be fixed by the town commissioners, who shall establish uniform rates, and shall make out same and cause the same to be published and prepared for the inspection of the citizens of the town at all times; may employ all persons necessary to manage, control and operate said light and power plant and water plant, and sewerage system, fix the period of such employment and salaries and wages to be paid, which shall not be increased during the term of the employee.

Water system.

Sec. 30. That the town commissioners shall have the right to own and operate a water system, and dig and keep up and operate and maintain deep wells for the purpose of supplying water to its citizens and other residents therein, and for protection against fires, and to fix the price to be charged for the same, which prices are to be uniform, and published and open for the inspection of the people of the town. Said town commissioners shall have full power and authority to make such rules and regulations, and pass such ordinances that may be necessary for the protection of its water plant and every part thereof, to the end that the same may be preserved, and the water be pure and uncontaminated.

Sewerage.

Sec. 31. That the town commissioners shall have the right and power to control and maintain a sewerage system for said town, and to provide and procure an outlet for the same, beyond the corporate limits, and for this purpose shall have the right to contract with, or purchase the right-of-way over the lands of, any person, or to condemn the same, and for such condemnation to proceed in the manner and way provided by law for condemnation of lands for railroads in the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, chapter sixty-one, sections two thousand five hundred and seventy-five to two thousand five hundred and ninety-eight, inclusive. The town commissioners may require all persons on the line of the sewer established to connect their premises therewith with proper fittings and plumbings, all under the supervision of the proper officer of the town, and to make such reasonable charges for the use of the same as may be deemed proper. The town commissioners may, whenever they may deem necessary, borrow money and issue bonds of the town, as they may determine, to extend the water system and light system of the town, or to pay off indebtedness incurred in the construction of the same.

Commissioners may order sewer connection.

Street cleaning.

Sec. 32. That said town commissioners may provide carts to remove filth from the streets, and also to require garbage and filth wagons to visit the premises of all persons not connected with the sewer at stated periods and remove therefrom all filth, human excrement, known as night soil, and dispose of the same as directed by said town commissioners, and to make reasonable charge therefor as may be necessary to pay the expenses thereof, to be collected out of the owner of the property from which such filth is taken, and if not paid otherwise, to be charged up and collected out of the person owing just as other taxes are collected.

Cemeteries.

Sec. 33. That the town commissioners shall have control and direction of all cemeteries in the town, and may require all persons buried within the town to be buried in an established cemetery, and pass all such resolutions and ordinances as may be necessary for their care and preservation, and may appropriate such sums of money as they may deem necessary to keep them in order.

Town may use county jail.

Sec. 34. The town commissioners may use the county jail of Davidson for the confinement of prisoners, or they may erect or lease buildings suitable and necessary for the purpose of a prison.

Powers under general law.

Sec. 35. That the town of Lexington is hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities enumerated and given in chapter seventy-three of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, entitled "Towns."

School tax.

Sec. 36. That the town commissioners shall, when the taxes are levied as provided in this act, levy a tax sufficient to maintain the public schools of the town, however, not exceeding the sum limited in this act to be levied for schools.

Graded schools.

Sec. 37. That it shall be the duty of the school commissioners to establish and maintain in the town graded schools, at least one for white children and one for colored children, and to appropriate the funds derived from the town taxes, levied and collected for education, and from all other sources for the maintenance of said schools, so as to equalize the school facilities between the races.

School property vested in school commissioners.

Sec. 38. That all property, both real and personal, of the public schools within said town shall be vested in said school commissioners in trust for the graded schools.

School money applied by school commissioners.

Sec. 39. That all public school money, which may be from time to time collected and apportioned under the general law for the children of said town for general school purposes, shall be applied by the said school commissioners to keeping up the graded schools of the town.

Powers of school commissioners.

Sec. 40. That said school commissioners shall have power to employ a superintendent and teachers for said schools, fix their salaries and terms of employment, hold real estate, purchase necessary school property and appliances, and make any rules and regulations for the conduct and management of said schools as they deem proper, and to do all such acts and things necessary for the proper conduct and maintenance of the said schools.

Election law.

Sec. 41. That the elections held under this act shall be conducted in the manner provided in sections two thousand nine hundred and forty-six to two thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven of chapter seventy-three, Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, except as modified and changed in this act.

Sec. 42. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 43. That this act shall be in force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 30th day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 15.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF MISS LULA SWINDELL, A PUBLIC SCHOOL-TEACHER OF HYDE COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Treasurer of Hyde County be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to pay Miss Lula Swindell, a public school-teacher of Hyde County, or to her order, the sum of ten dollars and ninety-two cents ($10.92) out of the school funds now in his hands or that may hereafter come into his hands to the credit of district ten for the white race, Currituck Township. Said sum being due said Lula Swindell as a balance for teaching a public school in Hyde County, in the year of one thousand nine hundred and six. To be paid balance due for teaching.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 16.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF MRS. HENRIETTA ROBERTSON AND GEORGE T. WALKER.

Whereas, Mrs. Henrietta Roberston taught the public school in Wentworth Township, district number six, in Rockingham County, under contract with school committee, and by misunderstanding on the part of the committee, taught school longer than there was money with which to pay same, the same having been used in repairs to school building, leaving a balance due her of twenty-seven dollars and eighty-one cents; and whereas, under similar circumstances in Williamsboro Township, district number four, there still due George T. Walker the sum of ten dollars: therefore, Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Mrs. Robertson to be paid.

Section 1. That the Board of Education of Rockingham County be and they are hereby authorized and directed to pay to Mrs. Henrietta Robertson the sum of twenty-seven dollars and eighty-one cents, and to George T. Walker the sum of ten dollars, the same to be paid out of the general educational fund of Rockingham County, before the same is apportioned among the districts of said county.

G. T. Walker to be paid.

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 30th day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 17.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 28 OF THE PRIVATE LAWS OF 1905.

Preamble.

Whereas, chapter twenty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, attempted to amend chapter two hundred and fifty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one; and whereas, by inadvertence it was made to appear in said chapter twenty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five as an amendment to chapter two hundred and fifty-seven of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one: therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Reference corrected.

Section 1. That the word "seven," in line two, section one, of chapter twenty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, be stricken out and the word "eight" inserted in lieu thereof.

Acts validated.

Sec. 2. That all acts which may have been done under and by authority of chapter two hundred and fifty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, as attempted to be amended by chapter twenty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, be and the same are hereby validated and made as binding as if the inadvertence had not occcurred in said chapter twenty-eight of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 30th day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 19.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF HIGH POINT TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That upon the presentation of a written petition to the Board of Aldermen of the City of High Point, signed by as many as twenty of the resident taxpayers of said city, requesting that an election be called for the said city to vote on the question of issuing bonds in the amount of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000), with interest coupons; seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) of said bonds to be used by the city of High Point for street improvements, sewer extensions, and improvement or enlargement of the water and lighting plants of said city; and fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) of said bonds to be used to aid in the construction and equipment of the Randolph and Cumberland Railway Company, from the city of High Point to some point on the Seaboard Air Line Railway; it shall be the duty of the Board of Aldermen to order an election to be held within ninety days after the presentation of said petition, and submit to the qualified voters of said city the question of issuing bonds for said purposes, the bonds to be issued upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set out. The said board of aldermen shall, for at least thirty days preceding the election, give public notice of the election and purposes thereof, by publication in one or more newspapers published in the said city.

Election on petition.

Amount to be voted on.

Objects of issue.

Notice of election.

Sec. 2. That the said board of aldermen shall order a new registration of the voters of the city of High Point for said election; that the registration and challenge of voters shall be conducted, and the election shall be held and conducted, in the same manner as is now prescribed by law for holding elections for mayor and board of aldermen for said city.

New registration.

Sec. 3. That at said election the ballots tendered and cast by the qualified voters shall have written or printed upon them the words, "For Bond Issue" or "Against Bond Issue," and all qualified voters who vote the issue of bonds upon the conditions and terms set out in this act shall vote "For Bond Issue"; and all qualified electors opposed thereto shall vote "Against Bond Issue."

Form of ballot.

Sec. 4. In the event that a majority of the qualified voters of said city shall, at said election, vote "For Bond Issue," the board of aldermen shall have prepared bonds in such denomination as said board may determine, the total amount to be one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000), with interest coupons attached, at a rate of interest to be determined by said board, provided the same shall not exceed five per cent. (5 per cent.) per

How bonds authenticated.

Both the bonds and coupons shall be numbered consecutively, and shall be signed by the Mayor of the City of High Point, and countersigned by the city clerk, and the said bonds shall have impressed upon them the official seal of the city of High Point.

Further elections.

Sec. 5. That the board may call an election under this act at any time it may see fit after giving proper notice and observing the general election law of the State; and the rejection by the voters of this proposition shall not prevent the board of aldermen from calling another election or elections under this act until the proposition is carried affirmatively.

Apportionment of proceeds of bonds.

Sec. 6. That the proceeds arising from the sale of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) of said bonds shall be used by the city of High Point for street improvements, sewer extensions, or improvements or enlargement of the water and lighting plants of the said city, or in the erection of new water or lighting plants, as may be determined by the board of aldermen, as follows: Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) to be used during one thousand nine hundred and seven, twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to be used during one thousand nine hundred and eight, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to be used during one thousand nine hundred and nine, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to be used during one thousand nine hundred and ten: Provided, that such portion of each year's allotment as above set out may be expended for any one or more of the purposes herein enumerated, as the board of aldermen of the said city may determine.

Proviso: allotment by aldermen.

Bonds to Randolph and Cumberland Railway Company.

Sec. 7. That the fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) of bonds to aid in the construction of the Randolph and Cumberland Railway shall be delivered to the president or duly authorized agent of the Randolph and Cumberland Railway Company, upon the completion by the said company of a line of railway from the city of High Point to some point on the Seaboard Air Line Railway, and upon the delivery to the Board of Aldermen of the City of High Point of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), par value, of the capital stock of the said Randolph and Cumberland Railway Company.

Special tax for bonds and interest.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Board of Aldermen of the City of High Point to levy annually upon all taxable property and polls of said city, in addition to all other taxes, a special tax to pay the interest on said bonds as it falls due; and also to provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds at their maturity; special taxes to be collected in the same manner as other taxes.

Sec. 9. This act shall be enforced on and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 31st day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 20.

AN ACT TO CORRECT A DEFECT IN AN ACT PASSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA, AS IS SHOWN IN THE PRIVATE ACTS OF 1903, CHAPTER 93, PAGE 158, AND TO FURTHER AMEND THE SAME.

Whereas, in the passage of the act above referred to, amending the act incorporating the town of Saluda, the enacting clause was omitted: therefore, Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the said enacting clause be inserted in said act, and that said charter of the city of Saluda be amended as follows: Enacting clause.

Sec. 2. That said city of Saluda, in its corporate capacity, by its mayor and commissioners, shall have the power to issue and sell interest-bearing bonds for the purpose of owning, establishing and operating water-works, fire department, municipal buildings, schools, public parks and other public improvements. City may issue bonds.

Sec. 3. That no such bonds shall be issued for a greater amount than five per cent. of the taxable value of the property within its corporate limits, and that the rate of interest on such bonds shall not exceed six per cent. per annum, and that such bonds shall not be sold for less than their par value. Limit on bond issue. Interest.

Sec. 4. That no such bonds shall be issued without first submitting the question to the qualified voters of the city at an election to be held for that purpose, after the same shall have been advertised for twenty days by posting notices in ten public places in the city. Bonds to be voted on. Notice of election.

Sec. 5. That said election shall be held in compliance with the general election laws, and those electors who favor the issue of such bonds shall vote "For Bond Issue," and those who oppose the issue of such bonds shall vote "Against Bond Issue," and a majority of the votes cast "for" or "against" shall decide. Election under general law. Form of ballots.

Sec. 6. That when such bonds are issued and sold the moneys received from such sale shall be kept separate and apart from all other moneys of the city, and shall be used only for the purposes for which the said bond issue is authorized. That a sum sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds and to create a sinking fund to redeem same, equal to five per cent. of their face value, shall be annually set aside by the city government from its general revenues, fines, penalties and forfeitures, and shall not be used for any other purpose. Moneys to be kept separate. Interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 7. That both the marshal and tax collector shall turn in every week to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him or them, by virtue of their office, or offices, together with an itemized Marshal and tax collector to settle weekly.

Statement.

statement of same, which statement the treasurer shall enter in his cash-book and keep on file for exhibition to the board and for future reference.

Sec. 8. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. That this act shall be in force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 31st day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE FORSYTH SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Sec. 7. Said corporation shall have power to receive money in trust, and shall have power to accept and execute any trust that may be committed to it by any court, person or persons; it shall have power to accept any grant, assignment, transfer, devise or bequest, and to execute the same on such terms as may be agreed upon. It may receive funds in litigation and pay such interest thereon as may be agreed on.

Stock transfers.

Sec. 8. Stock held by any one shall be transferred only on the books of said corporation, either by person or by power of attorney; and no stockholder shall transfer his stock, except by the consent of the directors, if he is indebted to the corporation, as principal, surety or otherwise, until such indebtedness is paid off and discharged; and for all such indebtedness said corporation shall have a lien, superior to all other liens, upon the stock of such stockholder.

Delinquent subscribers.

Sec. 9. Should any subscriber to the capital stock, after he or she has made a payment or payments thereon, fail or refuse to pay the balance due on such subscription as the same may be called for, the board of directors may, after reasonable notice to such delinquent subscriber or representative of such, sell the interest of such subscriber in this company at public outcry at the door of the office of the company, after ten days' notice, and out of the proceeds pay any delinquency so far as it may go.

Principal office.

Sec. 10. The principal office of this company shall be at Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Sec. 11. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 31st day of January, A. D. 1907.

The capital stock of the said company shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and may, with the consent of a majority of the stockholders, be altered or increased from time to time to any additional amount not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000), by the issue and sale of shares of preferred or common stock or both upon such terms and conditions and under such regulations as the board of directors shall prescribe, but the par value of every share shall be one hundred dollars ($100); and the company may receive cash, labor, material, bonds, stock, contracts, real and personal property in payment of subscriptions to its capital stock. A majority of the corporators hereinbefore named, or such of them as shall be subscribers, may organize the said company by electing a board of directors, and providing for the election or appointment of such other officers by said board of directors as may be necessary for the control and management of the business and affairs of said company, and thereupon they shall have and exercise all the powers and functions of a corporation under this charter and the laws of this State. No subscriber shall be individually liable for the debts of the company.

Organization.

Location.

Sec. 11. The location of the principal business office of the corporation is to be in the town of Tryon, in the county of Polk.

Stock votes.

Sec. 12. Every stockholder in the company shall, at all meetings or elections, be entitled to one vote for every share of stock registered in his name.

Stockholders.

The stockholders of said company, or board of directors, under a resolution of the stockholders aforesaid, may enact such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the affairs of the company as they may deem proper and expedient. Meetings of the stockholders and directors may be held at such time and places as the stockholders and board of directors may respectively prescribe. Meetings.

Sec. 13. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 14. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 31st day of January, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 122 OF THE PRIVATE LAWS OF 1901, RELATIVE TO GRADED SCHOOLS IN THE TOWN OF HENDERSONVILLE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter one hundred and twenty-two of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one be and the same hereby is amended as follows: Strike out in line twenty-five of section four of said chapter the word "twenty," and insert in lieu thereof the word "twenty-five"; and in line twenty-six of said section, strike out the word "sixty," and insert in lieu thereof the word "seventy-five." Tax rate increased

Sec. 2. That at any time after the ratification of this act the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Hendersonville may submit to the qualified voters of said town the question, whether or not the special tax levy, provided for in said chapter, shall be increased. Said election to be held in all respects as provided in chapter one hundred and twenty-two, of the laws aforesaid, for the holding of such elections as are therein provided for. At said election those who favor an increased levy shall vote a ticket, on which shall be written or printed the words "For Increased Levy," and those who are opposed to such increased levy shall vote a ticket, upon which shall be written or printed the words "Against Increased Levy." If the majority of the qualified voters of said town shall be in favor of said increased levy, same shall be levied and collected annually, as provided in said chapter for the levy and collection of the taxes therein mentioned. Election on increase. Form of ballots.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 24.

Sec. 8. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CORPORATION COMMISSION TO GRANT TO CAROLINA, GLENANNA AND PEE DEE RAILWAY AND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY THE RIGHT TO SUSPEND OPERATIONS AS A COMMON CARRIER.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina passed an act entitled "An act to amend chapter one hundred and three, Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and three, relative to the incorporation of the North Carolina Mining, Manufacturing and Development Company, changing the name to the Carolina, Glenanna and Pee Dee Railway and Development Company," the same being chapter two hundred and fifty-seven, Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, and among other powers granted by said act and the act of one thousand nine hundred and three, therein referred to, was the power to operate a line of railway; and whereas, the said corporation, known as the Carolina, Glenanna and Pee Dee Railway and Development Company, is now operating a line of railway between the town of Thomasville, N. C., and the town of Denton, N. C.; and whereas, the property of said Carolina, Glenanna and Pee Dee Railway and Development Company has lately changed hands, and, in the opinion of the present owners of the capital stock, the physical property is in such condition that it is undesirable to continue operating the same until substantial repairs and improvements are made, which said repairs and improvements cannot be made with the railway in continuous operation: now, therefore, Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That said Carolina, Glenanna and Pee Dee Railway and Development Company may from time to time, when in the opinion of the board of directors it is necessary and desirable to do so, suspend operations as a common carrier, to make the said repairs and improvements above referred to, without incurring any liability for such suspension, or suspensions: Provided, permission be first had and obtained from the Corporation Com- Corporation may suspend operations. Proviso: consent of corporation commission to be obtained.

mission, stating the duration of time for which said suspension, or suspensions, is granted: Provided further, that the Corporation Commission shall not at any time authorize a suspension, as herein above provided, for a greater period of time than two consecutive weeks.

Notice of suspension.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, that one week's notice of such suspension or suspensions, and the duration thereof, shall be given in some newspaper published in the county of Davidson and State of North Carolina.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 26.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE PIEDMONT TRUST COMPANY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the charter of the Piedmont Trust Company, granted by the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina on the fourteenth day of October, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and three, be and the same is hereby amended as follows: That is to say, by adding after section three (c) of said charter the following articles, to-wit:

General banking powers.

"Article 3 (d). That said corporation shall have the right to do a general banking business, to receive deposits, to make loans and discounts, to obtain and procure loans for any person, company, partnership or corporation; to invest its money or the money of others; to lend and invest money in or upon the security of mortgage, pledge, deed or otherwise, on any lands, hereditaments or personal property, or interest therein of any description, situate anywhere; to lend money upon or purchase or otherwise accept bills of lading or the contents thereof, bills, notes, choses in action or any and all negotiable or commercial papers, or any crops or produce whatever, and what is known as cash credit, or any stock, bullion, merchandise or other personal property, and the same to sell or in anywise dispose of, and to charge any rate of interest on any such loans not exceeding the rate allowed by law. The said corporation may receive deposits for minors and married women and open accounts with them in their own name, whether for investment or otherwise; and when any deposit shall be made in the name of any minor or married woman, the said company may deal with such minors or married women in reference thereto as though he or she were sui juris, and payment made to such minor or married woman on his or her receipt or acquittance, or his or her check drawn against such deposit shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge from such corporation for such deposit and any interest thereon and any part thereof.

Deposits of minors and married women.

"Article 3 (e). That said corporation shall have the power to receive money in trust, to become executor or administrator of any estate, and to accept and execute any other trust that may be committed to it by any Court, corporation, company, person or persons; and it shall also have power to accept any grant or transfer, devise or bequest, and hold any real or personal estate or trust created in accordance with the laws of this State, and to execute the same on such terms as many be established and agreed upon by the board of directors; that in all cases when application shall be made to any court of this State for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, commissioner or guardian of any minor or of any lunatic or insane person, it shall be lawful for such court, if it shall think fit, to appoint the Piedmont Trust Company such receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, commissioner or guardian, and the accounts of such corporation in such fiduciary capacity shall be regularly settled and adjusted as if it was a natural person, and upon such settlement or adjustment all proper, legal and customary charges, cost and expense shall be allowed to said corporation for its services, care and management in the premises, and the said corporation, as such receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, commissioner or guardian, shall be subject to all orders or decrees made by the proper tribunal under the laws of this State: Provided, that any oath required by law to be taken in order for qualification to any of the offices or trusts above mentioned may be taken by any officer of said company, and the oath prescribed by law may be so modified as to apply to corporations instead of individuals."

May act as fiduciary.

Court may appoint company in fiduciary capacity.

Sec. 2. That article five of said charter be and the same is hereby stricken out and the following is substituted in lieu thereof: The total authorized capital stock of this corporation is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), divided into one thousand (1,000) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) per share, but the corporation may continue and do business with all the powers with which it is chartered when ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of the capital stock, composed of one hundred (100) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) per share shall have been subscribed for. Of the remaining ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) of capital stock, any portion thereof from time to time, not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), may, at the option of the stockholders, be issued as preferred stock, with such powers, privileges and preferences as to dividends, assets, rights, limitations and restrictions as the stockholders, by proper corporate action may determine: Provided, however, that at no time shall the corporation have issued and outstanding preferred stock in an amount greater than the common stock actually issued and outstanding.

Capital stock.

Individual liability of stockholders.

Sec. 3. That when the corporation exercises the power herein granted to do a banking business, that the stockholders in said corporation shall be individually responsible, equally, ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts and engagements of such corporation to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such stock, but until such time as the said corporation shall exercise such power and shall engage in the business of banking, the stockholders in said corporation shall have the same liability as stockholders of any other corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of North Carolina, which is not engaged in the business of banking.

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 27.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF CONCORD TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), for the purposes hereinafter specified in this act, and levying and collecting annually a special tax for the payment of the interest thereon, and to create a sinking fund, as hereinafter provided, for the payment of the principal of said bonds.

Amount.

Special tax.

Application of proceeds.

Sec. 2. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the following purposes: To the payment of the present indebtedness of said city incurred for the necessary expenses of the municipal government, and for the purpose of paying the remainder of the indebtedness incurred for the establishing, maintaining and completing water-works plant for the city, and for purchasing, maintaining and completing an electric plant belonging to the said city of Concord, same being necessary expenses of said city, and for the payment of any notes or obligations and evidences of debt that have heretofore been contracted by the said city of Concord for necessary expenses, and if any money is left after the payment of the above amounts so mentioned the sum is to be applied to the building and completing sidewalks on the streets of said city.

Amount. Sec. 3. The city of Concord, through its aldermen, shall issue coupon bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), in denominations not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), bearing interest from date of the bonds at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the Concord National Bank, or the Cabarrus Savings Bank, or the Citizens Bank and Trust Company, in said town, or their correspondent banks in the city of New York, at the option of the holder, on the first days of January and July of each year until said bonds are paid. That said bonds shall be made payable and become due at the expiration of thirty years from the date thereof. The bonds and their coupons shall be numbered, and the bonds shall be signed by the mayor, countersigned by the clerk of the board of aldermen of said city, and sealed with the corporate seal of said city and a record shall be kept of all bonds. The coupons shall be registered in payment of all taxes due, or which may become due said city, except such taxes as may be levied for the graded schools of said city. The said bonds and their coupons shall be exempt from taxation by said city. The purchaser, or purchasers, of said bonds shall not be required to see that the purchase-money is applied to the purposes prescribed in this act.

Denominations.

Interest.

When bonds due.

How bonds authenticated.

Coupons receivable for taxes.

Bonds exempt from city tax.

Special tax. Sec. 4. In order to pay the interest on said bonds, the city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, is hereby authorized, and it shall be its duty, through its board of aldermen, to annually compute and levy, at the time of levying other taxes of said city, a sufficient special tax upon all property, real and personal, and other subjects of taxation mentioned in the charter if the city of Concord and acts amendatory thereto, which shall be returned, or listed, for general taxation in said city, with which to regularly and promptly pay the interest on said bonds, and said taxes shall be collected in the same manner and at the same time the other taxes of said city are collected, and shall be paid over by the city tax collector to the treasurer of said city, which officers shall give justified bonds in amounts amply sufficient to cover said taxes, the former officer for collecting and paying over and the latter for the safe-keeping and proper disbursement of said funds. It shall be the duty of said city treasurer to cancel all coupons at the time they are paid off and taken up by him, and to keep a record of the same.

Coupons canceled and records kept.

Sinking fund. Sec. 5. For the purpose of creating a sinking fund with which to pay the principal of the bonds issued under this act, it shall be the duty of the said city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, at and after the expiration of twenty years from the date of said bonds, to annually levy and collect a special tax in addition to that mentioned in section four of this act, and the taxes provided for in this section shall equal in amount one-tenth of the amount of bonds issued under this act, and whenever the amount of taxes collected under this section, together with the interest accumulated from the investment thereof, as provided in section seven of this act, shall be sufficient to pay off the principal of all outstanding bonds, then said aldermen shall cease to levy taxes for said sinking fund.

Moneys to be kept separate.

Sec. 6. That the taxes, levied and collected for the purposes specified in sections four and five of this act, shall be kept separate and distinct from each other and from any and all other taxes, and shall be used only for the purposes for which they are levied or collected, and any mayor or aldermen who shall appropriate, by vote or otherwise, to any purpose directly or indirectly, other than that for which they were levied, any of said special taxes, or any part thereof, or shall in any other way violate the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that if the taxes levied and collected for the payment of interest shall in any year exceed the sum required for that purpose, the amount in excess shall be applied to the credit of the interest fund for the next succeeding year, and said city, through its board of aldermen, at the time of levying taxes for the payment of interest for said next succeeding year, shall take into consideration said excess, and compute and levy said taxes accordingly.

Diversion of funds a misdemeanor.

Proviso: application of surplus.

Investment of sinking fund.

Sec. 7. That it shall be the duty of said city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, to annually invest any and all moneys arising from the special tax collected, under section five of this act, in the purchase of any of the said bonds at a price deemed advantageous to said city by said board of aldermen, but in case said bonds cannot be purchased, as provided for, then the city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, may lend said sinking fund, or any part thereof, in such sums as they may deem proper, for a length of time not exceeding six months prior to the date of maturity of said bonds, taking as security therefor, and for the payment of interest thereon, mortgages or deeds in trust in the name of some trust company, on sufficient real estate, or bonds issued under this act may be taken as collateral security for such loan. The notes, or other evidences of debt, given for any loan under this section, shall be executed to and in the name of the city of Concord, and shall bear interest payable annually at the rate of not less than six per centum per annum; and in case the city of Concord, through its board of aldermen, shall not be able to invest any or all of said money annually, as directed above, they may and it shall be their duty to cause such part as they are unable to invest to be deposited with some bank or banks, trust or safe deposit company, or companies, of undoubted solvency at the best obtainable rate of interest, and any and all interest arising from the investment, as above directed, shall be invested in the manner as before provided. Any mayor or aldermen of said city who shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any loan shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Agents appointed for sale of bonds.

Sec. 7½. That D. B. Coltraine, H. I. Woodhouse and Charles Wagoner are hereby appointed agents of the said town of Concord to negotiate the sale of said bonds and effect a sale of the same at the best price possible. The proceeds of said bonds shall be paid by the purchasers directly to the town treasurer, to be distributed as herein provided.

Sec. 8. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 28.

all equipment necessary or convenient for the transaction of a general banking business; and may adjust, settle, collect or dispose of any security, bond or other evidences of indebtedness upon such terms as may be agreed upon. That when femes covert, minors or apprentices shall deposit money or other thing of value in said bank, generally or specially, to their own credit, the same may be withdrawn on their own check, draft or other order, and they and all other persons shall be bound by such draft, check or order, and the same shall be an absolute release and discharge of said bank from liability for the same.

Deposits of married women, minors or apprentices.

Conveyance of real estate.

Sec. 6. Any real estate held by the corporation at any time may be conveyed by deed, signed by the president and attested by the cashier with the corporate seal affixed: Provided, that said conveyance shall be authorized by the board of directors.

May act as surety.

Sec. 7. That said corporation is authorized to endorse or guarantee the payment of any dividends, bonds, notes, mortgages, securities, undertakings or other evidences of debt of any person, partnership, company or corporation upon any consideration agreed upon.

Deposits of trust funds.

Sec. 8. That said bank may receive, handle and receipt for, as other deposits, any and all funds of any State, county or town officer, or of any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver or other trustee having the care, custody or control of money, bond, stocks, securities or other things of value whatsoever.

May act as fiduciary.

Sec. 9. That said corporation shall have power and authority to accept and execute trusts of any and every description which may be committed or transferred to it with its consent by any person, corporation, or by any court in this or any other State, and shall receive therefor such usual and customary fees, commission and charges as are allowed individuals in like capacity and in such cases.

May act as agent, factor or trustee.

Sec. 10. That said corporation shall have the right to act as agent, factor or trustee for any State, county, township, town or other municipality or corporation, company or individual on such terms as to compensations and commissions as may be agreed on in the registering, selling, countersigning, collecting, acquiring, holding, dealing and disposing of on account of any State, county, township, town, municipality, corporation, company or individual, any land, certificate of stock, notes of any description, or property, real or personal, or for endorsing or guaranteeing the payment of said certificates of stock, notes, etc., and generally for managing such business, and for doing any of the matters and things authorized by this charter, the said corporation may charge such premiums, commissions or rates of compensation as may be agreed upon.

Liability of stockholders.

Sec. 11. The stockholders shall be individually liable, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts and engagements of such corporation to the extent of the amount of their stocks therein at par value in addition to the amount invested in such shares, but such additional liability shall not apply to any person holding shares only as collateral security.

Transfers of stock.

Sec. 12. That the stock issued and the certificates therefor shall not be assignable in the hands of any holder except by transfer on the books of said corporation, either in person or by power of attorney, and then only after any obligation, engagement, indebtedness or endorsement, whether due or not due, which the bank may hold against the person or holder proposing to assign, has been fully discharged, unless the board of directors shall consent to such assignment: Provided, this shall not impair any rights of an innocent purchaser for value and without notice: And provided, nothing contained herein shall be construed as authorizing or permitting said bank to make loans on its own stock as security.

Sec. 13. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 4th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 29.

across said river to the beginning, be and the same is hereby incorporated under the name and style of "Ramseur Graded School District."

Election validated.

Sec. 2. That the special-tax election held in public school district number one, white race, Columbia Township, on the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and five, under and by the authority of section twenty-four, chapter four hundred and thirty-five, Acts of one thousand nine hundred and three, as amended by section fourteen, chapter five hundred and thirty-three, Acts of one thousand nine hundred and five, be and the same is hereby declared legal and valid in all respects, and all property now in said boundary described in section one of this act, or that may be in said boundary at any future times, shall be taxed thirty cents on each one hundred dollars valuation, and each poll ninety cents, for the support of a system of public graded schools for white children, as hereinafter provided.

School tax.

Trustees named.

Sec. 3. That W. H. Watkins, Sr., Dr. C. S. Tate, J. N. Whitehead, W. C. Stout and J. D. Leonard are hereby constituted a board of trustees for the public graded schools of said district, and shall serve for the period hereinafter indicated and until their successors are elected and qualified; that W. H. Watkins, Sr., shall serve one year, Dr. C. S. Tate shall serve two years, J. M. Whitehead shall serve three years, W. C. Stout shall serve four years, and J. D. Leonard shall serve five years, the term of office of said trustees to begin on the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven. That upon the expiration of the term of office of any of said trustees, as above provided, the remaining members of said board of trustees shall elect a trustee to fill the vacancy, and the remaining members shall at all times have the authority to fill vacancies arising from any cause, and each trustee so elected shall serve for a term of five years, except such trustees as shall be elected to fill out unexpired terms.

Terms of office.

Successors and vacancies.

Trustees incorporated. Corporate name. Corporate powers.

Sec. 4. That the said board of trustees and their duly constituted successors in office shall be and are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name and style of the "Board of Graded School Trustees of the Ramseur District," and by that name may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire by gift, purchase or devise real and personal property, hold, exchange or sell the same, and exercise such other rights and privileges as appertain to corporations under the general law; and said corporation may have a corporate seal, which it may break and change at pleasure: Provided, that the office of trustee shall not constitute an office within the meaning of article seven, section fourteen, of the Constitution of this State.

Proviso: trustees not officers.

Duties of trustees.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of said board of trustees to establish and maintain in said district a system of public graded schools for the white children resident therein between the ages of six and twenty-one years; and the board of trustees shall have exclusive control of such schools, shall employ, fix the compensation of, and dismiss teachers and officers, and exercise all other powers which they may deem necessary for the proper and successful operation of said schools. That rules and regulations made and adopted by said board of trustees for the government of said schools shall be as valid and binding on the teachers, officers and pupils of said Ramseur graded schools as are any of the provisions of this act.

Rules and regulations.

Sec. 6. That all public school property, both real and personal, now belonging to the public school of district number one, white race, Columbia Township, Randolph County, North Carolina, and the title thereto, shall be vested in said board of trustees. Said trustees may in their discretion sell the same or any part thereof, and apply the same to the use of said graded schools as in their judgment they deem best. Said board of trustees shall have the right to provide buildings and equipment for said schools in their discretion, and they are hereby empowered to pay for same out of any moneys that may come into their hands for the use of said schools.

Title to school property vested in trustees.

Sec. 7. That said board of trustees shall cause to be taken, in the month of August of each year, an accurate census of the white children between the ages of six and twenty-one years, as required by the general school law, and shall furnish a copy of said census to the County Superintendent of Schools on or before the first Monday of September of each year; and the said board of trustees shall cause said census to be recorded in a book to be kept by them for that purpose, and deliver the same to the superintendent or principal of the graded schools on or before the opening of said graded schools each year.

School census.

Sec. 8. That said board of trustees may from time to time fix the courses of study and adopt text-books for said graded schools, and they may provide for further instruction other than that provided in the prescribed course, and fix a rate of tuition to be charged therefor, and to admit pupils residing outside the district upon such terms as said board of trustees may prescribe.

Courses of study and text-books.

Tuition for extra courses.

Sec. 9. All powers conferred upon school committeemen under the general school law of the State are hereby conferred upon said board of trustees, and said trustees shall be charged with all the duties and obligations imposed upon district school committeemen by the general school law not inconsistent with this act.

Powers and duties of trustees.

Sec. 10. That said board of trustees shall elect annually a superintendent or principal for the said graded schools, whose duty it shall be to supervise the work of said graded schools under the direction of the board of trustees and exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by said board of trustees. It shall be his duty to examine and certificate all teachers in said graded schools. Said superintendent or principal shall make reports for the said graded schools, as required by the general school law. He shall hold teachers' meetings each week during the sessions of the graded schools for the benefit of the teachers teaching therein, and he shall at these meetings and at other times advise the teachers in said graded schools and assist them in planning their work for the different grades.

Superintendent or principal.

Reports.

Teachers' meetings.

Trustees to organize.

Sec. 11. The board of trustees provided for in section three of this act shall meet on the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and organize by electing a chairman, a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as they shall deem necessary for the successful operation of said graded schools, and they shall, at that time or at some other meeting called for the purpose, adopt rules and regulations for the government of said schools.

Treasurer.

Sec. 12. That the treasurer provided for in section eleven of this act shall receive and disburse all funds for the graded schools of Ramseur Graded School District, but before entering upon the duties of his office he shall execute a justified bond, with security, in an amount to be fixed by the board of trustees, not less than the amount of all school moneys to the credit of the school district for the previous school year, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of the district school fund, and for the payment over to his successor in office of any balance of school moneys that may be in his hands unexpended, said treasurer's bond to be approved by the board of trustees. The treasurer shall receive money only from the Sheriff or other collecting officer, and he shall pay out no money except upon an order of the board of trustees, signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary. The treasurer of the County Board of Education of Randolph County shall pay over to the treasurer of the Ramseur Graded School District all moneys coming into his hands for the said Ramseur Graded School District. The treasurer shall receive such compensation as the board of trustees shall allow, not to exceed two per centum of disbursements.

Bond of treasurer.

Pay of treasurer.

Special tax.

Sec. 13. The County Commissioners of Randolph County shall, on the first Monday in June of each year, levy thirty cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of property and ninety cents on each poll in the Ramseur Graded School District for the support of the graded schools in said district, and the Sheriff of said county shall collect said tax and pay it over to the treasurer of said board of trustees, said taxes to be levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected by the Sheriff of Randolph County. The Sheriff shall pay over to the treasurer of the said board of trustees all moneys in his hands as provided for by this section on the first Monday in each month, and for failure to do so promptly he shall forfeit five per centum of the amount in his hands at such times.

Reports.

Sec. 14. All officers provided for in this act shall make reports to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the County Board of Education and County Superintendent of Schools of Randolph County, as are required of school officers in like offices under the general school law of the State, and each officer before entering upon his duties shall take the usual oath of office required of like officers under the general school law of the State.

Attendance on school may be made compulsory.

Sec. 15. That, upon petition of a majority of the qualified voters residing in said Ramseur Graded School District, the board of trustees provided for in section three of this act shall have the authority and be required to compel all children between the ages of eight and twelve years, and of sufficient mental and physical strength, to attend continuously the sessions of said graded schools: Provided, that attendance on any good private or public school may excuse such children as attend them, if the board of trustees have good and sufficient reason to believe that such attendance is in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of this section.

Proviso: attendance on other schools.

Failure to keep children at school a misdemeanor.

Sec. 16. That the parent or guardian of any child between eight and twelve years of age, and which child shall not be excused from the requirements of this act, who shall fail to keep their said child or children in the said Ramseur graded schools or elsewhere as provided by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of one dollar for the first offense and two dollars for each offense thereafter, or imprisonment not more than ten days. One day's absence without a valid excuse shall constitute an offense under this act. Teachers shall have the authority to excuse from attendance children who are known to be under the care of a physician on account of sickness, and the board of trustees shall have the authority to excuse any child whose reason for non-attendance is valid, but in no case shall a child be excused from attendance without a valid excuse. All teachers and other officers having the authority to excuse children from attendance shall submit a report of such and the reason for each excuse to the board of trustees at the end of each week during the sessions of the graded schools.

Punishment.

Children excused.

Reports of excuses.

Jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

Truant officer.

Fees.

Sec. 17. That any justice of the peace residing in said Ramseur Graded School District shall have jurisdiction over all cases arising from non-attendance of children as required by this act, and the said board of trustees may appoint a truant officer, who, when commissioned by the board of trustees, shall have the authority to arrest any one for violation of the provisions of this act. Said truant officer shall be entitled to the same fees as a constable, and persons convicted under this act shall be taxed with the cost of such actions.

Failure to attend to be reported.

Prosecutor.

Sec. 18. That it shall be the duty of the teachers of said graded schools to report at the end of each week the names of the children who have failed to attend as required by this act, and it shall then be the duty of the chairman of the board of trustees, or some other person appointed by said board for that purpose, to prosecute all who have failed to send their children in accordance with the provisions of this act, unless such children shall have been excused.

Power of trustees to excuse.

Purchase of books.

Sec. 19. That the board of trustees shall have the authority to excuse any child or children from the requirements of this act on account of poverty, infirmity or other good cause to them appearing, and when so excused the parent or guardian of such child or children shall not be subject to indictment under this act. The board of trustees may appropriate a sufficient amount to purchase books for children whose parents are too poor to provide them, and such books shall remain the property of the Ramseur graded schools.

Children not employed to attend school.

Sec. 20. That any child in said district who is more than twelve and under twenty-one years of age, and of sufficient mental and physical strength, not regularly employed in some useful occupation shall be required to attend the sessions of said graded schools, as required by section fifteen of this act, and upon failure so to do, or to work regularly at some useful occupation, shall be subject to indictment under this act, and for each and every offense shall pay a fine of five dollars, unless such child shall have completed the full course of study in said graded schools satisfactory to the board of trustees, or been excused by the board of trustees for valid reason.

Sec. 21. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed so far as they apply to Ramseur Graded School District.

Sec. 22. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF MORTIMER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Town incorporated.

Corporate name.

Section 1. That the town of Mortimer, in Caldwell County, is hereby incorporated under the name of the "Town of Mortimer."

General municipal law.

Sec. 2. That the said town of Mortimer shall, in addition to the powers hereby specifically conferred, have all the powers and privileges of other corporations of a like character, which are or may hereafter be conferred by the Public Laws of North Carolina.

Mayor and commissioners.

Sec. 3. That the municipal powers and privileges of the said corporation shall be vested in the mayor and board of commissioners of the said town, and their successors in office perpetually.

Town elections.

Sec. 4. That the mayor of the said town of Mortimer shall be elected biennially, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven; and at the same time there shall be elected a board of three commissioners, all of whom shall be bona fide residents of said town, including the mayor. They shall be elected by the legally qualified voters of the said town; but the mayor and commissioners need not themselves be qualified voters.

Duties and jurisdiction of mayor.

Sec. 5. The mayor shall be the executive officer of the town, and shall preside at the meetings of the board of commissioners, but shall have no vote except in case of a tie, when he shall cast the deciding vote. As a peace officer, he shall have all the criminal jurisdiction of a justice of the peace; and his warrant shall run anywhere in Caldwell County for offenses committed against the criminal law of the State, or for violation of the ordinances of the said town.

Election inspectors.

Sec. 6. Every election for mayor and commissioners shall be held under the inspection of such persons, not exceeding three, as the board of town commissioners may appoint, who shall advertise the election at three public places in the said town for ten days immediately preceding such election. Said inspectors shall make out two statements of the election so held and return one to the Register of Deeds of Caldwell County, and return the other to the secretary of the town board of commissioners; and the return of every such election shall be recorded by the said register and secretary.

Notice of election.

Returns.

Qualification of inspectors.

Sec. 7. The inspectors of election shall be sworn by some justice of the peace, or by the mayor of the said town, or any other officer authorized to administer oaths generally, and they shall conduct the election as for members of the General Assembly, and at the close of the polls they shall declare elected such persons as may have the highest number of votes, and they shall, within five days, notify the persons so elected; and the persons so notified shall, within five days thereafter, qualify by taking the oath of office.

Ties.

Sec. 8. If among the persons voted for, there should be any two or more having an equal number of votes, and either would be duly elected, but for the equal vote, the inspectors shall determine the election between them.

Terms of mayor and commissioners.

Sec. 9. The mayor and commissioners shall serve for two years, or until their successors are duly qualified; and if no election be held as provided for, the mayor and old board of commissioners shall hold over.

Vacancies.

Sec. 10. In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor or commissioner, the commissioners shall fill the same, and in the absence or sickness of the mayor, the commissioners may appoint a mayor pro tempore.

Mayor to qualify.

Sec. 11. The mayor shall, before some justice of the peace or other officer authorized to administer oaths generally, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath to obey the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina, and to faithfully administer the duties of his office. The commissioners shall likewise take a similar oath, before some officer authorized to administer oaths generally, or before the mayor after he shall have been sworn in.

Commissioners to qualify.

Mayor to enforce ordinances.

Sec. 12. The mayor shall have the power to enforce the ordinances of the town as passed by the commissioners, and shall have power to appoint special policemen to preserve the peace. The mayor is hereby constituted an inferior court, to be called "Municipal Court." The rules of law regulating proceedings before a magistrate's court shall be applicable to proceedings before the mayor, and he shall be entitled to the same fees as a justice of the peace. At such court the mayor shall have authority to hear and determine all cases arising upon the ordinances of the town, and to enforce penalties for any violation thereof by issuing execution; but any person dissatisfied with the judgment of the mayor may appeal to the Superior Court.

Municipal court.

Convicts to be worked on streets.

Sec. 13. In all cases where judgments may be entered up against any person for fines or penalties according to the ordinances of the town, and the person against whom the same is adjudged, refuses, or is unable to pay such fine or judgment, it may and shall be lawful for the mayor, before whom such judgment is entered, to order and require such person so convicted to work on the streets or other public works, until at a fair rate of wages such person shall have worked out the amount of such judgment and the cost of prosecution.

Tax lists.

Sec. 14. The mayor, or other suitable person, shall by order of the board of commissioners take the list of taxes in the town in such manner and at such times as the commissioners may prescribe. If any person shall fail to list his taxes within the time prescribed by the commissioners, he shall be liable to a double tax.

Registration.

Sec. 15. The mayor shall revise the registration books of the town annually, and shall open the books twenty days before each annual election, and register all qualified voters who may apply, and erase the names of such as are no longer qualified voters in the said town.

Mayor may discharge marshal or policemen.

Sec. 16. The mayor may at any time discharge the town marshal or other police officers for omission or neglect of duty, and appoint others in their places, until the board of commissioners shall elect to fill the vacancy so created.

Sec. 17. The commissioners shall have power to make such ordinances for the better government of the town as they may deem necessary, provided the same be not inconsistent with the laws of the land. Among the powers hereby conferred on them, they may, not oftener than annually, levy a tax on real and personal property within the corporation, not to exceed more than fifty cents on the hundred dollars' worth; on all polls taxed by the General Assembly for public purposes; on all such shows, exhibitions and concerts given for reward as are taxed by the General Assembly, and on all persons, property, privileges and subjects within the corporate limits; and on itinerant or resident persons plying any trade, profession or calling which is liable for taxation for State or county purposes. They may appoint a town marshal, and such other officers or agents as may be necessary to enforce their ordinances, may determine the amount of their compensation, and also the compensation of the mayor and other officers, and may impose oaths of office upon them, and require bonds for the faithful performance of their duties.

Town ordinances.

Tax levy.

Rate.

Special taxes.

Marshal and other officers.

Oaths and bonds.

Sec. 18. The board of commissioners may establish and regulate their markets, and prescribe within what place within the corporation may be sold marketable things, whether by weight or measure may be sold grain, meal or flour, if the flour be not packed in barrels; fodder, hay or oats in straw; may erect scales for the purpose of weighing the same, appoint a weigher, and fix his fees, and direct by whom they shall be paid. They may pass ordinances for the abatement of nuisances, whether public or private, and for preserving the health of the citizens. They shall also have power to buy land for a cemetery, and make such rules and regulations for the care of and control of such cemetery as they may deem best. They shall have power to cause to be kept in repair the streets and sidewalks of the town, and to this end may levy a tax, or cause all persons of road age to work on the streets and sidewalks for a period not to exceed six days in any one year; and persons residing in the corporate limits of the town shall not be liable for road duty on the public roads of the county.

Markets.

Abatement of nuisances.

Cemetery.

Streets and sidewalks.

Road duty.

Sec. 19. The commissioners may enforce their ordinances by imposing fines on such as violate them, and compel the performance of duties they impose upon others, by proper penalties.

Enforcement of ordinances.

Sec. 20. The commissioners of the town shall have the power to appoint and keep in the pay of the town as many regular policemen as they may deem necessary. Such policemen shall be under the control of the marshal, and subject to his orders, and shall have the same power to arrest as are granted to the town marshal.

Policemen.

Sec. 21. The town marshal shall, before some justice of the peace, or the mayor, take an oath to obey the laws of the State of North Carolina and the United States, and to faithfully perform the duties of his office. As a peace officer he shall have all the powers of a constable in the county. He may make arrests without warrant for violation of the laws of the State or ordinances of the town committed in his presence; shall execute all process issued by the mayor, and shall enforce the ordinances, by-laws and regulations prescribed by the commissioners. He shall have all the powers to collect the taxes of the town that are given by law to sheriffs and tax collectors to collect county taxes. He may be required to give bond with sufficient sureties, payable to the State, upon which suit may be brought to the use of the town by the commissioners. He may serve all civil or criminal process anywhere in Caldwell County, directed to him by any justice of the peace of Caldwell County, or the mayor of the town, and shall be entitled to the same fees therefor as a constable.

Oath of marshal.

Powers and duties.

Bond of marshal.

Fees.

Further compensation for marshal.

Sec. 22. The commissioners may, in addition to the fees of the marshal's office, allow him such monthly compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable.

Tax collector to settle monthly.

Sec. 23. The marshal, or other officer authorized to collect taxes, fines or penalties, shall make a settlement at least once a month of all moneys coming into his hands, with the town treasurer or other officer authorized to receive the same; and if he shall fail to make such settlement, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Town property to be turned over.

Misdemeanor; punishment.

Sec. 24. All municipal officers, mayor, commissioners, or tax collector of the town, who shall, on demand, fail to turn over to their successors, upon demand, the property, books, moneys, seals, or other effects of the town, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and imprisoned not more than six months, or fined not exceeding two hundred dollars, at the discretion of the Court.

Tax lists.

Sec. 25. The town tax lists shall at all times be under the control of the board of commissioners, and shall be subject to corrections by them, and shall be open to public inspection.

Commissioners may open streets.

Sec. 26. The board of commissioners may open such streets as they may deem necessary, and discontinue such as may not be required for the public convenience.

Ordinances to be printed and posted.

Sec. 27. The commissioners shall cause their ordinances to be printed and posted in four or more public places in the said town, but all ordinances shall be in force from the time of their adoption by the board of commissioners, unless otherwise expressed therein.

Sec. 28. The corporate limits of the town shall be a circle two miles in diameter, with the present post-office as a center.

Violation of ordinances a misdemeanor.

Sec. 29. The violation of any ordinance of the said town shall be a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

Prohibition.

Sec. 30. No spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold in the corporate limits of said town, or within one mile of the boundaries thereof, and any person violating this section shall be triable in the Superior Court, and punished within the discretion of the Court, and for the purposes of this section, any person, firm, or corporation delivering such liquors within the corporate limits of such town, or within one mile of its outside boundaries, shall be deemed and taken as the agent of the seller, and punished accordingly.

First officers named.

Sec. 31. Until the election of town officers on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven, the following mayor and board of commissioners are hereby appointed: mayor, W. A. Mortimer; commissioners, S. T. Jackson, C. F. Patton and Lawrence H. Coffey.

Sec. 32. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 6th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 34.

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, OF WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, TO ISSUE BONDS AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Preamble.

Whereas, The Young Men's Christian Association, of Wilmington, North Carolina, a corporation organized for the purpose of promoting the spiritual, intellectual, social and physical welfare of young men, is the owner of a large building and lot of land in the city of Wilmington, and is desirous of pledging its credit for the purpose of paying off its present debt and for the more effectual accomplishment of its objects, and has not sufficient funds therefor: therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond or note issue authorized.

Section 1. That for the purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said "The Young Men's Christian Association," of Wilmington, North Carolina, to issue bonds or notes in such denominations and payable at such times as it may see fit, said bonds to bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent., payable semi-annually.

Amount.

Sec. 2. The bonds or notes so issued shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall not run longer than twenty years; but after the said bonds, or any of them, shall become due and payable, said corporation is authorized to issue new bonds or notes for the same amount, or any part thereof, under the terms and provisions of this act.

Bonds may be renewed.

How bonds or notes authenticated.

Sec. 3. The said bonds or notes shall be signed by the president of the corporation and attested by the secretary, and the seal of the said corporation shall be affixed thereto.

Deed of trust.

Sec. 4. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to execute to such person or corporation as it may see fit, a deed of trust upon its property, real or personal, or any part thereof, and upon the rents arising therefrom, to such extent as it may deem wise to sufficiently secure the payment of the said bonds and interest on the same.

Exemption from taxation.

Sec. 5. That all the property, real or personal, of the said corporation and the rents and profits arising therefrom, so long as the same is used exclusively for the purpose of paying the interest upon the indebtedness and for supporting The Young Men's Christian Association, and not for investment, shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes, whether city, county or State.

Sec. 6. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 7. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 7th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 35.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE NANTAHALA RAILROAD, FLUME AND TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, INCORPORATED BY CHAPTER 341, PRIVATE LAWS OF 1905.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter three hundred and forty-one, Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: That C. W. Kibler, W. A. Boyd and C. T. Roane, together with such other persons as may be associated with them, their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate under the name they may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, may adopt and have a common seal which they may alter at pleasure, may adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management and government of its business and officers as may be deemed proper; shall have perpetual succession and enjoy all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises usually pertaining to corporations, said corporation to exist for ninety-nine years.

Corporators.

Corporate powers.

Capital stock.

Sec. 2. That the capital stock of said corporation shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), with privilege of increasing said stock, from time to time, by a vote of a majority of the stock, to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), said stock to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Meeting of organization.

Sec. 3. That when the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall have been subscribed and paid in, the incorporators herein named may call a meeting of the stockholders, who may elect a board of directors consisting of not less than three nor more than seven stockholders, and said board of directors may elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers and employees as they may deem expedient, and fix their compensation: Provided, that the present board of directors and officers shall continue in office until their terms expire and until their successors are elected.

Directors.

Officers and employees.

Location.

Sec. 4. That the principal office and place of business of said corporation shall be at Nantahala, North Carolina, but the directors may, at any time, change the place of its principal office and principal place of business, and may establish branch offices at other points in the State when they may deem it expedient, and may hold their meetings and transact the business of the corporation at any of such offices.

Property transferred.

Sec. 5. All property, real and personal, franchises, easements and privileges heretofore belonging to said corporation, in the name of "Nantahala Railroad, Flume and Transportation Company," shall be and remain the property of said corporation, under this amended charter, in the name of "Nantahala Transportation Company," for the purposes herein named, and all liabilities, in law or equity, which may exist against said corporation under the charter heretofore existing shall be and remain against said corporation under said amended charter.

Liabilities.

Flumes and canals.

Sec. 6. That said corporation shall have the power to lay out, construct, equip, maintain and operate flumes or canals to contain running water for the transportation, by means of floating, lumber, cord-wood, acid-wood, tan-bark, fuel, shingles, shingle-blocks, staves and all other woods and materials of which such flume is capable of carrying in a practical manner, from a point on the Murphy branch of the Southern Railway, near Nantahala station, up and along the Nantahala River in Swain and Macon counties to its source, also such flumes or canals from a point where Whiteoak Creek empties into Nantahala River, up, along and near Whiteoak Creek to its source, and main or branch flumes up and along Goldpit and Holloway creeks and other tributaries of Whiteoak Creek; also, to construct, maintain and operate flumes or canals up and along the various tributaries to the Nantahala River intersecting with said main flume or flumes; and, also, branch flumes up the tributaries to the various streams flowing into the Nantahala River. That said corporation shall have the right to take and hold any such grants of land, rights-of-way and water privileges as may be made to it, for the purpose of aiding in the construction and operation of said flumes, and to acquire, purchase, hold and use all such property, both real and personal, and all such rights and easements as may be necessary or convenient for the construction, maintenance or operation of said flumes, or which may be necessary for yards or for obtaining and conducting water.

Terminals and routes.

Condemnation of land.

Sec. 7. That, for the purpose of locating, surveying, preparing for, constructing and operating said flumes or canals, said corporation is authorized to enter upon any lands through which it may desire to conduct such flumes or canals and appropriate thereof not exceeding fifteen feet wide for said purposes, and may appropriate such lands as may be necessary for yards, and may enter said lands or contiguous lands along the route as may be necessary to obtain material, obtain and conduct water, and may have rights of ingress and egress to and from said flume lines at any point, over a practical route, from nearest public highway as may be necessary in the construction of said flumes, and shall pay the proprietors of the land so entered on or appropriated such sums as may be agreed on between them. If said corporation and land-owner shall be unable to agree as to the value of the land appropriated, or the damage sustained by the land-owner by such entry hereinbefore authorized, either party shall have the right to institute a special proceeding against the other for the condemnation of said land and the appraisement of the value thereof, or for the appraisement of the damages which may be sustained under and by virtue of authority in this act, in the same manner and by the same procedure as is provided for the condemnation of land and appraisement of values and damages for the construction of railroads set out in sections two thousand five hundred and eighty (2580) to two thousand five hundred and ninety-six (2596) inclusive, of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, which statutes shall constitute the procedure for such proceeding as fully as if the same were incorporated herein: Provided, that neither party to such proceeding shall be required to make, serve, file, or set out in any pleading or petition any map or profile of any such line, but a description of the land, with the name or description of the water-course followed by any such line, shall be sufficient as a description of the land sought to be condemned.

Process for condemnation.

Proviso: maps and profiles.

Rules and regulations.

Sec. 8. That said corporation shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations relative to receiving and floating lumber, bark and such other woods and things of which the flumes are capable of floating, to enforce such rules when not prohibited by law, against public policy, nor against any rule or regulation of the Corporation Commission lawfully made; shall provide yards reasonably convenient to the public on each of said flumes when constructed; shall receive at such yards and float to its terminus and properly stack or yard for shipment convenient to a side-track of the Southern Railway, or deliver to the Southern Railway for shipment, as may be agreed upon, all lumber, tan-bark, cord-wood, acid-wood, fuel, shingles, staves, shingle-blocks and all other products of the forest of which said flumes are capable of floating in a practical manner, which may be delivered upon any such yard for such purposes by any and all persons, companies or corporations who conform to the rules and regulations adopted by said corporation, as herein authorized; and shall have the right to charge and collect reasonable freight rates or tolls for such transportation, and shall, for such purpose, arrange a schedule of rates for the floating of said various woods and timbers from each yard as the same may be established, and post a copy of such schedule on or near each of said yards, and all patrons of such flumes shall be charged according to such schedule. Freight and tolls. Rates to be posted.

Sec. 9. That the State Corporation Commission shall have the same supervision and control over rates, tolls, the handling of freight and other privileges authorized by this act as said commission has by law over railroads and other common carriers, in so far as the same applies to the class and nature of business proposed to be carried on by said corporation. Corporation commission.

Sec. 10. That said corporation shall have the right to erect, construct, maintain and operate telephone and telegraph lines and stations along the routes for the various flumes authorized by this act, and to collect reasonable tolls and compensation for the use of same and for the transmission of messages, as are allowed by law. Telephone and telegraph lines.

Sec. 11. That the said corporation is authorized and empowered to carry on the business of buying and selling timber, timber lands, dealing in timber, lumber and all other products of the forest, and of manufacturing timber and lumber of all sizes, kinds and forms. May deal in lumber.

Sec. 12. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 7th day of February, A. D. 1907.

Ties decided. Sec. 10. In case two or more persons receive an equal number of votes for mayor or aldermen, so that there is no election, then the registrar and judges shall determine the matter by their votes.

Vacancies. Sec. 11. If any judge or the registrar shall fail to be present on the day of election his place shall be filled by the mayor at once, or by the remaining election officers, and, if at any time the registrar is temporarily unable to act as such, the mayor may appoint a temporary registrar to act for him after being duly sworn, or if a vacancy should occur in said office, for any reason, the mayor shall appoint to fill the vacancy.

Ballots. Sec. 12. Ballots shall be on white paper and without device. The mayor and aldermen shall be voted for on one ballot.

Rules for municipal elections. Sec. 13. That all municipal elections for whatever purpose, not otherwise provided herein, shall be conducted in like manner as elections for members of the General Assembly, and the election officers shall have like authority. The registrar and judges shall receive for their services such compensation as the board of aldermen may provide.

Pay of registrars and judges.

Officers-elect to qualify. Sec. 14. That the mayor-elect and the aldermen-elect shall, within five days after the election, unless unavoidably prevented, then as soon as possible, before the outgoing mayor or Clerk of the Superior Court, or some justice of the peace of the county, take the oath prescribed for public officers, and an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties imposed upon them by law, and shall, within that time, convene for the transaction of business and fix the times for the regular meetings during the year, which shall be as often as once a month.

Penalty on aldermen for failure of duty. Sec. 15. That if the aldermen shall fail to give notice of election, to hold and declare the same in like manner herein prescribed, each of them as shall be in default shall forfeit and pay, for the equal benefit of the city and him who shall sue for the same, one hundred dollars.

Penalty for failure to qualify. Sec. 16. That any person elected mayor or alderman who shall refuse to be qualified as such shall forfeit and pay to the use of the town the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Vacancy in office of mayor or aldermen. Sec. 17. If any vacancy shall occur in the office of mayor, by failure to qualify, death, resignation or other cause, the board of aldermen shall elect a mayor for the unexpired term, and the said board shall likewise fill any vacancy that may occur in the board of aldermen, and all persons so elected shall be clothed with all the authority and powers in like manner and extent as if they had been regularly elected by the voters of the town.

Mayor constituted special court. Sec. 18. The Mayor of the Town of Newton shall be, and is hereby constituted, a special court, with all the jurisdiction and powers now and hereafter given to justices of the peace, in criminal offenses occurring within the limits of said town, or within one mile of the corporate limits of said town, or upon any water or sewer lines of the town, or upon any easement or property belonging to the said town, or within the limits of the Newton Graded School District; and shall have like jurisdiction and powers in all matters pertaining to the enforcing of the collection of taxes and assessments levied and made by the town aldermen, including proceedings by garnishment and distress of property; and may cause to be arrested persons found within said limits, or anywhere in the county of Catawba, charged or convicted of crime in other counties or States, and may bind such persons to appear at the proper tribunal to answer for their offenses, and in proper cases may imprison them; he shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction to try all misdemeanors, consisting of violations of ordinances of said town, and upon adjudged violations he shall have authority to enforce the collection of penalties by issuing executions; and he shall preserve the peace and execute the laws and rules made by the aldermen; and he may issue warrants or other process without complaint, when he is satisfied that there has been a violation of the law; and his endorsement of the names of witnesses upon a summons or warrant shall be authority for the officer to subpœna the witnesses named thereon; and the mayor shall have the authority to issue a capias for any witness or other person summoned to appear before said court and failing to appear, and shall have power to fine such witness or other person not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) or imprison such witness or other person not exceeding thirty days for each offense, when it shall appear that such failure was wilful: Provided, in all cases there shall be a right of appeal, unless otherwise provided by law: Provided further, the mayor shall have full power and authority to punish for contempt as is provided for justices of the peace in chapter seventeen (17), Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, and the right of appeal shall be governed by the provisions of said chapter.

Jurisdiction.

Proviso: appeals.

Proviso: punishment for contempt.

Sec. 19. In the mayor's court, whenever any person shall be adjudged to be imprisoned by the said court, either as a punishment or for failure to pay fine and costs, it shall be competent for said court to sentence such person to imprisonment in the county jail (or in the town prison) for a term not exceeding thirty days, and to adjudge also that such person work during such term on the public streets or other public works of the town, or that such person be hired out to some responsible person, or be worked on the public roads of Catawba County (whenever the county shall establish a road force or chain-gang), upon such terms and regulations as the town aldermen may prescribe.

Convicts may be sentenced to labor.

Precepts.

Sec. 20. That the mayor shall issue his precepts to the chief of police or other lawful officer of said town, or to the sheriff or other lawful officer of Catawba County. That section one thousand four hundred and fifty-five, Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, shall not apply to trials before the mayor.

Mayor to keep minutes of proceedings. Force of judgments.

Sec. 21. That the mayor shall keep a faithful minute of the precepts issued by him and of all his judicial proceedings. The judgments rendered by him shall have all the force, virtue and validity of judgments rendered by a justice of the peace, and may be executed and enforced against the parties in Catawba County and elsewhere in the same manner and by the same means as if the same had been rendered by a justice of the peace for the county of Catawba. The mayor and police officers of the town shall have as full and ample jurisdiction in the territory outside of the town of Newton for one mile in all directions from the corporate limits of the town, and upon any water or sewer lines of the town, and upon any easements or property belonging to the town, and within the limits of the Newton Graded School District, as within the town.

Extent of jurisdiction of mayor and police.

Further duties of mayor.

Salary.

Sec. 22. The mayor shall keep the seal of the corporation and perform such duties as shall be required by, or shall from time to time be prescribed by, the commissioners, and he shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board of commissioners, not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

Mayor to preside at meetings of aldermen. To vote in case of tie.

Sec. 23. That the mayor shall preside at all meetings of the board of aldermen, except as otherwise herein provided, and when there is an equal division upon any question, or in the election of officers by the board, he shall determine the matter by his vote, and he shall vote in no other case.

Special meetings of aldermen.

Sec. 24. That special meetings of the board of aldermen may be held on the call of the mayor or a majority of the aldermen, and all aldermen who can be found at their residences or places of business not joining in the call shall be notified of the meeting, but no notice shall be required when the board at a regular meeting adjourns to a subsequent specified time.

Powers of aldermen.

Sec. 25. That the aldermen, when convened, shall have power to make, and provide for the execution thereof, such ordinances, by-laws, rules and regulations for the better government and general welfare of the town, as are not inconsistent with this act or the Constitution or laws of the State; and all ordinances of the town of Newton now in force or hereinafter enacted shall, when so specified, apply with equal force to any or all of the territory outside of the town limits, for one mile in all directions from the town limits, and upon any water or sewer lines of the town, and upon any easements or property belonging to the town, and within the limits of the Newton Graded School District.

Penalty on aldermen for failure to attend meetings.

Sec. 26. The board of aldermen shall prescribe a penalty for the failure of any aldermen to attend a regular meeting of the board, or a special meeting of which he shall have had notice, unless prevented by cause satisfactory to the board; said penalty shall not be less than one dollar, and it shall be the duty of the mayor to enforce collection of the same.

Mayor pro tem.

Sec. 27. That the board of aldermen shall elect or appoint some member of their board or other discreet person, a qualified voter of the town, "mayor pro tempore," who, in the absence, sickness or other disqualification of the mayor to act, or in case of vacancy, or upon request of the mayor, shall perform all the duties and shall have and exercise all the powers, authority and jurisdiction of the mayor, and during such time shall receive the fees and emoluments of the office.

Aldermen to elect other officers.

Sec. 27a. That the aldermen, at the first meeting after their election, or as soon thereafter as convenient, shall elect or appoint a clerk, a treasurer, an attorney, a tax collector, a chief of police, a street overseer, and shall have power, from time to time, to appoint such policemen or police force as the good government of the town may require, and may appoint such other officers or employees as they may deem best for the government of the town.

Oaths of officers and employees.

Sec. 28. The following officers, mayor, aldermen, city clerk, treasurer, city attorney, chief of police, policemen, tax collector, street overseer, registrars and judges of election, and all other officers elected by the voters of the town, shall, before acting, each take and subscribe the oath prescribed by article six, section seven of the Constitution of North Carolina, and such additional oath as may be required by this charter or by the board of aldermen, and all other officers or employees elected or appointed by the mayor or board of aldermen shall take and subscribe such oath as may be required by this act or by the mayor and aldermen. Official oaths shall be taken before the mayor or other officer authorized to administer oaths, and be filed with the mayor, and by him filed or recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

Oaths to be taken before mayor and filed.

Officers and employees to serve at pleasure of board.

Proviso: term specified.

All officers or employees appointed or elected by the board of aldermen shall be elected or appointed to serve during the pleasure of the board, unless otherwise herein provided: Provided, if so specified in the order appointing or electing, they shall serve until the next election for mayor and aldermen, and then continue until their successors are elected and qualified, subject, however, to be removed at any time by the aldermen for misbehavior or neglect of duty. Before entering upon the discharge of their duties, the tax collector and the treasurer shall each give bond in a sum of not less than two thousand dollars, which may be increased at the discretion of the aldermen, and all other officers appointed by the board may be required to give bond in such sum as the aldermen may determine, and all bonds shall be conditioned for the faithful discharge of such duties as may be required of them; all bonds to be approved by the aldermen. All officers shall receive such compensation as the board of aldermen may allow: Provided, in fixing the compensation of officers the board may require any officer, in consideration of the compensation allowed, to pay over to the use of the town any fees allowed by law for services performed by him. The tax collector may be paid a commission or salary.

Pay of officers.

Proviso: fees.

Offices may be consolidated.

Sec. 29. The chief of police may be tax collector, also street overseer, and one and the same person may be city clerk and treasurer. Any person may hold one or more of the offices mentioned in the preceding section, or other position, in the discretion of the aldermen.

Duties of city clerk.

Sec. 30. The city clerk shall keep regular and fair minutes of the proceedings of the board, preserve all books, papers and articles committed to his care during his continuance in office, and deliver them to his successor, and perform such other duties as may be directed by the board of aldermen, or by law.

Duties of treasurer.

Sec. 31. The treasurer shall demand all moneys or securities belonging to the town, which ought to be paid or delivered into the treasury, receive and faithfully keep all moneys paid to him for the use and benefit of the town, and disburse the same according to the orders of the board of aldermen, appearing on the minutes or otherwise, or by other authority conferred by them; he shall keep a fair and correct account of all moneys received and disbursed by him, in a book kept for that purpose, showing from what source money is received and for what purpose paid out, and shall submit said accounts to said board whenever required; he shall deliver to his successor all moneys, securities and other property in his hands, belonging to the town, and during his continuance in office faithfully perform all duties imposed on him as town treasurer by law; he shall annually make out a statement showing the sources of receipts and disbursements and the amounts, and submit the same to the board for publication.

Annual statement.

Duties and powers of tax collector.

Sec. 32. The town tax collector shall be vested with the same power and authority in the collection of taxes that sheriffs have, and subject to the same fines and penalties for failure or neglect of duty; he shall be charged with the sums appearing by the tax lists as due for town taxes; he shall be credited in settlement, as sheriffs are credited, with amounts in suit by appeal, all poll tax and taxes on personal property which the board of aldermen shall declare to be insolvent or uncollectible, all errors and overcharges; he shall at no time retain in his hands over one hundred dollars for a longer time than five days, under a penalty of ten per cent. per month to the town for all sums so unlawfully retained. The board of aldermen, at the meeting before the last regular meeting of each fiscal year, shall appoint one or more of their number to be present and assist at the accounting and settlement between the tax collector and the town treasurer, and to audit and settle the accounts of the clerk, treasurer, chief of police, other policemen and other officers. The accounts so audited shall be reported to the board of aldermen and, when approved by them, shall be recorded in the minute book of said board, and shall be prima facie evidence of their correctness, and impeachable only for fraud or specified error. It shall be the duty of said board to remove any tax collector who shall fail to settle and fully pay up the taxes by law due from him, or any other town officer who shall wilfully fail to account for and pay over any money due from him to the town; and such tax collector or other officer shall not be eligible to re-election.

Accounts reported to aldermen.

Removal of tax collector.

Sec. 33. The policemen or members of the police force shall give bond for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed by law, the charter and the town ordinances, and to faithfully account for all moneys that may come into their hands by virtue of their offices. The chief of police shall have the supervision and control of the police force, and it shall be his duty to report to the mayor any dereliction of duty on the part of any member of the police force, and at the end of each month he shall have a settlement with each policeman on account of the fines and costs collected and such other funds as may come into their hands for the town. It shall be the duty of the chief of police to attend the mayor's court each day and report violations of law or the ordinances of the town, collect fines and penalties imposed and pay same to mayor or treasurer as he may be directed, execute all orders and judgments of said court, see that the laws and ordinances are enforced, and do such other things as may be required of him by the board. The chief of police and each member of the police force shall have all the power and authority vested in sheriffs and constables for the preservation of the peace of the town, and the outlying territory, rights-of-way, easements and property of which the mayor and police officers are hereinbefore given jurisdiction, by suppressing disturbances and apprehending offenders; they shall execute all processes directed to them by the mayor or others, and in the execution thereof shall have all the powers which sheriffs and constables have.

Policemen to give bond.

Chief of police; powers and duties.

Sec. 34. Arrests may be made by the chief of police or any police officer of the town anywhere in Catawba County. And the chief of police or any policeman shall have power to arrest offenders and suspected offenders without warrant, (1) whenever any felony, misdemeanor or the violation of any town ordinance shall be committed in his presence, or admitted in his presence by the offender; (2) whenever, in his presence, any person attempts or expresses an intention to commit a crime, or there is reason to believe such person intends to attempt to commit a crime without sufficient delay to procure a warrant or other process; (3) whenever he has sufficient cause to believe a felony, misdemeanor or violation of a town ordinance has been committed and he has cause to believe that the suspected offender may make his escape before a warrant can be obtained, and (4) whenever he has information as to fugitives from justice from other counties and States, and he has cause to believe the suspected fugitive in the town may escape before a warrant could be obtained, or (5) whenever a warrant has been issued against the person to be arrested and is outsanding unexecuted in the hands of any police officer of the town of Newton, or in the hands of the sheriff, constable or other lawful officer of Catawba County. Whenever any arrest is made by any town officer, it shall be lawful for him to subpœna any by-stander as a witness, and such subpœna shall be as binding as though made upon authority of a written subpœna from any competent authority to issue the same.

Subpœna of by-stander.

Police to take bail.

The chief of police or policeman may take bail in sufficient amount for the appearance before the mayor, on a day named by him, of any person arrested with or without a warrant, on the charge of a misdemeanor or violation of town ordinances, and may justify sureties to such bonds, and shall, as soon as possible, return such bonds to the mayor's court, or they may accept a cash deposit in lieu of bond, and the mayor shall have power to take bond in the same manner as a justice of the peace, and all proceedings in the mayor's court to enforce the bond against defaulting defendants, witnesses and sureties shall be the same as before a justice of the peace: Provided, out of the collection of penalties and forfeited deposits, all costs of the prosecution and costs of collection shall first be paid. The mayor may remit any part of forfeited recognizances. That the chief of police or any policeman shall have power to re-arrest, upon the same warrant, any person who has been convicted and turned loose on the statement that he will pay fine and costs, upon failure to pay the same, or any person who has failed to appear as per the terms of any bond taken, or any person who has made an escape after arrest.

Mayor to take bonds. Procedure to enforce bonds.

Re-arrests.

Persons arrested taken before mayor.

Sec. 35. Whenever any arrest has been made by any police officer of the town, the prisoner shall without delay be taken before the mayor, unless bond be given as aforesaid, for trial, except in the following cases: (1) When the arrest is made after five o'clock P. M. and before eight o'clock A. M.; (2) when the arrest is made on Sunday; (3) when the person arrested is in an inebriated or intoxicated condition; (4) when for any reason trial cannot be had and the officer thinks best to imprison the person arrested for safe-keeping, or imprisonment is necessary for safe-keeping, and in any of these cases the police officers are authorized to lodge the prisoner in the county jail or in a town prison, without mittimus or other commitment, and the county sheriff or jailer of Catawba County shall receive such prisoners, without mittimus or other commitment, into the common jail of said county, and shall safely keep such prisoners until the next morning (Sunday excepted), and until sober, when the offender shall be brought before the mayor of the town and be dealt with according to law, and for such services the jailer shall be entitled to such fees as he is in other cases: Provided, the town may provide and use a prison of its own in like manner. If a prisoner shall be adjudged guilty, he may be required to pay the cost of imprisonment.

Fees of jailer.

Proviso: town prison.

Prisoner convicted taxed with costs.

Sec. 36. The board of aldermen may require all police officers to receive and turn over to the town all fees arising from the execution of process issued by the mayor or others, which shall be the same as sheriffs receive for like services. The board shall pass ordinances for the government and direction of the police. The mayor may appoint temporarily additional policemen for such time as shall appear necessary, who shall take the same oath and be subject to the same control as regular police officers.

Fees may be turned over to town.

Additional policemen.

Sec. 37. The mayor may suspend the chief of police or any policeman for misconduct until the board shall convene and hear the proofs, when they may discharge or restore such officer, and the pay of such officer shall cease from such suspension until restoration to service. And the mayor shall suspend the chief of police or any member of the police force if found drunk while on duty. All police officers may be required to wear badges and be so armed and uniformed as to be readily recognized by the public as peace officers, but the mayor or chief of police may authorize any officer to appear on duty in plain clothes.

Mayor may suspend policemen.

Badges and uniforms.

Sec. 38. The mayor or board of aldermen may employ detectives and the board of aldermen may offer rewards for the capture and conviction of criminals who are offenders against the town ordinances or the laws of the State, when the offense is committed within the town or the outlying territory of which the mayor and police officers are given jurisdiction.

Employment of detectives.

Sec. 39. The aldermen may appoint weighers and inspectors of provisions and other products, auctioneers and such other officers as they may deem proper for the good government of the town and for its welfare; to make all rules and regulations governing said officers, prescribe their duties, fees or remuneration, and may require any of them to give bond as provided for other officers.

Weighers, inspectors and auctioneers.

Sec. 40. That, in order to raise a fund to pay the expenses incident to the proper government of the town (including interest on the outstanding indebtedness and also on any indebtedness that may be incurred by authority of this act, unless otherwise provided for), the board of aldermen shall annually levy and collect the following taxes, viz.:

Taxing powers.

Property tax.

(1) On all real estate and personal property within the corporate limits of the town, and upon all other personal property and all other subjects, including money, bonds, stocks, franchises, etc., taxed by the General Assembly ad valorem, and permitted under the general law to be taxed by cities and towns, a tax not exceeding one dollar on every hundred dollars valuation thereof as of the first day of June of each and every year.

Poll tax.

(2) On all persons who are residents of said town on the first day of June in each year, and subject to poll tax under the laws of this State, a poll tax not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents on each.

Advertisement for listing taxes.

Sec. 41. The town clerk shall, prior to the first day of June of each year, make advertisement in some newspaper published in the town, or at the court-house door, notifying all persons liable for poll tax in the town, or who own or have control of property liable for taxation in the town, on the first day of June, to list the same with him on or before the last day of June; said lists shall state the color and the age of persons liable for poll tax, and shall show the number of lots or parts of lots, acres of land and all other property now taxable or that may hereafter be made taxable by the laws of the State or the ordinances of the town, and the lists so returned to the clerk shall be sworn to, and the clerk is authorized to administer the following or similar oath: "I, ..., do solemnly swear that the tax list made out and signed by me contains a full and accurate list of all property, real and personal, which I am required by law to list for taxation in the town of Newton, either as agent or owner, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief; so help me God." And every person liable for poll tax, and every person having property liable for tax, shall make such list and take the oath.

Tax lists to be sworn to.

Form of oath.

Clerk to make out tax lists.

Sec. 42. The clerk shall, on or before the first day of August next ensuing, make out, in a book to be kept for that purpose, an alphabetical list of all persons liable for taxation in the town of Newton, giving the age and color of each, designating all persons liable for poll tax, and giving the assessed valuation of all real estate and the listed value of all personal property, said list to be made from the returns made to the clerk; and the said list shall be continued and added to by the clerk, who shall make diligent inquiry from any source whatever and careful examination of the county and other tax lists for the same year, and shall enter on said book and list the names of all persons liable for town tax, who have failed to list with the clerk, giving age, color, poll designation, and the valuation of all property appearing against such persons on the county or other tax list and liable for town tax.

Assessment by clerk.

All real estate in the town not assessed shall be assessed by the clerk at its true value, and all personal property liable for town tax, not listed or valued, shall be listed and valued by him at its true value. All persons liable for tax in the town, and failing to list with the clerk or with the township or county list-taker, shall, in like manner, be entered on the town list, and the clerk shall ascertain and list and value their property and list their polls: Provided, that all assessments of real estate and all lists of personal property and the valuation thereof may be revised, amended, corrected and equalized by the board of aldermen at any time, and the valuation of any property may be raised, after giving five days' notice to the person liable for taxation, or to his agent, to show cause why such change should not be made; and property having escaped taxation for previous years shall be entered on the town tax list and the person liable therefor charged with taxes for the year or years for which it so escaped, not exceeding five years, together with the taxes on the same for the year in which it is so entered: Provided further, that all polls and property so entered on the town tax list by the clerk or by order of the commissioners shall be as binding on the persons against whom the same is charged as if they had listed the same with the clerk.

Proviso: aldermen may revise list.

Back taxes.

Proviso: tax list binding on persons charged.

Sec. 43. That the aldermen may, at any time after the first day of June, in each year, either before or after the clerk has submitted the tax list to them, levy the taxes on polls and property subject to taxes in the town; and as soon as the clerk shall have completed the tax list and the same shall have been revised by the board of aldermen (if revision be necessary), and the taxes levied by the board, the taxes shall be computed by the clerk and entered on the said list, and the clerk shall prepare a list of taxes in book form for the convenience of the tax collector, and the aldermen shall place the tax list in the hands of the tax collector, who shall at once proceed to collect the taxes as charged thereon, and all taxes thereon shall immediately become due. All taxes appearing on the tax list shall have the full force and effect of a judgment against the person charged, and may be collected by distress and sale as provided by law. Any person, firm or corporation shall be allowed a discount of two per cent. if they shall pay the full amount of his, their or its taxes on or before the first day of December of the year in which taxes were listed; no discount to be allowed on taxes paid between December first and January first; and each person, firm or corporation failing to make payment of such taxes before January first next after said taxes were listed shall pay a penalty of one (1) per cent. of the total amount of their taxes for each month or fraction of a month until said taxes are paid, said penalty to be charged in the tax receipt and collected as a part of the taxes levied by the aldermen. The tax collector shall make a full settlement of the town taxes on or before the first day of April next after the listing of the taxes, and for a failure to do so shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense.

Aldermen to levy taxes.

Clerk to prepare tax book.

Taxes to have force of judgment.

Discount for payment.

Penalty for delayed payment.

Final settlement of tax collector.

Penalty for failure.

Failure to list a misdemeanor.

Sec. 44. That any person liable for poll tax in the town who shall wilfully fail to list their poll, and any person who shall wilfully fail to list property in the town, which he is required by law to list, and within the time allowed by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction before the mayor or any justice of the peace, shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, and it shall be the duty of the tax collector to prosecute offenders against this section: Provided, the aldermen may require them to be charged on the tax list with double tax.

Punishment.

Proviso: double tax for failure to list.

Collection by distress.

Sec. 45. That if any person liable for taxes on subjects directed to be listed shall fail to pay the same when due, the tax collector may proceed to collect the same, by distress and sale, together with all costs, after ten days' advertisement by notice posted at the court-house door, if the property to be sold be personalty; and when the tax due on any lot, land or real estate of any kind (which tax is hereby declared to be a lien on the same) shall remain unpaid on the first day of January, and there is no other visible estate of the person in whose name it appears on the tax list, liable to distress and sale and known to the tax collector, the tax collector shall report the same to the aldermen, and he shall sell all such real estate at the court-house door, after advertising the same for thirty days in some newspaper published in the town of Newton, on any day named in such advertisement, except Sunday or a legal holiday, to the highest bidder for cash. The costs of advertising and sale shall not exceed one dollar. The tax collector may divide said land into as many parts or lots as he may deem convenient, and for that purpose he is authorized to employ a surveyor, adding the costs to the amount of unpaid taxes, and shall sell as many parts thereof as may be required to pay said taxes and all penalties, costs and expenses thereon. If it is not deemed convenient to divide such lands, or if any part or parts thereof will not sell for enough to pay the taxes, penalties, costs and expenses, the collector shall sell the whole. If no person will pay the whole of the taxes, penalties, costs and expenses for the whole of the real estate, the same shall be bid off by the collector for the town of Newton, and the same shall belong to the town in fee, unless redeemed in the manner and time prescribed by law and this charter. The tax collector shall, as soon as convenient thereafter, return to the board of aldermen a statement of his proceedings, showing the purchaser or purchasers of such real estate and the amount for which each piece or part thereof was sold, which shall be entered by the clerk upon the minute book of the board of aldermen; and if there shall be any surplus after paying said taxes, penalties, costs and expenses, the same shall be paid to the town treasurer, subject to the demand of the person entitled, without interest.

Advertisement and sale of real estate.

Costs.

Returns to be made to aldermen and recorded.

Right of redemption.

Sec. 46. The owner of any real estate sold for taxes, penalties, costs and expenses, as aforesaid, or any person acting for such owner, may redeem the same at any time within one year after the sale by paying to the purchaser the sum paid by him for said real estate and twenty-five (25) per cent. on the amount of the taxes, penalties, costs and expenses; and the treasurer shall refund to the owner, without interest, the proceeds of the sale, less double the amount of taxes, penalties, costs and expenses.

Conveyance of property not redeemed.

Sec. 47. If any real estate sold for taxes, etc., as aforesaid, shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the same shall be conveyed in fee to the purchaser or his assigns, by a deed signed by the tax collector, attested by the town clerk, with the corporate seal attached; and the recitals in such conveyance shall be conclusive evidence that the tax collector has complied with all the requirements of law necessary to make the same valid, and the deed shall be presumptive evidence that the taxes for which the property was sold are due and unpaid. No such sale of real estate for taxes shall be invalid on account of the same having been charged in any other name than that of the rightful owner, if said real estate be in all other respects sufficiently described to insure identification.

License taxes.

Sec. 48. That, in addition to the real and personal property and polls hereinbefore required to be listed for taxation, the board of aldermen may levy and collect a license tax on any of the following subjects, businesses, trades, occupations or professions, the amount of which tax, when fixed, shall be collected by the tax collector, and if such tax be not paid on demand, the same may be recovered by suit, or the article upon which the tax is imposed, or any other property of the person or corporation liable for such tax, may be forthwith distrained and sold to satisfy the same, namely:

Purchase tax.

(1) On every hundred dollars of the purchase price of goods, wares and merchandise, purchased for re-sale by any merchant doing business in the town within one year next preceding the first day of June of each year, a tax not exceeding twenty cents per annum.

Peddlers.

(2) On every itinerant merchant or peddler, selling or offering to sell in the town, excepting those who sell only books, charts, maps or wares of their own manufacture, but not excepting those who sell drugs, medicines or nostrums, by whomsoever manufactured, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars per annum.

Dealers in fresh meats.

(3) Upon every dealer in fresh meats, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars per annum.

Vehicles for hire.

(4) Upon any or all of the following: Every omnibus, hack, cab, carriage, dray, baggage wagon or other vehicle used to transport persons, baggage, freight or other articles, for hire, a tax not exceeding twenty dollars per annum.

Dogs.

(5) Upon every dog within the corporate limits of the town, a tax not exceeding five dollars per annum, and any person who owns or has in his possession a dog shall be liable for the tax, and any dog at large on the streets, the tax not having been paid, may be killed by any police officer: Provided, the aldermen may discriminate within above limits on dogs of different species and sexes; and any person who shall own or keep a dog on which the tax has not been paid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not more than double the tax.

Proviso: discrimination.

Dealers in explosives and weapons.

(6) On all persons or corporations selling or dealing in fire-crackers, cannon-crackers, roman candles or other fire-works, a tax not exceeding one hundred dollars a year; on all persons dealing in pistols, cartridges, metallic knuckles or sling-shots, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars a year.

Bill-posters.

(7) On every person engaged in posting, distributing or tacking up bills, posters, signs or advertisements, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars a year.

Miscellaneous occupations.

(8) On any of the following: Every building and loan association, oil agency, hotel, boarding-house, restaurant, eating-house, livery-stable, sale stable, dealer in musical instruments or agent of the manufacturers, sewing-machine company or agent, stock-yard, dealer in coal or wood, insurance agent or agency, plumber or person putting gas, water or light fixtures in houses or yards, junk dealer, photographer, traveling photographer, auctioneer, barber shop, shoe-shiner or bootblack or their stand, undertaker, dairy wagon or vehicle, soda or mineral water fountain, real estate agent, stock or bond broker, ice-dealer, bakery, oculist, dentist, physician, lawyer, fortune-teller for reward, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars per year.

Dealers in cider.

(9) On every person selling cider, except pure apple juice, in the town or within one mile thereof, a tax not exceeding five hundred dollars a year.

Dealers in other drinks.

(10) On every person selling any other kind of drink in the town or within one mile thereof, a tax not exceeding five hundred dollars a year; but a discrimination may be made on any of the various kinds of drinks, and any kind of drink may be taxed or not, in the discretion of the board.

Opera-house or other hall.

(11) On every opera-house or other hall used for theatrical, musical or other like entertainments, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars a year.

Bottling works.

(12) On every bottling works or establishment in town or within one mile of the corporate limits, a tax not exceeding two hundred dollars a year.

Dealers in cigarettes.

(13) On every dealer in cigarettes, a tax not more than twenty-five dollars a year.

Receipts of express, telegraph and other companies.

(14) On any of the following: Every express company, telegraph company, telephone company, gas company, electric-light company, power company, street railway company, or railroad company, doing business or having an office in the town, a tax not exceeding one per cent. of the gross receipts from its business in the town of Newton for the preceding year ending on the thirty-first day of May next before the tax is levied; and any such company, its manager or agent in charge of its business in said town, shall, on the first day of June of every year, make to the town clerk a written return, under oath, of the amount of such gross receipts; and any company, manager or agent failing or refusing to make such returns shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, and a specific license tax shall be levied on such company not exceeding five hundred dollars; and the aldermen may discriminate between the various companies according to business engaged in or otherwise. In lieu of the tax on gross receipts, a specific license tax of not more than five hundred dollars may be fixed and collected, discriminating between the different kinds of companies, business done or otherwise.

Returns of receipts under oath.

Specific tax on companies.

Specific tax in lieu of tax on receipts.

(15) Upon any of the following: Every circus, company of circus riders or performers, by whatever name called, exhibiting in the town or within one mile thereof, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars for each performance or separate exhibition; and upon every side show connected therewith, a tax not exceeding ten dollars.

Circus riders.

Side shows.

(16) Upon every person or company exhibiting in the town or within one mile thereof, stage or theatrical plays, sleight-of-hand performances, rope-dancing, tumbling, wire-dancing, menagerie, and other shows, including dog and pony shows, if under canvas, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars a day; if in a hall, a tax not exceeding ten dollars for each performance.

Stage plays and other performances.

(17) On each exhibition for reward of artificial or other curiosities, a tax not exceeding ten dollars a day; on each concert or musical entertainment, and on each lecture for reward, and on all other shows or exhibitions or entertainments, a tax not exceeding ten dollars for each performance on any one of the same: Provided, plays, shows or other amusements given in a regularly licensed hall or opera-house shall not be taxed; nor where same is given solely for religious, charitable or educational purposes.

Exhibitions of curiosities.

Lectures.

Proviso: exceptions.

(18) On every merry-go-round, hobby-horse, switch-back railway, Ferris wheel, skating-rink and like contrivance, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars a year, and on every pool table, billiard table, bagatelle table, bowling alley, bowling saloon, shooting gallery, and every other table, alley, stand, place or contrivance for any other game or play, with or without a name, unless used for private amusement or exercise alone, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars a year; and on every jack or stallion standing in the town, a tax not exceeding twenty-five dollars per year.

Merry-go-round and like contrivances.

Pool tables and like contrivances for games or play.

Jacks and stallions.

Street privileges. (19) On all street privileges of any and every kind, such license tax as may be fixed by the aldermen or by their authority, by the day, week, month or year.

Other subjects. (20) The board of aldermen shall have power to levy a license tax on any business, profession, occupation, trade, avocation or subject not otherwise authorized herein, not to exceed two hundred dollars per annum.

License year. The license year shall begin the first day of June of each and every year, and every license issued under the annual rate of taxation shall expire on the thirty-first day of May following; and when such license is taken out after the first day of June, the tax shall be proportioned according to the unexpired portion of the year.

Occupations classified. That the board of aldermen shall have power to levy and collect license taxes on any or all of the subjects, businesses, trades, occupations, professions, or contrivances included in any or all of the subdivisions of this section, in their discretion, and may divide any of the same into classes according to size, patronage, income or otherwise: Provided, the tax on any class shall be uniform.

License for less than year. And the said board may, in their discretion, authorize the issuing of a license by the day, week, month, or months, on any of the persons, subjects, trades, etc., included in subdivisions two, three, four, six, seven, eight, ten, eleven, eighteen and twenty, at such rate as they may authorize, which rate shall be higher than pro rata of the annual rate.

Carrying on business without license a misdemeanor. Any person, persons or corporation carrying on or practising any business, trade, profession, or avocation of any kind on which a license tax has been levied, or any person or corporation in any way becoming liable for license tax levied by the board of aldermen, without having first paid the tax and obtained a license therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Punishment.

Revocation of license. The board of aldermen may revoke any license at any time for cause satisfactory to the board.

Fire department. Sec. 49. That the board of aldermen may provide for the organization, equipment, maintenance and government of a fire department, and such number of fire companies as they may deem necessary.

Fire limits. Sec. 50. That the aldermen shall establish and maintain fire limits in the town, within which it shall be unlawful to erect or repair wooden buildings or additions thereto, or any metal-clad frame building, or to remove any wooden or metal-clad frame building of any kind into said limits; and said board may prohibit the removal of any such building from one place to another within said limits, and shall prescribe penalties for the violation of any provisions of this section.

Building regulations.

Sec. 51. The board may make rules and regulations governing the erection and construction of buildings in the town, in the fire limits, and also for buildings in the town outside of the fire limits, for the better prevention of and protection against fire. They may prohibit or restrict the explosion of fire-works or other explosives of any kind, and regulate and govern the storage and sale thereof in the town, and may make any and all regulations and laws that may be deemed best for the prevention and extinguishment of fires.

Fire-works and explosives.

Destruction of buildings to stop fires.

Sec. 52. In case of fire the mayor, or in his absence a majority of the aldermen, may order the blowing up, tearing down or destruction in any other way that may seem best of any building when it is deemed necessary to stop the progress of the fire; and no person shall be held civilly or criminally liable for acting in obedience to the orders thus given.

Light plant and water-works system.

Sec. 53. That the town may construct, own, maintain, operate, and from time to time extend and improve a light plant and a water-works system for the necessary purposes of furnishing lights to the town and its citizens, and water for fire protection and other purposes; but the town shall in no case be liable for a failure to furnish a sufficient supply of either water or light: Provided, if the town's power plant should at any time furnish more power than is continuously needed for the operation of the light and water plants it may sell and furnish power to individuals and corporations, or the town may purchase power to operate its plants.

Proviso: purchase or sale of power.

Condemnation of land for light plants and water-works.

Sec. 54. That the board of aldermen may acquire and hold rights-of-way, water rights and other property within and without the town limits, and shall have power to condemn and take rights-of-way, easements, water rights and other property, within or without the town limits, for the purpose of getting, storing, maintaining and furnishing a pure and adequate supply of water and for furnishing lights for the town and its citizens. That the proceedings in said condemnation shall be the same as are herein provided for the condemnation of land for streets and other purposes.

Procedure.

Water and light commission.

Sec. 55. That, for the proper management of the light plant and water system, a commission, to be known as the "Water and Light Commission," may be established by the board of aldermen, and, if established, shall consist of three members, whose terms shall be, respectively, one, two and three years, and their successors shall each be elected for a term of three years. All vacancies to be filled by the aldermen. The said commission shall organize by the election of one of its members as chairman, the chairman to be elected annually.

Vacancies; organization.

Powers and duties of commission.

Sec. 56. That the said commission shall have entire supervision and control of the maintenance, improvement and management of the light plant and water plant or system, and shall fix such rates for water and lights as they think best, and change and alter the same from time to time (including rates for lights furnished the town and water for public purposes, including hydrants for fire protection): Provided, that any person may appeal from its decision as to rates to the aldermen and their decision shall be final, until the said commission shall change the rates: Provided further, that the light and water systems may be extended beyond the town limits, upon such terms and conditions as the board of aldermen may determine.

Proviso: appeal to aldermen.

Proviso: extension of light and water systems.

Officers, agents and employees.

Sec. 57. That said commission shall elect all officers, agents and employees necessary to the conduct of said plants, and fix their remuneration; but the board of aldermen shall determine who shall give bond, and fix the amount thereof. And the board of aldermen may allow a remuneration to the members of the said commission, but such remuneration shall continue only until a new board is elected and qualified.

Pay of commission.

Funds to be kept separate.

Sec. 58. That the said commission shall keep its funds in the hands of the town treasurer, but in an account separate from the other town funds; said funds to be paid out only on the order of the said commission or as authorized by it. At the end of each quarter the said commission shall report to the aldermen its receipts and an itemized statement of disbursements, with recommendations as to disposition of funds on hand, and the aldermen may order any part of the funds transferred to the general fund.

Quarterly reports.

Duties of aldermen if commission not established.

Sec. 59. If the said commission be not established, the board of aldermen shall perform the duties and exercise the powers herein conferred on said commission.

Powers of aldermen in prevention of fires.

Sec. 60. The board of aldermen may make all regulations and take all proper means to prevent and extinguish fires; may make ordinances to prohibit or control the sale and use of fire-arms, fire-works, torpedoes and other explosive material; to control the manner in which powder, oil or other explosive or inflammable substances may be kept and sold, and to regulate and control the construction an arrangement of stove-pipes and flues in buildings.

Ordinances in relation to water-works and light plants.

Sec. 61. The board of aldermen shall have full power and authority to make all ordinances, rules and regulations for the protection of the water-works system and the light plant, as well as each and every part thereof; for the regulation of the use thereof, and to enforce the prompt payment of the rents for water and lights; for the introduction of water into or upon any premises. If rents for water or lights be not paid at the times prescribed, the board of aldermen, the water and light commission or other person authorized may cut off either water or lights, where the rents have not been paid, and shall not supply such person or premises in arrears with water or lights or both, as the case may be, until the sum due, with interest thereon, shall have been paid.

Sec. 62. The board of aldermen shall have power to lay out, change and open new streets and sidewalks, to widen, change in any way or extend those already open; to grade, macadamize, pave, concrete, cement or in any other way improve the streets and sidewalks of the town, as they may deem best for the public good; to acquire, lay out, establish and, with the mayor, regulate and control parks, squares or other public grounds, within or without the town limits, for the use of the town; to protect and regulate the planting of shade trees on the streets, sidewalks, public parks and squares of the town, and to top and trim the same; to remove any trees or parts of trees, or roots interfering with proper improvements, from time to time, or plant other trees, on the streets, sidewalks, public parks and squares, as the board or superintendent of streets may deem best; to permit the erection of telegraph, telephone, electric-light, street-car and other poles upon the streets, sidewalks, alleys, parks, squares or other public grounds of the town, under such regulations as they may make; to prohibit or prevent the erection of such poles, and to make ordinances to control and regulate all such poles as shall have been or hereafter may be so erected, and the use of the same, at any and all times, and they may remove or cause to be removed the same or any of them, at any time, and in such manner and upon such notice as to them shall seem proper, and all expense thereof shall be paid by the owners thereof; to regulate, control, license, prohibit and remove all structures and things of whatsoever name or character, being or growing, erected, constructed, put or placed on, above or under the streets, parks, squares, alleys, sidewalks or other public grounds of the town; to prevent the erection of barbed-wire or dangerous fence or structures along or near the streets and sidewalks; to require all property owners to properly protect the public from dangerous places or things on their property near any street or walk; to regulate or prohibit cellars or entrances to cellars on or under the sidewalks; to regulate the speed at which animals or vehicles or other things may be ridden, driven or in any way propelled or moved on, along, through or over the streets and public grounds; to require all railroads to keep all street crossings in good repair for the full width of the street and sidewalks in such manner and way as the board may designate, and to keep the streets, walks and public yards around the depots in good condition and repair and clean; to prohibit or regulate and Powers of aldermen as to streets.

control the stopping of railroad cars and engines on the street crossings; to require railroads to place electric signals or other signals or other protection at street crossings to give notice of approach of trains and to protect the public; to regulate and control the running of other cars and engines of whatever kind through or in the streets; to require property owners to prevent water from roofs, spouts or drains dropping or flowing on the sidewalks or streets, and to prevent water from ditches and drains from lots flowing into the streets, and to adopt such ordinances, with such penalties, as they may deem best to carry into effect the foregoing powers, together with all other ordinances for the control, regulation and use of the streets, sidewalks, alleys, parks, squares and other public property of the town, as they may deem best for the public welfare.

Privileges, franchises and charters may be altered or revoked.

Sec. 63. All privileges, franchises and charters heretofore granted or that may hereafter be granted by the board of aldermen of said town, and all ordinances thereof conferring any such privileges, franchises or charters, may be altered, amended, modified, repealed or revoked by the board of aldermen, from time to time, anything in said privileges, franchises, charters or ordinances contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Road duty.

Sec. 64. The board of aldermen may require all able-bodied male persons residing within the incorporate limits, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, to work on the streets not exceeding six days in any one year, and may make regulations by which, upon the payment of a sum of money not exceeding four dollars, the said person may be exempted from street labor. Any person failing to work when summoned in accordance with the ordinances of the town, and failing to pay the sum fixed as an exemption, shall be liable to the penalties of the ordinances.

Lot owners to keep sidewalks in good condition.

Abutting property to contribute to improvements.

Sec. 65. That the owner or lessee of any lot abutting on a public street shall keep the sidewalks clean and in good condition along such lot, and for failure to do so shall be subject to such penalties as the board of aldermen shall prescribe; and whenever, by order of the board of aldermen, any sidewalk shall be curbed, paved or otherwise improved, or any gutter adjoining shall be macadamized, paved, cemented or otherwise improved, the owner or owners of any lot abutting on such sidewalk shall pay such part of the costs and expenses of grading, paving, macadamizing, cementing or otherwise improving such sidewalk and the adjoining gutter, ditch or drain, including the making of foot-crossings, the entire length of such abutting property, as the board of aldermen may order, not less, however, than one-half of the entire cost and expenses, whether said improvements shall be made in front, in rear or on the sides of said property: Provided, such sidewalks shall thereafter be kept in good condition and repair and all private driveways and crossings shall be made by the owner or owners of the lot or lots; and whenever, by order of the board of aldermen, any street shall be macadamized, paved, repaired or otherwise improved, the owner of any lot abutting on such street shall pay one-half of the cost of said improvements, from the sidewalk to the middle of the street, along the entire distance his or their lots abut on such street. All improvements made as herein provided shall be done under the strict supervision of the superintendent of streets or other official authorized to superintend the same, and all improvements made by the town shall be done by the town forces or by contract, and the actual proportion of the cost ordered by the board of aldermen shall be charged to the abutting property, and the said charge shall be a lien on said property, and, if not paid within thirty days after the completion of the work, the said abutting property may be sold, or enough thereof to pay such cost and expenses of sale, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions, rights of redemption and savings as are prescribed in this charter for the sale of land for unpaid taxes, or the same may be collected by suit to foreclose the lien. Any work or improvements or repairs required to be done by the owner of any lot or the lessee shall be done upon such notice as the aldermen shall prescribe, and upon default the same shall be done by the town, and the cost thereof shall be a lien on the property as aforesaid, and shall be collected as herein provided for other improvements: Provided, that when the town has any of the said work or improvements done as provided for in this section, the aldermen shall give the owner of the abutting property ten days' notice of the amount charged against his property; and if the said owner is dissatisfied with the amount of said charge he may give notice to the board of aldermen within ten days aforesaid that he takes an appeal to the next term of the Superior Court of Catawba County, and shall, within five days thereafter, serve a statement of facts upon which he bases his appeals: Provided, the costs and charges for improvements to be assessed against property, as herein provided, shall in no case exceed the special enhancement or increase in value of said property occasioned by reason of any improvements made under authority of this section: Provided further, in addition to the foregoing provisions, the board of aldermen may adopt ordinances imposing penalties on persons or corporations failing to make any improvements or repairs authorized by this section, after being ordered so to do by the board of aldermen.

Charges for improvements a lien on property.

Notice to owners to make repairs.

Proviso: notice to lot owners.

Appeals.

Proviso: costs not to exceed benefits.

Proviso: penalty for failure to make improvements or repairs.

Sec. 66. That the board of aldermen may grant franchises to street railway companies, and, when any franchise is so granted, the railway company shall be required to pave and keep in repair at least the portion of streets occupied by its tracks; and, on failure by the company, the town shall do such paving and repairs and charge the company double the costs thereof, and the said charge shall be a lien on the property of said company, whether real or personal, anywhere in the county of Catawba, and shall be collected as is provided by law for the collection of taxes. Any portion of the streets so paved by any railway company shall be deemed as a part of the street to be improved at the expense of the town, and in no case shall the same be deducted from the part for which the abutting property is liable.

Condemnation of land for streets.

Sec. 67. That when any land or right-of-way shall be required for the purpose of opening new streets, widening, extending or changing those already open, or for any other purpose or object allowed by this charter or by the general law, and for want of agreement as to the compensation therefor, and the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners at what the board of aldermen consider a reasonable price, the same may be condemned by the board of aldermen and taken at a valuation to be made by three disinterested freeholders of the town, one of whom shall be chosen by the board of aldermen and one by the owner or owners or their agent, and, in case these two do not agree, then the two thus chosen shall elect a third: Provided, if the owner or owners or their agent fail to choose a freeholder as aforesaid within five days after notice calling on them so to do shall have been posted by the mayor or clerk at the court-house door and at the mayor's office, or such notice shall have been personally given, the mayor shall choose such freeholder for him or them; and in making said valuation said freeholders, after giving the owner or owners or their agent notice, or after giving ten days' notice in a newspaper published in the town or posting same at the court-house and mayor's office, in case such owner cannot be found in the town, and, after being duly sworn by the mayor, a justice of the peace or other person authorized to administer oaths to act and perform their duties impartially and fairly, shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner in consequence of the land or right-of-way being surrendered, also any benefit or advantage such owner may receive from the opening, widening, extending or changing such streets or other improvements or purposes for which said lands or right-of-way be taken, and ascertain the sum, if any, which shall be paid to the owner of said property, and report the same to the board of aldermen, under their hands and seals, which report, on being confirmed by the board of aldermen and spread upon their minutes, shall have the effect of a judgment against the town of Newton, and shall pass the title to the town of the land so taken, and the land may at once be taken and used by the town for the purpose intended: Provided, that if any person whose land or property is condemned and taken under this section, or the board of aldermen, be dissatisfied with the valuation thus made, then and in that case either party may have an appeal to the next term of the Superior Court of Catawba County, and the party appealing shall give notice of such appeal to the other party within ten days after notice of such valuation: Provided, however, that such appeal shall not hinder or delay the board of aldermen in taking said land or property and using the same for the purposes and objects intended, whether opening, widening or changing streets or making other improvements allowed by this charter or the general law. Proviso: appeal not to delay action.

Benefits to be considered.

Report to have effect of judgment.

Proviso: appeal.

Sec. 68. That the board of aldermen shall have power to construct a sewerage system for the town, and protect and regulate the same and the use thereof by adequate ordinances, and may condemn a right-of-way when deemed advantageous to place any part of the same on private property, and condemn a right-of-way, to and for a proper outlet, either within or without the corporate limits of the town, and the proceedings for condemnation shall be as herein provided for opening new streets and other purposes. Sewerage system.

Sec. 69. That the aldermen may require all persons on a line of sewer to connect their premises with the said sewer with proper fittings and plumbing. Sewer connections.

Sec. 70. That the board of aldermen may charge and collect a sewer rental in such a reasonable amount and collectible at such periods as it may prescribe for the use of said sewer, said rental to be based on the number of sinks, closets, etc., connected with the sewer, or otherwise, as the board may determine, and in case the rental is not paid when due, it shall become a lien on the property with which connections are made, and may be collected in the same way as unpaid taxes and with the same costs and penalties. Sewer rental.

Sec. 71. That the board of aldermen may require the removal of night soil from the town, and may provide for the removal thereof by the town, by means of carts or otherwise, and may have any or all houses not connected with the sewer system visited for the purpose of such removal, at such periods as may be prescribed by the board, and may collect from the owner or lessee of every dwelling, storehouse, factory or other place in the town, not connected with the sewer system, and so visited, a sum not exceeding three dollars ($3) per annum for each dwelling, and for other houses and places such charges as shall be reasonable, graduated according to the size or use of such houses or places; and the board of aldermen may also require the removal of garbage, slops and trash from the town, and may provide for the removal thereof by the town, by means of wagons, carts or otherwise, and in that case may have any and every house used as a residence, store, boarding-house, hotel, or other place in the town or parts thereof, visited for the purpose of such removal, at stated intervals, and may require the owner or occupants of such houses and places to have the garbage, slops and trash ready in a convenient place and receptacle, so that it may be easily removed, and may charge therefor a fee not exceeding nine dollars ($9) per annum on each Sanitary regulations.

house, and the said charges may be graduated according to size or use of the house or place, or otherwise, as the board may determine. The charges authorized under this section and made by the board of aldermen to be due and collectible at such time as the said board may prescribe, and shall be a lien on the property where such house or place is situated, and if not paid when due shall be collected as provided for the collection of unpaid taxes, with the same costs and penalties.

Further sanitary regulations.

Sec. 72. That the board of aldermen shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to regulate and control the manner in which dogs or hogs may be kept in the town, or may prohibit the same; to regulate and control the location and condition of slaughter pens, or prohibit the same; to regulate and control the location and manner of keeping in sanitary condition of all privies, stables, sties, and other places likely to become a nuisance or injurious to public health, and to cause all lots, alleys, cellars, privies, sties, stables, slaughter pens and all other places to be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and may appoint a sanitary committee or sanitary policeman or other officer, who shall have authority to enter any premises for the purpose of examination, and to have any premises in bad order cleaned, and the board or officer designated by the board shall have power summarily to remove, abate or remedy, or cause to be removed, abated or remedied everything which is dangerous or prejudicial to the public health, and all expenses of having any premises cleaned, or of removing, abating or remedying anything dangerous or prejudicial to health, shall be paid by the owner or occupant of the premises or other person in default, and if not paid, to be a lien upon the land, premises or property where the trouble arose or existed, and shall be collected as unpaid taxes are collected, with twenty-five per cent. added thereto.

Sanitary committee or officers.

Powers of board or officer.

Lots to be drained, cleaned and filled up.

Failure a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Work done by town lien on lot.

Sec. 73. The board of aldermen or the mayor or sanitary officer shall have power and it shall be their duty to notify the owner of any lot upon which water stands or stagnates to cause the same to be drained, cleaned and filled up, and if the owner fails so to do in five days after the service of such notice the owner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days; and the draining, cleaning and filling up shall be done by the town, and the expense, with twenty-five per cent. added, shall constitute a lien upon the lot or lots, and may be recovered by action before a court having jurisdiction; and any cellar, well, hole or other dangerous thing on any lot may in like manner be filled or removed, and costs and like penalty be recovered in like manner.

Hospitals and pest-houses.

Further sanitary regulations.

Sec. 74. That the board of aldermen may establish and maintain a hospital or hospitals or pest-houses within or without the town limits; may stop, detain, examine and place or keep in a pest-house or house of detention any person having or suspected of having any infectious or contagious disease; may quarantine the town or any part thereof or any house; may cause all persons to be vaccinated; may, without incurring liability to the owner, remove, fumigate or destroy furniture, bedding, clothing or other property which may be suspected of being tainted or infected with any infectious or contagious disease, and may do all other proper and reasonable things to prevent or stamp out contagious or infectious diseases; and all expenses incurred by the town in disinfecting or caring for any person by authority of this section shall be paid by the person cared for or those liable for the care of such person.

Cemeteries.

Sec. 75. That the board of aldermen may establish, maintain and regulate one or more cemeteries within or without the town limits, and may condemn lands necessary for cemetery purposes, and the proceedings in said condemnation shall be the same as are herein provided for the condemnation of lands for streets and other purposes.

Cemetery trustees.

Sec. 76. The board of aldermen may appoint a commission of three persons, to be known as the "Cemetery Trustees," who shall have entire charge of the cemetery or cemeteries, with full power to employ a keeper and other employees to care for and improve the cemeteries; and the aldermen shall make an annual appropriation for the support of cemeteries, which appropriation shall be at the disposal of said trustees or the chairman thereof. The proceeds from the sale of cemetery lots and burial rights and privileges and other income from cemeteries shall be used for beautifying and improving the cemeteries, and for no other purpose.

Appropriation for support.

Sale of cemetery lots.

Sec. 77. The cemetery trustees may sell lots, parts of lots or burial places and privileges to such persons, at such prices and upon such terms, as they may deem best, and may refuse to sell a lot or parts of lot to any person, in their discretion, and no person shall sell or transfer a lot or part of lot to another person without the consent of the trustees: Provided, that in the sale of lots only the privilege of burying therein, subject to the rules and regulations of the trustees and the ordinances of the town, so long as the interment of bodies may be permitted by the town, shall be acquired by the purchaser, but the same shall be subject to the regulation, control and supervision of the said trustees in all respects. All lots unpaid for, in whole or in part, for the space of thirty days shall be resold, either publicly or privately, by the chairman of the trustees or the cemetery trustees. All deeds for lots, parts of lots or privileges and all permits shall be signed by the chairman of the cemetery trustees and attested by the town clerk.

Proviso: privilege of buying.

Lots unpaid for resold.

Powers of trustees.

Sec. 78. The trustees shall have power to remove trees, vines, shrubs or any other growth or structure or thing whatever within the cemetery, and may plant or erect or place other trees, vines, shrubs or structures therein; they shall have power to make all rules and regulations, not in conflict with the ordinances of the town, governing the grounds, the interment of bodies therein and the keeping and use and improvement of the cemeteries, and may require the removal of bodies buried without first obtaining a written permit. Any person violating any of the rules and regulations prescribed by the said trustees shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Term of trustees.

Sec. 79. The board of aldermen shall fix the term for which the trustees shall serve, and on failure to elect the trustees the aldermen shall have all the power and perform all the duties herein conferred on the cemetery trustees, and in that case all deeds shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk, and all permits shall be given by the mayor. The powers conferred on the trustees shall not prevent the aldermen from making ordinances for the better protection and regulation of the cemeteries. The aldermen may prohibit the interment of dead bodies within the town limits. The board of aldermen may require all persons owning plots in the cemetery to keep the same clean and in good condition, and from time to time to make such improvements, upon such notice as is prescribed in case of sidewalk and street improvements, as the said cemetery trustees may order. In case of failure of any owner of a plat or part of a plat to put or keep the same in the condition required by the trustees, or make such improvements as the trustees may order, the cemetery trustees may have the work done and collect from the owner the cost of such work, with twenty-five per cent. added; and if not paid on demand the owner shall forfeit all right to the plat, and the same shall be sold and the proceeds applied to the improvement of the cemetery.

Ordinances for regulation of cemeteries.

Town prison, market and hall.

Sec. 80. The board of aldermen are authorized to purchase or construct, erect and improve a building or buildings for the purpose of having a town prison, a town market, a town hall or for any other purpose they may deem for the best interest and welfare of the town, and in the erection or purchase of any such building they may have storerooms, offices or other rooms or hall for rent, and may have and conduct an opera-hall, or lease the same upon such terms as may seem best. Theaters and other shows using said opera-house may be exempt, by order of the board, from all license taxes. The aldermen shall have full authority to make all rules and regulations prohibiting, restricting and governing shows and entertainments of any and all kinds, and the conduct of persons attending the same.

Sec. 81. The aldermen shall have power to establish, maintain and regulate a market or markets, and may prescribe the time, manner and place of sale of fresh meats, fish and other marketable products; fix rents for stalls; appoint a keeper, inspector or other officers of the market; may designate an officer to inspect fish, meats and other products, and said officer shall have power and it shall be his duty to summarily condemn all unsound products offered for sale in the town for food, and cause the same to be removed at the expense of the person offering it for sale or having it in his possession. Market regulations.

Sec. 82. Any person who shall knowingly offer for sale any unsound article for food shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days. Offering unsound food for sale a misdemeanor. Punishment.

Sec. 83. That the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Newton is hereby authorized and empowered to create a debt or borrow money for necessary expenses and improvements, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of five thousand dollars, to be repaid as soon as may be from the general taxes of the town. Aldermen may borrow money. Limit.

Sec. 84. That to refund the present bonded indebtedness of the town, seven thousand dollars of which matures October first, one thousand nine hundred and nine; to construct, install and operate a water-works system and an improved electric-light plant, and to construct a system of sewerage for the town; to erect or purchase buildings and grounds authorized by this charter; to improve the streets and sidewalks of the town, all of which are declared to be necessary improvements, and for such other improvements and expenses as shall be deemed necessary, the board of aldermen are hereby authorized and empowered, in the name of the town of Newton, to issue bonds, from time to time, in such denominations and forms as it may determine, to an amount not exceeding the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, to be payable at such time or times and at such place or places as the board of aldermen may prescribe: Provided, the time of payment of said bonds shall not be more than thirty years from their date, and the bonds issued at any time may be divided into classes so as to mature at different dates. Bond issue authorized. Amount. Proviso: time of payment; bonds may be classified.

Sec. 85. That said bonds shall bear interest from their date, at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, which interest shall be payable at such times and places as shall be determined by the said board; and the said bonds shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk, and shall have affixed thereto the corporate seal of the town of Newton. The coupons shall be signed by the mayor only. Said bonds shall be exempt from taxation by the town of Newton or the Newton Graded School District. The board of aldermen shall sell of cause to be sold the said bonds, or any part of the same, at public or private Interest. How bonds and coupons attested. Exempt from municipal taxation. Sale of bonds.

sale. The money arising from the sale of said bonds, or any part thereof, shall be paid to the town treasurer and may be used for any of the purposes hereinbefore specified and no other:

Proviso: purchasers of bonds not responsible for use of proceeds.

Provided, nothing in this act shall be construed so as to require the purchaser or purchasers of any of said bonds to see that the purchase-money is applied as directed by this act.

Election on bonds.

Sec. 86. That no part of said bonds shall be issued until the question of issuing the same shall first be submitted to the qualified voters of the town of Newton, at an election to be called by the board of aldermen for that purpose, which election may be held at the same time as the election of mayor and aldermen or at any other time named by the board of aldermen. Notice of said election shall be published for thirty days prior to the day of election, and a new registration of voters may be ordered by the said board upon like notice, published in a newspaper published in the town of Newton or posted at the court-house door. All elections under this section shall be held and governed, as regards the registration of voters and the holding of the election and declaring the result, by the same laws, rules, regulations and requirements as are herein provided for other municipal elections in the town of Newton. The notice of election shall set forth the amount of bonds proposed to be issued and, as near as may be, the purposes for which they are to be issued. All qualified voters in favor of issuing such bonds shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "For Improvement Bonds," and those opposing the issue shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "Against Improvement Bonds." If at any such election a majority of the qualified voters vote in favor of issuing bonds, then the board of aldermen shall issue the bonds mentioned in the notice of election, at the pleasure of the board. The question of issuing bonds may be submitted to the qualified voters of the town, from time to time, until the full amount of one hundred thousand dollars shall have been authorized by the voters of the town.

New registration.

Law governing elections.

Form of ballots.

Successive elections.

Payment of interest on debt.

Sec. 87. That the board of aldermen shall pay the interest on the present indebtedness of the town, and the interest on all bonds issued and sold by authority of the preceding sections, out of the taxes authorized by this charter to be levied and collected to pay the expenses incident to the proper government of the town (including the outstanding indebtedness and any indebtedness that may be incurred by authority of this act, not otherwise provided for), or may pay the same out of any other funds or taxes, water or light rents or other charges coming into the town treasury and not directed by law to be applied to any special purpose.

Sinking fund for bonds.

Sec. 88. That the board of aldermen, in order to provide a sinking fund for the payment of any such bonds at maturity, may set aside each year a part or all of the net profits from the operation of the water-works system and electric-light plant, and may set aside such sum as they may determine from the general funds of the town, which shall be invested and secured as they may determine, and they shall levy and collect taxes sufficient to pay said improvement bonds at maturity; and notwithstanding the limit of taxation herein prescribed, the board of aldermen shall annually levy and collect sufficient taxes to pay the interest on the said bonds.

General ordinances.

Sec. 89. The board of aldermen shall have power to make all necessary ordinances and regulations for the due observance of Sunday; to control the manner in which commercial fertilizers are stored; to cause the preservation of good order in the town and enforce the ordinances; to suppress and remove nuisances; to prohibit all trades and occupations which are a nuisance from being carried on in the town (this power to extend as far as the mayor and police officers are given jurisdiction); to prohibit the running at large in the town of dogs, horses, cattle, hogs, goats or other animals; to prohibit or control the standing of stallions, jacks or other animals within the town; to control and regulate the sale and purchase of scrap iron, brass and copper and other junk, and may require dealers to keep a record of all purchases and person from whom purchased, and persons violating any provisions of the aldermen shall be prohibited from dealing in such articles.

Building permits and regulations.

Sec. 90. That the board of aldermen may require every person to obtain a permit before erecting any building or structure within the town limits, and may make rules and regulations governing the location of buildings; and on any street or block may establish a building line, prohibiting the erection of any building nearer the street than the line so established, and may prescribe penalties for violation of such regulations.

Extra payments to mayor validated.

Sec. 91. That amounts paid to the mayor for extra services in the administration of the affairs of the town, during three years preceding this date, not exceeding five hundred dollars over and above the mayor's salary prescribed in the charter, is hereby declared to be valid, and a proper expenditure of the town, by the board of commissioners.

Police to serve process.

Sec. 92. That it shall be lawful for the chief of police or any police officer of the town of Newton to serve all process, civil or criminal, that may be directed to them by any court, under the same regulations and penalties as are or may be prescribed by law in the case of sheriffs or constables in the county.

Convict work on streets.

Sec. 93. That it shall be lawful for the authorities of the town of Newton to work such prisoners as may be at any time confined in the jail of Catawba County on the streets and other public works of the town, and to that end it shall be lawful for the said authorities to contract with the board of county commissioners for the employment of any such prisoners.

Failure to turn over property a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Sec. 94. That any officer of the town of Newton who shall, on demand, fail or refuse to turn over to his successor in office, or other proper officer, the property, books, moneys, seals or other effects of the town, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisoned not exceeding five years.

Tax lists subject to alteration and inspection.

Sec. 95. All tax lists which have been or may hereafter be placed in the hands of the tax collector shall be, at all times, subject to the control of the authorities imposing the tax, and shall be subject to be corrected or altered by them, and shall be subject to inspection by the public, and upon demand of such authorities shall be surrendered for inspection and correction; and any tax collector who shall fail or refuse to surrender the same upon such demand shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Violation of ordinances a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Sec. 96. Any person, persons or corporation violating any ordinances of the town of Newton shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, unless otherwise provided, shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Aldermen to pass ordinances.

Sec. 97. That the board of aldermen shall make all such rules, regulations and ordinances that may be deemed necessary to carry into force and effect any or all of the powers conferred by this act, and in all cases may impose penalties not exceeding fifty dollars, unless larger penalties are permitted by this act or other statutes.

Power to sell real estate.

Proviso: cemetery lots.

Sec. 98. That the board of aldermen, by a majority vote of those present, shall have power to sell any real estate belonging to the town, and, when so authorized, a deed for said real estate may be executed by the mayor and attested by the clerk, and shall have the corporate seal attached thereto: Provided, this section shall not apply to sale of cemetery plats.

Penalties recoverable.

Docketed as judgments.

Sec. 99. That all penalties imposed by law, relating to the town, or by this act or by any ordinance of the town of Newton, unless otherwise provided, shall be recoverable in the name of the town of Newton, before the mayor or any court having jurisdiction thereof, and may be docketed in the Superior Court of Catawba County, as judgments of justices of the peace, and shall become a judgment of the Superior Court.

Fines or penalties worked out.

Sec. 100. That in all cases where judgments shall be entered up against any person for fines or penalties, according to the laws and ordinances of the town of Newton, and the person against whom the same is so adjudged refuses or is unable to pay such judgment, it shall be lawful for the mayor, before whom such judgment is entered, to order and require such person so convicted to work on the streets or other public works until, at a fair rate of wages, such person shall have worked out the full amount of the judgment and costs of prosecution.

Fees of mayor.

Sec. 101. The mayor shall be entitled to the following fees, in cases herein enumerated, whereof he may have jurisdiction as mayor: For every warrant issued by him for the recovery of any penalty for the violation of any of the ordinances of the town or for a violation of the criminal laws of the State of which the mayor shall have final jurisdiction, fifty cents, and for every judgment rendered thereon, seventy-five cents; for every warrant issued by the mayor for violations of the criminal laws of the State, where he has not final jurisdiction, one dollar, but no fee for judgment thereon, and he shall be entitled to such other fees as are or may hereafter be prescribed by law for justices of the peace in like cases, all such fees as above to be taxed in the bill of costs; for every warrant issued to arrest individuals who have fled from other counties or States, two dollars, to be paid on removal of offender by such person as may convey him away; for the use of the town seal for other than town purposes, fifty cents; for every certificate for other than town purposes, not more than fifty cents. In view of the amount of the mayor's salary, fixed by the board of aldermen, the board may require the mayor to collect such fees and turn the same over to the town treasurer for the use and benefit of the town.

Restrictions on railroad companies.

Sec. 102. That it shall be unlawful for any railroad company to grade, build or construct, alter, change or move the location of any line of track through any part of the corporate limits of the town of Newton, or to build, erect or remove or change the location of any depot within the town of Newton, without first having obtained the unanimous consent of the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor of the Town of Newton.

Present town officers continued.

Sec. 103. That as now constituted the officers of the town shall continue in office and perform the duties of their respective offices until their successors are elected and qualified, and the persons now holding office as mayor, commissioner, and constable shall be and continue in office as mayor, alderman, and chief of police, respectively, and perform the duties of said offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

Proviso: boundary amended.

Sec. 105. That the special school tax election held in the Newton Special Tax School District, which includes all the territory within the town of Newton and the territory without the town as set out in the preceding section, on the ..... day of ....., one thousand nine hundred and five, under and by authority of the Public Acts of one thousand nine hundred and one, be and the same is hereby declared valid and legal in all respects. Special tax election. Validated.

Sec. 106. That George E. Coulter, W. B. Gaither, D. P. Rowe, W. F. Rader and S. D. Houk shall be and are hereby constituted trustees of the public schools of the Newton Graded School District, and shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified as herein provided. The successors of the first three named shall be elected at the election for municipal officers of the town of Newton in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, for a term of two years, and the successors of the last two named shall be elected at the election for municipal officers of the town of Newton in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, for a term of two years, and at the election for municipal officers of the town of Newton each year thereafter trustees shall be elected to succeed those whose terms expire: Provided, that any and all vacancies in the board of trustees shall be filled by the other members of said board, whether said vacancy shall occur by reason of death, resignation, failure to elect or otherwise: Provided, that the position of school trustee shall not constitute an office or place of trust within the meaning of article seven, section fourteen, of the Constitution of North Carolina. Trustees named. Election of successors. Proviso: vacancies. Proviso: trustee not an officer.

Sec. 107. That the said trustees named in section three and their successors shall be and are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name and style of "Board of School Trustees of Newton," and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, acquire, by gift, purchase, devise or otherwise, real and personal property, and may hold, exchange, mortgage or sell the same in any manner and to any extent the said board may deem advisable, and exercise such other rights and privileges as are incident to other corporations, and may have a corporate seal, which it may break and change at pleasure. Trustees incorporated. Corporate name. Corporate powers.

Sec. 108. That it shall be the duty of said board of school trustees to establish separate schools for the white and colored children of said school district, and they may grade the schools for either race, and shall appropriate and use the funds from special taxes and from State and county school fund in such manner as Trustees to establish schools.

may be deemed just to both races, due regard being had to difference in cost of maintaining and the requirements of said schools: Provided, donations and income for benefit of any special school shall be so applied.

Proviso: donations and income.

Powers of trustees.

Sec. 109. That said board of trustees shall have exclusive control of all public schools in said district, free from the supervision and control of the county school authorities; shall prescribe rules and regulations for the government of such schools, conduct of pupils, teachers and officers, and for the preservation, control and use of school property; may provide for the suspension and expulsion of pupils, who may be denied the privileges of said schools until reinstated by authority of said board of trustees; shall employ and fix the compensation of all teachers and officers of such schools; may require examination of teachers, and may dismiss teachers; shall cause to be taken, in accordance with the general school law of the State, an accurate census of the school population of said district and transmit a copy thereof to the county superintendent, and shall exercise any and all other powers they may deem necessary or advantageous for the successful control and operation of said schools, and the management of the school property in said district.

Trustees to adopt text-books.

Outside pupils.

Sec. 110. That said school trustees shall adopt the text-books for use in said schools, either those recommended by the State Board of Education or others; may admit pupils residing outside the limits of said district, or those under or over the public school age, upon such terms as said trustees may deem reasonable, and may fix rates of tuition to be charged: Provided, no tuition shall be charged persons between the ages of six and twenty-one years, who reside within the district, for branches required to be taught in the public schools under the general school law.

Proviso: free tuition.

Further powers of trustees.

Sec. 111. That the said trustees may erect, repair, alter and improve the school buildings and grounds, and may purchase furniture, equipments and appliances, including fixtures for heating, lighting, water supply, sewerage, etc., and may do all things they may deem advisable and for the best interests of the schools and school property in said district.

Organization.

Sec. 112. That said school trustees shall, as soon as convenient after the ratification of this act, meet and organize by electing a chairman and a secretary and treasurer. The treasurer shall give a bond in such sum as the said school trustees may require. The school authorities as at present constituted shall carry on the schools in said district until the said school trustees shall organize under this act.

Treasurer to give bond.

Present school authorities continued.

School funds paid over to treasurer of trustees.

Sec. 113. That, as soon as the said school trustees shall have organized and the treasurer of said board of trustees shall have given an approved bond, the Treasurer of Catawba County shall pay over to the treasurer of said board all school funds then in his hands and belonging to the Newton Special Tax [School] District or the Newton Graded School District, and shall in like manner pay over all such funds that shall thereafter come into his hands for the use and benefit of said district.

Taxes paid over to treasurer of trustees.

Sec. 114. That all taxes levied and collected in said district, for the use and benefit of said schools, under the authority of the general school law or under authority of this act, shall be paid over to the treasurer of said board of trustees by the sheriff or other tax collector, provided for in this act, for the benefit of the public schools in said district.

Apportionment from general school fund.

Sec. 115. That, in the apportionment of the public school funds derived from the State and from the county of Catawba, the County Board of Education of Catawba County, or others having authority under the general school law of the State, shall determine the amount to be apportioned each year to the public schools of the Newton Graded School District by dividing the whole amount of county school funds, first deducting the county treasurer's commission or part of salary to be paid out of said funds, and also the amount reserved by the county board of education for office expenses, salary of county superintendent of education, and for per diem and mileage of members of said board of education, by the total number of children of school age in Catawba County, as determined by the last school census preceding such apportionment, and then multiplying the quotient so obtained by the total number of children of school age within the said Newton Graded School District, as determined by the last school census preceding such apportionment, and the amount so ascertained and determined shall be paid by the county treasurer to the treasurer of said board of trustees, to be used for the benefit of the schools of said district, under the control and direction of said board of trustees.

Title to school property to vest in trustees.

Sec. 116. That all the property, both real and personal, of the public school districts embraced within the limits of said graded school district shall become the property of the Newton Graded School District, and the title thereto shall vest in the "Board of School Trustees of Newton," and all real estate belonging to the public schools in said limits shall be conveyed to said board of trustees, subject to the provisions of this act; and said board of trustees may, in their discretion, sell any of said property, real or personal, and apply the proceeds as they may deem best for the schools and school property of said district.

Balance to be paid to treasurer of trustees.

Sec. 117. That the County Board of Education of Catawba County is authorized and directed to pay to the treasurer of the said board of trustees of said district, out of the county school funds coming under their control, any balance theretofore apportioned to the schools in Newton Special Tax School District or appropriated to said district for building or other expenses, which has not been paid to, or drawn from the county treasurer by, said special tax district, and such apportionment and appropriation by the county board of education are declared to be valid and legal in all respects.

School district part of town for certain purposes.

Sec. 118. That for the purpose of the levy and collection of school taxes, assessment of property therefor, election for school bonds and taxes, elections for school trustees, and in all other matters affecting the public schools in the Newton Graded School District, that portion of said graded school district lying outside of the corporation limits of the town of Newton is deemed, and is hereby constituted, a part of the town of Newton, and for all the said purposes the provisions of all laws now in force or that shall hereafter be enacted relating to or affecting the public schools in said district or governing the assessment of real and personal property, the levy and collection of municipal taxes and the holding of municipal elections in the town of Newton, shall be and are hereby extended to that portion of said graded school district lying without the corporate limits of said town as fully as if the same lay within the said corporate limits.

Election to be ordered.

Sec. 119. The Board of Aldermen of the Town of Newton shall, within thirty days after the ratification of this act, either at a regular meeting of the board or at a special meeting thereof, order an election to be held in said town (including the entire school district) within forty days next after the date of said order, at which election shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said territory the question of issuing bonds in the sum of not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), to be known as school bonds.

Question to be submitted.

Notice of election.

Said board of aldermen shall give notice of said election, for twenty days before said election is held, by publication in some newspaper published in the town of Newton, or by posting a notice thereof at the court-house door.

New registration.

There shall be a new registration of voters for this election, and only those who register for this election shall be deemed qualified voters in said election.

Registrar and judges of election.

Sec. 120. That for the purpose of holding said election the aldermen of Newton (at the time said election is ordered) shall appoint one registrar and two judges of election: Provided, any the corporate limits of the town. A separate poll book shall be kept and the votes shall be deposited in a separate box. The registrar and judges shall make separate returns of said election, in duplicate, one to the board of aldermen of Newton, and one to the Register of Deeds for Catawba County, certifying the number of qualified voters registered for said election, the number of votes cast for and the number cast against said bond issue, and they shall declare the result of said election. Returns in duplicate.

Sec. 121. Except as otherwise provided herein, the registration and qualification of voters, the manner of holding the election, and all other matters pertaining to the election for school bonds shall be governed in all respects as is or shall be provided by law for elections for Mayor and Aldermen of the Town of Newton. Law governing election.

Sec. 122. Those who favor the issue of bonds and the levy of taxes herein provided for shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words, "For School Bonds," and those opposed to the issue of bonds and levy of taxes shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words, "Against School Bonds." If at said election the voters fail to authorize said issue of bonds and levy of taxes, the board of aldermen shall call an election for the same purpose, at any time or times thereafter, when requested to do so by the said board of trustees. Form of ballots. Successive elections.

Sec. 123. Whenever a majority of the qualified voters of the town of Newton shall vote in favor of school bonds and taxes, then the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Newton shall issue, from time to time, as shall be requested in writing by the board of school trustees of Newton, coupon bonds of the town of Newton, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000). Said bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall run for a term of thirty years, all of which shall bear interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and all of said bonds and interest coupons shall be due and payable on and after maturity, and upon demand, at the office of the Treasurer of the Town of Newton, and shall be dated at such time or times as shall be designated by said board of trustes. Said bonds shall be signed by the mayor of said town of Newton, and attested by the clerk, and shall have the corporate seal of said town affixed thereto. The interest coupons shall be signed by the mayor only. When any of said bonds shall have been issued by said board of aldermen of Newton they shall be turned over to the said board of school trustees, and said trustees shall dispose of the same for the best price obtainable; however, no bonds shall be sold for less than the par value thereof. Said bonds shall be exempt from taxation for municipal and school purposes, and the proceeds from sale of said bonds shall be applied first to the discharge of debts incurred in the erection and furnishing of a school building in the town of Newton, the title to which now vests in W. B. Gaither, trustee, to Bonds to be issued. Amount. Denominations. Interest. How bonds and coupons attested. Bonds turned over to trustees. To be sold at not less than par. Exempt from town and school taxation. Application of proceeds.

secure those who furnished funds, or became liable therefor, to erect and furnish the same, the balance to be applied to payment of any other indebtedness of said school district, and to build, complete and furnish school buildings, or for other school purposes, as may be determined by said trustees: Provided, any money furnished to said district by the county board of education shall not be repaid, but the same shall be deemed a gift to said district.

Special tax.

Sec. 124. If a majority of the qualified voters shall vote for school bonds, then the board of aldermen of Newton shall at the time of levying municipal taxes next after such election, and annually thereafter, levy a tax on all persons and property subject to taxation, within the limits of said graded school district, of thirty cents on the one hundred dollars ($100) assessed valuation of property and ninety cents on each taxable poll, for the purpose of paying interest on school bonds (which shall be paid to the town treasurer), and the balance to be used by the board of trustees for the benefit of the public schools in said district, and any part thereof may be set apart and invested as a fund to pay said bonds at maturity, and the said aldermen shall levy a tax in addition to the tax herein authorized sufficient to pay said bonds at maturity.

Rate.

Collection of tax.

Sec. 125. The Tax Collector of the Town of Newton shall collect the taxes levied under the preceding section and pay the same over to the treasurer of said board of trustees, retaining such commission as may be fixed by the board of trustees.

Lists for school tax.

Sec. 126. For purposes of taxation for benefit of schools, property and polls shall be listed, assessed and valued under the same laws as provided for municipal purposes: Provided, the assessors and list-takers appointed by the county commissioners or other authorities to list or assess the property and polls in Newton Township for county and State taxation shall ascertain and designate on the tax list the property and polls subject to taxation for school purposes in said school district, and it shall be legal and binding for the tax-lister for said district to copy the same on the tax list for said school district: Provided, on failure of the voters to authorize the issue of school bonds, as herein provided, taxes shall be levied, listed and collected as heretofore in said district, and by the same officers.

Proviso: copy of county tax list.

Proviso: tax if bonds not issued.

Construction of act.

Sec. 127. That the words "Commissioners," or "Board of Commissioners," "Aldermen," or "Board of Aldermen," shall be construed to mean the governing body of the town of Newton, whether designated by that name or any other name.

Law not repealed unless specifically referred to.

Sec. 128. That no part of this act relating to schools in said district shall be repealed or amended by any general law, unless the said law shall specifically designate this act and the section thereof to be repealed or amended.

Sec. 129. That at any time the "Board of School Trustees of Newton" may, by a majority vote, declare that the boundaries of the Newton Graded School District shall be the same as the boundaries of the town of Newton, and upon their request the board of aldermen of Newton shall submit to the qualified voters of said district, at the next succeeding election for mayor and aldermen, the question of change of limits of said district, at which election those favoring the proposed change shall vote a ballot, "For Change of Limits," and those opposed shall vote a ballot, "Against Change of Limits," and if a majority of the votes cast be "For Change of Limits," then and from that time the said Newton Graded School District shall include all the territory within the corporate limits of the town of Newton as shall at that time, or shall thereafter, be prescribed, and any territory outside of the corporate limits of the town, now a part of said district, shall cease to be a part of said district unless and until the corporate limits of said town shall be extended so as to include the same. The result of said election shall be certified to the board of school trustees and to the board of aldermen, and the said trustees shall certify the same to the county board of education.

Change of school district.

Election.

Form of ballots.

Sec. 130. That for the election mentioned in the preceding section, and for the election of school trustees, the provisions for the registration of voters and the holding the election shall be the same, as near as may be, as is provided for the election for school bonds: Provided, a new registration shall not be necessary.

Law governing election.

Proviso: new registration not necessary.

Sec. 131. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, so far as the same applies to the Newton Graded School District.

Repeal of laws affecting school district.

Sec. 132. That all laws or clauses of laws now constituting the charter of the town of Newton, except acts relating to the issue of bonds and the act of the General Assembly authorizing a subscription to the capital stock of the Chester and Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad, and all laws and clauses of laws of a public and general nature in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed, so far only as they may affect the town of Newton: Provided, however, such repeal shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing or accrued or established, or any suit or action commenced before the time for such repeal to take effect; nor shall any property, estate, rights, duty or obligation possessed by or due to the town, under its present name or any other, from any person or corporation whatever, be lost, affected or impaired, but the same shall remain in full force and be possessed, enforced and enjoyed, in the name and for the use and benefit of the town of Newton: Provided further, that no offense committed, no penalties or forfeitures incurred, and no suit or prosecution pending for any offense committed or any forfeiture or penalties incurred, under any of the acts or ordinances hereby repealed shall be affected by the repeal: Provided further, that no act heretofore repealed shall be revived by this act: Provided further, that all powers, rights and privileges granted to towns and cities, or that shall hereafter be granted to them, or to the authorities thereof, and not in conflict with this act, by the laws of this State shall be deemed conferred upon the town of Newton, and shall be exercised by the proper authorities thereof.

Secretary of State to furnish copy of act.

Sec. 133. That the Secretary of State shall furnish to the Mayor of the Town of Newton a certified copy of this act within five days after its ratification.

Sec. 134. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 18th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 40.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 245 OF THE PRIVATE LAWS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT THE SESSION OF 1903, AND RATIFIED ON THE 4TH DAY OF MARCH, 1903, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE WASHINGTON AND VANDEMERE RAILWAY COMPANY."

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Charter re-enacted.

Section 1. That all the rights, powers and privileges conferred by the General Assembly of North Carolina by an act ratified on the fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three, and being chapter two hundred and forty-five of the printed Private Laws of the session of one thousand nine hundred and three, entitled "An act to incorporate the Washington and Vandemere Railway Company," whereby the "Washington and Vandemere Railroad Company" was created and declared to be a body politic and corporate, are hereby re-enacted with the same force and effect as if the language of the said act was herein repeated, and the said corporation, the "Washington and Vandemere Railroad Company," is hereby re-created and declared to be a body politic and corporate, with the same rights, powers and privileges hereafter as were contained in the said act ratified March the fourth, one thousand nine hundred and three, except as the same may be hereinafter modified or amended.

Time for beginning and construction of work extended.

Sec. 2. That the time within which the said company shall begin the construction of its railroad and complete the same, as provided in section two thousand five hundred and sixty-four of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, is hereby extended so that the said company may begin the construction of its road within ninety days after the ratification of this act, and shall complete the main line of the same and put it in operation within three years from the ratification of this act, and may construct and put in operation its branch roads, or any of them, at any time hereafter.

Election and term of president.

Sec. 3. CHAPTER 56.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR WATER-WORKS AND SEWERAGE AND OTHER PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS IN THE TOWN OF MAXTON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Maxton, for the purpose of providing and establishing and maintaining a system of water-works and sewerage, electric lights, streets, and other improvements for the town of Maxton, are authorized and empowered to issue bonds of the town of Maxton in an amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), bearing interest at a rate not to exceed six (6) per centum per annum, of such denomination as the said board of commissioners shall determine, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor be less than one hundred dollars ($100), to each and every one of which bonds shall be attached coupons representing the interest on said bonds, which bonds and coupons shall be due and payable as the Amount.

Bonds and coupons to be numbered.

said board of commissioners may hereafter determine; and the said bonds to be issued by said board of commissioners shall be consecutively numbered and the coupons shall bear the number of the bond to which it is attached, and shall declare the amount of interest each one represents and when due, and shall be receivable in payment of taxes due the town of Maxton by the holder of said bonds; said bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value, and shall run for a period of thirty years.

Coupons receivable for town taxes.

Not to be sold below par.

How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall be issued over the signature of the Mayor of the Town of Maxton, witnessed by the signature of the clerk and treasurer of the board of commissioners and attested by the official seal of the town of Maxton, and shall be sold by the mayor of said town, under the direction of the board of commissioners.

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds as it becomes due, and of providing a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds at maturity, the said board of commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect a special tax annually upon all subjects of taxation which are now or may be hereafter embraced in the subjects of taxation, under the charter of said town or the laws of the State, said special tax not to exceed seventy-five (75) cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of property and not to exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) on each poll; such taxes shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes of said town and shall be paid into the hands of the treasurer, whose bond shall at all times be sufficient to cover the amounts which may come into his hands; and as such moneys may from time to time accumulate, they may be loaned out under the supervision and by the direction of the commissioners of said town and until such time as the same may be paid in cancellation of bonds, and the interest received shall be applied and credited upon said bonds.

Rate.

To be levied and collected as other taxes.

Treasurer's bond.

Investment of sinking fund.

Record of bonds.

Sec. 4. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Maxton shall cause their clerk to keep a record in which shall be entered the name of every purchaser of a bond, the number of the bond purchased and the amount received therefor, and shall also cause said clerk to keep a record of all bonds redeemed, from whom purchased, and the amount paid for their redemption, and all bonds when redeemed and recorded shall be destroyed by fire in the presence of the board of commissioners by their clerk, or one of their number.

Necessary lands.

Sec. 5. That for the purpose of providing, establishing and maintaining said system of water-works and sewerage, electric lights, streets and other public improvements, the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Maxton are authorized and empowered to acquire, by purchase, donation, devise or otherwise, any and all lands, rights-of-way for pipes, mains or other conduits, lands necessary for pumping station or water supply, and such other rights or easements as shall be necessary for the establishing, operation and maintenance of any or all of said public works, whether the said lands or rights-of-way be in the limits of the town of Maxton or without its limits; and if the said board of commissioners shall be unable to agree with the owner thereof for the purchase or acquisition of any real estate, privileges or easements which they deem necessary for the establishment or maintenance of said public works, they may condemn the same as hereinafter set forth—that is, the said town of Maxton shall file with the Clerk of the Superior Court of Robeson County its verified petition, setting forth and describing the particular property, rights, privileges or easements proposed to be condemned and used for said public works, and stating names and residence of the owner or owners thereof, if known, and of the persons having an interest therein, which may be affected by the condemnation proceeding; whether the parties are minors, and if so, their guardian, if they have any; and praying for the appointment of commissioners to appraise and value the property, rights, privileges or easements proposed to be condemned and to ascertain the value thereof, and report to the Court what sum should be paid to the owner or owners as damages for such property, rights, privileges and easements, according to their true value.

Lands to be condemned.

Procedure for condemnation.

Sec. 6. That it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Superior Court, upon the filing of said petition, to issue a summons to the parties named as being interested in said lands, rights, privileges and easements, requiring them to appear at his office in the courthouse of said county on a certain day, which day shall not be more than twenty days from the day of issuance of said summons, and speak, answer or demur to the petition; and, upon the hearing, the Clerk of the Superior Court shall determine the rights of the town of Maxton to the relief prayed for in the petition, and from his judgment either party to said proceedings shall have the right to appeal, as in cases of special proceedings; and in said proceedings the Clerk of the Superior Court shall make all lawful orders for the appointment of guardians ad litem, publication of summons, and in all respects proceed according to the practice of the courts in special proceedings.

Clerk of court to issue summons.

Appeal from clerk.

Sec. 7. That it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Superior Court, if he shall find that said town of Maxton is entitled to have its petition granted, and that no sufficient defense to the same has been shown by the parties defendant, to order that three disinterested persons, qualified to act as jurors in such proceedings, competent freeholders, be summoned by the sheriff to meet upon said premises within ten days and to ascertain and assess the true value of the property, land, rights, privileges or easements proposed to be condemned and the damages to be paid to owner by the town of Maxton, and to make report of their proceedings to the Clerk of the Superior Court; and, upon the filing of said report, any person interested as a party may file exceptions thereto within ten days after the filing of such report, and the clerk shall hear such exceptions and render judgment thereon, from which either party may appeal, as in other special proceedings, and such appeal shall have precedence over all other cases when heard upon issues or questions of fact.

Where amount only is involved.

Sec. 8. That whenever it appears that the only matter in dispute between the town of Maxton and any owner of land or other rights affected is the question of damages, the town of Maxton shall have the right to exercise and enjoy such rights, privileges and easements prayed for at once, but shall be liable to the party seeking damages in whatever sum the final judgment shall determine: Provided, the town of Maxton shall first execute a bond to abide by and perform the said final judgment. The costs of said proceedings shall be paid by the parties as the Court in its discretion shall adjudge.

Proviso: town to give bond. Costs.

Lis pendens.

Sec. 9. That the tendency of any proceeding for condemnation for property or rights under this act shall have the effect of a lis pendens as to all persons claiming from the person or party on whom service of the summons has been made.

Title to vest in town.

Sec. 10. That upon the payment of the amount of damages assessed or finally determined by the Court to the party entitled to receive the same under the judgment, or into the Court for the use of such person, the title to the property, rights, privileges or easements shall be vested in the town of Maxton, as determined by such final judgment.

Election on bonds.

Sec. 11. But before the issuance of any bonds as herein provided for, or any taxes levied, it shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Maxton to submit to the qualified voters of said town for their determination the question of whether or not bonds as herein provided for shall be issued for the purposes aforesaid, and said commissioners are authorized to hold an election in the town of Maxton, after thirty days' notice, in the same manner as is provided for the election of officers of said town, at which election there shall be submitted to the qualified voters the said question; and those voters voting the issue of bonds shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed, "For Bonds," and those opposing the issue of bonds for said purposes shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed, "Against Bonds." And if a majority of said qualified voters shall vote in favor of a bond issue, then the powers and authority hereinbefore conferred shall be exercised by said board of commissioners; but if a majority of said voters shall vote against a bond issue, no bonds shall be issued. If, however, a bond issue shall not be voted upon favorably, said board of commissioners may call subsequent elections, under the same rules and regulations as already prescribed.

Notice of election.

Form of ballots.

Subsequent elections.

Sec. 12. That the result of said election shall be certified by the officers holding the same to the board of commissioners of said town, at such time as they may designate, and the result shall be recorded in the minutes of the town of Maxton and shall be held and admitted conclusive evidence of the truth of the facts therein certified. Result of election certified and recorded.

Sec. 13. That nothing in this act is to be so construed as to require the purchaser or purchasers of any of said bonds to see that the purchase-money paid for the same is applied to the purposes prescribed for in this act. Purchasers of bonds.

Sec. 14. That this act shall be enforced from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 8th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 57.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 68, PRIVATE LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA, SESSION OF 1903, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH GRADED SCHOOLS IN THE VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP OF SWAN QUARTER, NORTH CAROLINA, AND THE COUNTY OF HYDE.

as shall not exceed one-half the cost of the betterment to it; and when the owners of said property shall fail for twenty days after notice to conform to such rules and regulations, the city may make the same, and then the cost of such improvements shall be collected by the tax collector under the same rights, powers, and under the same regulations as he is authorized to collect taxes assessed against property in the city: Provided, however, that no charge in the residential portion of the city shall be made against the abutting property which shall exceed one-half the cost of a concrete-laid sidewalk four feet wide." Proviso: limit.

Sec. 4. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be amended by striking out of section forty the following words: "Five per cent. on the gross amount of collections made by him until his commissions, fees and emoluments shall amount to the sum of one thousand dollars, and after his said commissions, fees and emoluments shall have amounted to said sum," and insert in lieu thereof "four per cent. of the gross amount of collections made by him and." Commissions of tax collector.

Sec. 5. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be amended by adding the following as a new section to said act:

"Sec. 67. That the board of aldermen shall, at least once in each calendar year, at such time as may be prescribed by an ordinance of the board, publish in some journal or newspaper a detailed statement of the amount of taxes collected, and of all other moneys received, and of the method in which the same has been expended, and of the debts outstanding against the city; and a failure to make such publication shall be a misdemeanor." Annual statement published.

Sec. 6. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be amended by adding to the end of section twenty-five the following: "And if it shall be found advantageous for the city, in prosecution of improvements of its streets or other public works, to provide a stone quarry or other plant at a point without the corporate limits, such convicts may be worked at such quarry or plant; and further, it shall be lawful for any of the courts of the State, under the same rules and regulations as are now provided where counties work the roads by convict system, to sentence convicts to work at such quarry or plant of the city of New Bern, whenever the mayor of said city shall inform the said court of the readiness of the city to receive and care for the said convicts, and when so received at such quarry or plant, they shall be held and controlled under the same laws, rules and regulations as are provided in cases of county road-work. It shall be lawful, however, for the mayor to sentence to work on the county roads." Convicts worked in quarry.

Sec. 7. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be amended by inserting between the words "applied" and "provided," in section fifty-five, the fol-

Bonds to be issued. lowing: "And if the board of aldermen shall conclude to improve any of the streets of the city of New Bern, by placing thereon a permanent pavement of stone or brick, or by macadamizing the same, it is hereby authorized and empowered to issue for the purpose such bonds, in sums not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) at any one submission of the question, the proceeds of which to be used for such purpose, and under the submission of such questions to the voters as hereinafter provided, the said board may provide that the whole of said sum, or any part thereof, shall be used for such streets in general, or they may provide that the whole or any part thereof shall be applied to the improvement of any specified street or parts of streets, as by the resolution to the board submitting the same to the popular vote may be provided; and the proceeds of such bonds shall be so applied." And by adding to the end of such section, "and the said board shall have no power to expend any part of the proceeds of such bonds except for the purpose for which the same was voted and in payment of such of said bonds as shall have been issued." And that the word "thirty," in said section, shall be changed to the word "fifty." All such funds shall be expended for work and material, under contract to lowest responsible bidder.

Sec. 8. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, section fifty-five, be amended by inserting between the words "erect" and "and," in the second line thereof, the words "improve, extend, enlarge."

Sec. 9. That chapter eighty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be amended by adding the following section:

Street commissioner.

"Sec. 68. That the board of aldermen may, when they see proper, elect an officer to be called 'Street Commissioner,' who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the said board of aldermen, who shall have the absolute power of removal from office, and the power, from time to time, to discontinue the office or re-create the same as in their judgment shall best subserve the interests of the city. And upon his qualification and entering upon the duties of the office, and before he qualifies, he shall give bond, payable to the city of New Bern, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), for the faithful performance of his duties. He shall be paid a monthly salary, to be fixed by the board of aldermen, at a sum not exceeding seventy-five dollars ($75) per month, to which the board of aldermen may add an allowance for or may furnish him an office in which to conduct all his business and duties. The street commissioner shall employ all laborers employed by the city, including such convicts from the mayor's or other courts who shall be assigned by said courts to work upon any of the public works of the city. A committee of the board of aldermen appointed to supervise said work, being the committee now called 'Streets and Pumps Committee,' shall at all times have access to his office, books and papers, and to them he shall at all times give full and explicit information as to any work on hand, hands employed, or contracts or other engagements, as well as material in his charge and control belonging to the city. And, subject to the advice of the said committee, he shall have full control of the teams of the city—horses, mules, carts, wagons, road machines, rock crushers, steam rollers—and all other property of the city bought for the purpose of improving the streets and sidewalks, and shall work the same as he, under their advice, may think proper and for the best interest of the city. The rate of wages and number of employees shall be controlled and be approved by the board of aldermen. No work shall be commenced or performed or continued by said street commissioner whenever the said committee shall object thereto, unless upon meeting of the board of aldermen they shall so direct. And no work shall be begun by said street commissioner involving in work, material or expense an amount exceeding the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), unless the proposed work shall be reported to the board of aldermen and by them approved. Nothing herein, however, shall prohibit the board of aldermen from letting out any work of the city, or improvement, by contract, and when such contract shall have been let it shall be the duty of the said street commissioner to see that the contractor shall faithfully and fully perform his contract for said work, and the board of aldermen shall not appropriate any money in payment for such contract work until after the report of the said street commissioner shall have been filed before them in reference thereto. The said street commissioner shall report to the board of aldermen, in writing, to be filed with the clerk at least one day before its monthly meeting, the expense incurred for said work during the period since his last report and a detailed statement of the same. No excavation or disturbance of the streets and sidewalks in any way shall be undertaken by any person whatsoever until a written permit therefor shall be had from the street commissioner, who shall keep a record of the same: Provided, however, that any person applying for such permit, which shall be refused, may appeal from his refusal to the board of aldermen, who shall then pass upon the appeal at its next special or regular meeting. All matters relating to the streets and sidewalks of the city shall be under the control and supervision of the street commissioner, with the advice of the committee above referred to, subject to the revision and supervision of the board of aldermen."

The officers so elected shall qualify and be inducted into office on the first Monday in June following their election, and shall continue in office for the term of two years, and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Officers to qualify.

Officers named.

Sec. 5. That until an election can be held, as provided for in the preceding section, and the officers elected thereat have been qualified, the following named persons shall fill said offices: C. H. Butler, mayor; and Sidney Spain, Samuel Howard, Sr., W. M. Brown, J. S. Sherrod and W. T. Williams, commissioners; and said commissioners may appoint a constable, whose term of office shall be the same as, and expire with, that of said commissioners.

Guard-house.

Sec. 6. The commissioners may build or establish a lockup or guard-house, in which to confine and imprison persons charged with and convicted of criminal offenses and of violations of town ordinances, and for feeding such prisoners the town constable shall be allowed such compensation as is allowed the keeper of the common jail of the county.

Mayor constituted inferior court.

Sec. 7. The mayor of said town is hereby constituted an inferior court, with all the jurisdiction and powers in criminal offenses which are or may hereafter be given to justices of the peace; and he shall conserve and keep the peace. He shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all violations of the ordinances and regulations of the town. The mayor shall have jurisdiction as a conservator of the peace, and for the trial of all criminal offenses and violations of town ordinances arising and committed within the town limits of said town, and one mile beyond said corporate limits; and the constable and police officers of said town shall have power and authority to make arrests and execute all process issued by said mayor within one mile of the corporate limits to the same extent and in like manner as within said limits.

Jurisdiction.

Constable and police officers.

Convicts to be worked on streets.

Sec. 8. When any person shall be adjudged by the mayor to be imprisoned, it shall be competent for him to sentence such person to imprisonment in the county jail, or the guard-house of the town, and to adjudge that such person work, during the term of his imprisonment, on the public streets, or other public works of the town; and in all cases when he may impose fines, and the person against whom the fine is imposed refuses or is unable to pay the same and the costs, it shall be lawful for the mayor to order and require such person to work on the public streets, or other public works of the town, until, at such rates of wages as are or shall be fixed by the commissioners, such person shall have worked out the full amount of such fine and costs.

Taxes.

Rate.

Sec. 9. All taxes levied by the commissioners on real and personal property and on the polls shall be due and collectible at any time after the fifteenth day of September in each year; but such levy shall not exceed ten cents on every hundred dollars' worth of property and thirty cents on each poll.

Sec. 10. No person, persons, company, firm or corporation shall retail and sell any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within the limits of said town. Prohibition.

Sec. 11. That such provisions of the general laws of this State, chapter seventy-three, Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, in regard to cities and towns, as are not in conflict with the provisions of this charter, are made part thereof and supplementary to it. General law to apply.

Sec. 12. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 12th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 66.

AN ACT TO CONFIRM AND ENLARGE THE POWERS OF THE "SOUTHERN MUTUAL HOME AND REAL ESTATE COMPANY," AND AUTHORIZE IT TO ARRANGE FOR AND CARRY INSURANCE ON THE LIVES OF CERTAIN OF ITS MEMBERS, ALSO TO ISSUE PAID-UP STOCK BEARING INTEREST.

Whereas, the Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company was duly chartered according to the laws of this State, before the Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover County, on the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and four; and whereas, it is claimed that its usefulness can be greatly enlarged by having the legal power and authority to arrange for insuring the lives of certain of its members, and also by having the right to issue paid-up stock, bearing a fixed rate of interest, which right and powers it cannot exercise on account of the limitations of its charter fixed by the general law, under which its charter is granted: now, Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the said charter or plan of said association be and is hereby confirmed except as hereinafter amended. Charter confirmed.

Sec. 2. That the said "Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company" be and is hereby authorized to arrange for and carry insurance on the lives of certain of its members, who may desire it, providing therefor by the issue of a class or classes of stock similar in other respects to the stock it now issues, to be known and designated as "insured stock," the intent and purpose being that such stock shall become matured and paid up immediately upon the death of the holder of such stock and because thereof. Insurance of members authorized. Insured stock.

By-laws.

Sec. 3. That to carry out such intention the directors of the association shall enact necessary by-laws, specifying how and upon what terms such stock shall be issued: Provided, that such insurance shall and must be placed with a life insurance company, or companies, licensed to do business in the State of North Carolina. The member subscribing for "insured stock" shall make application at the same time, to such life insurance company as the Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company may direct, for a policy of insurance on his life, naming the said "Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company" as beneficiary, or naming his estate as beneficiary, and assign the policy to the Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company.

Proviso: insurance carried in licensed companies.

Applications.

Dues and installments.

Sec. 4. The periodical dues or installments on such stock shall include an additional amount to be used by the association in paying the premium on such life insurance policy, and other expenses incident thereto, which amount shall be a part of said dues, the collection of which shall be enforceable under the same rules and penalties as any other dues or installments.

Company joint agent.

Sec. 5. That the Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company shall, in the transaction of this business, act as the joint agent of the member and of the life insurance company with which the insurance is placed, and as such, subject to the obligations of an agent only and entitled to such compensation from the insurance companies and the insured members as may be agreed upon and arranged for.

Company to collect policy.

Sec. 6. That upon the death of an insured member, the Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company shall collect the death benefits for the use and benefit of the legal representatives of the deceased member: First, deducting therefrom any indebtedness of the member to the association. Second, pay any remainder, together with the value of his stock, to the parties entitled thereto.

Maturity of stock.

Sec. 7. When such stock matures and settlement therefor is made with the holder, the association may re-assign his policy of insurance to him, or may continue to carry the policy for him on such terms as they may agree upon.

Stock bearing fixed interest.

Sec. 8. The said Southern Mutual Home and Real Estate Company is further authorized to issue a class or classes of stock, which shall bear a fixed rate of interest in lieu of any participation in the profits of the association: Provided, that such rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent. per annum.

Proviso: not to exceed six per cent.

Amendments submitted to members.

Sec. 9. That within ninety days after the ratification of this act the president of said association shall call a special meeting of the members or stockholders of said association, giving each member at least ten days written or printed notice of the said meeting, for the acceptance or rejection of the powers and amendments herein conferred, and if at said meeting a majority of those voting, in person or by proxy, shall consent, this act shall be accepted as amendments and additions to said charter, and the directors of said association shall thereupon enact necessary by-laws to carry same into effect. Amendments accepted. By-laws.

Sec. 10. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification, and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed so far as concerns this association.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 67.

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE TRUSTEES OF WEST MARKET STREET METHODIST CHURCH, GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, TO REMOVE AND RE-INTER THE REMAINS OF THE BODIES BURIED ON A CERTAIN LOT IN GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That S. L. Trogden, J. A. Odell, M. Lamb, W. H. Turner, W. E. Coffin, W. F. Alderman, Jr., J. N. Richardson, G. Will Armfield and Thomas J. Copeland, trustees of West Market Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Greensboro, Western North Carolina Conference, and their successors in office, are authorized and empowered to remove and re-inter in suitable lots in Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro, North Carolina, and in a decent and suitable manner, the remains of bodies buried in a lot or tract of land known as the Methodist Burying Ground, situate in the southern part of Greensboro, North Carolina, and east of South Ashe Street in said city, which forms its eastern boundary; together with the stones and slabs marking the graves, such stones and slabs to be replaced at their respective graves in the plots in said Green Hill Cemetery. Trustees to remove and re-inter bodies.

Sec. 2. That the said trustees shall give thirty days notice, in a newspaper published in Greensboro, North Carolina, of their purpose to remove and re-inter said remains as provided above; and, at the request of the next of kin of any person whose remains are buried at said Methodist Burying Ground, said remains shall be turned over to said next of kin so applying, to be interred at any place they desire. Notice to be given. Remains to be delivered to next of kin.

Sec. 3. That all laws or parts of laws which are in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 12th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 68.

AN ACT TO LEVY A SPECIAL TAX IN THE TOWN OF TARBORO, EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Special tax authorized.

Section 1. That the Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, for the expenses incident to the maintenance and proper operation of the present water and electric-light systems, be authorized and are hereby empowered to levy a special tax on all the real and personal estate not exempt under the State laws in said town, not exceeding twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars' worth, and a tax on all polls liable under the general law, not exceeding seventy-five cents for the years one thousand nine hundred and seven and one thousand nine hundred and eight, and no longer.

Rate.

To be levied and collected as other taxes.

Application.

Sec. 2. That said taxes shall be levied and collected as other taxes of the town, and shall be applied by the board of commissioners of the town for the maintenance and proper operation of the present systems of water-works and electric lights, and to no other purpose.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 12th day of February, A. D. 1907.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Name changed.

Section 1. That section one of chapter two hundred and seventy-nine of the Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five be amended by striking out of line seven the word "dime," so that the name of said bank shall be the "Mechanics Savings Bank."

Existing rights not affected.

Sec. 2. That the said change of the name of said bank shall in nowise affect the property or the powers, rights and privileges granted to said bank under its charter and the laws amendatory thereof.

Sec. 3. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 12th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 70.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF TARBORO TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, Edgecombe County, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said town to an amount not to exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars, for the purpose of extending, improving and maintaining its water-works, electric-light and sewerage systems. Bond issue authorized. Amount. Purpose.

Sec. 2. Said bonds shall run for a period of not less than thirty years from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, from date, and shall be issued and sold in such denominations and in such amounts as said board of commissioners of said town shall deem necessary: Provided, that no bond shall be sold for less than its par value: and provided further, that none of the moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be used for any other purpose than the extension, improvement and maintenance of the water-works, electric-light and sewerage systems of said town: and provided further, that no bond or bonds issued under this act of Assembly shall be subject to taxation by the municipality for municipal purposes. Duration. Interest. Denominations. Proviso: not to be sold below par. Proviso: use of proceeds of bonds. Proviso: bonds not subject to municipal tax.

Sec. 3. That, before any of the bonds hereinbefore provided for shall be issued, the question of issuing same shall first be submitted to the qualified voters of said town, after thirty days' notice in some newspaper published in said town, at an election to be held under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed by law for elections of mayor and board of commissioners of said town; save and except that for the purposes of the election herein provided for there shall be in said town only two polling places, viz., at the town hall and at the county court-house; the qualified voters residents of wards numbers one, three and five of said town shall be required to attend the polling place located at the town hall, and those qualified voters residents of wards numbers two, four and six of said town shall be required to attend the polling place located at the county court-house. Such notice shall set forth the object for which said bonds are to be issued, the amount of the same, the rate of interest, the time when they mature and the rate of tax to be levied and collected to pay same. Those qualified voters approving the issue of such bonds and levying and collecting the taxes to pay the same, shall deposit a ballot in a separate ballot box with the words "For Bond Issue" thereon; those disapproving the same shall deposit a like ballot with the words "Against Bond Issue" thereon. If at such election a majority of the qualified voters shall vote for "bond issue," Bonds to be voted on. Notice of election. Rules and regulations. Polling places. Form of ballots.

the board of commissioners of the town shall issue the bonds provided for in such notice and may levy and order the collection of taxes therein named and authorized by this act.

Sec. 4. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 71.

AN ACT TO REVISE AND AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF ALBEMARLE, STANLY COUNTY, AND TO ALLOW SAID TOWN TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Corporation continued.

Section 1. That the inhabitants of the town of Albemarle shall be, and continue as they have been, a body corporate, shall bear the name and style of the town of "Albemarle," and shall have power to purchase and hold real estate for the benefit of the town, and that said town shall have power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, as any other corporation, and that said town shall be subject to, and have the benefit of, the general laws of the State in relation to corporations of like kind not inconsistent with this act.

Corporate limits.

Sec. 2. The corporate limits of said town shall extend from the center of the public square in said town one-fourth of a mile, running with the compass bearings west to a stone; thence north with the compass bearing of Second Street five-eighths of a mile to a stone; thence east with the compass bearing of North Street one mile to a stone; thence south twenty-four degrees east nine-twentieths of a mile to a stone; thence south fifty-nine degrees west one-half of a mile to a stone; thence north eighty degrees west nine-eightieths of a mile to a stone; thence south thirty-seven degrees west seven-sixteenths of a mile to a stone in the old line; thence west with the compass bearings of South Street three-eighths of a mile to a stone, the old corner; thence north with the compass bearings of Second Street three-eighths of a mile to a stone.

Town officers and elections.

Sec. 3. The officers of said town shall consist of a mayor, five commissioners, a trial justice, and a marshal, all of whom shall be elected at the regular elections provided in this act, for a term of two years, except the marshal and the trial justice, who shall be elected by the board of town commissioners at their first regular meeting after they are elected and qualified in May every two years: Provided, the board of commissioners shall have the right to remove the said marshal at any time on failure to perform the duties of his office satisfactorily.

Proviso: marshal removable for cause.

Sec. 4. That all resident citizens, who are qualified voters of this State, within said corporation that have resided in the county for six months and in the town for four months next preceding any election held in said town, shall be entitled to vote, and all citizens who have resided in the incorporation for six months shall be eligible to hold office in said corporation. Voters.

Sec. 5. That it shall be the duty of the mayor of said town to take the oath of office prescribed by law within five days after his election, and that the commissioners elected at any election for said town shall meet and organize within five days next after their election, and they shall take the oath of office that they, as a body, will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of commissioners to the best of their knowledge and ability for the ensuing term. Mayor to qualify. Commissioners to qualify and organize.

Sec. 6. The commissioners of said town shall have power to levy a tax for each year, not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents on the poll, and fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property, said valuation to be the same that is placed thereon to raise revenue for State and county purposes, and all taxes shall be levied according to Article five, section three, of the Constitution of the State. The board of commissioners shall, on or before the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and annually thereafter, appoint some competent person, or persons, who shall, on or before the twentieth day of May of each and every year, make advertisement in some newspaper published in said town, and at the court-house door and at least six other public places in said town, notifying all persons residing in the town of Albemarle, or who have, or control, taxable property in said town, to appear before them at the times and places mentioned in said advertisements, which dates shall be in the month of June each year, and shall be the same as those fixed by the county assessors, and such other dates as said list-takers of the town shall designate in said month, and to return to them a list of their taxable polls and property in said town; said list shall state the number of lots or parts of lots and all other property now taxable, or that may hereafter be made taxable by the laws of the State or the ordinances of the town, and the lists so returned shall be sworn to by the usual oath in this State for listing property. From the returns so made, the persons appointed as aforesaid shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July of every year, make out, in a book for that purpose, an alphabetical list of persons and owners of property who have so made their returns in the same manner as tax lists are made out by law for the collection of State taxes, and the tax listers appointed as aforesaid shall copy in said book the assessments made by the county assessors, of all property within the town limits, which assessment may be revised, corrected, or amended by the board of commissioners, but must at all times be the same in value as the assessment Tax rate. Tax lister. Tax lists. Return of tax lists.

the property of said town. If any person, liable for taxes on subjects or polls to be listed in said town, shall fail to list or cause to be listed the same during the month of June of each year, he shall be subject to double tax and the commissioners of said town shall have all the rights, powers and remedies under the State laws to compel said person to appear before them and list said taxes as are now or may be hereafter conferred upon the county commissioners to compel delinquents to appear and list their taxes.

Copies of tax lists.

Sec. 7. The board of commissioners of said town shall cause the clerk of said board, or some other person duly appointed by them, to make out two copies of the tax list for said town according to the form annually furnished to the Register of Deeds of Stanly County by the Auditor of the State. Such form shall show in different columns the sum due by each taxpayer to the town, and also in separate columns the amount of school tax levied by said town, and also the amount of special taxes levied by said town. One of said copies shall remain in the office of the mayor of said town and the other shall be delivered to the tax collector of the town, on or before the first day of September in the tax collector an order to collect the taxes therein mentioned, and such order shall have the force and effect of a judgment and execution against the real and personal property of the person charged with taxes on said lists. Said order shall be in the following or similar form:

Form of order.

State of North Carolina—Stanly County.

Office of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Albemarle.

To the Tax Collector of the Town of Albemarle:

You are hereby commanded to collect the taxes herein mentioned according to the provisions and requirements of the existing law.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the ..... day of ....., 190..

Clerk of Board of Town Commissioners.

Sec. 8. That the board of commissioners of said town shall appoint the marshal, or some other competent person, as tax collector for said town, who, after giving an approved bond in the amount to be fixed by the board of commissioners, shall receive the books as aforesaid, and collect all taxes for said town under the same laws and regulations as are prescribed for the sheriff of the county. Said tax books shall be subject at all times to the control of the board of commissioners and subject to correction, and shall be open to the inspection of the public. That all taxes levied by the commissioners of said town shall be due and collectible at any time after the first day of September of each year, and the commissioners of said town may expend all moneys so collected as they deem for the best interests of the town, except where taxes are levied and collected for special purposes, and in those cases said taxes shall be applied only to the purposes for which they were levied and collected.

Appointment of tax collector.

Bond.

Books subject to correction and open for inspection.

When taxes due.

Application of taxes.

Sec. 9. That on or before the first Monday in February in each year the tax collector of said town shall account to the town treasurer, or other lawful officers, for all taxes due for the fiscal year, and on failing to do so he shall pay to the town treasurer a penalty of two per centum per month on all sums unpaid: Provided, the board of commissioners may in their discretion relieve said tax collector of said penalty upon payment in full of the town taxes within a time to be specified by said board: Provided further, that said commissioners may extend the time of settlement of said tax collector to the first Monday in May.

Date of settlement.

Penalty.

Proviso: penalty may be remitted.

Proviso: time may be extended.

Sec. 10. That the board of commissioners of said town shall have power to grade, macadamize and pave the streets and sidewalks, and lay out and open new streets, or widen those already opened, and to make such improvements thereon as the public convenience may require, and that the board shall be the sole judges of the improvements required. The board may condemn any land for public use under the same rules and regulations as are hereafter provided for the laying out of public streets in this act.

Powers of commissioners as to streets.

Land condemned for public use.

Sec. 11. That when any land or right-of-way be required for the purpose of opening new streets, or for other objects allowed by this charter, and for want of agreement as to the compensation therefor, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by three freeholders of the town, one to be chosen by the board of commissioners and one to be selected by the land-owner, and these two select a third, and in case the land-owner refuses to select one, then the commissioners shall select all three; and in making said valuation said freeholders, after being duly sworn by the mayor, shall at once proceed to condemn said lands and take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner in consequence of the lands, or right-of-way, being surrendered; also any benefit or advantage such owner may receive from the opening or widening of such streets, or other improvements, and ascertain the sum which shall be paid the owner of said property, and report the same to the board of commissioners under their hands and seals, which, on being confirmed by the board and spread on their minutes, shall have the effect of a judgment against said board of commissioners and shall pass the title to the board of commissioners in their corporate capacity of the lands so taken, and the lands may at once be condemned and used by said town for the purpose intended: Provided, that if any person over whose land the said street may pass, or improvements be created, or the commissioners be dissatisfied with the valuation thus made, then in that case either party may have an appeal to the next term of the Superior Court, within ten days after filing said report: Provided, however, that such appeal shall not hinder or delay the commissioners from opening or widening such streets, or creating such improvements.

Proviso: appeal.

Proviso: appeal not to delay action.

Pay of jury of view.

Penalty for refusal to act.

Sec. 12. That all freeholders to assess damages shall receive one dollar per day for their services, and any freeholder who shall refuse to take the oath prescribed and to act according to law, after having been duly appointed by the board and after having been notified in writing by the marshal, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined twenty dollars for each offense by the mayor.

Terms of office.

Sec. 13. That all officers elected at any election in the town of Albemarle shall hold office for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; that in the absence of any officer of the town, or during sickness of any of the officers, the commissioners may appoint a man to fill the office during his absence, or during his inability, and no longer. If the absence be caused by resignation, the board may appoint an officer to fill the unexpired term.

Absence of officers.

Secretary or clerk and treasurer.

Bond of treasurer.

Sec. 14. That the commissioners shall, at their first meeting after being qualified, elect for the ensuing term a secretary, or clerk, and a treasurer, and that the treasurer shall enter into a bond, payable to the State, the amount of which shall be fixed by the board, and that said bond shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Stanly County, as other bonds for county officers.

Fire company.

Sec. 15. That the commissioners may provide for the establishment and equipment of a fire company for said town.

Sanitary committee.

Sec. 16. That the commissioners of said town shall constitute a sanitary committee, and that all orders made by them for the preservation of the health of all the citizens of the town shall be put into effect by the marshal. Any person who shall fail to comply with any order made by the board, after having been notified in writing by the marshal, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined by the mayor for each and every offense not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars.

Arrests without warrant.

Sec. 17. That if any person shall be found violating the laws of this State or any of the town ordinances by the marshal, or other officer appointed to act as such within the incorporate limits, he shall forthwith arrest the offender without a warrant, and immediately carry him before the trial justice of said town to answer the charge and be dealt with according to the law.

Fire limits.

Sec. 18. The board of commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to establish a fire limit within a reasonable distance from the center of the town, and to pass an ordinance, or ordinances, to the effect that none other than brick, or stone, or metal buildings shall be built or erected within said limits; and that they may repeal said ordinances at any time they may deem it necessary for the interest of the town and property-holders therein.

Chain-gang.

Sec. 19. The commissioners of said town of Albemarle are hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to organize a "chain-gang" in said town and work the streets by convict labor. The chairman of said board of commissioners, together with the concurrence of other members, shall have full control of and make all orders concerning the working of said streets that they may deem necessary for the improvement of the same: Provided, that the said board of commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to make any orders that may be necessary for the purpose of compelling convicts to perform reasonable duty, as may be directed by the overseer of said "chain-gang," said overseer to be appointed by said board of town commissioners at a salary to be fixed by them.

Proviso: regulations and overseer.

Convicts may be sentenced to chain-gang.

Sec. 20. The judges of the different terms of the Superior Court of Stanly County are authorized and empowered to sentence convicts to work on the Albemarle "chain-gang" from said court, unless there be more than the town can use, then, in that event, he or they may sentence them to any other point allowed by law, except so many as the town may call for.

Safe-keeping of convicts.

Sec. 21. The board of town commissioners shall provide a place of safe-keeping for convicts at all times while not on duty.

Mayor pro tem.

Sec. 22. That the board of commissioners of said town shall have power to elect a mayor pro tem., who, on the death, absence, failure to qualify, resignation, or removal of the mayor, shall be vested with all the powers and discharge all the duties of the said mayor.

Penalty on commissioners for failure to attend meetings.

Sec. 23. That if any commissioner shall fail to attend a regular meeting of the board of commissioners, or call meeting, of which he shall have had notice, unless prevented by such cause as shall be satisfactory to the board, he shall forfeit and pay for the use of the town one dollar for each and every offense, and it shall be the duty of the trial justice to enforce such forfeitures as in all other criminal actions.

Trial justice.

Sec. 24. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Albemarle at their first meeting after their election in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and their successors in office every two years thereafter, shall elect a trial justice, whose office shall continue for two years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. In case of a vacancy in said office the board of commissioners shall elect another trial justice to fill out the unexpired term.

Term of office.

Trial justice to qualify.

Sec. 25. That said trial justice should be ex officio justice of the peace, and before assuming the duties of his office shall take the usual oaths required by law to be taken by the justice of the peace, and also an oath to honestly and faithfully perform the duties of his office; said oath shall be recorded in the office of the secretary or clerk of the board of commissioners.

Jurisdiction of trial justice.

Sec. 26. That said trial justice, while acting as such, is hereby constituted an official court with all the jurisdictions and powers in criminal offenses occurring within the limits of said town, to within one mile outside of the incorporate limits of said town, which will now, or may hereafter, be given by law to the justice of the peace, and he shall also have exclusive jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all misdemeanors consisting of a violation of the ordinances of said town; he shall also have jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine all actions or proceedings for the recovery of fines, penalties, or forfeitures under this charter and for the violation of any ordinance now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted by the governing board of said town. Whenever a defendant shall be adjudged to be imprisoned by said court it shall be competent to sentence such person to imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days, and to adjudge also that such person, during the term of his imprisonment, be worked on the streets, or other public works of said town.

Convicts sentenced to public work.

Salary and fees.

Sec. 27. That the said trial justice shall receive for his salary such fees as he may lawfully receive by virtue of his office, and he may receive such other salary as may be fixed by the board of commissioners.

Jurisdiction of mayor transferred to trial justice.

Sec. 28. That all jurisdictions, duties, powers and rights heretofore conferred upon the mayor of said town, as a justice of the peace ex officio, or as an official court, whether by the laws of the State or by the ordinances of said town, are hereby transferred to and conferred upon the said trial justice and his successors in office. This section shall be in full force and effect after the said trial justice shall be elected and qualified, as hereinbefore provided.

Powers and authority of mayor.

Sec. 29. That the mayor of said town shall have full power and authority to administer oaths or affirmations, and all oaths required by law to be taken by the commissioners, school commissioners, police or other officers of said town, may be administered by the mayor, and he shall continue to have all other rights and powers herein or heretofore conferred upon the mayor of said town, except those which are herein expressly given to the said trial justice. It shall be the duty of the mayor to have general supervision over the streets, public water supply, town lights, security, health, cleanliness and fire protection, and police authority of the town. And he shall recommend to the board of commissioners, from time to time, the adoption of such measures as will promote the interest of the town and its inhabitants.

Special subjects of taxation.

Sec. 30. That in order to raise funds for the expenses incident to the proper government of the town of Albemarle, the board of commissioners of said town are hereby authorized and empowered as in their judgment they may see fit and proper, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, to annually levy and collect taxes from circuses, shows, liquor dealers, theatres, and entertainments, musical or otherwise, artificial curiosities, venders of patent proprietary medicines, exhibits of any character for money or reward, peddlers of all kinds of goods, wares, merchandise, paints, polishes, varnishes, oils, draymen, liverymen, sales-stables, barbers, photographers, restaurants, and all other things and subjects which are now or may hereafter be taxed by the revenue laws of this State, not exempt by said laws from taxation by cities and towns.

Salary of mayor.

Sec. 31. That the commissioners may allow the mayor such reasonable salary as they may see fit and proper, the amount depending upon the services rendered.

Bond of marshal.

Sec. 32. The marshal appointed by said board of commissioners shall enter into a bond payable to the State of North Carolina, the amount of which shall be approved and fixed by the board of commissioners, and said bond shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Stanly County. Said board of commissioners, or the mayor, shall have power to appoint such special policemen for the town of Albemarle, from time to time, as in their judgment they may deem necessary.

Special policemen.

Town elections.

Sec. 33. That an election shall be held in the town of Albemarle on Tuesday after the first Monday of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter, for the election of all elective officers herein provided, under chapter seven hundred and fifty, Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, and acts amendatory thereof. That the mayor and commissioners now in office shall hold office until the next regular election on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Ordinances.

Sec. 34. That the board of commissioners shall have power to enact any ordinance, or ordinances, and to pass all laws and regulations not incorporated in this charter they may deem necessary for the better government of the town, not inconsistent with the laws and Constitution of the State.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Sec. 35. That all laws and clauses of laws heretofore enacted inconsistent with this charter and all other laws conflicting with this act, are this day repealed, and this charter substituted.

Election on bond issue.

Sec. 36. That the Board of Commissioners for the Town of Albemarle are hereby authorized and empowered to cause an election to be held at the various polling places in said town at any time, and as many times, as said commissioners may appoint, and to submit to the qualified voters of said town the question of issuing special tax, shall vote a written or printed ticket with the words "For Bonds" thereon, and those who oppose shall vote a written or printed ticket with the words "Against Bonds" thereon.

Apportionment of proceeds, if bonds are voted for.

Sec. 37. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the establishment of such a system of waterworks in said town as the commissioners may deem proper; for electric, gas or other lights in said town; for grading, macadamizing, paving, widening, straightening, or otherwise improving the streets of said town as the commissioners may deem proper; for constructing and establishing a sewerage system, and for building an auditorium at the graded school building, and otherwise enlarging and improving said school building, as the school commissioners and the town commissioners shall deem proper; and for building a town or city hall; all, or any part of the proceeds of the bonds herein provided to be issued, may be used for either one, or may be divided among all the purposes above named, as the board of commissioners of said town may deem proper, but the proceeds of no bonds shall be applied to any purposes other than that for which the same were issued, as specified in the advertisement calling for the election under which they were issued.

Bonds to be issued.

Sec. 38. If a majority of the qualified voters of said town, at any election called under this act, shall vote "For Bonds," then the commissioners for said town shall issue coupon bonds not to exceed in amount the sum voted for at said election, and in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, and not more than one thousand dollars, bearing interest from the date of the bonds at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at some bank designated in said bonds, on the first days of January and July of each year until said bonds are paid. The said bonds shall be made payable at the expiration of not more than forty years from the date thereof. The bonds and their coupons shall be numbered, and the bonds shall be signed by the mayor of said town and countersigned by the clerk of the board of commissioners; and a record shall be kept of all bonds, showing the number, amount, and to whom sold. The coupons shall be received in payment of all taxes, fines and debts due said town. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than their par value.

Denominations.

Interest.

How bonds authenticated.

Coupons receivable for taxes.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 39. In order to pay the interest on said bonds the commissioners for said town are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to annually compute and levy, at the time of levying other taxes of said town, a sufficient special tax upon all polls and all property, real and personal, and other subjects of taxation mentioned in the charter of the town of Albemarle, and acts amendatory thereto, which shall be returned or listed for general taxation in said town, with which to regularly and promptly pay the interest on said bonds; said taxes shall be collected in the same manner and at the same time the other taxes of said town are collected, and shall be paid over by the town tax collector to the treasurer of said town, which officers shall give justified bonds in amounts amply sufficient to cover said taxes, the former officer for collecting and paying over, and the latter for the safe-keeping and proper disbursement of said funds.

Special tax for interest.

Sec. 40. That the taxes levied and collected for the purposes specified in section thirty-nine of this act shall be kept separate and distinct from any and all other taxes, and shall be used only for the purposes for which they were levied and collected, and any mayor or commissioners who shall appropriate, by vote or otherwise, to any purpose, directly or indirectly, other than that for which they were levied, any of said special taxes, or any part thereof, or shall in any other way violate the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that if the taxes levied and collected for the payment of interest shall in any year exceed the sum required for that purpose, the amount in excess shall be applied to the credit of the interest fund for next succeeding year, and said commissioners, at the time of levying taxes for payment of interest for said next succeeding year, shall take into consideration said excess and compute and levy said taxes accordingly.

Fund to be kept separate.

Misappropriation a misdemeanor.

Proviso: application of surplus.

Sec. 41. For the purpose of creating a sinking fund with which to pay the principal of the bonds issued under this act, it shall be the duty of said commissioners, ten years before the maturity of any bonds issued under this act, to annually levy and collect a special tax, in addition to that mentioned in section thirty-nine of this act, and the tax provided for in this section shall equal in amount one-tenth of the amount of bonds issued under this act; and whenever the amount of taxes collected under this section, together with the interest accumulated from the investment thereof, as provided in section forty-two of this act, shall be sufficient to pay off the principal of all outstanding bonds, then said commissioners shall cease to levy taxes for said sinking fund.

Investment of sinking fund.

Sec. 42. That it shall be the duty of said commissioners to annually invest any and all money arising from the special tax collected under section forty-one of this act in the purchase of any of said bonds at a price deemed advantageous to said town by said commissioners, but in case said bonds cannot be purchased as herein provided, the said commissioners may lend said sinking fund, or any part thereof, in such sums as they may deem proper, for a length of time not exceeding six months prior to the date of maturity of said bonds, taking for security for the repayment thereof and for the payment of the interest thereon, mortgages or deeds in trust in the name of the mayor, or sufficient real estate, or bonds issued under this act may be taken as collateral security for such loans. The notes, or other evidences of debt, given for any loan under this section, shall be executed to and in the name of the Commissioners of the Town of Albemarle, and shall bear interest, payable annually, at a rate not less than six per centum per annum; and in case the commissioners for said town shall not be able to invest any or all of said money annually, as directed above, they may, and it shall be their duty to cause such part as they are unable to invest to be deposited with some bank, trust company or safe deposit company of undoubted solvency, at the best obtainable rate of interest, and any and all interest arising from the investments as above directed shall be re-invested in the manner as above provided. Any mayor or commissioner of said town who shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any loan, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Personal interest of mayor or commissioner a misdemeanor.

Sec. 43. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 72.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF WARRENTON TO ISSUE BONDS FOR PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS AND TO LEVY A SPECIAL TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Warrenton is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds, in the name of the town of Warrenton, in such denominations and forms as it may determine, to an amount not exceeding eight thousand dollars, payable at such time or times and such place or places as the board of commissioners may prescribe: Provided, that the time of payment of such bonds shall not be more than twenty years from their date. Bond issue authorized. Denomination. Amount.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall bear interest at no greater rate than six per centum per annum, and the interest shall be payable annually or semi-annually, as the board of commissioners may prescribe, and said bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value. Interest. Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 3. The said bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the town clerk and sealed with the corporate seal of the town, and shall have interest coupons attached thereto, and the coupons shall be receivable in payment of town taxes. That, for the purpose of paying said bonds at maturity and said coupons as they become due, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners, and they are hereby empowered so to do, to levy and collect each year a sufficient special tax upon all subjects of taxation which are now or may hereafter be embraced in the subjects of taxation under the charter of said town, and at the time and in the manner as other taxes are collected under said charter: Provided, that the total rate of taxation allowed for the special purposes set forth in this act shall not exceed twenty cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of property and sixty cents on each taxable poll: Provided further, that the taxes collected under this act shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying said bonds and interest coupons as they may become due, and it shall be the duty of the town treasurer, as said coupons are taken up and paid off, to cancel the same and report not less than twice a year to the board of commissioners the number and amounts of the coupons so cancelled. How bonds authenticated. Coupons receivable for taxes. Special tax for interest and sinking fund. Proviso: rate. Proviso: disposition of taxes.

Sec. 4. That the board of commissioners shall not issue said bonds, nor any of them, nor levy or collect said tax until they shall have been authorized and empowered so to do by a majority of the qualified voters of said town at an election to be held at such time as said board may appoint, of which election notice shall be given for not less than twenty days in some newspaper pub- Bond issue to be voted on. Notice of election.

lished in said town; and at such election those favoring the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of the tax for the payment of said bonds and coupons shall vote a ballot upon which is written or printed the word "Improvements," and those opposing the same shall vote a written or printed ballot containing the words "No Improvements." Said election shall be held under the same rules and regulations as elections for mayor and other town officials: Provided, that the board of commissioners may in its discretion order a new registration of voters: Provided further, that a failure of the voters to ratify this act in any election held as aforesaid shall not prevent the board of town commissioners in its discretion to cause a subsequent election to be held for the same purpose.

Form of ballots.

Proviso: new registration.

Proviso: subsequent elections.

Application of bonds.

Sec. 5. That the said bonds and the proceeds from the sale of the same shall be used by the board of commissioners for the following purposes and for no other purpose, to-wit: to build a town hall, market-house and other necessary public buildings and to furnish and equip the same: Provided, that the purchasers of said bonds shall in no respect be held responsible for the application of said bonds.

Proviso: responsibility of purchasers.

Commissioners to control work.

Sec. 6. That the said board of commissioners shall have entire supervision and control of any and all of the works established under this act, and is hereby authorized to elect all such agents, servants and employees as it may deem proper, and pay the same from any of the revenues of the town not otherwise appropriated, and do all other proper things to carry into effect the true intent of this act.

Sec. 7. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 73.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE HENDERSONVILLE LAKE, LAND AND POWER COMPANY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Corporate powers.

pleasure, of making and enforcing such by-laws and regulations as may be deemed by them expedient and necessary for the purpose of the incorporation in consistency with the laws of this State, and of altering, amending and repealing the same from time to time, together with all other rights, privileges, powers, franchises and immunities granted to corporations by the general laws of North Carolina, and also all the rights, privileges, powers, franchises and immunities specified in this act.

Right to construct dams.

Sec. 2. That the said company shall have the right, power and privilege to construct and maintain a dam or dams across Mud Creek, in Henderson County, and across any of its tributaries, for the purpose of ponding and storing the water for water-power and lakes, to be used either as a water supply or as a motive power for any machinery, power plant, mill or factory that the said company may desire to operate, and as a motive power to generate electricity for electric lights and street cars, and other machinery, for heating and other purposes for which electricity may be used Railways. Street railways. Telephone and telegraph lines. Roads, streets and avenues.

Sec. 3. The said company shall have the right to construct railways and street railways to be operated by electricity and other power; to construct, purchase and operate telephone and telegraph lines; to construct and operate boulevards and automobile roads, streets and avenues; to purchase, own and convey all kinds of property, real, personal or mixed; to construct, build and operate boats and other water vessels; to improve such real estate as it may purchase or acquire, by the construction of buildings, and by any other means not unlawful, and for such enterprises as it may install and build it may charge reasonable fares, compensations and tolls not prohibited by law. For the purpose of conducting, carrying and conveying electricity for telephone, telegraph and all other purposes, the said company shall have the right and privilege of placing its poles and lines, and maintaining them, along any of the public roads in the said State.

Right to condemn lands.

Sec. 4. That the said company shall have the right and privilege of entering upon and occupying any and all lands necessary for building, maintaining and operating its said dams, water and motive power, street railways, electric lights, telephone and telegraph lines, boulevards, avenues and streets, together with a strip of land two hundred feet wide all the way along the lake shore at high-water mark, for the purpose of building a boulevard, electric-car line, telephone, telegraph and electric-light lines, and for the protection of the lake, and for any of the purposes necessary and contemplated in this act; whenever and as often as an agreement cannot be had between the said company and the owner or owners of any such lands as to the terms upon which the said lands may be purchased and used by the said company, the said company shall have the right to have such lands condemned and to acquire title thereto in the means and by the special proceedings hereinafter provided for: Provided, however, that the right to condemn this two hundred feet strip shall be so limited in its operation that no land shall be taken, the condemnation of which will necessarily interfere with the rights of other electric companies already planned.

Condemnation of lands damaged by back-water.

Sec. 5. That whenever and as often as the building and maintaining of any dam by the said company, as provided for in sections hereinbefore, shall cause the back-water to flood and pond upon lands other than its own, or whenever in the course of the construction of any such dam it becomes evident and certain that the back-water from such dam, when completed, will flood and pond upon the lands of others, and an agreement cannot be had between the said company and the owners of such lands, or those entitled to the beneficial interest therein, as to the terms upon which said lands may be purchased or used by said company, the said company shall have the right to have such lands condemned and shall acquire title thereto in the manner and by the special proceedings hereinafter provided: Provided, that in all cases when lands shall have been condemned during the process of the construction of any such dam, the said company shall not acquire title to any such lands until the dam or dams shall have been actually completed, and such lands shall have been actually flooded by the back-water.

Proviso: when title to vest.

Procedure for condemnation.

Sec. 6. That whenever and as often as the said company shall need the lands of others for its use as hereinbefore provided, it may proceed in the manner provided for the condemnation of lands for railroads, as further set out in the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, chapter sixty-one, sections two thousand five hundred and seventy-nine to two thousand five hundred and ninety-six, inclusive: Provided further, that as soon as the said company shall have prosecuted such condemnation proceedings as set forth in said chapter and paid the amount of the appraisement into court, then it shall have the right to immediately take possession of such land, and any litigation shall not interfere with the immediate seizure and use of said land to be condemned by said company, and work on any dam, street or any improvement contemplated herein shall not be delayed by reason of such litigation.

Proviso: right of possession.

Liability of stockholders.

Sec. 7. The stockholders of said corporation shall not be individually liable for its debts.

Right to borrow money.

Sec. 8. The said corporation shall have the right to borrow money in any such manner as it may see fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds to be secured by mortgage or mortgages upon any or all of the said company's property and franchises, both present and future.

Right to acquire and hold property.

Sec. 9. The said corporation shall have the right and power of acquiring, holding and selling stock of other corporations, both domestic and foreign, and the right and power of purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring the property or properties of other corporations, and of operating the same, with all the rights and privileges of the corporation whose property or properties shall have been acquired.

Principal office. Branch offices. Business of company.

Sec. 10. That the principal office of the company shall be at Hendersonville, North Carolina, but it may have branch offices at other places, in and out of the State. The business of the company shall be to generate power, use the power for purposes mentioned in the preceding sections, also to conduct the business generally of buying and selling real estate and improving the same, as well as making the lake a matter of attraction to Hendersonville as a health and pleasure resort, and performing all such things as may be to the advantage of the public and profitable to the company.

Capital stock.

Sec. 11. The total authorized capital stock of this company shall be one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into shares of five dollars each, which may, by an order of the stockholders entered upon their records, be issued as the interests of the company may require, and may be divided into preferred and common stock, as may be determined by the company, and the dividends on the preferred stock shall be fixed by the company and specified in the certificate of stock. The capital stock of the company may be increased by an amendment under the general law taken out before the Secretary of State. The names and post-office addresses of the subscribers for stock, and the number of shares subscribed for by each, the aggregate of which being the amount of capital stock with which the company will begin business, are as follows:

CHAPTER 74.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE PEOPLES BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, OF SALISBURY, N. C.

Preamble.

Whereas, R. Lee Wright, N. B. McCanless, J. D. Norwood, D. R. Julian, John S. Henderson and T. M. Kern, for themselves and their associates, under chapter two hundred and seventy-five, Public Laws one thousand nine hundred and three, filed with the Secretary of State of North Carolina articles of agreement and plan of incorporation of a corporation styled "Peoples Bank and Trust Company," and on October the thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and five, the Secretary of the State of North Carolina granted and issued letters of incorporation to the said Peoples Bank and Trust Company, of the city of Salisbury, N. C., to do a general banking business in said city, with a paid-in capital of sixty thousand dollars, and an authorized capital of one hundred thousand dollars, a copy of which said charter and letters of incorporation is recorded in the clerk's office of the Superior Court of Rowan County, in record of incorporation number two, page two hundred and thirty-one; and whereas, on April the seventh, one thousand nine hundred and six, an amendment was granted to the aforesaid charter by the Secretary of the State of North Carolina to increase its paid-in capital stock from sixty thousand dollars to seventy-five thousand dollars, a copy of which is recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Rowan County, in record of incorporation number two, page two hundred and seventy-eight; and whereas, said corporation desires to further amend its charter, and a resolution to that effect having been unanimously passed by its board of directors on January the fourteenth, one thousand nine hundred and seven: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Incorporation under general law ratified.

Section 1. That the creation, incorporation and organization of said corporation, under the name of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company, for the purposes and upon the terms and conditions and with the rights, powers and privileges set forth in said articles of agreement and plan of incorporation and organization, and as above referred to, is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.

Deposits for safe-keeping.

Sec. 2. That in addition to the powers, privileges and rights granted said corporation in its original and amended charter, as above referred to, said corporation shall have the power, right and authority to receive on deposit, for safe-keeping, gold, silver, paper money, bullion, precious metals, jewels, plate, certificates of stock, evidences of indebtedness, deeds or muniments of title, or other valuables of any kind, and charge commission or compensation therefor. It may also guarantee or become surety upon any official or other bond, or undertaking required or authorized by law, and it may likewise guarantee or become surety upon all kinds of fiduciary bonds or undertakings made by those having possession, custody or control, or who may come into possession, custody or control of trusts, money or funds, either as guardian, executor, administrator, collector, receiver or trustee of any kind, as required or authorized by law.

Guarantee and surety powers.

May act as fiscal agent.

Sec. 3. That said corporation may act as the fiscal or transfer agent of, or trustee for, any State, county, municipality, body politic or corporation, or for any person or persons, and in such capacity may receive and disburse money, negotiate, sell, transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, or for guaranteeing the payment of such bonds, certificates of stocks, etc., and may charge such premiums, commissions, or rate of compensation as may be agreed on, in and for any of the matters and things hereby authorized.

May act as fiduciary.

Sec. 4. That said corporation shall have power to act as executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, receiver or depositor, and to take, accept and execute any and all such trusts and powers of whatever nature or description as may be conferred upon, or entrusted, or committed to it by any person or persons, or by any corporation, by agreement, grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or otherwise, or by order of any court of record. That in all cases when an application shall be made to any court of this State for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, commissioner or guardian, it shall be lawful for such court, if it shall think fit, to appoint the Peoples Bank and Trust Company of Salisbury, N. C., such receiver, trustee, administrator, Appointment authorized.

assignee, commissioner or guardian, and the accounts of such corporation in such fiduciary capacity shall be regularly settled and adjusted as if it were a natural person; and upon such settlement or adjustment, all proper, legal and customary charges, costs and expense shall be allowed to said corporation for its services, care and management in the premises; and the said corporation as such receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, commissioner or guardian, shall be subject to all orders or decrees made by the proper tribunal under the laws of this State: Provided, that any oath required by law to be taken in order for qualification to any of the offices or trusts above mentioned may be taken by any officer of said company, and the oath prescribed by law may be so modified as to apply to a corporation instead of individuals.

Proviso: oaths.

Liability on bonds.

Sec. 5. That the assets and paid-in capital stock of said corporation shall be liable and responsible for any bond signed by said corporation for any person, firm or corporation while acting in its fiduciary capacity, and the stockholders of said corporation shall be individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not for each other, for all contracts, debts and engagements of such corporation, to the extent of their stock therein, at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares.

Individual liability of stockholders.

Sec. 6. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT FOR THE RELIEF OF LUNA PHILLIPS, OF RANDOLPH COUNTY.

Preamble.

Whereas, Luna Phillips, of Randolph County, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, taught the public school in district number one, Tabernacle Township, and through misunderstanding continued the term of school for a longer time than prescribed, for which she has not been paid: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Amount to be paid.

Section 1. That the Board of Education of Randolph County be and they are hereby authorized and directed to pay Luna Phillips the sum of five dollars from the public school fund of said county now in hand, or hereafter to be collected.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 76.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE SAVINGS BANK AND TRUST COMPANY OF ELIZABETH CITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Company may act in fiduciary capacities.

Section 1. That section ten, chapter two hundred and forty-two, Private Acts of one thousand nine hundred and three, incorporating The Savings Bank and Trust Company of Elizabeth City, be and the same is hereby amended by adding after the words "United States" and before the words "and for its services," in line four thereof, the following: "Also said corporation shall have power to become executor or administrator of any deceased person with full power to settle the estate of such deceased person as any individual may under the law; also may become guardian, trustee, assignee or receiver of any person or persons or corporation as any individual may under the law."

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 14th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 77.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK OF LEXINGTON, N. C.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Insurance department.

Section 1. That the powers now belonging to and heretofore given to the Commercial and Savings Bank of Lexington, North Carolina, under its private charter as certified to by the Secretary of State of North Carolina, be and they are hereby amended and enlarged by authorizing the said company to conduct an insurance department, and act as the agent of any insurance company, whether conducting life, fire, accident or other kind of insurance business, and to solicit business and do such other things as a natural person acting as such agent might do, charging the legal rates and commissions for same. Such powers shall not be exercised until a resolution to that effect be passed by the subscribers to the stock of said Commercial and Savings Bank, and such resolution shall be recorded on the minutes of said company and be kept by its officers open for inspection at all times.

May act as insurance agent.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 15th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 78.

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF OLD FORT, AND TO INCREASE THE TAX RATE FOR SAID TOWN OF OLD FORT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Corporate limits.

Section 1. That the corporate limits of the town of Old Fort are to be defined and located as follows:

CHAPTER 80.

AN ACT TO CHANGE AND AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE CAROLINA SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the charter of The Carolina Savings and Trust Company, granted by the Secretary of State on September first, one thousand nine hundred and five, be and the same is hereby altered and amended by substituting the following sections in lieu of the charter above referred to: Charter under general law.

Sec. 2. That the Carolina Savings and Trust Company be and is hereby constituted and created a body politic and corporate Corporation.

Corporate name. Corporate powers.

under the name and style of The Carolina Savings and Trust Company, by which name it may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and shall have the right to adopt and use a common seal and make by-laws, rules and regulations as it may deem best for the betterment of said corporation, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, and shall have continued succession for the term of sixty years, with all of the rights and privileges of corporations and banks under the general laws of the State.

Capital stock.

Sec. 3. That the capital stock of said corporation shall be twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), divided into five hundred (500) shares of fifty dollars ($50) each, which said capital stock may be increased at any time, or from time to time, by a vote of a majority of the stockholders, to any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000): Provided, fees for such increase be paid to the Secretary of State as provided by law in such cases.

Additional subscriptions.

Sec. 4. That the stockholders at any general meeting of said corporation may, at their discretion, from time to time, re-open books of subscription to capital stock until the same as herein limited be fully taken. That any individual, corporation, company, co-partnership, feme covert, or minor, shall have the right, and the same is hereby given to it or them, to subscribe for and take stock in this corporation. The stockholders of the corporation shall be individually liable, equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts and debts of the corporation to the extent of the amounts of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amounts invested in such stock.

Liability of stockholders.

Directors. Officers.

Sec. 5. That the stockholders shall elect such directors as they may deem proper, who shall hold office for one year and until their successors shall be chosen, and said directors shall elect a president, a vice-president and a cashier of said corporation, to serve during their continuance in office. That the president and directors of said corporation may choose and bond all necessary officers and agents and fix their compensation, and require such bonds of officers and agents as they may deem proper, and shall exercise and have all such powers and authority as may be necessary for governing the affairs of said corporation, and shall prescribe the rules for the conduct of said corporation, consistent with the by-laws established by the stockholders. They may regulate the terms and rate on which discounts and loans may be made and deposits received, not inconsistent with the laws of the State; they shall fill all vacancies occurring in their own board and among the officers and agents of the corporation; they may call meetings of the stockholders whenever they think proper, and at all meetings the stockholders may be represented by proxy, and each share shall be entitled to one vote.

Election and bonds of officers and agents.

Savings bank powers.

Sec. 6. The said corporation is especially invested with the power and authority to carry on and conduct a savings bank business in all its branches; may receive deposits in very small sums, the limits to be fixed by the board of directors, and may pay interest thereon at fixed rates, according as may be agreed upon between the corporation and its depositors, and the board of directors are hereby fully authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations for carrying into effect the different features of this branch of the corporation.

Pass-books.

Sec. 7. All deposits of money in said savings bank shall be entered in the books of the corporation, and a book shall be given to each depositor, in which the sum deposited shall be entered, and which shall be the voucher or evidence of the property of the depositor in the hands of the corporation. On making his first deposit the depositor shall be required to subscribe his or her name to the regulations and rules of the corporation, and such signature shall conclusively signify his assent thereto. The possession and presentation by any person to whom a pass-book shall have been issued, unless the same has been assigned, shall be sufficient authority to the corporation to warrant any payment made by it, and shall be conclusive evidence as to the right of such person so presenting said pass-book to such payment, and all payments to such persons producing the pass-books issued by the corporation shall be valid payments to discharge the corporation.

Payments on pass-books.

Deposits of minors and married women.

Sec. 8. Whenever any deposit shall be made by or in the name of any person being a minor, or a female being or thereafter becoming a married woman, the same shall be held for the exclusive benefit of such depositor and free from all control or lien of any person except creditors, and shall be paid, together with interest thereon, to the person in whose name the deposit shall have been made, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor or female shall be valid and sufficient release and discharge for such deposit or any part thereof to the corporation. And whenever any deposit shall be made by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing, duly attested, to the corporation, in the event of the death of the trustee, the said deposit, or any part thereof, together with all interest thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the deposit was made.

Deposits by trustees.

Lost pass-books.

Sec. 9. In case the pass-book of a depositor is lost, or the officers of this corporation shall doubt the identity of any person claiming a deposit, or any part of it, or the right of any one claiming to be a representative of any deceased or other depositor, they may require and demand an adequate bond of indemnity against any other claim or demand before paying such deposit or any part of it. But no assignment or transfer of a pass-book and deposit shall be binding on said corporation, or have any legal force or effect, unless said corporation assent in writing to such transfer or assignment.

Assignments of pass-books.

Deposits of trustees and other fiduciaries.

Sec. 10. That any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver or other trustee or public officer having the care, custody or control of any bonds, stocks, securities, moneys or other valuable things whatsoever, shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to deposit the same generally or specially with said corporation.

Investments.

Sec. 11. That said corporation shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to invest its capital stock or the funds of said corporation, or any money or funds that may be deposited with said corporation from time to time, in the stocks, bonds and other securities of the United States, of this or any other State of the United States, or of any corporation, or in any stock or paper whatsoever, and to dispose of the same in such manner as may appear to said corporation to be most advantageous.

General banking powers.

Sec. 12. That said corporation shall be and is hereby empowered to do a general banking business, receive deposits, make loans and discounts; to obtain and procure loans for any person, company, corporation or co-partnership; to invest its own money or the money of others; to lend and invest money on the bond or security of mortgage, pledge or deed of trust, or invest in any land or hereditament or personal property or interest therein of any description situate anywhere; to lend money upon or purchase or otherwise acquire bills of lading or the contents thereof, bills, notes, choses in action and any and all negotiable or commercial paper, or any credits or other personal property, and shall invest or dispose of the same, and charge such interest or fee as may be lawful, and may receive such interest at the time of making such transaction or at any other time.

Dealings in stocks and bonds.

Sec. 13. That said corporation may subscribe to, purchase or acquire or lend money upon stock, shares, notes, bonds or debentures, or may subscribe to, purchase, acquire or lend money upon the securities of any government, State, municipality, corporation, company, co-partnership or person.

Deposits for safe-keeping.

Sec. 14. That said corporation be and is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and keep on deposit all funds, gold, silver, or paper money, bullion, precious metals, jewels, plates, certificates of stock, bonds or evidences of indebtedness, instruments of title or other valuable papers of any kind, or any other article or thing whatsoever, which may be loaned on deposit for safe-keeping with said corporation, and shall be entitled to charge such commission or compensation therefor as may be agreed upon; to have the complete preservation and safe-keeping thereof. It may construct and erect or purchase such fire and burglar-proof buildings, vaults, safes or other means which may become necessary, and generally transact and perform all business relating to such deposit and safe-keeping or preservation of all such articles or valuables as may be deposited with said corporation.

Powers as fiscal agent.

Sec. 15. That said corporation shall have the right to act as agent, factor or trustee for any State, city, town, municipality, corporation, company or individual, on such terms as to the agency and commission as may be agreed upon, in negotiating, selling and countersigning, acquiring, holding, dealing in, disposing of, any bond of any city, State, county, town, municipal corporation, company or person, bond, certificates of stock of any description, or property, real or personal, or for guaranteeing the payment of any such bonds, certificates of stock, etc., and generally for managing such business may have and charge such premium, commission or rate of compensation as may be agreed upon, and for any of the matters and things authorized by this section.

Power to hold real property.

Sec. 16. That said corporation may purchase and hold all such real and personal property as may be necessary for its business purposes, and such as may be convenient to it to secure or satisfy any debt due to it, or for any other purpose, and such as may be sold under a foreclosure of any mortgage made to said corporation or sold in any action or by any order of any court to satisfy any debt due to it, and may sell and convey or exchange or improve the same at pleasure, and use and invest the proceeds thereof as may be deemed best. And whenever any real estate or personal property upon which the corporation may have a lien of any kind shall be exposed to sale under authority of law, the president or cashier of this corporation may purchase the same for and on behalf of the corporation, and such purchase, though made at a sale by the corporation as trustee, shall be valid and binding upon all the parties having or claiming an interest therein.

Purchases under lien or mortgage.

Power to act in fiduciary capacities.

Sec. 17. That the said corporation be and it hereby is authorized and empowered to accept and exercise any trust of any description which may, with its consent, be contracted or transferred to it by any person or persons whomsoever, by any bodies corporate or public, or by any court of the State of North Carolina, or of the United States, and to accept the appointment to office of executor or administrator or trustee or assignee of any kind or nature, wherever such office or appointment is made or conferred to any person or persons by any court of competent jurisdiction of this State, or any of the United States, or of the United States; and in all cases where application shall be made to any court for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee of a lunatic, it shall and may be lawful for such court to appoint said corporation, with its assent, such a receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee; and when any person shall appoint the said corporation executor of his or her last will, or any court shall appoint the said corporation a receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee, and shall order the deposit of any money with the said corporation, the corporate stock as paid in shall be taken and considered as the security required by all for the faithful performance as such executor, administrator, trustee, assignee, receiver or executor or committee, and shall be absolutely liable for any default; and on application therefor the court may require the said corporation to give such other and further security as it may judge to be expedient; and the court on demand may, if necessary, examine the officers of the corporation under oath or affirmation as to the sufficiency of its capital stock as such security. The amounts received by said corporation as such receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian or committee shall be regularly adjusted and settled before such court or officer as shall have jurisdiction thereof, and said court or officer shall, upon such adjustment and settlement being made, allow to said corporation all proper and legal and customary costs and charges and commissions for its care and management of the trust estates aforesaid. The said corporation as such receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee shall be subject to all orders and decrees by the proper tribunal under the laws of this State.

Courts may appoint corporation.

Authorized investments.

Sec. 18. The said corporation shall have discretionary powers to invest the funds received by it in trust in the bonds of the United States or of any State, or in the bonds duly authorized to be issued by any county, or incorporated city, or other good securities, or in safe real and personal securities, but all such investments shall be at the sole risk of the corporation, and for any losses by reason of such investments the capital stock, property, effects of said corporation shall be absolutely liable. The corporation shall use due diligence to enhance the yearly rents and profits of any trust estate within its hands; but shall not be liable for any greater income, rents and profits than can be reasonably earned by safe and prudent investments.

Transfer of stock.

Sec. 19. That the stock of this corporation held by any one shall be transferred only on the books of the corporation, either in person or by power of attorney, and no stockholder shall transfer his stock except by the consent of the directors of the corporation, if he be indebted to the corporation as principal, security or otherwise, until such obligation of indebtedness is paid off and discharged, and for all such indebtedness said corporation shall have a lien superior to all other liens upon the stock of said stockholder: Provided, this condition is printed on the certificates of stock issued by the corporation.

Proviso: conditions to be printed on stock.

Principal office.

Sec. 20. That the principal office of said corporation shall be in the city of Wilmington, North Carolina, but the directors may establish branch offices at such other places as may be deemed advisable.

Branch offices.

Sec. 21. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 15th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 81.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF ELIZABETH CITY TO ISSUE BONDS AND LEVY A TAX TO PAY THE FLOATING INDEBTEDNESS OF SAID CITY.

Preamble. Whereas, the town of Elizabeth City has contracted a floating debt to the amount of near twenty thousand dollars, for necessary expenses of said city; and whereas, the said city desires to issue bonds for the purpose of paying the said floating debt: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized. Section 1. That the board of aldermen of said city be and they are hereby authorized to issue bonds of said Elizabeth City to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, par value, for the purpose aforesaid, the same to draw interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, and to be sold at not less than par.

Amount.

Interest.

Application of proceeds. Sec. 2. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for the purpose of taking up the said floating debt of the said corporation of Elizabeth City.

Special tax. Sec. 3. That the said board of aldermen shall provide for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds by levying a tax not to exceed ten cents on the hundred dollars valuation, and thirty cents on each poll, and the said bonds to mature one each year for the period of twenty years, with interest payable semi-annually.

Bonds to mature.

Election to be held. Sec. 4. That before any of the bonds herein provided for shall be issued, or the tax levied, the question of issuing and levying same shall be first submitted to the qualified voters of said city, after thirty days' notice in some newspaper published in the said city, said election to be held under the rules and regulations that are now prescribed by law for the election of mayor and aldermen of said city. All qualified voters in favor of the issuing of said bonds, and the levying of the necessary tax to pay the same, shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "For Bond Issue," and those disapproving shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words, "Against Bond Issue." If, at such election, a majority vote cast shall be in favor of the issue of said bonds, then the board of aldermen of said city shall issue the said bonds, which shall be applied to the purposes and upon the terms and conditions provided in this act.

Form of ballots.

Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 15th day of February, A. D. 1907.

one-fifth of the whole number redeemed each year by using the funds apportioned to the said school by the county board of education.

How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 2. That said bonds shall be issued by the school committee for said district, signed by the chairman and the secretary, two of the three members concurring; these bonds shall also be signed by the chairman of the county board of education, who shall certify as to the signatures of the committee and notice of the manner of the redemption of the said bonds.

Sec. 3. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 16th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 83.

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITIZENS OF LENOIR, CALDWELL COUNTY, TO VOTE ON A BOND ISSUE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Lenoir, in Caldwell County, be and the same is hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to issue bonds for either the installation and maintenance of a water-works and sewerage system, or for the improvement of the streets and sidewalks of the said town of Lenoir, or for both purposes. The bonds shall be in such denominations and forms as the said board may determine, to an amount not to exceed eighty thousand dollars for the installation and maintenance of the water-works and sewerage system, and not to exceed twenty thousand dollars for the improvement of the streets and sidewalks of the said town, payable at such time or times and at such places as said board of commissioners may prescribe: Provided, that the time of payment of such bonds shall not be more than thirty years from their date, and the board of commissioners may divide said bonds into classes, as they may determine best, and have them mature at different convenient dates, between the limits aforesaid. Proviso: maturity of bonds.

Denominations.

Amounts.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall bear interest from their date, at a rate not to exceed six per cent. per annum, to be fixed by the board of commissioners of the said town of Lenoir, which interest shall be payable annually or semi-annually, on such days as are fixed by said board; and said bonds shall in no case be sold or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value. The said bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the secretary of the board of commissioners, and sealed with the corporate seal of the said town of Lenoir, and shall have attached interest coupons, which coupons may be received in payment of town taxes. That a record shall be kept of the said bonds, showing the numbers and the denominations thereof, and to whom sold, the date of issuing, and when the same will mature, and the interest rate thereof, the amount received from the sale of same, and the date of paying the proceeds into the treasury of the said town, and such other data in relation to the same as the board of commissioners may direct to be kept. That the said bonds and coupons shall not be subject to taxation by the town of Lenoir or the graded school district. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Lenoir are hereby authorized to sell or cause to be sold the said bonds, or any number of them, at public or private sale or sales, and all money arising from such sale or sales shall be paid over to the treasurer of said town, and the said treasurer, and the sureties of his official bond, shall be liable for same money or moneys to the same extent as for other moneys belonging to said town which come into his hands; and it shall be the duty of the said board of commissioners of the said town of Lenoir to see to it that the bond of said treasurer shall at all times be sufficient in amount, and with satisfactory sureties, to provide against any loss of money arising from the sale of said bonds; and to that end may at any time require said treasurer to renew his official bond in such sum and with satisfactory sureties as they may require, and in default thereof, remove him from his office as treasurer; that said treasurer shall receive no compensation for the receipt of said moneys, but shall receive such compensation for their disbursement as the said board of commissioners shall determine: Provided, that in no case shall said compensation exceed one per centum of the amount actually disbursed. Interest. Bonds not to be sold below par. How bonds authenticated. Record of bonds. Exempt from town tax. Sale of bonds. Bond of treasurer. Compensation of treasurer.

Sec. 3. That the mayor and board of commissioners of the said town of Lenoir, upon the issuing of said bonds, shall be authorized and empowered to levy and collect a special tax annually upon all subjects of taxation which are now or may hereafter be Special tax authorized.

embraced in the subjects of taxation under the charter of said town, observing at all times the constitutional equations between the poll and property, sufficient to meet the interest on said bonds as the same may accumulate, and pay the principal thereof when the same shall become due and payable: Provided, that the special tax herein authorized shall not exceed fifty cents on every one hundred dollars valuation of property, or one dollar and fifty cents on every taxable poll, and such taxes shall be collected in like manner as the other taxes of the said town, and paid into the hands of the treasurer of said town, to be used for the aforesaid purposes; that the said taxes shall be kept separate and distinct from any and all other taxes, and shall be used only for the purposes for which they were levied and collected; any mayor or commissioner who shall appropriate, by vote or otherwise, to any purpose or use, directly or indirectly, other than that for which they were levied, any of the said taxes or any part thereof, or shall in any way violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Proviso: tax rate.

Taxes kept separate.

Misappropriation of tax a misdemeanor.

Election to be held.

Sec. 4. That before any of the bonds herein provided for shall be issued, or the taxes levied pursuant to this act, the question of issuing and levying the same shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said town at an election to be held under the same rules and regulations as may at the time of said election be provided by law for the election of the mayor and board of commissioners of said town: Provided, that no one shall be deemed a qualified voter except such as shall be properly registered, as hereinafter provided: Provided further, that the said notice shall set forth the object or objects for which the bonds are to be issued, the amount of the same, the rate of interest, the time when they mature, and the rate of tax to pay the same: Provided further, that the cost of publishing such notice shall not exceed three dollars.

Proviso: voters.

Proviso: notice of election.

Proviso: cost of publication.

Appointment of election officers.

Registration.

Sec. 5. That for the purpose of holding said election or elections the commissioners of said town shall appoint one registrar and two poll-holders, at the time that said election is ordered, and said registrar shall immediately give notice, by posting a notice at the court-house door in said town, where he may be found for ten days next preceding the election, Sundays excepted, and until sundown of the day next preceding the election, and where the registration books for the registration of voters for said election shall be kept open. For the purpose of the aforesaid election or elections the board of commissioners of the said town of Lenoir shall order, and there shall be, a new registration of the voters of said town. And voters to register and vote in the election shall be qualified in like manner as voters are required to be to register and vote in elections held in said town for mayor and board of commissioners.

New registration.

Sec. 6. That in voting for bonds for the installation of water-works and sewerage system all the qualified voters voting at such election in favor of issuing such bonds and the levying of the necessary taxes to pay the same, shall vote a ticket or ballot on which shall be printed or written the words "For Bond Issue for Water-works and Sewerage," and those disapproving the same shall vote a ticket or ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "Against Bond Issue for Water-works or Sewerage," and that in voting on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement of the streets and sidewalks in the said town all the qualified voters voting in favor of issuing the said bonds shall vote a ticket or ballot on which shall be printed or written the words "For Bond Issue for Street and Sidewalk Improvement," and those disapproving the same shall vote a ticket or ballot on which shall be printed or written the words "Against Bonds for Street and Sidewalk Improvement": Provided, that the board of commissioners of said town may submit either question to the qualified voters first, or both at the same time, as they may deem best: Provided, that if both questions be submitted at the same time the ballots, hereinbefore provided for, shall be placed in separate and distinct boxes. Form of ballots. Proviso: question or questions to be voted on. Proviso: separate boxes.

Sec. 7. That the result of said election shall be certified by the officers holding the same to the board of commissioners of said town at such time as they may designate; and the board of commissioners of said town shall at such time verify the same and declare the result, and cause the same to be recorded in their minutes, and after thirty days after such recording in said minutes such record shall not be opened to attack, but shall be held and deemed conclusive evidence of the truth of the fact certified. Returns certified and canvassed.

Sec. 8. That in the event that a majority fail to vote in favor of either question submitted, if both questions be submitted at the same time, or in favor of the question submitted, if only one question is submitted at a time, then the board of commissioners of said town may again submit the question or questions, at such future time or times as they may elect, under the same rules and regulations as already prescribed. Successive elections.

Sec. 9. That in no case, or under any circumstances, shall the mayor of said town deliver said bonds, or any of them, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof until the purchase-money therefor shall be paid to the treasurer of said town and his receipt to the purchaser produced before the mayor as evidence of such payment. Any mayor violating the provisions of this section shall be, individually or together with his bondsmen, responsible to the town of Lenoir for the purchase-price of such bond or bonds wrongfully delivered. Delivery of bonds. Liability of mayor.

Sec. 10. That it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town, upon the payment into the treasury of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds, as soon as practicable, to employ some Commissioners to employ engineer.

skilled engineer to execute the work for which the bonds were issued; or, if they deem best, they may let to some competent contractor the contract for executing the work for which such bonds were issued: Provided, that the said contractor shall first submit plans and specifications, which plans and specifications shall be approved by said board of commissioners: Provided further, that at the time of letting said contract the said contractor shall enter into a bond, with sureties to be approved by the board of commissioners of said town, in such amount as shall be determined by the board of commissioners of said town, for the faithful and prompt execution of the work in accord with the aforesaid plans and specifications.

May let work to contract.

Proviso: plans and specifications.

Proviso: bond of contractors.

Water rents and charges.

Sec. 11. That it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town to provide for the collection of rents, water charges, and other revenues, for the use of the water provided by the aforesaid water-works. And all revenues derived from such sources shall be held and kept solely for the purpose of maintaining said system of water-works, and the surplus, after paying the expenses of maintaining said system, shall be used to pay the interest on the bonds; and if there yet be a surplus, such surplus shall be used as a part of the sinking fund hereinbefore provided for, for the redemption of said bonds, until they have been fully redeemed.

Appropriation of revenues from water-works.

Investment of sinking fund.

Sec. 12. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the said town to annually lend all moneys arising from the levying and collection of the aforesaid taxes and the profits of the aforesaid water-works, first paying the interest on such of the bonds as may then be outstanding, in such sums as they may deem proper, for a length of time not exceeding six months prior to the date of maturity of said bonds, taking as security for the payment thereof, and for the payment of the interest thereon, mortgages or deeds in trust, in the name of the mayor of said town, on real estate at fifty per cent. of its valuation, or bonds issued under this act may be taken as collateral security for such loans. The notes or evidences of debt given for any loan under this section shall be executed to and in the name of "The Board of Commissioners of the Town of Lenoir," and shall bear interest, payable annually, at a rate not less than the then legal rate of interest; and in case the commissioners of said town shall not be able to invest any or all of the said money annually, as directed above, they may and it shall be their duty to cause such part as they may be unable to invest as above directed to be deposited in some bank of undoubted solvency, at the best obtainable rate of interest, and any and all interest arising from the investment above directed shall be reinvested in the manner above directed.

Personal interest of mayor or commissioner a misdemeanor.

But any mayor or commissioner of said town who shall be personally interested, directly or indirectly, in any such loans shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. That nothing in this act shall be construed so as to require the purchaser or purchasers of any of said bonds to see that the purchase-money of said bonds is applied to the purpose prescribed in this act. Purchasers not required to see to application of funds.

Sec. 14. That the board of town commissioners of said town shall appoint a committee of three citizens of the town of Lenoir annually to audit the accounts of the treasurer of the town of Lenoir. The correctness of the statements of this committee shall be sworn to by not less than two of said committee; and the treasurer of said town shall publish, or cause to be published, in one of the papers of said town a full, itemized and sworn-to statement of all receipts and disbursements, which publication shall be made within fifteen days after the auditing of the same. And said treasurer, failing to publish such statement as above directed, shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every offense. Committee of audit. Statement to be published. Punishment for failure.

Sec. 15. All laws in conflict with this chapter are hereby repealed.

Sec. 16. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 16th day of February, A. D. 1907.

Term of office.

Election of mayor, secretary, treasurer and constable.

Term of office.

Officers to qualify.

Sec. 3. That the government of said town shall consist of five commissioners, a mayor, secretary, treasurer and constable, the said five commissioners to be elected from the qualified voters of the town on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter on said day, and the commissioners so elected shall hold their term of office for two years and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. And the said commissioners so elected shall meet within ten days after the fourth Monday in the said month of May, and elect from the qualified voters of said town the said mayor, secretary, treasurer and constable, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; but before any officer of the said town government shall enter upon the duties of his office he shall take and subscribe to an oath of office before some justice of the peace, or other person authorized to administer oaths, to impartially and faithfully discharge the duties of such office according to his best ability, which oath shall be filed with the secretary of the town.

Bond of constable.

Duties and powers of constable.

Sec. 4. The said board of commissioners shall require of the town constable a bond in such sum as they deem proper, payable to the said town and conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and the said constable shall thereupon have and be subject to all responsibilities, civil and criminal, which attach to his office in law; and it shall be the duty of said constable to serve notices for the town, to serve any process within the county of Hertford which any township constable may lawfully serve, whether directed specially to said town constable or not, and the service of any process within said county by the said town constable shall have the same force and effect as the service of such process by a township constable, whether directed to said town constable or the sheriff, constable or other lawful officer of said county. It shall further be the duty of said town constable to collect taxes levied by the board and pay over the same at the end of each month to the treasurer, to make monthly reports to the board and whenever required by said board, and be subject to such regulations as the board may enact under authority of this act; and, in addition to the fees allowed him by law, he shall receive a commission of five per centum upon all taxes or other moneys collected by him for the use of the town.

Constable to collect taxes,

Fees and commissions.

Sec. 5. The said election shall be held under the general laws governing town elections, except as herein provided, and every male resident citizen of the town, otherwise qualified to vote in an election for members of the General Assembly, who has resided in the town for six months immediately preceding the election, shall be entitled to register and to vote at such election one ballot, on which shall be the names of such commissioners, not exceeding five, for whom he wishes to vote; and said ballot shall also contain the superscription "For Commissioners": Provided, however, that, should the commissioners under the powers of this act at any time thereafter subdivide the town into different wards, then such ballot shall further contain the name of such ward, and no more names than the number of commissioners allowed by law to be elected from such ward. The five commissioners who shall at such election receive the highest number of votes or ballots cast, and who are qualified electors of the town, shall be declared elected. At the close of any such election the judges shall, after counting the ballots aforesaid, declare the results at the place of election, and within three days thereafter post the same in writing in front of the mayor's office in said town, and transmit a copy thereof to the mayor under the hands of a majority of them, which shall be entered at the next meeting of the commissioners as a part of the record of their meeting, and notice shall thereupon be given by the constable to the commissioners-elect of their election.

at the end of the year, with his vouchers, to the board or such committee as they may appoint, and cause a copy to be posted in some public place in the town: Provided, that, should the said board separate the offices of clerk and treasurer as hereinafter provided, then the foregoing provisions shall apply to the office of treasurer.

Proviso: if offices of clerk and treasurer separated.

Sec. 12. The said board of commissioners may, at their discretion, sever the offices of secretary or clerk and treasurer, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the town to call upon the constable of the town once in every thirty days, and oftener, if necessary, and demand the money collected by him for said town, and the constable, on demand of the treasurer, shall pay over all money or moneys in his hands belonging to said town, and his refusal shall be reported by the treasurer to the board of commissioners at its next meeting.

Commissioners may sever offices of clerk and treasurer.

Treasurer to call on constable.

Constable to pay over to treasurer.

Sec. 13. The secretary shall act as clerk of the said board of commissioners. He shall keep fair and regular minutes of all meetings and official acts of the said commissioners in a well-bound book, and for his services the board may allow him such compensation as the board may prescribe. At the expiration of his term of office he shall deliver to the board all books, papers or other property of the town in his care or custody.

Duties of secretary.

Compensation.

Sec. 14. The treasurer of said town shall keep a strict account of all money or moneys coming into his hands, from any source whatever, belonging to said town, pay the same out only upon order of the board, make reports to the board of the financial condition of the town at each regular meeting, or whenever called for by the board, and at the expiration of his term of office deliver to the board all money or moneys belonging to the town, and surrender all books, papers or other property of the town in his custody or possession.

Duties of treasurer.

Sec. 15. The town constable shall be the tax collector of the town and shall collect all taxes due the town, and be invested with all the powers of the sheriff or county tax collector in the collection of taxes.

Constable to be tax collector.

Sec. 16. The constable and policemen of the town shall be governed by the regulations provided for and clothed with the powers conferred upon its officers by the State of North Carolina, and when arrests have been made the prisoners shall be immediately carried before the mayor or some other competent officer for trial, except in the following cases: First, when the arrest is made between sunset on Saturday and eight o'clock A. M. on Monday. Second, when the arrest is made in the night. Third, when the person arrested is found in an inebriated or intoxicated condition. Fourth, when for the safe-keeping of the party arrested imprisonment is necessary. In all these cases, or any of them, the prisoner may be committed without mittimus or warrant to the town or county jail until his trial can be had before the mayor or other officer.

By-laws and ordinances.

Sec. 17. The said commissioners shall have power to and it shall be their duty to enact such by-laws, rules, ordinances and orders as they may deem best, necessary for the proper government of the town, and all such by-laws, rules, ordinances and orders shall be printed in some newspaper published in the town, if there be any; otherwise the same shall be posted in two public places in the town. Said commissioners shall have power to impose and levy appropriate fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of ordinances, by-laws, rules and regulations; to levy and collect taxes on real and personal property, and to levy and collect license taxes on all trades, privileges, callings, professions and occupations not exempt under the general laws of the State; to prohibit the carrying on of trades or occupations amounting to a nuisance; to abate such nuisances; to protect and control shade trees now standing on the streets, highways, alleys or public grounds of the town, and such as may be hereafter planted thereon.

Ordinances to be published.

Further powers of commissioners.

Penalties for violations of ordinances.

Sec. 18. The said board of commissioners shall have full and ample authority and power to enforce compliance with and observance of all such by-laws, rules and ordinances as they may make under this act or may have been heretofore adopted or ordained, by fines, penalties and forfeitures on those who shall violate, refuse or neglect to conform thereto, to be recovered by warrant, under the hand of the mayor or any justice of the peace of Hertford County, directed to the sheriff of said county, or constable of said town, or other lawful officer of the county, to arrest and cause such offender to appear before the mayor or some justice of the peace of said county; and such mayor or justice of the peace is hereby required to hear and determine the same, and on conviction to give judgment and award execution against such offender, which shall be executed by the said constable, sheriff or other lawful officer; and such fines, when collected, shall be paid by the officer to the proper authority, as required by law.

Further powers of commissioners.

Sec. 19. That among the powers conferred by this act upon said commissioners are the following: To provide for the construction and laying out of streets, alleys and lanes, and for changing, widening or closing the same; to regulate the cleaning, repairing or improving of all streets and sidewalks; to condemn land for any purpose necessary; to establish boundaries of the town by enlarging, contracting or otherwise changing the same: Provided, however, that no change shall be made in the boundaries of the town as they now exist, or as described and defined in this act, unless twenty days' public notice of the change proposed shall have been previously given at three public places in the town or by publication in some newspaper published in the town for two successive weeks, nor shall such change take effect until one month after the action of the commissioners in making such change; to take all proper and effectual means for preventing and extinguishing fires and conflagrations; to make regulations to cause due observance of the Sabbath day; to suppress, abate and remove any nuisance; to take all necessaary measures to prevent the spread of contagious diseases; to provide for the appointment of special police and other officers needed; to take measures to preserve the peace of the town; to execute all laws and ordinances and maintain good order; to enact and enforce such ordinances as they may deem necessary to preserve the health of the town; to determine, when necessary, the boundary or boundaries of streets, and establish new streets and sidewalks; to provide for restraining and licensing shows, circuses and public amusements in the town; to restrain and prohibit gambling and the manufacture or sale of fermented or malt liquors and intoxicants of all kinds; to prohibit or control the firing of fire-arms, fire-works and explosives of every description, and to govern the sale of fire-arms and fire-works; to control the manner of arranging stove-flues, pipes and chimneys in buildings; to prohibit or prescribe the manner of keeping hogs, goats and cattle in the town; to prescribe the manner in which dogs shall be kept; to limit the speed at which horses or other animals or bicycles, automobiles or other vehicles shall be driven or propelled through the streets of the town, and to regulate the running of such vehicles upon the streets and sidewalks of the town; to cause all lots, streets, cellars, privies, stables and places of like character to be examined by the constable or other officer appointed for that purpose, and to cause, by their order, the said officer to have said places cleaned and the nuisance abated, the same to be done at the expense of the owner or occupant of the premises, and the constable or other officer having that duty in charge shall be empowered to inspect any and all premises in the town and to have the same cleaned, and the expense of cleaning the same or removing nuisances shall be recovered from the owner or occupant thereof, if refused by the owner or occupant, by an action in any court having jurisdiction; and, further, to purchase, hold and receive by gift or conveyance lots of land for keeping and maintaining cemeteries, and to sell and convey lots in the same upon such terms, conditions and prices as the commissioners shall deem proper, and deeds for lots in the said cemeteries shall be executed on the part of the town in the manner provided in this act for the execution of other deeds or contracts of the town; and also to regulate the places and manner, where and how the dead shall be buried.

Meetings of commissioners.

Sec. 20. The board of commissioners shall meet once every month, and at such other times as they may determine upon, or when the mayor shall call a meeting. The mayor shall preside at the meetings of the board, but shall not be entitled to a vote except in cases of a tie, when he shall cast one and the deciding vote. Vacancies in said board of commissioners, or in the office of Mayor to preside.

Vacancies.

mayor, secretary or treasurer, or any other officer of the town, unless otherwise provided for by ordinances of the town, shall be filled by the said board of commissioners or a majority thereof. All deeds, contracts or obligations of the town, required to be in writing, shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary or clerk.

How deeds and contracts authenticated.

Special policemen.

Sec. 21. That the mayor of said town, on special occasions, when crowds are assembled for any purpose, for the purpose of maintaining peace and good order, may appoint special policemen, not exceeding six at any one time, whose time of service shall not at any one time exceed six successive days, and the compensation therefor shall be determined by the said commissioners.

Compensation.

Powers of commissioners as to streets.

Sec. 22. That the board of commissioners may alter, change, enlarge, extend or close up any of the existing streets, lanes or alleys of the town, or may open and lay out new streets, and may condemn land for that purpose upon making reasonable compensation for the same. And whenever in laying out a new street or making any change of a street it becomes necessary to appropriate the land of any person, firm or corporation for such public use, in the event of disagreement between the town and the party in interest, it shall be lawful to proceed to use the lands necessary; and in such case the board of commissioners shall issue their mandate, signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk, to the constable of the town to summon a jury of three resident freeholders of the town, to view the premises and assess the damages to be paid to the owner or party in interest, and upon the coming in of said report the board may condemn such lands to the uses aforesaid; but before the same shall be taken the damages assessed shall be paid or tendered by the board to the party or parties entitled to the same, and upon such payment or tender the same shall become and remain a public street and highway: Provided, either party may appeal to the Superior Court of Hertford County upon the question of damages, where such damages shall be re-assessed by the jury upon evidence offered, as in other trials in said court, but such appeal shall not obstruct the proceedings of said commissioners.

Condemnation of land for streets.

Proviso: appeal.

Power to levy taxes.

Sec. 23. The board of commissioners shall have power annually to levy a tax upon all persons and property within the corporate limits of said town and subject to taxation for county purposes under the general laws of the State, for the year in which said taxes are levied: Provided, the tax shall in no case exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property and one dollar on the poll, and the constitutional equation between property and poll shall always be observed.

Tax rate.

Property to be listed for taxation.

Sec. 24. That it shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation residing, doing business or holding property within said town, annually, as may be required, to render to the board or such person as the board may appoint for that purpose a statement on oath of all the property as well as polls subject to taxation under this act; and for failure to do so for one month after public notice of the taking of the tax list, given by advertisement in any newspaper published in the town, or by posting notice in front of the mayor's office and two other public places in the town for twenty days preceding the taking of such tax lists, the said person, firm or corporation shall be liable to a double tax on all property not given in for taxation, unless a sufficient excuse shall be given to and accepted by the board, and all unpaid taxes may be recovered by the constable in the same manner as the sheriff or tax collectors of the county are lawfully authorized to collect unpaid taxes due the county.

Double tax for failure to list.

Sec. 25. That the list-taker aforesaid shall make out said tax list, and not later than the first Monday in September of each year the board of commissioners of the town shall revise the same (except that they shall not change any values placed upon real estate by the county board of assessors) and place the list in the hands of the town constable, who shall proceed with the collection of the taxes on said tax list and complete his collection of said taxes by the first day of December following: Provided, the board of commissioners may extend the time for completing the collection of such taxes to a date not later than June first of the next year.

Tax list made out and revised.

Taxes collected by 1st December.

Proviso: time for collection extended.

Sec. 26. The town constable, who is hereinbefore made the tax collector for said town, shall, if any person fails to pay his taxes within the time prescribed for collection, proceed to collect by levy and sale, after public advertisement at three public places in the town, if the property be personal property. When the tax due on any lot or other real estate is not paid by the first day of December, or the time allowed by the commissioners for completing the collection of taxes, the said constable, as tax collector aforesaid, shall proceed to collect the same by levy and sale of personal property belonging to the owner of such lot or real estate, if enough of personal property can be found; and if enough of personal property cannot be found, the constable, as tax collector aforesaid, shall report the same to the commissioners of the town, together with a description of the lot or real estate of the delinquent tax-payer, and thereupon they shall direct the same to be sold, after due advertisement of thirty days at three public places in the town by the said tax collector: Provided, such tax collector shall give the owner personal notice of such advertisement of sale, if he be a resident of the town; and if he be a non-resident thereof, must mail notice to his address, if his place of residence is known. In default of payment of taxes, costs of advertisement and such other charges as are allowed by the general laws of the State to sheriff and tax collectors in such cases, by the hour and day of sale, the said tax collector shall sell the same for cash to the highest bidder in front of the mayor's office in said town; and if no person will bid enough to pay the taxes, penalties and expenses, and no higher bid being offered, the same shall be struck off to the town, and, if not redeemed as hereinafter provided, shall belong to the town absolutely. The said tax collector shall report to said commissioners a statement of his proceedings, specifying the purchase and price, which shall be entered upon the book of the proceedings of the commissioners; and if there be any surplus, after paying the taxes and expenses, the same shall be paid into the town treasury, subject to the demand of the owner.

Report of sale.

Right of redemption.

Sec. 27. That the owner of any lot, real estate or interest in real estate, sold under the provisions of this act, his heirs, executors or administrators, or any person acting as agent for them, may redeem the same within one year from date of sale by paying to the purchaser the amount paid by him and twenty-five (25) per centum in addition thereto. That if the lot, real estate or interest therein sold as aforesaid shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the said tax collector or his successor, under directions of the mayor of the town, shall convey the same to the purchaser in fee-simple or to his assigns in fee.

Deeds to unredeemed property.

Terms of office.

Sec. 28. That all elections and appointments to any office authorized under this act shall be and extend to unexpired terms of the office of the incumbent commissioners, and any person appointed pursuant to this act, or any commissioner elected under the provisions of same, who shall refuse and fail to qualify and serve, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, to be recovered by the said board of commissioners by a warrant before the mayor of the town or any justice of the peace of the county.

Penalty for failure to qualify and serve.

Resignations.

Sec. 29. That the said board of commissioners or a majority of the members thereof shall have power to accept resignations of any officer appointed by them and also members of their own body and any officer of said town.

General laws to apply.

Sec. 30. That all privileges, powers and benefits conferred upon the commissioners of other towns in the State under the general laws for government of towns and cities are hereby conferred upon the said town of Murfreesboro.

Ordinances, rules and by-laws to remain in force.

Sec. 31. That all ordinances, rules and by-laws lawfully in force at the time of the passage of this act shall remain in force until regularly repealed by said board, and the officers now acting shall continue to serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Commissioners may divide town into wards.

Sec. 32. The said board of commissioners may at any time hereafter, not within eight months of any election authorized under this act or under the general laws of North Carolina, divide the town into two or more wards, not exceeding three, to be named and described by said board by public notice posted in front of the mayor's office and two other public places in the town for the period of twenty days, and such wards may also be changed, enlarged, restricted or united as a whole in the same and like manner: Provided, that no such wards shall be created, changed, en-

CHAPTER 87.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF ROCKINGHAM, RICHMOND COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, TO ISSUE BONDS TO CONSTRUCT WATER-WORKS AND A SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the Commissioners of the Town of Rockingham, Richmond County, North Carolina, for the purpose of constructing water-works and supplying the town with water, and for the purpose of constructing a system of sewerage, are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds, bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually from date of their issue, to an amount not exceeding forty thousand dollars. Said bonds shall be in such denomination, be payable at such place and run for such period of time as said commissioners may determine, and shall state in the face of the bonds, to each and every one of which shall be attached the coupons representing the interest on said bonds, which said coupons shall be due and payable on the first days of January and July of every year until the maturity of said bonds; and shall be numbered corresponding to the bond to which they are attached, and shall declare the amount of interest which they represent and when the interest is due and where it is payable, and shall be receivable in payment of municipal taxes levied by said town.

Interest.

Amount.

Denominations.

Coupons receivable for town taxes.

How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall be issued under the signature of the mayor of said town and attested by the signature of the clerk and treasurer of said town, and the mayor and clerk and treasurer shall, under direction and with authority of the board of town commissioners, dispose of the said bonds as the necessity for the prosecution of the work may require, and it shall be the duty of the clerk and treasurer of said town to make and keep a record of the bonds sold, the number of bonds purchased, the name of the purchaser and the price received for the same.

How bonds sold.

Record of bonds.

Water rents.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said commissioners to provide for the collection of rents, water charges and other revenues for the use of the water provided by said water-works and for the use of said sewerage system, and all revenues so derived shall be kept and used solely for the purpose of maintaining said system of water-works and sewerage, and the surplus, if any, shall be used in paying interest on the bonds issued under this act.

Appropriation.

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 4. That in order to pay the semi-annual interest on said bonds and the principal thereof as the same shall become due and payable, the commissioners of said town are hereby authorized, and it shall be their duty, to annually compute and levy, at the time of levying other taxes for said town, a sufficient special tax upon all polls and all real estate and personal property which shall be returned or listed for general taxation in said town, always observing the constitutional equation between the tax on property and the tax on poll, said taxes to be collected in the same manner and at the same time the other taxes of said town are collected, and to be paid over by the town tax collector to the treasurer of said town, which officers shall give justified bonds in amounts amply sufficient to cover said taxes, the former for collecting and paying over, and the latter for the safe-keeping and proper disbursement of said funds.

Fund kept separate.

Sec. 5. That the taxes levied and collected for the purpose specified in section three of this act shall be kept separate and distinct from any and all other taxes, and shall be used only for the purpose for which they were levied and collected, and any mayor or commissioner who shall appropriate, by vote or otherwise, to any purpose, directly or indirectly, other than that for which they were levied, any of the said special taxes or part thereof, or shall in any way violate the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that if the said taxes levied and collected for the payment of interest shall in any year exceed the sum required for that purpose the amount in excess shall be applied to the credit of the interest fund for the next succeeding year, and the said commissioners, at the time of levying taxes for payment of interest for said next succeeding year, shall take into consideration said excess and shall compute and levy said tax accordingly.

Misappropriation a misdemeanor.

Proviso: surplus.

Election to be called.

Sec. 6. That the said board of commissioners shall not issue said bonds or any part thereof until they shall have first caused to be held in said town an election in which there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said town the question of ratification of this act or its rejection, of issuing the bonds herein provided for or not issuing them, of levying the taxes provided for in section four of this act or not levying said taxes; and they are hereby authorized and directed to call the said election to be held and conducted on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven. The said election shall be ad-

Town elections.

Sec. 6. That a new registration shall be had for said town, in order to include the electors taken in by the extension of the corporate limits of the town, as defined by the third section of this act, and to otherwise complete the registration of the qualified voters of said town. That the board of commissioners shall furnish to the registrar the necessary book or books for such registration, and that J. W. Scott be and is hereby appointed such registrar to make such new registration, and W. F. Cook and R. E. Hipps be and are hereby appointed judges of the election to be held for said town in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, with full power given to the board of commissioners to fill any vacancy that may occur. That such registration shall be conducted in the manner provided by chapter seventy-three, entitled "Towns," Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, of North Carolina, and the provisions of said chapter apply to said registration and election, except that no notice of such new registration shall be necessary for the election in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven. That after the election in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, all registrations and elections shall be held and conducted in accordance with the general law of elections for towns and cities. Registration. Registrar. Judges of election. Rules for registration.

Sec. 7. That, in order to raise a fund for the expenses incident to the proper government of the town and for the improvement thereof, the commissioners shall, on the first Monday in June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and each year thereafter, levy the following taxes, to-wit: First, on all real and personal property within the corporate limits of the town, including money on hand, and all other subjects taxable by the General Assembly of North Carolina, as specified, set forth and valued on the tax list of Haywood County, a tax ad valorem, not exceeding one dollar on every hundred dollars in valuation; second, on all taxable polls residing within the corporate limits of said town on the first day of June of each year, commencing June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, a tax not exceeding three dollars. Tax on property. Rate. Poll tax.

Sec. 8. That in addition to the taxes provided for in the preceding section the commissioners of said town shall have power to levy and collect a privilege or license tax on all subjects, trades, professions, etc., subject to such tax by the provisions of chapter seventy-three, entitled "Towns," Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the sale of whiskey within the corporate limits of said town. That the commissioners of said town shall meet on or before the fifteenth day of May of Privilege and license taxes. Proviso: sale of whiskey not authorized. Commissioners to fix license taxes.

each year hereafter and designate the subjects, trades, professions, etc., liable for such privilege or license tax, and levy and fix the amount of such tax and post the same by notice in said town at three or more public places within the corporate limits of said town, on or before the twentieth day of May of each year: Provided, however, that they may meet at any time and levy such license tax on shows and other things subject to tax of a transient nature: Provided further, that the board of commissioners may exempt from this tax such concerts and exhibitions as are deemed for the public good. That all parties liable to the privilege and license tax as aforesaid shall, on the day prescribed for listing State and county taxes, render on oath to the clerk of the town, or mayor, in case no clerk shall be appointed (and said mayor is hereby constituted a commissioner of affidavits for that purpose), a list of such property, subjects, trades, professions, etc., liable to such license or privilege tax, under all rules and penalties prescribed for listing State and county taxes, and if any person or persons shall fail to render such list within the time prescribed for listing State and county taxes, he or they shall pay double the tax assessed on anything for which they are liable.

Proviso: license tax on shows.

Proviso: commissioners may exempt.

Taxes to be listed.

Double tax for failure to list.

Assessments.

Sec. 9. That the clerk or mayor of said town shall procure from the Register of Deeds of Haywood County a duly certified list of the assessments of the value of property, real and personal, and polls, which have been returned to him for taxation, situate in the said town of Canton, and such other records pertaining to matters taxable by the town as may be kept in his office; and where any real estate assessed by the county authorities shall lie partly within and partly without the limits of the said town of Canton it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town to appoint a justice of the peace and two freeholders of said town to appraise the property within the town and fix upon it its true value in proportion to the value of the whole as assessed for taxation; and where there is an increase in the value of town property, by reason of any improvement, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town, at their meeting in May of each and every year, to certify the same to the board of county commissioners at their regular meeting in June, and the county commissioners shall appoint assessors to value said town property under the same rules as are provided by law for assessing real property; and in case of decrease of value of real property, by fire or other destruction of the same, reduction shall be made in the same manner as provided for assessing such property when there is an increase: Provided, that any person, persons, firm or corporation who shall fail to list his, their, or its property for taxation, as provided by law, shall be liable to double tax, and the commissioners of said town may discover the same and fix the value thereon, and place the same on the tax list of the town in the same manner as if such taxes had been included in the Failure to list poll tax a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. That all persons who are liable for poll tax to said town, or for any other tax, including privilege or license tax, who shall wilfully fail to list the same, as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor to the same extent as for failure to list State and county taxes, and on conviction therefor before the mayor shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or be imprisoned not more than ten days; and it shall be the duty of the tax collector to prosecute offenders against this section: Provided, that any person prosecuted under this section may be discharged by the mayor upon the payment of double the amount of taxes found due by him to the town, together with the cost of the prosecution.

Punishment.

Proviso: double tax in lieu of punishment.

Collection by distress.

Sec. 12. That if any person liable to payment of any tax shall fail to pay the same within the time prescribed for collection, the collector shall proceed to collect the same forthwith by distress and sale, after public advertisement for a space of fifteen days by posters at three public places in the said town of Canton, if the property to be sold be personal.

Taxes lien on real estate.

Sec. 13. That when the taxes are due on any real estate they shall be a lien on the same, and if they shall remain unpaid after the time fixed for the collection of said tax, the collector shall proceed to collect the same by distress of personal property, if sufficient amount can be found in the town belonging to the owner of such real estate, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found the collector shall report to the commissioners of the town such real estate and the amount of taxes due thereon, and thereupon the commissioners shall order a sale of the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of taxes and expenses, costs, etc. All sales of real estate shall be made in the town of Canton at a point designated by the tax collector in the notice, and shall be advertised for thirty days by posters at three public places in said town, and the commissioners of the town may, if they elect to do so, cause said notice of sale to be advertised in some newspaper published in Haywood County once a week for four consecutive weeks. It shall be the duty of the collector to notify the owner or agent of the real estate to be sold of the amount of taxes, costs and expenses due thereon, and the day of sale, if the residence of such owner or agent be known. The collector shall divide such real estate into suitable lots, if the same can be conveniently done, but if not, he shall sell the whole; in either case he shall sell to the highest bidder for cash, and if such real estate will not sell for enough to pay the taxes due and costs, and expenses of sale, etc., he shall bid the amount of tax, cost, expenses, etc., for the town. The collector shall give the purchaser a certificate of purchase, and the owner, his administrator, executor, heirs or assigns may, at any time within twelve months after the date of sale, redeem said real estate by paying to the purchaser the amount of his bid with twenty-five per cent. added; and if the purchaser cannot be found, or will not accept the money, such party may pay the same over to the treasurer of the town and take his receipt therefor and notify the tax collector, or his successor in office, and such payment shall be deemed a good payment. After twelve months, if the land has not been redeemed, the collector or his successor shall execute a deed of conveyance to the purchaser or his assignee, or holder of the certificate of purchase, which deed shall vest the title; and if the town, the title shall vest in the town: Provided, that the town may assign its certificate of purchase, and the assignee or holder thereof shall have the same rights as herein provided for the original purchaser.

him, and he shall not be eligible to re-election. The tax collector and treasurer of the town, and such other officers as may have charge of any funds of the town, shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of their duties as shall be prescribed by the board of commissioners, not to be less than double the amount of funds that may be estimated to pass through their hands, and shall receive such fees as shall be prescribed by said board of commissioners, not to exceed the fees allowed to county officers for like services. Bonds of tax collector and treasurer. Fees.

Sec. 15. That the board of commissioners of the town shall have power at any time, whenever by them deemed necessary, to lay out and open new streets and sidewalks, or to widen, enlarge, change, extend or discontinue any street or streets, sidewalk or sidewalks, or any part thereof within the corporate limits of the said town, and shall have full power and authority to condemn, appropriate or use any land or lands necessary for the purposes named in this section, upon making reasonable compensation to the owner thereof: but in case the owner or owners of said land sought to be condemned or appropriated for the public use by the commissioners and the commissioners cannot agree as to the compensation, then it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners forthwith to appoint three disinterested freeholders, residents of said town, not connected with the claimant either by consanguinity or affinity, who shall forthwith go upon the premises and view the same and assess the damages which such property-holder shall sustain, taking into consideration the benefit which will accrue to such property from the improvement, and report the same to the board of commissioners, who shall pay the damages assessed, if any, and proceed to establish such street and sidewalks. But before proceeding to view said premises and assess said damages the appraisers chosen shall take the following oath before the mayor of the town or some justice of the peace: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully and honestly discharge the duty of appraiser for which I have been chosen and a true report make: So help me, God." That in case either the owner of the premises or the commissioners of the town shall be dissatisfied with the damages assessed by the appraisers, either may appeal, without bond, from the decision of said appraisers to the next term of the Superior Court of Haywood County, when the case shall be tried by the court and jury, but the Judge may, in his discretion, require either party to give bond when the case is taken on appeal to the Superior Court: Provided, that the party to whom the damages are awarded shall recover no more cost than a sum equal to the damages awarded by the court and jury. When an appeal is taken by the landowner the case shall be entitled "(here give the name of the landowner) v. the Town of Canton," and vice versa, if the appeal be taken by the town, and either party shall give five days' written Powers of town commissioners as to streets. Condemnation of land. Oath of appraisers. Appeal. Bond on appeal. Proviso: costs not to exceed damages. Appeal docketed.

notice to the other of such appeal, and the appeal shall be docketed by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Haywood County, under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed by law for docketing appeals taken from the judgment of justices of the peace of the county. That if any land-owners be infants, idiots or lunatics they shall be represented by their guardian; but if they have no general guardian a guardian may be appointed by the court, upon the application of any one interested, to represent said infants, idiots or lunatics in said appraisement and proceedings, and any sum of money realized from lands condemned, as aforesaid, belonging to said infants, idiots or lunatics, shall be invested or expended by the guardian as may be directed by the court, subject to the approval of the Judge, as provided by law. And such guardian shall have the same right of appeal from the judgment of the appraisers as herein provided for other land-owners.

Persons under disability.

Cemetery.

Sec. 16. That the commissioners of said town shall by ordinance regulate and govern the cemetery included within the corporate limits of the town, and it shall be their duty to lay off the unoccupied portion of said ground into suitable lots, with walks and drives laid out to the best advantage, not interfering with the graves already in said cemetery, and may by ordinance prohibit the digging of a grave or burial in any other place than that allotted for graves. That said board of commissioners may, if they elect to do so, discontinue the use of the present cemetery and purchase the necessary land for a new cemetery for the use of the town and locality, either within or without the corporate limits of said town, on such terms as may be agreed upon between said board of commissioners and the land-owner or owners. But in case such land cannot be purchased on terms satisfactory to the board of commissioners of said town, then, and in that event, the right is hereby given to the said town of Canton to enter upon the land needed for such cemetery and survey the same, and proceed to condemn and pay for the same, as provided by chapter sixty-one, entitled "Railroads," Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, or as otherwise provided by law: Provided, that the petition for condemning such land shall set forth the location and number of acres to be condemned for the cemetery. When said land shall be acquired by such procedure and paid for, the title to the same shall vest in the town in fee-simple for the burial purposes aforesaid, and if deemed necessary, the Court may, upon application, or a suit instituted by said town against the party whose land has been condemned for the purposes aforesaid, compel such party or parties to execute and deliver to the board of commissioners of said town a deed in fee-simple for such property. That the said commissioners shall have the full control and management of said cemetery, and may cause the same to be surveyed into lots for burial purposes, and sell the same for burial purposes and regulate the manner of burial, and lay out drives and walks and otherwise regulate said cemetery: Provided, that the proceeds realized from the sale of said burial lots shall be used in keeping up said cemetery, and the treasurer of said town shall keep a separate account of all funds realized from such sales and expended on said cemetery. Proviso: sale of lots.

Sec. 17. That all persons resident in said town of Canton liable to road duty under the road law of Haywood County shall be liable to do six days' work each upon the streets, bridges and sidewalks of said town in each year, and shall be given the same notice to do said work as provided in the Haywood County road law, and upon failure to do said work when notified as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not to exceed fifty dollars or imprisoned more than thirty days: Provided, that in lieu of such labor they may pay six dollars each for the year, if the same be paid before the first day of June of each year hereafter, which shall be expended in improvements on the streets and sidewalks. Road duty. Proviso: commutation for road work.

Sec. 18. When it shall be necessary for the preservation of the public peace, good order and common decency, or the protection of life, liberty, person or property of individuals, the town marshal shall have power and it shall be the duty of such marshal to arrest the body of offending parties, who have violated the law in the presence of said marshal, without warrant, to take such person or persons before the mayor of said town as early as practicable to be dealt with as the law directs; and for every resistance to such authority by such offender or others, the party so resisting shall be punished as the ordinances of said town shall provide; and, if necessary, the marshal shall have power to call to his aid any bystanders to assist him in any legal arrest, and any one so summoned or called who refuses or fails to assist in making such arrest or arrests shall, upon conviction before the mayor, be punished as the ordinances of said town prescribe. Powers of town marshal. Marshal to summon posse.

Sec. 19. That the commissioners shall have the power to abate all nuisances and impose such fines and penalties as may be necessary to abate them; they shall also have power to prescribe any rules, regulations and ordinances for the good government of the town, not inconsistent with the laws of the State or the United States. Nuisances.

Sec. 20. That any person violating any ordinance of said town shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, but the punishment thereof, upon conviction, shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for more than thirty days. Violation of ordinances a misdemeanor.

Sec. 21. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to manufacture, sell or give away, or dispose of in any way, directly or indirectly, any spirituous liquors or intoxicating drinks within the corporate limits of said town, and any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on Manufacture, sale or gift of liquors forbidden. Misdemeanor.

Punishment. conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars nor imprisoned more than thirty days, or both, for each and every offense.

Mayor constituted inferior court. Sec. 22. That the Mayor of the Town of Canton is hereby constituted an inferior court, and as such court said mayor shall be a magistrate and conservator of the peace, and within the corporate limits of said town shall have the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace in all criminal matters arising under the laws of the Jurisdiction. State or under the ordinances of said town. As such court the mayor of said town shall have the authority to hear and determine all cases that may arise upon the ordinances of the town; to enforce penalties by issuing execution upon any adjudged violation thereof, and to execute the laws and rules that may be made and provided by the board of commissioners of said town for the Powers given under general law. Sec. 23. That in addition to the powers hereinbefore given by the provisions of this act the mayor, commissioners and other officers and agents of said town of Canton are hereby given all the powers, rights and privileges under chapter seventy-three, entitled "Towns," of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, and those otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 24. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 25. That this act shall take effect from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 91.

AN ACT TO REVISE AND AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF NEW LONDON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Incorporation continued. Section 1. That the inhabitants of the town of New London shall be and continue as they have been, a body corporate, and

Corporate name. shall bear the name and style of the "Town of New London," and shall have power to purchase and hold real estate for the benefit

Corporate powers under general law. of the town, and that said town shall have the power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, as any other corporation; and that said town shall be subject to and have the benefit of the general laws of the State in relation to corporations of like kind not inconsistent with this act.

Corporate limits.

Sec. 2. That the corporate limits of the said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the center of the public square at the intersection of Depot and Main streets, and running thence south eighteen degrees east one thousand six hundred and fifty feet to a planted stone; thence north seventy-two degrees east two thousand feet to a planted stone; thence north eighteen degrees west three thousand six hundred and fifty feet to a planted stone; thence south seventy-two degrees west one thousand five hundred and seventeen feet to the east edge of Yadkin Street; thence north eighteen degrees west eight hundred feet to a planted stone; thence south seventy-two degrees west nine hundred and sixty-six feet to the west side of Vine Street; thence south eighteen degrees east eight hundred feet to a planted stone; thence south seventy-two degrees west one thousand five hundred and seventeen feet to a planted stone; thence south eighteen degrees east three thousand six hundred and fifty feet to a planted stone; thence north seventy-two degrees east two thousand feet to the south end of the first line.

Town officers.

Sec. 3. The officers of said town shall consist of a mayor, three commissioners and a marshal, all of which shall be elected at the regular elections to be held as provided by this act, except the marshal, who shall be appointed by the board of town commissioners for a term of two years: Provided, that said board of commissioners shall have the right to revoke said appointment at any time on failure of any marshal to perform the duties of his office satisfactorily; said marshal to be paid for his services in any lawful way that said board may see fit.

Proviso: town marshal.

Voters.

Sec. 4. That all resident citizens who are qualified voters of this State within said corporation, that have resided in the county for six months and in the town for four months next preceding any election held in said town, shall be entitled to vote, and all qualified voters in the incorporation shall be eligible to hold office in said corporation.

Mayor to qualify.

Sec. 5. That it shall be the duty of the mayor of said town to take the oath of office prescribed by law within five days after his election, and that the commissioners elected at any election for said town shall meet and organize within five days next after their election, and they shall take the oath of office that they, as a body, will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of commissioners to the best of their knowledge and their ability for the ensuing term.

Commissioners to qualify.

Tax rate.

Sec. 6. The commissioners of said town shall have power to levy a tax each year, not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents on the poll and fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property; said valuation to be the same that is placed thereon to raise the revenue for State and county purposes. The board of commissioners shall, at their first regular meeting in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and annually thereafter, appoint some competent person, who shall, on or before the fifteenth of May of each and every year, make advertisement in at least four public places in said town, notifying all persons residing in the town of New London who have or control taxable property in said town to appear before him at the times and places mentioned in said advertisements, which dates shall be between the first and last days of June each year, and to return to him a list of their taxable property in said town; said list shall state the number of lots, or parts of lots, and all other property now taxable, or that may hereafter be made taxable by the laws of the State or the ordinances of the town, and the lists so returned shall be sworn to by the usual oath in the State for listing property. From the returns so made the person so appointed as aforesaid shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July each year, make out in a book for that purpose an alphabetical list of persons and owners of property who have so made their returns in the same manner as the tax list as made out by law for the collection of State taxes; and the tax-lister appointed as aforesaid shall copy in said book the assessment made by the county of said assessors of all property within the town limits, which assessment may be revised, corrected or amended by the board of aldermen, but must at all times be the same in value as the assessment placed thereon for State and county purposes. The owners of any property which lies partly within and partly without the limits of said town shall cause the State and county assessors to separate and fix the value separately on that part of the property lying within said town. When the State and county assessors sit in the town of New London for assessing State and county taxes, the assessors for the town of New London shall sit with them at the same time and place, and list the property for said town. If any person liable for taxes on poll or other subjects to be listed in said town shall fail to list, or cause to be listed, the same during the month of June each year, as hereinbefore provided, he shall be subject to double tax, and the commissioners of said town shall have all the rights and remedies under the State laws to compel said person to appear and list said tax, and the tax collector of said town shall have all the authority, rights and power to collect taxes due said town as conferred from time to time by the Legislature upon the sheriffs and other tax collectors of the State for collecting State and county taxes.

Notice to list taxes.

Tax-lister to make out books.

Assessment of real estate.

Double tax for failure to list.

When taxes due.

Sec. 7. That all taxes levied by the commissioners of said town shall be due and collectible at any time after the first day of September in each year, and that the commissioners may expend all moneys collected as they may deem best for the interest of the town.

Tax lists subject to correction and inspection.

Sec. 8. That all tax lists or books which have been, or may hereafter be, placed in the hands of the town collector shall be subject at all times to the control of the authorities imposing said tax, and subject to correction, and shall be open for inspection by the public.

Bond of marshal.

Sec. 9. That the marshal, appointed by the said board of commissioners, shall enter into a bond payable to the State of North Carolina, the amount of which shall be approved and fixed by the board of commissioners; and the board shall appoint the said marshal or some other competent person as tax collector for said town, who, after giving an approved bond in an amount to be fixed by the board of commissioners, shall collect all taxes for said town, under the same laws and regulations as are prescribed for the sheriff of the county.

Tax collector.

Bond.

Power of commissioners as to streets.

Sec. 10. That the board of commissioners of said town shall have power to grade, macadamize and pave the streets and sidewalks, and lay out and open new streets or widen those already opened, and to make such improvements thereon as the public convenience may require; and that the board shall be the sole judges of the improvements required. The board may condemn any land for public use under the same rules and regulations as are hereafter provided for the laying out of public streets in this act.

May condemn land.

Procedure for condemnation of land.

Sec. 11. That when any land or right-of-way shall be required for the purpose of opening new streets, or for other objects allowed by this charter, and for want of agreement as to the compensation therefor, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by three freeholders of the town, one to be chosen by the board of commissioners and one to be selected by the land-owner, and these two select a third; and in case the land-owner refuses to select one, then the commissioners shall select all three. And, in making said valuation, said freeholders, after being duly sworn by the mayor, shall at once proceed to condemn said lands, and take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner in consequence of the lands or right-of-way being surrendered; also any benefit or advantage such owner may receive from the opening or widening of such streets, or other improvements, and ascertain the sum which shall be paid to the owner of said property, and report the same to the board of commissioners under their hands and seals, which, on being confirmed by the board and spread on their minutes, shall have the effect of a judgment against said board of commissioners, and shall pass the title of the lands so taken to the board of commissioners in their corporate capacity, and the lands may at once be condemned and used by said town for the purpose intended: Provided, that, if any person over whose land the said street may pass or improvements be created or the commissioners be dissatisfied with the valuation thus made, then in that case either party may have an appeal to the next term of the Superior Court within ten days after filing

Benefits to be considered.

Proviso: appeals.

Proviso: appeal not to delay action.

said report: Provided, however, that such appeal shall not hinder or delay the commissioners from opening or widening such streets or creating such improvements.

Pay of jury of view.

Sec. 12. That all freeholders appointed to assess damages shall receive one dollar per day for their services, and any freeholder who shall refuse to take the oath prescribed and to act according to law, after having been duly appointed by the board and after having been notified in writing by the marshal, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined twenty dollars for each offense by the mayor.

Failure to act a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Jurisdiction of mayor.

Sec. 13. That the mayor shall have the same jurisdiction as a justice of the peace in all criminal actions within the incorporate limits, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all misdemeanors consisting of violations of the ordinances of said town; that all fines collected by him in criminal actions under the law of this State shall be paid out as provided by law.

Proceedings in mayor's court.

Sec. 14. All proceedings in the mayor's court shall be the same as are now, or hereafter shall be, prescribed for courts of the justices of the peace, and in all cases there shall be a right of appeal to the Superior Court of Stanly County. That, whenever a defendant or witness or other person shall be adjudged to be imprisoned by said court, it shall be competent for the said court to sentence such person to imprisonment in the county jail, or town prison, for a term not to exceed thirty days, and to adjudge also that such person during the period of his confinement be worked on the streets or on the public works of the town.

Prisoners sentenced to street work.

Terms of officers.

Sec. 15. That all officers elected at any election in the town of New London shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. That in the absence of any officer of the town, or during sickness of any of the officers, the commissioners may appoint a man to fill the office during his absence or during his inability, and no longer. If the absence be caused by resignation, the board may appoint an officer to fill the unexpired term.

Absence and vacancies.

Secretary and treasurer.

Sec. 16. That the commissioners shall, at their first meeting after being qualified, elect for the ensuing term a secretary and treasurer, and that the treasurer shall enter into a bond, payable to the town of New London or to the State, the amount of which shall be fixed by the board, and that said bond shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Stanly County, as other bonds for county officers.

Bond of treasurer.

Fire company.

Sec. 17. That the commissioners may provide for the establishment and equipment of a fire company for said town.

Sanitary committee.

Sec. 18. That the commissioners of said town shall constitute a sanitary committee, and that all orders made by them for the preservation of the health of the citizens of the town shall be put into effect by the marshal. Any person who shall fail to comply with any order made by the board, after having been notified in writing by the marshal, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined by the mayor for each and every offense not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Arrests without warrant.

Sec. 19. That, if any person shall be found violating the laws of this State or any of the town ordinances by the marshal or other officer appointed to act as such within the incorporate limits, he shall forthwith arrest the offender, without a warrant, and immediately carry him before the mayor to answer the charge and be dealt with according to law.

Fire limits.

Sec. 20. The board of commissioners of said town are hereby authorized and empowered to establish a fire limit within a reasonable distance from the center of the town, and to pass an ordinance, or ordinances, to the effect that none other than brick or stone or metal buildings shall be built or erected within said limits; and that they may repeal said ordinances at any time they may deem it necessary for the interest of the town and property-holders therein.

Special subjects of taxation.

Sec. 21. That the board of commissioners shall have power to tax circuses, shows, liquor dealers, theaters, artificial curiosities, vendors of patent proprietary medicines, or any entertainment, musical or otherwise, and exhibits of any character for money or reward; peddlers of all kinds of goods, wares, merchandise, paints, polishes, varnishes, oils; markets for fresh meats, and fix and regulate the sale thereof; dealers in fire-works, draymen, barbers and liverymen, as they may see fit and proper, not inconsistent with the laws of the State.

Mayor pro tem.

Sec. 22. That the board of commissioners of said town shall have power to elect a mayor pro tem., who, on the death, absence, failure to qualify, resignation, or removal of the mayor, shall be vested with all the powers and discharge all the duties of the said mayor.

Forfeiture on commissioner for failure to attend meetings.

Sec. 23. That, if any commissioner shall fail to attend a regular meeting of the board of commissioners, or called meeting, of which he shall have had notice, unless prevented by such cause as shall be satisfactory to the board, he shall forfeit and pay for the use of the town one dollar for each and every offense, and it shall be the duty of the mayor to enforce such forfeitures as in all other criminal actions.

Salary of mayor.

Sec. 24. That the commissioners may allow the mayor such reasonable salary as they may see fit and proper, the amount depending upon services needed and rendered.

Present officers continued.

Sec. 25. That the mayor and commissioners now in office shall hold office until the next regular election, on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Commissioners to enact ordinances.

Sec. 26. That the board of commissioners shall have power to enact any ordinance or ordinances, and to pass all laws and regulations not incorporated in this charter they may deem necessary for the better government of the town, not inconsistent with the general laws and Constitution of the State.

Sec. 27. That all laws and clauses of laws heretofore enacted, inconsistent with the charter of New London, and all other laws conflicting with this act, are this day repealed and this charter substituted.

Sec. 28. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 18th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 92.

AN ACT TO EXTEND AND ENLARGE THE CRIMINAL JURISDICTION OF THE MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF TARBORO.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Jurisdiction extended to include Princeville.

Section 1. That chapter two hundred and thirty-six of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five be and the same is hereby amended as follows, viz.: Add section five to said act, which shall be in the following language: That the criminal jurisdiction of the Mayor of the Town of Tarboro, Edgecombe County, North Carolina, be and the same is hereby extended beyond the corporate limits of said town into, over, and so as to include all the territory adjacent to said town incorporated under the name of the Town of Princeville, Edgecombe County, North Carolina, and that said jurisdiction extended be concurrent with that of the Mayor of the Town of Princeville, as aforesaid, in all offenses occurring within the corporate limits of said town of Princeville: Provided, that no offender shall be apprehended and brought to trial at the instance of and before both of the mayors of said towns as aforesaid for one and the same violation of ordinance or ordinances.

Proviso: concurrent jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 18th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 93.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH GLEN ALPINE GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN THE COUNTY OF BURKE.

Preamble.

Whereas, heretofore the territory hereinafter described was erected into a special school district by order of the County Board of Education of Burke County, in pursuance of section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five; and whereas, afterwards, to-wit, on the tenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and six, at an election held in pursuance of said section, a majority of the qualified votes of said district were cast in favor of levying and collecting a special tax for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a public school in said district, of thirty cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of property and ninety cents on the poll; and whereas it is desired to erect said district into a graded school district, and to provide trustees to manage and control the same: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Graded school district established.

Section 1. That the following boundary of land in Burke County, including the village of Glen Alpine, shall constitute a graded school district, to be known as "Glen Alpine Graded School District"; that is to say, beginning on W. S. Patton's east corner, on the bank of the Catawba River, and running south with his line to the west switch of the Southern Railway at Calvin Station; thence with the Tate Mill road to Little Silver Creek; thence with the meanders of Little Silver Creek, a west course to J. A. Claywell's west line; thence with Claywell's west line to Big Silver Creek; thence with the meanders of Big Silver Creek to the Robert McElrath mill shoal; thence a northwest course, a straight line, to the east side of the Lucy Happoldt tract; then with the Ridge road to the ford of Little Silver Creek near Propst's old saw-mill site; thence a straight line to the top of the hill in the Asheville road west of J. M. Brinkley's residence, near the colored parsonage; then with the Asheville road to the Bobtown road; thence with the Bobtown road to the southwest side of Samuel Simpson's house; thence a direct line to the nine-mile post on the Asheville road; thence a straight line, a north course, with the top of the ridge to the Catawba River; thence down the river to J. W. Simpson's east corner; thence to the road leading out from Simpson's barn to the J. J. Sigmon road; thence with said road to the Catawba River at the J. J. Sigmon ford; thence down the river with the meanders to the beginning.

after the ratification of the act, the said board shall meet, and by lot divide themselves into three classes, one of whom shall hold office for two years, two for four years and two for six years, and until their successors are elected as hereinafter provided.

Election of successors.

Sec. 3. Whenever the term of office of any class of said trustees shall expire, as above provided, their successor or successors shall be elected for a term of six years by the qualified voters of said graded school district on the same date as the town election for mayor and commissioners for the town of Glen Alpine, North Carolina. That it shall be the duty of the County Board of Elections of Burke County, at least thirty days before the time for holding an election in said graded school district as above provided, to appoint a registrar and two judges of election to hold the election in said graded school district, and to cause notices to be served upon the parties so appointed; and it shall be the duty of said registrar to give notice that the registration book will be open, and to register thereon all qualified voters in said district at his residence or place of business at any time from the date of his appointment until the day preceding said election (Sundays excepted): Provided, they apply for registration. And it shall be the duty of the registrar and the two judges to hold said election and to ascertain said result, and announce the same on the day succeeding said election. Said election shall be held at such place in said district as the board of trustees may designate. Whenever any vacancy occurs in said board of trustees, otherwise than by the expiration of the term of office, such vacancy shall be filled by the board of trustees.

Appointment of registrar and judges.

Bond.

Sec. 4. The board of trustees shall appoint a tax collector for said district, who shall give bond in a sum to be fixed by the board, and who shall collect the taxes levied for school purposes in said district, as hereinafter provided, and pay over the same to the treasurer of said board of trustees.

Special tax to be levied.

Rate.

Sec. 5. The Board of Commissioners of Burke County shall annually levy on said district the special tax heretofore voted by the citizens of the same, to an amount not exceeding thirty cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of property and ninety cents on the poll. The amount of taxes to be levied each year, not to exceed the amount aforesaid, shall be fixed by the board of trustees of said graded school district, and certified to the chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Burke County.

Powers and duties of trustees.

Sec. 6. That a graded school shall be established in said district, and shall be under the exclusive control and management of the trustees hereinbefore named and their successors in office, and said trustees shall select a location for a graded school building or buildings, in which said school shall be conducted, and shall have the power to lease or purchase a site for the same and to erect a building thereon suitable for the needs of said school; and for this purpose they are hereby authorized to borrow, through the County Board of Education of Burke County, a sum not to exceed two thousand dollars, upon the terms set forth in sections four thousand and fifty-three, four thousand and fifty-four, four thousand and fifty-five, and four thousand and fifty-six of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five. Said board shall elect and employ teachers for said school, reserving the right of removal for immorality or unbecoming conduct or incompetency, and shall have the power to choose a superintendent, and to fix the compensation for said superintendent and teachers.

Trustees incorporated.

Sec. 7. That the trustees hereinbefore named and their successors, chosen as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be a body corporate, under the name and style of Glen Alpine Graded School, and as such shall be capable of exercising the authority hereinbefore given, of suing and being sued, of purchasing, leasing and holding real estate for school purposes, and of selling and conveying the same.

Report of trustees.

Sec. 8. The trustees of said school shall report annually, on the first day of July in each year, to the County Board of Education of Burke County the school population of said district, the money expended under their direction, and the work done during the previous school year.

Apportionment from general school fund.

Sec. 9. That the moneys which shall from time to time be apportioned under the general laws of the State to the said school district above described shall be turned over by the Treasurer of Burke County to the treasurer of the Glen Alpine Graded School, to be expended for the benefit of said school.

Sec. 10. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 18th day of February, A. D. 1907.

scribed for election of mayor and aldermen—the question: Shall the city of High Point, North Carolina, appropriate annually the sum of fifteen hundred dollars to maintain a public library, the donation of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, and provide a suitable site therefor in the city of High Point?

Form of ballots.

Sec. 2. That at said election those in favor of accepting said proposition and making said annual appropriation shall vote a ticket which has written or printed upon it "For Carnegie Library Appropriation and Providing a Site Therefor." All qualified voters who are opposed to the appropriation and the provision of said site shall vote "Against Carnegie Library and Providing a Site Therefor."

Appropriation if voted for.

Sec. 3. In the event that a majority of the qualified electors of the city of High Point shall vote for the appropriation for the Carnegie Library at said election, and the result shall be declared and recorded on the minutes of the board of aldermen, the board of aldermen shall appropriate for the maintenance of said library the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and shall donate a suitable site on which to erect the said library; and they shall levy annually, as they now or hereafter need each year, a special library tax of not exceeding four cents on the hundred dollars' worth of property and ten cents on each poll; the subject of taxation and the levy of taxes is to be the same on which the said Board of Aldermen of the City of High Point now or may hereafter be authorized to levy taxes for annual city purposes. The taxes so levied shall be collected as other taxes are paid, and the same shall be a special fund for the maintenance of the said library and for the provision of the said site, as aforesaid.

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 19th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 95.

AN ACT TO ABOLISH THE OFFICE OF BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS FOR THE TOWN OF TARBORO.

Preamble.

Whereas, by sections two and three, chapter two hundred and five, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and chapter two hundred and four, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, Edgecombe County, North Carolina, were authorized and empowered to create in and for said town an office known and styled as the Board of Public Works of the Town of Tarboro, and were directed to fill said office by election or appointment from among the citizenship of said town, whose number was fixed at seven (afterwards reduced to three, see Private Laws one thousand nine hundred and three, chapter four hundred and seven), and whose powers and duties and functions of office, as defined in section three of said act, were, among other things, to sell certain bonds of the town and use the moneys derived from the sale thereof in establishing and maintaining a system of water-works and sewerage in and for said town and establishing a light plant and operating same to furnish light to said town and its citizens; and whereas, said Board of Public Works of the Town of Tarboro, as created under these acts of Assembly as aforesaid and those directly amendatory thereof, have conjointly and by and with the approval of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, done all acts and things whatsoever devolving upon them and required by law, in establishing, providing and maintaining a system of water-works and sewerage and lighting plant for said town: and whereas, in the judgment of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, the objects and purposes for which said board of public works as aforesaid was created have been accomplished, and the use for same is no longer necessary or needful for the proper management and control of the affairs of the municipality: now therefore,

Preamble.

Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That so much of sections two and three, chapter two hundred and five of the Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and chapter two hundred and four, Private Laws one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and all laws and clauses of laws amendatory of said acts or sections of said acts of Assembly, as authorized and empowered the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro to create the office of Board of Public Works of the Town of Tarboro, and define its duties and powers, be and the same are hereby repealed, and from and after the ratification of this act all duties, powers, obligations and functions of office of said board of public works and the members thereof shall devolve upon and vest absolutely in the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, and its successors in office: Provided, that the abolishment of said office of Board of Public Works of the Town of Tarboro shall in no wise operate or be construed as to impair any contract or obligation of the town of Tarboro made, entered into or assumed during the life or existence of said board of public works as aforesaid for, in the name of, or on behalf of said town of Tarboro: Provided further, that the title to all property, real or personal, property rights, franchises, easements and other things of value heretofore acquired, by purchase or otherwise, by and in the name of the Board of Public Works of the Town of Tarboro, for said municipality, shall, on and after the ratification of this act, vest absolutely in the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro and its successors in office; the said Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, as aforesaid, upon authority by this act conferred, hereby expressly ratifying and confirming all acts and things done or engaged to be done by it, the said board of public works as aforesaid, within the scope and authority of law applicable thereto.

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 96.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF CONETOE, IN THE COUNTY OF EDGECOMBE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter one hundred and fifty-four, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, be and the same is hereby amended by adding at the end of section four thereof the following: "And the commissioners of said town shall annually, before the first day of each July, levy on all retailers of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors a tax not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum, payable semi-annually in advance on the first day of January and July; and no license shall be issued for a less time than six months, and said license shall expire the thirtieth day of June and the thirty-first day of December, respectively, after the date of issue."

Tax on liquor dealers.

Sec. 2. That all levies and collections of taxes on retailers of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors heretofore made by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Conetoe are hereby fully approved, ratified and confirmed.

Taxes heretofore levied confirmed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 97.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF SELMA TO ISSUE BONDS FOR ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized. Amount.

Section 1. That the town of Selma is hereby authorized and empowered to issue in its name fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of interest-bearing coupon bonds for the purpose and in the manner hereinafter set out, if a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds at an election to be held as hereinafter provided.

Election on bonds.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall not be issued nor the taxes herein authorized levied until authorized by a majority of the qualified voters of the town of Selma at a public election to be held in said town any time within twelve months after the ratification of this act: Provided, that said Board of Town Commissioners of the Town of Selma shall advertise such election for thirty days prior to the election, in some newspaper published in said town or in the county of Johnston, and said election shall be held under the same rules and regulations as elections for mayor and town commissioners in said town are conducted, and the returns and result of said election shall be made and certified by the election officers to the board of commissioners within two days after said election, and the result shall be canvassed by said board and declared. That at the said election those who are in favor of issuing bonds and levying the taxes herein provided for shall vote ballots with the words "For Bonds," and those opposed to issuing said bonds and levying the taxes herein provided for shall vote ballots with the words "Against Bonds," written or printed thereon. That if at said election the majority of the qualified voters shall cast their ballots "For Bonds," then the board of commissioners of said town shall proceed at once to issue said bonds as above provided, and the same shall be signed by the mayor and clerk to the board of commissioners, and delivered to the board of internal improvements hereinafter provided for, but the entire amount issued and delivered shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifteen thousand dollars. Said bonds shall have interest coupons thereto attached and duly numbered, and the interest thereon shall in no case exceed six per centum per annum.

over to the treasurer, who may be designated or elected by said board of internal improvements, and the sureties upon the official bond of said treasurer shall be liable to account for and pay over the same as hereinafter provided; and it shall be the duty of said board of internal improvements to provide that the bond of said treasurer shall at all times be sufficient in amount and with satisfactory sureties to provide against any loss of money arising from the sale of said bonds, or any other money received by him in accordance with this act; said board of internal improvements shall also fix the compensation of said treasurer of said funds.

When bonds payable.

Sec. 4. That the principal of the bonds herein provided for shall be payable at a time to be fixed by the board of commissioners, not to be less than twenty nor more than thirty years from the date thereof: Provided, said board may divide said bonds into classes and denominations as they determine best, and have them mature at different dates between the times aforesaid. That the board of internal improvements shall keep a record of said bonds, showing the numbers and denominations thereof, and to whom sold, the dates of issuing thereof, and when the same shall mature, and the interest-bearing rate thereof, the amount received from the sale thereof, the date of paying the proceeds thereof into the treasury, and such other data in relation to the same as may be proper; and they shall furnish such information in respect to such record to the board of commissioners, if required.

Proviso: bonds may be classified.

Record of bonds.

Special tax for interest.

Sec. 5. That to provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on said bonds, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town, each and every year, at the time other taxes are levied, to compute and levy a special tax upon all the taxable polls and property and other subjects taxed by said town to pay said interest, as the same may become due and payable. The board of commissioners shall cause said special tax to be levied, collected and accounted for as other taxes are, and they shall cause the same to be set aside for the special purpose of paying interest on said bonds, and it shall be used for no other purpose: Provided, that said special tax hereinabove provided for shall not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property and one dollar on the poll, always observing the equation of taxation between property and the polls fixed by law. And the money paid into the treasury received from the taxes levied under this act shall be appropriated for the purposes herein indicated. But if the said taxes levied and collected in any year, as provided in this section, shall exceed the amount necessary to pay the accrued interest on said bonds, the amount in excess may be applied to the credit of the interest fund for the next succeeding year, in the discretion of the board of commissioners, and if so, the said board of commissioners at the time of levying said special tax for the next succeeding year shall take into consideration said excess and shall compute and levy said special tax accordingly. That the tax collector shall be required to give such additional bond as the commissioners shall require for the faithful collection and payment of said taxes, and they shall fix his compensation therefor. That the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, and their coupons, shall not be subject to taxation by said town until after they shall be due, and payment made or tendered, and if the holder of any of said bonds shall fail to present the same for payment at the time or times and at the place or places named therein, he shall not be entitled to any interest thereon for the time they had been outstanding after maturity.

Tax collector to give additional bond.

Bonds exempt from municipal taxation.

Sec. 6. That M. C. Winston, N. E. Edgerton, G. D. Vick, L. H. Allred and C. W. Richardson be and they are hereby appointed and incorporated as a board to be known as the "Board of Internal Improvements of the Town of Selma," and they shall hold their office until the second regular election of mayor and town commissioners for said town after the ratification of this act, and every two years after said date there shall be elected, in the same manner and at the same time that the mayor and town commissioners are elected, five qualified voters of said town, to be known as the board of internal improvements, and in case of a vacancy on said board at any time the remaining members shall elect some discreet person to fill the vacancy until the next regular town election. The members of said board of internal improvements shall receive, each, three dollars per month for their services. It shall be the duty of said board of internal improvements to receive and sell the bonds hereinabove provided for, at not less than par, and use the proceeds thereof in building, furnishing, operating, maintaining and extending a system of electric lights for said town, and making such other internal improvements as they may in their best judgment deem proper, and they are appointed and incorporated for the purpose of having the exclusive management of said work of selling said bonds, and establishing, improving, maintaining and extending said electric-light system, and such other internal improvements as they may make with any part of the proceeds of said bonds, and no part of said money derived from the sale of said bonds shall be paid out by the treasurer of said funds except upon the warrant of said board of internal improvements. They shall fix prices and provide for the collection of the rentals from consumers of the electric lights, and have entire supervision of the establishment, maintenance, improvement, management and extension of said system of electric lights, and other improvements undertaken by them. They shall faithfully see that the system of electric lights is orderly and properly conducted, and shall promptly furnish, on request, to the citizens who may apply for service of said system, and shall in all cases provide for the proper service of said system to the consumers thereof, and shall promptly attend to all complaints as to defective service, and shall cause the same to be remedied, and otherwise control and manage said system for the best interest of said town and the citizens thereof: Provided, that nothing in this act shall prohibit the said board of internal improvements from furnishing light to non-resident persons or firms, or distant towns or enterprises, on such terms as said board may require.

Proviso: light to non-residents.

Custodian of rentals.

Said board may appoint one of their number, or some other discreet person, to act as custodian of the rentals collected from the consumers of electric lights, or the same may be paid into the treasury as other funds hereinabove provided, but the same shall be kept as a separate fund, to be paid out only on the warrant of said board of internal improvements, for the maintenance of said system and the payment of legitimate expenses.

Records of board.

Sec. 7. Said board of internal improvements shall keep a full and complete record of all their proceedings, and an exhibit of their receipts and disbursements of the funds provided for under this act, or issuing out of said system of electric lights, which records shall be open at all times to the inspection of the town commissioners or any of the citizens of said town.

Board to make contracts.

The board shall contract for the material for the plants and other improvements, and the construction of the same, and cause the same to be erected under the immediate supervision of said board, but in any or all events the town shall own the plants and property contracted for, out of the funds provided in this act.

Condemnation of property.

Sec. 8. That in the erection, operation and maintenance of said system of electric lights, and extending the improvements undertaken by said board of internal improvements, the said board may take, use, occupy and condemn such private property in or out of said town as may become necessary in the furtherance of their legitimate duties; and when the owner and said board cannot agree upon the amount of damages to be paid for property condemned the controversy shall be determined as provided by the general laws of the State in condemnation proceedings, except the town may take and use at once such private property without waiting for the determination of the proceedings, but the town's title to such property, or its right to permanently occupy the same, shall not become absolute until the final judgment of the court is complied with.

Special tax for sinking fund.

Sec. 9. For the purpose of creating a sinking fund with which to liquidate the bonds issued under this act, it shall be the duty of the board of town commissioners, at and after the expiration of twenty (20) years from the date of said bonds, or five years earlier, should the bonds mature in twenty years from the date of their issue, to annually levy and collect a special tax in addition to that mentioned and authorized in section five of this act; and the tax provided for in this section may equal in amount one-tenth of the amount of bonds issued under this act, and the tax provided for in this section shall be levied and collected and paid over as provided for the levying, collection and payment of the special tax provided in section five of this act. And whenever the amount of tax collected under this section, together with the interest accumulated from the investment thereof as hereinafter provided for, and other moneys in the sinking fund, shall be sufficient to pay off the principal of all outstanding bonds, then said commissioners shall cease to levy said taxes for the sinking fund.

Investment of sinking fund.

Sec. 10. That it shall be the duty of the board of internal improvements to invest all moneys arising from the special tax collected under section nine of this act, as well as any other funds set apart from the profits of running said electric-light system, in the purchase of any of said bonds at a price deemed advantageous to said town by said board of internal improvements, if the holders of any of said bonds shall consent to sell and surrender the same before maturity; but in case said bonds cannot be purchased as herein provided, said board of internal improvements may lend said sinking fund or any part thereof in such sums as they may deem proper, for a length of time not exceeding six months prior to the date of maturity of said bonds, taking as security for the payment thereof, and for the payment of interest thereon, mortgages or deeds in trust, in the name of said board, on sufficient real estate, or bonds issued under this act may be taken as collateral security for such loans. The notes or evidences of debt given for any loan under this section shall bear interest, payable annually, at a rate not less than six per centum per annum; and in case said board of internal improvements shall not be able to lend any or all of said money, as directed above, they may, and it shall be their duty, to cause such part as they are unable to invest or lend to be deposited in some bank of undoubted solvency at the best obtainable rate of interest, and any and all interest arising from the above investment, or as directed above, shall be reinvested in the manner above provided.

Orders for payment of money.

Sec. 11. That none of the moneys paid into the town treasury, or unto the person or persons designated by the board of internal improvements to receive the same, shall be paid out, except upon the warrant of the board of internal improvements, and the said treasurer or custodian of light funds shall make his accounting to said board of internal improvements whenever required by them. That nothing in this act shall conflict with the duties of the Street Commissioner of the Town of Selma, nor any other person or persons having to do with the general improvements of the public property of the town not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Street commissioner.

Sec. 12. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 13. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 99.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE TRUSTEES OF THE GRADED SCHOOL IN KERNERSVILLE TO APPLY PART OF SCHOOL FUND TO THE ERECTION OF THE SCHOOL BUILDING.

Whereas, chapter eleven, Private Acts one thousand nine hundred and five, constituting the town of Kernersville a special school district, and prescribing the machinery by which an election might be held to determine the question as to whether four thousand dollars of bonds should be issued for the erection of a graded school building; and whereas, an election was held at the regular municipal election in May, one thousand nine hundred and five, as provided in chapter eleven, Private Acts one thousand nine hundred and five, and a majority of the votes were cast in favor of the issuing of said bonds; and whereas, in accordance with the provisions of said act, the four thousand dollars' worth of bonds were duly issued and sold at par; and whereas, chapter eleven, section eight, Private Acts one thousand nine hundred and five, vested in the board of trustees all property, both real and personal, of the public school for whites in said district to be used, in the discretion of the said trustees, in the erection of a new building, and that there was situate on said public school lot a school building worth fifteen hundred dollars which the board of trustees intended to sell and apply the proceeds towards the erection of the new building, now under way of building, but on the ..... day of April, one thousand nine hundred and six said school building was burned, and that there was no insurance to cover loss on said building; and whereas, the board of trustees, under the provisions of said act and from the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, have under way of construction a large and commodious brick building in the town of Kernersville, but on account of the unavoidable fire and the purchase of an additional lot, the board of trustees have not enough funds to complete said building: therefore, Preamble. Preamble. Preamble. Preamble. Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Board of Trustees of the Graded School of the Town of Kernersville are authorized and empowered to use and apply any moneys now in its possession or that may hereafter come into its possession from the special tax levied and collected in said school district for the maintenance of said school, or from the tax levied and collected from the State of North Carolina, Forsyth County, for this school, towards the erection and completion and furnishing of said school building now being built in said school district in the town of Kernersville, and until said building is completed, after first keeping open and running a school for at least six months in each school year. Appropriation for erection, completion and furnishing school building.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 100.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE FORSYTH BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, OF KERNERSVILLE, N. C.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Company may act in fiduciary capacities.

Section 1. That the charter of the Forsyth Bank and Trust Company, of Kernersville, N. C., chartered under the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and three, chapter two hundred and seventy-five, be amended by adding at the end of section three of said charter the following: "The said company shall have power to act as executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, receiver or depository, and to take, accept and execute any and all such trusts and powers, of whatever nature or description, as may be conferred upon or entrusted or committed to it by any person or persons or by any corporation, by agreement, grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or otherwise, or by order of any court of record, and to receive, take, hold, manage and convey any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust, and for compensation shall have such commission as may be fixed by law or as may be agreed upon. The Superior Court of Forsyth County or any other county wherein said company shall have been appointed guardian, executor, administrator, receiver or trustee or depository, shall have power to make orders respecting such trusts, and to require the said company to render all accounts which said county might lawfully make or require if such trustees were a natural person. In accepting any of the trusts or powers hereunder, the said corporation may qualify by its president, vice-president or cashier. It shall have power to carry on, conduct and operate a saving bank business in all its branches; may receive deposits in large or small sums, and may pay interest thereon at fixed rates as may be agreed on between the corporation and its depositors, and the board of directors are hereby authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations for conducting and carrying into effect the different features of this branch of the corporation."

Savings bank.

Sec. 2. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 101.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE WHETSTONE LODGE, NO. 515, A. F. AND A. M.

Preamble.

Whereas, for the purposes hereinafter set forth, the members of Whetstone Lodge, Number five hundred and fifteen, A. F. and A. M., a subordinate lodge of the Masonic Fraternity, working under the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, at Bessemer City, in Gaston County, N. C., desire that said Whetstone Lodge, Number five hundred and fifteen, A. F. and A. M., be created a corporation of the State of North Carolina; and whereas, it is deemed impracticable to create said corporation for the purposes desired under the general corporation laws of this State: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Lodge incorporated.

Section 1. That the members, who are at present, or in future may be, of Whetstone Lodge, Number five hundred and fifteen, A. F. and A. M., of Bessemer City, Gaston County, N. C., be and they are hereby constituted, created and declared a body corporate, under the corporate name of Whetstone Lodge, Number five hundred and fifteen, A. F. and A. M., and by such name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal.

Corporate name.

Corporation may purchase and hold property.

Sec. 2. (a) That said corporation may purchase, own, hold, lease or otherwise acquire property, both real and personal, in the same manner as private corporations are now allowed to do by law. (b) Said corporation may lease or rent to other parties any or all of its property, upon such terms as a majority of the members shall approve: Provided, that no lease of such property shall be made for a period exceeding five years.

May lease or rent property,

May mortgage or sell property.

Sec. 3. That said corporation may mortgage, sell, alien and convey any or all of its property, only by the authority of three-fourths of all the then members of said corporation, together with the written approval of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina attested by the Grand Secretary of said Grand Lodge and with the seal of said Grand Lodge.

No capital stock.

Sec. 4. That said corporation shall have no capital stock.

Power to borrow money.

Sec. 5. That said corporation may borrow money and may pledge its property, by way of mortgage or other form of pledge, for the payment of such loans, and upon such terms and conditions as it may agree upon.

Corporate officers.

Sec. 6. For the purposes of the organization and corporate acts of said corporation, the officers thereof shall be as follows, viz.: The Master of said Whetstone Lodge, concurrent with his tenure of such mastership, shall be president of said corporation. The past-masters of said Whetstone Lodge shall be vice-presidents of said corporation in the order in which they may be and shall have been masters of said lodge. The secretary of said Whetstone Lodge, concurrent with his tenure of such secretaryship, shall be secretary of said corporation. The treasurer of said Whetstone Lodge, concurrent with his tenure of such office, shall be treasurer of said corporation.

Management of corporation.

Sec. 7. Said corporation shall be managed by the members thereof, by a majority vote on all questions relating to its corporate acts, except as to those requiring a three-fourths vote as provided in section three above.

By-laws.

Sec. 8. Said corporation may enact such by-laws (not inconsistent herewith nor with the laws of North Carolina nor those of the United States) as it may deem best, and the same shall be effective until the then first succeeding session of the Grand Lodge, at which session said by-laws shall be approved by the said Grand Lodge, or if disapproved by it, then such by-laws or so much thereof as shall not be approved, shall become inoperative and void.

Exemption from taxation.

Sec. 9. So long as said corporation shall be wholly a charitable institution it shall be exempt from taxation.

Dissolution of corporation.

Sec. 10. In case of dissolution of said corporation, or if for any cause this charter shall be forfeited, or otherwise become inoperative and void, then and in such case, all estate, title and interest, legal and equitable, of said corporation, in and to any property, real or personal, shall become vested in the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and may be used, converted and disbursed by it for charitable purposes only.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 102.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS OF JACKSONVILLE TO ISSUE BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROTECTING THE TOWN AGAINST FIRES.

Preamble.

Whereas, the town of Jacksonville has suffered greatly on account of the want of fire protection; and whereas, the town considers it necessary to make provision for fire protection; and whereas, the said expense is a necessary expense; and whereas, the said town of Jacksonville desires to issue bonds in the sum of two thousand dollars to enable it to secure fire protection: therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That for the purpose of enabling the town of Jacksonville to provide itself with suitable fire engines and equipments the Commissioners of the Town of Jacksonville are authorized and empowered to issue bonds to an amount not exceeding the aggregate sum of two thousand dollars, of such denomination and in such proportions as the commissioners may deem advisable, bearing interest from the date thereof at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum, with interest coupons attached, payable half yearly at such times and at such place or places as may be deemed advisable by said commissioners, said bonds to be of such form and tenor and transferable in such way, and the principal thereof payable or redeemable at such time or times not exceeding five years from the date thereof and at such place or places as the commissioners may determine; each of said bonds to state on its face that said bond was issued to secure the citizens of the town of Jacksonville against fire: Provided, that, if there should be any surplus of said fund unexpended for said purpose, said surplus shall be paid into the town treasury and be used for any town purposes.

Amount.

Interest.

Proviso: application of surplus.

Sec. 2. That none of the bonds provided for in the above section shall be disposed of, either by sale, exchange, hypothecation or otherwise, for a less price than their par value.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 3. That the bonds authorized to be issued by section one hereof, and their coupons, shall not be subject to taxation by the said town until after they become due and tender of payment shall have been made by the town, and the coupons shall be receivable in the payment of the taxes or other town dues for any fiscal year in which said coupons become due, or thereafter; and if the holder of any of said bonds or coupons shall fail to present the same for payment at the time or times and at the place or places therein named, he shall not be entitled to any interest thereon for the time they have been outstanding after maturity.

Exemption from taxation.

Coupons receivable for taxes.

Sec. 4. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of the interest accruing on, and the principal at maturity of the bonds herein authorized, the commissioners of the said town shall annually and at the time of levying other town taxes levy and lay a particular tax on all persons and subjects of taxation on which the said commissioners now are or may hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purposes whatever, said particular tax to be not less than twenty nor more than thirty cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on property, and not less than twenty nor more than thirty cents on each poll. The taxes provided for in this section shall be collected in the manner and at the time other town taxes are collected, and shall be accounted for and kept separate from other town taxes, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes for which they are levied and collected. So much of said tax as may be required to pay the interest on the bonds issued as it falls due, and cannot be applied to the purchase or discharge of the said bonds, shall be invested so as to secure the payment at maturity of the principal of the said bonds; and

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Rate.

Investment of sinking fund.

to insure the due investment of the amounts collected from year to year in excess of that required to pay the said interest, the commissioners shall appoint some suitable person, to be styled "Commissioner of the Sinking Fund of the Town of Jacksonville," who shall hold his office for five years, and whose duty it shall be, under such rules and regulations as said commissioners shall from time to time prescribe, to make investment of so much of the taxes collected as aforesaid to the payment of the principal of said bonds, and to do and perform all such other services, in connection with said bonds, as said commissioners may prescribe; and such commissioner shall give bond and receive such compensation for his services as said commissioners may determine.

Commissioner of sinking fund. Term of office. Duty.

Bond and compensation.

Sec. 5. That all laws and clauses of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 103.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF ENFIELD, NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Selection of treasurer and street commissioner.

Section 1. That section twenty-seven of chapter one hundred and forty-six of the Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven be amended by striking out said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to-wit: "That in the selection of a treasurer and street commissioner the board of commissioners may elect one of their number, or some qualified voter of said town, to fill each of the offices."

Taxing power.

Sec. 2. That section thirty-one thereof be stricken out and the following inserted in lieu thereof, to-wit: "That in order to raise the funds for the expenses incident to the proper government of the town, the commissioners may only levy and collect the following taxes, namely:

Property tax.

(1) On all real and personal property within the corporate limits, including money on hand, and upon all other subjects taxed by the General Assembly ad valorem, a tax not exceeding thirty cents on every one hundred dollars value.

Poll tax.

(2) On all taxable polls a tax not exceeding ninety cents a poll who may be resident in the town on the first day of June in each year.

(3) Upon all itinerant merchants or peddlers offering to vend in the town, a license tax not exceeding one hundred dollars per year; not more than one person shall peddle under a single license. Peddlers.

(4) Upon every billiard table, bowling alley or alley of like kind, bowling saloon, bagatelle table, pool table kept for hire, a tax not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per year. And all persons desiring to keep a billiard table, bowling alley or alley of like kind shall first apply to the board of commissioners for a license therefor, at a time and place that may be fixed by the ordinances of said town for such application to be made: Provided, that said board of commissioners may in their discretion refuse to grant said license. Tables.

(5) Upon every license granted by the said board of commissioners to retail spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within the corporate limits of said town, a tax not less than one thousand dollars nor more than three thousand dollars per annum, and in no case can they remit said tax or any part thereof. Any person desiring to engage in the business of selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall first apply to the board of commissioners of said town for a license so to do. Said application shall be accompanied by an affidavit of six freeholders of said town stating that the applicant is a proper and suitable person, and the place he desires to carry on said business in is a proper and suitable place for said business to be conducted in. And said board of commissioners, after an investigation of said petition, may grant or refuse to grant said license, and it shall be purely within the discretion of said board of commissioners to say how many licenses they will issue in said town. And if they should desire not to grant license to but one person, then and in that event the license shall be not less than two thousand dollars nor more than three thousand dollars. Liquor license.

(6) Upon every company of circus riders or performers, of whatever name called, which exhibit within the town, a license tax not exceeding one hundred dollars for each exhibition. And upon every side show connected therewith a license tax not exceeding ten dollars. And for every parade given upon the public streets in connection with said shows, whether said exhibition be within the corporate limits of said town or just on the outside of said corporate limits, a tax for each parade not exceeding fifty dollars. Circus riders. Side show. Parades.

(7) Upon every person or company exhibiting in the town, or theatrical plays, sleight-of-hand performers, rope-walking, tumbling, or menageries, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars. Theatrical shows.

(8) Upon every exhibition for reward of artificial curiosities in the town, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars. Artificial curiosities.

(9) Upon every show or exhibition of any other kind, and each concert, for reward, in the town, a tax not to exceed ten dollars. Other shows and concerts.

Dogs.

(10) Upon every dog a tax not to exceed two dollars: Provided, however, that a discrimination may be made in the different sexes of dogs.

Photographer, merry-go-round, shooting galleries and street merchants.

(11) Upon each photographer, merry-go-round or shooting gallery, or huckster, or other person selling on the streets or sidewalks, a tax not exceeding fifty dollars per week.

Second-hand clothing.

(12) Upon every merchant or trader of whatever kind or character, selling or offering to sell any kind of second-hand clothing or cast-off apparel, a license tax not exceeding three hundred dollars per year."

Collection of license taxes.

Sec. 3. That section thirty-two of said act be and the same is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: "The license or privilege taxes shall be collected by the mayor of said town when fixed, without compensation; and if the same be not paid on demand, the same may be recovered by suit brought by the mayor for the use of the town. Or the articles upon which the tax is imposed, or any other property of the person liable for such tax, may be forthwith distrained, and sold to satisfy the same, after ten days' advertisement at three different places within the limits of the town.

Prohibition on mayor or commissioner contracting with town.

Sec. 4. That section forty-six of said act be and the same is hereby stricken out and repealed.

Sec. 5. That section fifty-four of said act be and the same is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof:

Number of bar-rooms.

"That said commissioners shall have power to restrict the number of bar-rooms in said town to one: Provided, they shall in their judgment deem one bar-room a sufficient number to accommodate the general public: Provided, if they are so restricted, the license tax shall be not less than two thousand dollars nor more than three thousand dollars.

Prohibition on mayor or commissioner contracting with town.

Sec. 6. That section forty-six of said act be and the same is hereby stricken out and repealed.

Power to borrow money.

Sec. 7. That among the powers conferred upon the board of commissioners by the charter of said town and this amendment is, in case of emergency, they may borrow money to the amount of one thousand dollars without submitting the same to the vote of the people. If a greater amount than said one thousand dollars, it shall be borrowed as prescribed in section nineteen of said charter.

Sec. 8. That all laws and clauses of laws pertaining to the town of Enfield in conflict with this act be and they are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 104.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 185 OF THE PRIVATE LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA, SESSION OF 1905, CHANGING THE NAME OF "LEAKSVILLE-SPRAY ACADEMY" TO "LEAKSVILLE-SPRAY INSTITUTE."

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter one hundred and eighty-five of the Private Laws of North Carolina, session one thousand nine hundred and five, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the words "Leaksville-Spray Academy," wherever they appear in said act, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Leaksville-Spray Institute," thereby changing its name to "Leaksville-Spray Institute." conditioned for the faithful performance of all trusts committed to the said corporation. Said undertaking may be sued upon by any person injured by the failure of the said corporation to faithfully execute any trust committed to its care, or by the personal representative of such person, in the Superior Court of any county in this State wherein the breach of trust has been committed. A copy of the undertaking, duly verified by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Person County, under his official seal, shall be received in evidence in any of the courts of this State. That whenever it shall appear to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Person County that it is necessary for the faithful performance of all trusts committed to the care of the said corporation, he may require said corporation to increase the amount of the said undertaking to any amount, not to exceed ten thousand dollars. The Superior Court of any county wherein any trust may have been committed to the said corporation may require such reports of, and make such orders respecting said trust, and require such accounts, as if said corporation was a natural person. In accepting any trust or power hereunder, said corporation may qualify by one of its executive officers. That said corporation shall have discretionary power to invest the funds received in trust in the bonds of the United States, or any of the States in the Union, or in the duly authorized bonds of any city, town or county in this State, or in loans secured by mortgage or deed of trust on real or personal property, or other surety; but all such loans shall be at the sole risk of the said corporation, and for any losses by reason of said investments the capital stock of said corporation, together with all the property of the corporation and its bond or bonds, shall be absolutely liable.

Reports.

Investment of funds.

Power to acquire and deal in property.

Improvements.

Sec. 9. That said corporation shall have, and is hereby given, power to take, acquire, buy, own, hold, work, maintain, develop, sell, convey, lease, rent, mortgage, exchange, improve and otherwise deal in and dispose of real estate, or any interest therein, without limit as to amount, and to deal in and dispose of all kinds of property without limit as to amount; to erect, build, construct, alter, maintain and improve buildings, houses, or works of any kind on the lands of the corporation, or any other lands, under license from owners thereof; to appropriate and convert lands for, to erect, build and maintain roads or streets, and any other and all kinds of conveniences on the property of the corporation, or any other person, under license from the owners thereof: Provided, that when said work is done, or buildings erected or repaired, on the lands of another the said corporation shall receive such compensation as may have been agreed upon by the parties, and shall be entitled to all the liens that are given contractors, laborers and material furnishers in such cases.

Power to make and negotiate loans.

Sec. 10. That said corporation shall have the power and privilege to make and negotiate loans of money on the bonds or notes of any person, firm or corporation, secured by deed of trust or mortgage on either real or personal property, or both, or by personal or other surety, said deeds of trust or mortgages to be executed to said corporation, or to any trustee that may be selected by the parties, and said notes or bonds may include on the face thereof interest at the legal rate per annum for the full period of time agreed upon by the parties for the final payment of the said note or bond, and the said corporation may require said note or bond, with interest so added, to be paid in as many equal installments, at stated and equal intervals of time, as may be agreed upon, between the date of the bond or note and the time agreed upon for the final payment thereof, and in default of the payment of any installment interest may be added from the date due until paid.

Accounts of married women.

Sec. 11. That whenever any money shall be loaned or business transacted for any female, the female being or thereafter becoming a married woman, the same shall be held for the exclusive use of the person in whose name held, and the receipt of said female person shall be binding on all persons or parties, and shall be a sufficient discharge of said corporation from liability therefor.

Transfer of stock.

Sec. 12. That the stock of said corporation held by any person shall be transferred only on the books of the corporation, either in person or by power of attorney, and no stockholder shall transfer his stock without consent of the directors of the corporation.

Principal office.

Branch offices.

Sec. 13. That the principal office of said corporation shall be in Person County, North Carolina, but the directors may establish branch offices at such places as they may deem best, in or out of the State.

That the officers of said town shall consist of a mayor, five commissioners and a town marshal, and until their successors are elected and qualified as hereinafter provided, the following persons shall be the officers of the said town, to-wit: Mayor, Walter L. Goldston; commissioners, C. W. Womble, N. F. Barber, T. M. Bynum, O. S. Johnson, W. M. Burns; marshal, Charles Elkins.

Town elections.

Sec. 4. That there shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and every two years thereafter, an election for a mayor, five commissioners and a marshal, who shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

Election under general law.

Sec. 5. That said election shall be held in pursuance of the rules and regulations provided by the Revisal of North Carolina for conducting and holding elections in incorporated towns.

Manufacture and sale of liquors forbidden.

Sec. 6. That there shall be no intoxicating liquors, wines or beers manufactured or sold within said town.

Ordinances, rules and regulations.

Sec. 7. That the board of commissioners of said town may adopt and enact such ordinances, rules and regulations for the government of said town as may not be contrary to the Constitution and the laws of the State of North Carolina, and may enforce the same by fine, not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisonment, not to exceed thirty days.

Jurisdiction of mayor.

Sec. 8. The mayor of said town shall have the same criminal jurisdiction within the limits of the town that justices of the peace now have.

Stock running at large.

Sec. 9. That the board of commissioners may prohibit the running at large, within the corporate limits of said town, of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, jacks, jennets, goats and such other live-stock; and are hereby empowered to make such rules and regulations as they may deem best for the impounding and sale of all the animals mentioned in this section, as well as other live-stock not mentioned, [and to prevent them] from roaming at large within the corporate limits of said town, contrary to the ordinances of said town.

Powers of commissioners as to streets.

Sec. 10. That in addition to the powers conferred on the commissioners of incorporated towns by chapter seventy-three of the Revisal of North Carolina, and which is made a part of this chapter, the said commissioners shall have full power to lay out and open any new street or streets within the corporate limits of said town, and they shall also have power at any time to widen, enlarge, change, extend or discontinue any street or streets, or any part thereof, within the corporate limits of said town, and shall have full power and authority to condemn, appropriate or use any land or lands necessary for any of the purposes named in this section, upon making reasonable compensation to the owner or owners of the land sought to be condemned or appropriated for the public use by the commissioners; and if the commissioners cannot agree as to the compensation, then the matter shall be referred to arbitration, the commissioners and owner of the land each choosing one freeholder and a qualified elector of said town; and in case the owner of the land sought to be condemned shall refuse to choose such an arbitrator, then the mayor shall, in his stead, choose such arbitrator for him, and in case the two chosen as aforesaid cannot agree, then the arbitrators so chosen shall elect an umpire, like qualified as themselves, whose duty it shall be to examine the land sought to be condemned, and ascertain the damages that will be sustained by it and the benefits accruing to the owner in consequence of the taking and appropriating of the said lands, and award to the said owner the amount, if any, that shall be paid by the town for the use of the land so taken; and the award of the arbitrators shall be conclusive of the rights of the parties and shall vest in the commissioners the right to use the land for the purpose for which it is condemned; and the damages agreed upon between the owners of the land and the board of commissioners, as awarded by the arbitrators, shall be paid as other town liabilities: Provided, that either party may appeal to the Superior Court of Chatham County.

Condemnation of land for streets.

Proviso: appeal.

Sec. 11. The board of commissioners are hereby empowered to enact such police regulations as may be necessary for the government of the town.

CHAPTER 109.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF CROUSE, LINCOLN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Town incorporated.

Corporate name.

Section 1. That the town of Crouse, in Lincoln County, be and the same is hereby incorporated under and by the name of "Crouse," and it shall have the benefits of and be subject to all the provisions of the law now existing in reference to incorporated towns.

Corporate limits.

Sec. 2. That the corporate limits of said town be as follows: The territory incorporated shall contain five hundred and sixty-two and one-half acres of land, and shall be in the form of a perfect square (each of the four sides to be three hundred rods long), with the center of said square at an iron pin in the middle of the street in front of Heafner Brothers' store; the northern and southern boundary lines of said square shall run parallel to the aforesaid street.

Town officers.

Sec. 3. That the officers of said corporation shall consist of a mayor, five commissioners and a town marshal; and the following named persons shall fill said offices until Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and until their successors are elected and qualified: Mayor, W. W. Noland; commissioners, J. L. Bean, M. M. Burke, J. F. Heafner, A. L. Mauney and J. M. Heafner; marshal, J. P. Cornwell.

Town elections.

Sec. 4. That there shall be an election held for officers mentioned in this act on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and every two years thereafter, by the qualified voters of said town, who, previous to the day of election, have resided in the State two years, in the county six months and in the town four months, and otherwise a qualified elector.

Law governing elections.

Sec. 5. That the elections provided for shall be held under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed, or may be hereafter prescribed, for election of members of the General Assembly; except the powers and duties in such regulations conferred and directed to be exercised by the sheriff shall be exercised by the marshal of said town. Each elector shall vote one ballot, on which shall be placed the name and office of the person voted for, either printed or partly printed or written. At any such election the person receiving the highest number of votes cast at said election shall be declared elected. At the conclusion of the election the judges of the election shall declare the result, and the marshal shall within thirty-six hours notify the parties so elected. If at said election any two persons shall receive an equal number of ballots for the same office, the registrars of election shall decide the tie vote by casting same.

Judges of election to declare result.

Sec. 6. That the mayor and commissioners shall be installed in office on the day following the election by taking the following oath: "I, ..., do solemnly swear that I will perform, according to the best of my ability, all the duties of the office of mayor (or commissioner), of the town of Crouse, as in my power lies, all laws, ordinances and regulations made for the government of said town, and in the discharge of my duties will do justice to the best of my knowledge and ability; so help me, God."

Mayor and commissioners to qualify.

Form of oath.

Sec. 7. That the said town of Crouse and the inhabitants thereof are declared hereby a body politic and corporate, and shall bear the name and style of the "Town of Crouse," and under such name and style may sue and be sued, and by this name may acquire and hold, for the purposes of its government, welfare and improvement, all such estates as may be bequeathed, devised or conveyed to it; and may, from time to time, sell, dispose of and invest, as shall be deemed advisable by the proper authorities of the corporation.

Incorporation.

Corporate name.

Corporate powers.

Sec. 8. The mayor of the town is hereby constituted a special court, with all the jurisdiction and powers in criminal offenses occurring within the limits of the town which are, or may hereafter be, given to justices of the peace, and shall also have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear and determine all misdemeanors consisting of a violation of an ordinance or ordinances of said town. The proceedings of said mayor's court shall be the same as are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed for courts of justices of the peace, with right of appeal of defendant to the Superior Court of Lincoln County. In all cases where judgment may be entered against any person for fines or penalties, according to the laws and ordinances of said town, for criminal offenses, and the person against whom same has been adjudged refuse, fail or [is] unable to pay same, it shall be lawful for the mayor to order and require such person to perform work upon the streets or other public works of said town, under the supervision of the marshal or street overseer, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board of commissioners of said town, until, at a fair rate of wages, to be prescribed by the board of commissioners of said town, said person shall have worked out the full amount of such cost and judgment of prosecution.

Precepts of mayor. Sec. 9. The mayor of said town may issue his precepts to the sheriff of said county of Lincoln, or to any constable or marshal, or to any officer to whom a justice of the peace may direct his precepts.

Minute of precepts. Sec. 10. The mayor of said town shall keep a faithful minute of the precepts issued by him and of all his judicial proceedings.

Powers of commissioners. Sec. 11. The board of commissioners when convened shall have power to make such ordinances, rules, regulations and by-laws for the proper government of the town as they may think necessary, and provide for the proper execution thereof as they think best.

Further powers. Sec. 12. To pass all laws, ordinances and regulations necessary or proper to carry into effect the intent and meaning of this act: Provided, not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of this State.

Further powers. Sec. 13. To impose, collect and appropriate fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of the ordinances and regulations of said town.

Collection of taxes. Sec. 14. To levy, lay and provide for the collection of taxes, authorized by law to be laid, levied and collected by said town, and to enforce the collection of the same.

Clerk and treasurer. Bond. Sec. 15. That the board of commissioners at its first meeting in May shall elect a clerk and treasurer, who shall give bond in such sum as the board of commissioners may fix, and who shall hold his office for one year. At said meeting the board of commissioners shall fix the bond of marshal, accept and approve same, for the faithful performance of his office and for the collection of taxes.

Bond of marshal.

Duty of marshal. Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of the marshal of said town to see that the laws, ordinances, regulations and orders of said town board of commissioners are enforced, and to report all breaches thereof to the mayor of said town; to preserve the peace and order of said town by suppressing disturbances and apprehending offenders, for which purpose he shall have all the powers and authority vested in sheriffs or county constables; and to execute civil and criminal precepts and processes and notices of every character lawfully directed to him by the mayor of said town; and in the execution thereof he shall have the same powers anywhere in the county of Lincoln as the sheriff or constable thereof has or hereafter may have. That the marshal shall be tax collector for said town.

Powers and authority.

Taxes. Sec. 17. In order to raise funds for the current expenses of the town and the improvement of same, the board of town commissioners shall, at their first meeting in June in every year, lay and provide for the collection of taxes: (1) On all real and personal property within the limits of said town and all other subjects of taxation by the General Assembly of this State, as specified and valued under the provisions of law, an ad valorem tax not exceeding thirty-five cents on every hundred dollars of such valuation as of the first day of June of every year; (2) on every person residing in said town on the first day of June of every year, subject to poll tax under the laws of this State, a poll tax not exceeding one dollar and five cents each. Property tax. Poll tax.

Sec. 18. All taxes of said town shall be levied, assessed and collected in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations and subject to the same penalties as are provided by law for the listing, levying and assessing and collecting State and county taxes in this State. Levy and collection of taxes.

Sec. 19. The lien of town taxes levied for all purposes in each year shall attach to all real property on the first day of June annually, shall be paramount to all other liens and continue until such taxes, with penalties accrued thereon, are paid. Lien of town taxes.

Sec. 20. The fiscal year of said town shall begin on the first day of June in each and every year. Fiscal year.

Sec. 21. The poll and ad valorem taxes of said town shall become due on the first day of September in every year. Taxes due.

Sec. 22. That the mayor of said town shall be entitled to fees in cases brought before him as are prescribed by law for justices of the peace. Fees of mayor.

Sec. 23. That the marshal of said town shall be entitled to and receive the same fees as prescribed by law or may hereafter be prescribed for sheriffs and constables for the service. Fees of marshal.

Sec. 24. That the clerk and treasurer of said town shall be paid such compensation for services as may be prescribed by the town commissioners, who shall fix his bond. Pay of clerk and treasurer.

Sec. 25. That the mayor shall have jurisdiction to try all cases prescribed by this charter, or by the ordinances of the town, and shall hear and determine same without requiring a complaint on oath in writing by the party injured, but may exercise said jurisdiction on the complaint of any other person, or where the offense is committed in presence of the mayor. Jurisdiction of mayor.

Sec. 26. The mayor's court shall be a special or inferior court in the town of Crouse, and the mayor shall be clothed with all the power of judges or presiding officers of inferior courts for the purpose of executing the laws and ordinances of said town; and in all cases of appeal the party appealing shall give bond for appearance and bond to secure cost and judgment of the mayor's court. Mayor's court.

Sec. 27. That the violation of any such ordinance as the board of commissioners shall pass shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment thirty days, and as such shall be punishable in any court in the State Violation of ordinances a misdemeanor.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF KINGSDALE, IN THE COUNTY OF ROBESON, STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Town incorporated. Section 1. That the town of Kingsdale, in Robeson County, be and the same is hereby incorporated under the name and style of Corporate name. the Town of Kingsdale, and as such shall be subject to and governed by all of the provisions of chapter seventy-three (73) of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five (1905) of North Carolina, except as hereinafter provided.

Corporate limits. Sec. 2. That the corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at a point one-quarter of a mile due north from the center of the depot building of the Raleigh and Charleston Railroad Company at Kingsdale and running thence due west one-quarter of a mile; thence due south one-half mile; thence due east one-half mile; thence due north one-half mile; thence due west one-quarter of a mile to the beginning, the limits hereby created being a square, each side whereof is one-half mile long, with the depot of the Raleigh and Charleston Railroad Company at Kingsdale as the center.

Town officers. Sec. 3. That the officers of said town shall consist of a mayor and three commissioners, a constable, a town clerk and treasurer.

Election of mayor and commissioners. Sec. 4. That the mayor and commissioners of said town shall be elected on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and on said day in each and every year thereafter, in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed in chapter seventy-three (73) of the Revisal of North Carolina of one thousand nine hundred and five (1905), entitled "Towns"; and the said mayor and commissioners shall, at their Constable, clerk and treasurer. first meeting after their qualification, elect a constable and town clerk and treasurer, who shall hold their offices for the term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

First officers named. Until their successors have been elected and qualified, as herein prescribed, the following named persons shall fill the offices herein created, to-wit: Mayor, J. A. Duke; commissioners, George D. Yeakel, J. A. Cook and S. L. Parker; and the said commissioners shall, immediately upon their qualification, elect a constable and town clerk and treasurer, who shall hold office until the next general election for said town, as is herein provided, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Vacancies. Sec. 5. That whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor the commissioners shall appoint one of their board mayor pro tempore; and whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of commissioner the remaining commissioners shall fill said vacancy, and the person so chosen shall hold office until the next general election for town purposes and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Ordinances.

Sec. 6. That the mayor and commissioners of said town shall have the power to pass such ordinances, rules and regulations for the government of said town as may be deemed necessary or expedient: Provided, they be not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the State of North Carolina or of the United States.

Officers to qualify.

Sec. 7. That before entering upon the discharge of their duties the mayor, board of commissioners, constable and town clerk and treasurer shall take the oath prescribed by law for the officers of towns and cities, before some justice of the peace of Robeson County, or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths; and said town officers shall qualify and enter upon the discharge of their duties within ten days after their election.

Town taxes.

Sec. 8. That the mayor and board of commissioners of said town are hereby authorized and empowered to levy such taxes as may be necessary for the support of the town government, upon all subjects of taxation, as provided in section twenty-nine hundred and twenty-four (2924) of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five (1905) of North Carolina: Provided, however, that the tax levied by said town shall never exceed the sum of ten (10) cents on the hundred dollars valuation of real and personal property and thirty (30) cents on the poll.

Proviso: rate.

Sale of liquor forbidden.

Sec. 9. That it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, exchange or dispose of in any manner whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for gain, reward or anything of value, any spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquors, bitters, Jamaica ginger, or any other liquid of any name or kind which is or may be intoxicating when used to excess, within the corporate limits of said town, or within one mile thereof.

Disorderly houses.

Sec. 10. That it shall be unlawful for any person to keep or maintain, or cause to be kept or maintained, or assist, connive at or procure the keeping and maintenance of any disorderly house or premises within said town of Kingsdale, or within one mile of the corporate limits of said town; and the mayor of said town shall have jurisdiction and authority over offenders against this section within the limits as herein provided.

Jurisdiction of mayor.

Sec. 11. That the mayor of said town of Kingsdale shall have like jurisdiction of all cases as the mayors of other cities and towns in the State of North Carolina, for all offenses committed within the corporate limits of said town of Kingsdale.

Prisoners committed to county jail.

Sec. 12. That the sheriff and keeper of the common jail of the county of Robeson are hereby required to receive into the common jail of Robeson County any person duly committed to such jail by the Mayor of the Town of Kingsdale for the violation of any ordinance or ordinances of said town of Kingsdale, and to keep such person in said jail until discharged by due process of law; and for such services the sheriff or jailer shall be entitled to the same fees as in other cases, to be paid by the order of the mayor of the town of Kingsdale; or such person may be confined in the guard-house at Kingsdale.

Convicts worked on streets.

Sec. 13. In all cases where judgment may be entered by the mayor of the town of Kingsdale for any fine according to the ordinances, rules and regulations of said town, and the person against whom the same is so adjudged refuses or is unable to pay such judgment, then it shall be lawful for the mayor, before whom such judgment is entered, to order and require the person so convicted to work on the streets or other public works of said town until, at fair rates of wages to be fixed by the board of commissioners of said town, such person shall have worked out the full amount of the fine and costs of the prosecution; and all sums received for fines shall be paid into the town treasury: Provided, however, that no woman shall be worked on the streets of said town for failure to pay any fine; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the imprisonment of any woman for violation of the ordinances of said town.

Proviso: women not worked on streets.

Sec. 14. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 15. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 20th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 126.

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE TOWN OF LAURINBURG TO FUND ITS OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS CONTRACTED FOR NECESSARIES, AND TO AUTHORIZE THE LEVY AND COLLECTION OF TAXES TO MEET SAME.

Whereas, the town of Laurinburg has contracted for necessary expenses an indebtedness of about fifty-five thousand dollars, and the said town desires to issue bonds for the funding of said debt, both bonded and floating, not to exceed fifty-five thousand dollars, and desires authority to levy and collect taxes to pay the interest on same and provide a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds when the same shall become due: now, therefore, Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Laurinburg be and they are hereby empowered and authorized to issue coupon bonds in denomination of one thousand dollars each mayor of said town. No bond shall be sold for less than par and accrued interest, and the funds arising from the sale of same shall be applied to the settlement of the outstanding debts of said town for the necessary expenses thereof as set out, and for no other purpose; but the purchaser thereof shall not be in any way bound to see to the proper application of the purchase-money of said bonds.

Ordinance of issue.

Sec. 2. That the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issue of said bonds may be introduced and passed at any regular or special meeting of the board of commissioners, upon a majority vote of the commissioners present at such meeting, and no further proceeding shall be necessary for the issuing of said bonds; and all bonds issued in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be valid and legally binding obligations of said town, notwithstanding any previous acts limiting the amount of bonded indebtedness of said town or otherwise; and all laws and clauses of laws inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed in so far as same are inconsistent with this act: Provided further, that no ordinance shall be necessary further than merely to limit the amount of bonds to be issued under authority given under this act.

Special tax for interest.

Sec. 3. That the board of commissioners of said town of Laurinburg are hereby required and directed to levy and collect, in addition to all other taxes in said town, a tax upon all taxable property and polls of said town sufficient to pay the interest on said principal of said bonds as same becomes due, and also, on or before the time when the principal of said bonds shall become due, to levy and collect a further special tax to pay for same, or to provide for the payment thereof. The tax levied upon property shall be upon ad valorem valuation, and the tax upon property and polls shall be in that proportion required by the Constitution of the State of North Carolina. Said special tax shall be levied at the same time and collected as other taxes upon property and polls are collected by said town. Special tax for bonds.

Sec. 4. That said bonds may be sold at public or private sale, as the commissioners deem best, after having offered same for sale by advertisement in some newspaper published in the county of Scotland, in which such advertisement shall be inserted not less than four weeks, once a week. Advertisement of sale.

Sec. 5. That this act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 21st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 127.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE WILKESBORO AND JEFFERSON TURNPIKE TO BE AMENDED AND CONVERTED INTO A STEAM OR ELECTRIC RAILROAD.

Whereas, the State of North Carolina has about sixty thousand dollars of stock in the Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Company; and whereas, said company, pursuant to the charter granted by chapter two hundred and forty-one of the Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and as amended by chapter two hundred and eighty-six of Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, has nearly completed a turnpike road from Wilkesboro, North Carolina, to Jefferson, North Carolina: Now, therefore, in order that the stock held by the State of North Carolina may be made of more value to the State of North Carolina, and in order that the counties of Ashe, Watauga and Alleghany may have an outlet into and be more closely identified with the other part of the State of North Carolina: be it therefore resolved: Preamble. Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That when the Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike road is completed to Jefferson, then the Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Company, by and with the consent of the Governor of the State of North Carolina and the Council of State, be and the same is hereby authorized to retain and use the convicts of the State of North Carolina, not otherwise appropriated, the number not to be less than fifty nor more than one hundred, to make such alterations, changes or amendments in said road as will shorten Convict labor to be retained.

and make practicable the bed of said turnpike road for either a steam or electric railroad, upon the same terms and conditions as are now provided for in the charter of the said Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Company for the grading and construction of said turnpike road.

Transfer of State's stock authorized.

Sec. 2. That the Governor of the State of North Carolina, by and with the consent of the Council of State, be and he is hereby authorized and fully empowered to sell, lease, convey or transfer the stock held by the State of North Carolina in said Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Company, and the said Turnpike Company is authorized to lease, sell or transfer said Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike road or any part thereof, with all rights, privileges and appurtenances incident thereto, to any individual or individuals, company or corporation that will utilize the same for a steam or electric railroad, upon such terms and conditions as said Wilkesboro and Jefferson Turnpike Company may deem best: Provided, always, that any lease, sale or transfer of said turnpike road shall first be approved by the Governor and Council of the State of North Carolina: Provided further, that the stock held by the State of North Carolina in said Turnpike Company shall be disposed of to a person or persons, company or corporation, first, for the purpose of constructing and operating a steam railroad, if possible; but if not, to any person or persons, company or corporation that will construct and operate an electric railroad.

Lease, sale or transfer of road authorized.

Proviso: lease, sale or transfer to be approved by governor and council.

Proviso: transfer of State's stock.

Sec. 3. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 21st day of February, A. D. 1907.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A GRADED SCHOOL IN THE CRAB CREEK SPECIAL TAX SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN HENDERSON COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Graded school district.

Section 1. That the special tax school district of Crab Creek (District Number Two, Crab Creek Township), Henderson County, shall be and is hereby constituted a graded school district.

Trustees to manage and control school.

Sec. 2. That the school trustees hereinafter provided for shall have entire and exclusive control of the graded school interests and property in the said graded school district; shall prescribe rules and regulations for their own government, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act; shall elect their own chairman and secretary for terms of two years each, employ and fix the compensation of teachers, and do all other acts and things that may be just and lawful to conduct and manage the graded school interests in said graded school district: Provided, all children resident in the said graded school district, between the ages of six and twenty-one years, shall be admitted into the said graded school free of tuition charges: Provided further, that the said trustees may receive as students non-resident children upon the payment of reasonable tuition charges to be fixed by said trustees: Provided further, that the said trustees shall allow such credit to the parents and guardians of non-resident children attending said school as they may think just and meritorious on account of school taxes paid on property in said district by said parents and guardians: Provided further, that said trustees may, in their discretion, charge a reasonable tuition for teaching any branches of study of a higher grade than those prescribed by the Legislature, or which may hereafter be so prescribed, to be taught in the public schools of the State.

Proviso: free tuition.

Proviso: non-resident pupils.

Proviso: credits to parents of non-resident pupils.

Proviso: tuition in higher grades.

Trustees named.

Sec. 3. Manson Hamilton, F. B. McCall, J. A. McCall, W. O. Hamilton, J. T. Anderson and Elisha Osteen are hereby appointed trustees for the said graded school of the said Crab Creek Graded School District, and they shall meet, qualify and organize within thirty days after the ratification of this act. As soon as the said trustees shall have qualified, they shall divide themselves by lot into three classes, the first class to be composed of two members, the second class of two members and the third class of two members. The members of the first class shall hold their offices for a term of six years, the members of the second class for a term of four years and the members of the third class for a term of two years. At the end of each succeeding two years the county board of education, upon the recommendation of a majority of the board of trustees, shall appoint two trustees to succeed the two whose terms then expire. Members of the board of trustees shall be appointed for a term of six years. Vacancies caused by death, removal, failure to qualify or any other cause shall be filled by the board of trustees of said graded school. All acts and things herein authorized to be done by said board of trustees may be done by a quorum thereof.

Sec. 8. The school trustees hereby created shall be a body corporate by the name and style of the Trustees of the Crab Creek Graded School, and by that name shall be capable of receiving gifts and grants, of purchasing and holding real and personal estate, or selling, mortgaging and transferring the same for school purposes; of prosecuting and defending suits for or against the corporation hereby created. Conveyance to said trustees shall be to them and their successors in office.

Property to be conveyed to trustees.

Sec. 9. The Board of Education of Henderson County are hereby authorized and directed to transfer, by the execution of proper deeds of conveyance, all public school property, both real and personal, of every description, now belonging to the public school in the territory hereby constituted a graded school district, to the Trustees of the Crab Creek Graded School, as heretofore specified.

Sec. 10. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 21st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 140.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH GRADED SCHOOLS IN THE TOWN OF ELIZABETH CITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Boundaries of district. Name.

Section 1. That all the territory in Pasquotank County within the following boundaries, to-wit: All that portion of said county included in Elizabeth City Township and that portion of Nixonton Township which is within the corporate limits of Elizabeth City, shall be and is hereby constituted a public school district for white and colored children, to be known as Elizabeth City Graded School District.

Municipal law extended to territory.

Sec. 2. That for all the purposes and benefits of this act the provisions of all laws governing the assessment of real and personal property, the levy and collection of municipal taxes and the holding of municipal elections in the town of Elizabeth City shall be and are hereby extended to that portion of said graded school district lying without the corporate limits of said town, as fully as if the same lay within the said corporate limits; and that in all elections which shall be held under this act that portion of said graded school district lying without said corporate limits shall be deemed a ward of said town.

Trustees authorized to issue bonds.

Sec. 3. That the board of graded school trustees hereinafter provided for shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said graded school district, to an amount not exceeding forty thousand dollars, of such denomination and of such proportion as said board of trustees may deem advisable, bearing interest from the date thereof at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, with interest coupons attached, payable half yearly, at such time or times and at such place or places as may be deemed advisable by said board of trustees; said bonds to be of such form and tenor and transferable in such way as said board of graded school trustees may determine. Said bonds shall run from ten to thirty years, and the principal thereof payable as follows: One-twentieth due and payable ten years from date of issue; one-twentieth due and payable eleven years from date of issue, and one-twentieth due and payable every year thereafter, until the whole amount has become due. Said bonds shall be made payable at such place as the said board of graded school trustees may deem advisable.

Amount and denomination.

Interest.

Maturity.

School buildings and furniture.

Sec. 4. That the proceeds arising from the sale of the said bonds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended by the board of graded school trustees in providing, by purchase or otherwise, such graded school buildings as may be required, and in furnishing the same with school furniture and other necessary equipment.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 5. That none of said bonds shall be disposed of by sale, exchange, hypothecation or otherwise for less price than their par value; nor shall said bonds or their proceeds be used for any other purpose than that declared in section four of this act.

Exempt from municipal taxation.

Coupons receivable for town taxes.

Sec. 6. That said bonds and their coupons shall not be subject to taxation by the town of Elizabeth City until after they shall have become due and tender of payment has been made; and such coupons shall be receivable in payment of all taxes and public dues of said town for any fiscal year in which said coupons shall become due or thereafter; and if any holder of said bonds or coupons shall fail to present the same for payment at the time or times and at the place or places therein named, he shall not be entitled to interest thereon for the time they shall have been outstanding after maturity.

Special tax for bonds, interest and school.

Sec. 7. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon, and of defraying expenses of the public graded schools provided for in this act, the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Elizabeth City shall annually, and at the time of levying the municipal taxes, commencing with the fiscal year beginning with the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, levy and lay a particular tax on all subjects of taxation within the limits of said graded school district on which said board of aldermen may now or hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purposes whatsoever; said particular tax to be such percentage on all real and personal property and all other subjects of taxation as may be recommended by the board of trustees, in no case, however, to exceed forty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of real and personal property, and not more than one and twenty-hundredths dollars on each taxable poll.

Rate to be recommended by trustees.

Limit of tax rate.

Collection of special tax.

Sec. 8. That the said taxes shall be collected by the tax collector of the town of Elizabeth City at the time and in the manner that the municipal taxes are collected, and said tax collector shall pay the same over to the treasurer of said board of trustees, and the treasurer of said board of trustees shall pay out said taxes and other funds which may come into his hands for the use of said graded schools only upon the warrant of the chairman and secretary of the said board of graded school trustees; and all accounts shall be audited and approved by the board of trustees or a committee thereof appointed for the purpose: Provided, that said tax collector and said treasurer shall enter into a bond for such amount as the board of trustees may direct; that of the former conditioned for the faithful collection and paying over of said taxes and other funds that may come into his hands for the use and benefit of said graded schools, and that of the latter for the safe-keeping and proper disbursement of the same. And said tax collector shall be allowed not exceeding three per centum on receipts, and the said treasurer not exceeding two per centum on disbursements.

School orders.

Proviso: bonds of tax collector and treasurer.

Commissions.

Election to be called.

Sec. 9. That the provisions of sections three and seven of this act shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of said graded school district at an election to be held on a day to be designated by the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Elizabeth City, within sixty days after the ratification of this act. That said election shall be held under the general law prescribed for and governing the holding of municipal elections in North Carolina. That thirty days' notice of such election, containing a copy of the provisions of sections three and seven of this act, or a synopsis of the same, shall be published in one or more newspapers published in the town of Elizabeth City, and in all other respects said election shall be held and conducted under the provisions of the law governing the holding of municipal elections. Those qualified voters approving issue of bonds provided for in section three and the levy and collection of the particular taxes provided for in section seven of this act shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "For Schools," and those disapproving the same shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "Against Schools." If a majority of such of the board of trustees and said board of aldermen shall meet in joint session on the Monday immediately preceding the first Monday in July of each year in which any such vacancy may occur:

Proviso: vacancies.

Provided, that any and all vacancies in said board of trustees occurring by reason of death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term of office shall be filled by the other members of said board of trustees: Provided, that the position of trustee shall not constitute an office within the meaning of article seven, section fourteen, Constitution of North Carolina. Said board of trustees, immediately after the provisions of this act shall have been submitted to the qualified voters of said district as provided for in section nine, and adopted, shall meet and proceed to organize by the election of a chairman and a secretary and a treasurer.

Proviso; trustees not officers.

Trustees to organize.

Trustees incorporated.

Sec. 11. That the said board of graded school trustees and their successors shall be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name and style of the Board of Graded School Trustees of the Town of Elizabeth City, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with; acquire by gift, purchase or devise real and personal property; hold, exchange, mortgage or sell the same, and exercise such other rights and privileges as are incident to other corporations; and said corporation shall have a corporate seal, which it may break and change at pleasure.

Corporate name.

Enumeration of corporate powers.

Trustees to establish graded schools.

Sec. 12. That it shall be the duty of said board of graded school trustees to establish graded schools for the white and colored children of said graded school district, and said board of trustees shall appropriate and use the funds derived from said particular taxes and from other sources in such manner as may be deemed just to both races, providing equal facilities for each, due regard being paid, however, to the difference in the cost of maintaining said schools: Provided, that all donations to said schools shall be applied as directed by the donor.

Trustees to have exclusive control of schools.

Sec. 13. That the board of graded school trustees shall have exclusive control of all public schools in said school district, free from supervision and control of the county board of school directors and the County Superintendent of Schools of Pasquotank County; shall prescribe rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, for their own government and for the government of such schools; shall prescribe the qualifications, employ and fix the compensation of all officers and teachers of such schools; shall cause to be taken from time to time, in accordance with the general school law of the State, an accurate census of the school district, and shall exercise such other powers as may be necessary for the successful control and operation of said graded schools.

Officers and teachers.

School census.

Apportionment from general school fund.

Sec. 14. That all the public school funds derived from the State and from the county of Pasquotank for the use and benefit of the public schools in said graded school district shall be paid over to the treasurer of the board of trustees hereinbefore provided for by the treasurer of said county, for the use and benefit of the graded public schools in said graded school district; and the property, both real and personal, of the various school districts embraced within the limits of said graded school district shall become the property of said graded school district, and the title thereto shall be vested in the said board of trustees in trust therefor; and said board of trustees may in their discretion sell the same, or any part thereof, and apply the proceeds to the use of the public graded schools to be established in said graded school district.

Title to property vested in trustees.

Contiguous land may be included in district.

Sec. 15. That all persons owning and residing on land lying on both sides of said graded school district may, for the purposes of this act, list and pay taxes on the whole of such land, poll and personal property, notwithstanding that part of the land resided upon lies outside, but contiguous to, said boundary. That all such persons listing and paying taxes on said land and personal property shall be entitled to the benefits of said schools without further cost.

Superintendent of schools.

Sec. 16. That said board of graded school trustees shall elect annually, at least forty days before the fall term of said graded schools, a superintendent, who shall supervise the graded public schools of said school district and exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as said board of trustees may prescribe.

Studies and text-books.

Tuition in extra courses.

Non-resident pupils.

Sec. 17. That said board of graded school trustees are hereby authorized in their discretion to fix and prescribe the curriculum of studies and to adopt text-books for said graded schools, supplementary to those prescribed by State adoption; to provide for instruction other than that included in the prescribed course, and to fix the rate of tuition to be charged therefor, and to admit pupils residing without the limits of said graded school district upon such terms as the said board of trustees may deem just and reasonable.

Reports of trustees.

Sec. 18. That it shall be the duty of said board of graded school trustees to make to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the Town of Elizabeth City annually, after the close of each school year, a full and written report of the operation of the graded public schools of said graded school district, and duplicate copies of said report shall be furnished the County Superintendent of Schools of Pasquotank County.

Apportionment of school fund.

Sec. 19. That the several county boards of education having authority under the general school law of the State shall, in the apportionment of all public school funds to said graded school district, apportion the same upon a per capita basis.

Sec. 20. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 21. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 21st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT TO CREATE AND ESTABLISH A FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT AT THE COUNTY LINE BETWEEN THE COUNTIES OF MONTGOMERY AND MOORE, TO BE COMPOSED OF A PORTION OF THE COUNTY OF MOORE AND A PORTION OF THE COUNTY OF MONTGOMERY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

District established.

Section 1. That a free school district is hereby created and established at the line between Moore County and Montgomery County, to be composed of a portion of Moore County and a portion of Montgomery County, to be known as the "Moore-Montgomery Free School District." The limits or boundaries of said "Moore-Montgomery Free School District" shall be as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point where Cabin Creek crosses the Moore and Montgomery County line, running thence down said Cabin Creek to K. W. Leach's line; thence with K. W. Leach's line to W. M. Williams' line; thence with W. M. Williams' line, so as to include his land, to C. E. Allen's land, and to include W. M. Allen's and A. W. E. Caple's; thence with C. E. Allen's line, so as to include his land, to A. W. E. Caple's line; thence direct to James Callicut's line; thence with James Callicut's line, so as to include his land, to Willey Callicut's line; thence with Willey Callicut's line, so as to include his land, to Wolf Creek; thence up the south side of Wolf Creek to John Allen's line; thence with his line, so as to include his land, to Lindsay Allen's line; thence with Lindsay Allen's line, so as to include his land, to Beeddie Dunn's line; thence with Beeddie Dunn's line, so as to include his land, to Thomas Lemon's line; thence with Thomas Lemon's line, so as to include his land, to Allen Lemon's line; thence with Allen Lemon's line, so as to include his land, to the Big Branch; thence down Big Branch to the Moore and Montgomery County line; thence with said line to the beginning.

Name.

Boundaries.

Sec. 2. That the school-house for said district shall be located on the county line between the counties of Moore and Montgomery, and the cost of the building of the same shall be paid, one-half by Moore County and one-half by Montgomery County, under the provisions of the general school laws; and the sum to be expended in the erection of said building shall be fixed by the Board of Education of Moore County and the Board of Education of Montgomery County; and the school-house so erected shall be the joint property of the two counties. Location of school-house. School building.

Sec. 3. That said free school district shall be governed by the same laws, rules and regulations as other free school districts in the State. General school laws to apply.

Sec. 4. That Angus Owens, J. G. Williams and B. L. Dunn are hereby appointed and constituted a committee for said free school district. Committee named.

Sec. 5. That it shall be the duty of the board of education of each of the counties of Moore and Montgomery, at their first meeting for the purpose of appointing school committees after the committee herein named shall have had their office for a term of two years, to appoint their successors. The Board of Education of Montgomery County shall appoint two from that part of the district lying in Montgomery County and the Board of Education of Moore County shall appoint one from that portion of the district lying in the county of Moore; and at the next succeeding meeting of the Board of Education of the County of Montgomery for the purpose of appointing school committees, one shall be appointed from that part of the aforesaid district lying in the county of Montgomery, and at the similar meeting of the Board of Education of Moore County for the same purpose two shall be appointed from that portion of the said district lying in the county of Moore. And all the committees hereafter appointed for the said district shall be appointed as above stated, one term there being two committeemen appointed from the county of Montgomery and the next term there being two appointed from that portion of the district lying and being in the county of Moore. It shall be the duty of the said school committee, at the time provided by law to make a census of the children for other free school districts in the State, to make a true and correct report of the number of children of school age in that part of the district lying in Montgomery County and forward the same to the Board of Education of Montgomery County; and in like manner they shall make a report of all the children of school age in that part of the district lying in Moore County and forward the same to the Board of Education of Moore County. Appointment of successors. School census.

Sec. 6. That the Treasurer of Moore County is hereby appointed and constituted the treasurer of said free school district. Treasurer.

Apportionment to district from Montgomery county.

Sec. 7. That all the children of school age in that part of the district lying in Montgomery County shall receive their pro rata share of the school fund of that county, which, being paid into the treasury of Montgomery County, shall be forwarded by the treasurer of said county to the Treasurer of Moore County, who shall receipt for the same and place to the credit of said "Moore-Montgomery Free School District."

Apportionment to district from Moore county.

Sec. 8. That all the children of school age in that part of the district lying in the county of Moore shall receive their pro rata share of the school fund of Moore County, the same to be paid out by the said Treasurer of Moore County, together with the amount said "Moore-Montgomery Free School District" is entitled to under and by virtue of section seven of this act, to said district, as ordered by the committee of said district: Provided, however, that the Treasurer of Moore County shall receive no compensation for receiving or paying out any of the money received from the county of Montgomery.

Proviso: pay of treasurer.

Teacher.

Sec. 9. That the teacher empowered to teach school at any time in said district shall have a certificate from the proper authorities of either Montgomery or Moore County, as the committee of said district may elect; but nothing herein contained shall compel any such teacher to stand an examination in more than one county to teach the same term of school.

Repealing clause.

Sec. 10. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Act to be ratified by boards of education.

Sec. 11. This act shall not be in force until endorsed and ratified by a favorable majority vote of the School Board of Moore County, and a similar vote on the part of the School Board of Montgomery County.

Sec. 12. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 21st day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 142.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF ROXBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, TO VOTE ON BONDS FOR GRADED SCHOOL BUILDING AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Denomination.

Amount.

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Roxboro is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of the town of Roxboro, of denomination of either five hundred or one thousand dollars each, as the commissioners may deem best, to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; said bonds to be payable thirty years from the date of issuing.

Sec. 2. Said bonds shall bear interest at no greater rate than five per cent. per annum, the interest to be payable annually or semi-annually, as the commissioners may deem best: Provided, that the bonds, when so issued, shall not be disposed of for less than the face value thereof: Provided, this shall not prohibit the commissioners from paying a reasonable commission to place the same. Interest. Proviso: bonds not to be sold below par. Proviso: commission.

Sec. 3. That said bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the town clerk, and sealed with the corporate seal of the town, and shall have interest coupons attached thereto; and the said coupons shall be receivable as town taxes. That for paying said bonds at maturity, and the coupons as they may become due, it shall be the duty of the board of town commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered so to do, to levy and collect each year a sufficient special tax on all subjects of taxation which are now or may hereafter be embraced in the subjects of taxation under the charter of said town; said taxes shall be collected at the time and in the manner as other taxes are collected under said charter: Provided, that the total rate of taxation allowed for said purpose shall not exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property and one dollar and fifty cents on the poll: Provided, also, that the taxes collected under this act shall be used for no other purpose than paying said bonds at maturity and the coupons as they may become due. It shall be the duty of the town treasurer, as said coupons are paid off and taken up, to cancel the same, and to report not less than twice a year to the town commissioners the number and amount of said coupons so paid off and cancelled. How bonds authenticated. Coupons receivable for town taxes. Special tax for bonds and interest. Proviso: rate. Proviso: application of tax.

Sec. 4. That the said board of commissioners shall not issue said bonds, nor levy nor collect said taxes, until they shall have been authorized and empowered so to do by a majority of the qualified voters of the town, at an election to be held at such time as the board of commissioners may deem best and appoint; of which election notice shall be given by publishing in some newspaper published in said town and posting at the court-house door for thirty days next preceding the election, stating the amount of bonds to be voted on and the purpose to which the proceeds from the sale thereof are to be applied; and at such election those favoring a bond issue shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "For Bonds," and those opposing a bond issue shall vote a ticket on which shall be written or printed the words "Against Bonds": Provided, that whenever there shall be an election to issue bonds for more than one of the objects as hereinafter set out, there shall be separate boxes for each, said boxes to be marked for what purpose said bonds are to be issued. Said election shall be held under the same rules, regulations and in the same manner as elections for mayor and town Election to be held. Notice of election. Form of ballots. Proviso: separate boxes. Law governing election.

Proviso: new registration. Proviso: successive elections.

commissioners: Provided, that the commissioners may order a new registration of the voters, if they deem best: Provided, also, that the failure of the voters to ratify this act shall not prevent the commissioners in their discretion ordering another election for the same purpose after the expiration of six months. That the board of commissioners may order an election for any amount of bonds for any of the purposes hereinafter enumerated, and may call different elections at different times for the purpose of voting to issue bonds for one or more of the purposes hereinafter enumerated, and said bonds shall be cumulative, but the grand total shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars.

Appropriation of bonds.

Sec. 5. That said bonds, and the proceeds arising from the sale of the same, shall be used by the board of commissioners for the following and for no other purposes, to-wit: An amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for the purpose of buying or purchasing a suitable location for and erecting suitable buildings for the graded schools for the said town, for which purpose the tax rate shall not exceed twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property and seventy-five cents on the poll; for buying a location for, erecting and maintaining an electric-light plant, for the purpose of lighting the streets of the town and for the sale of the lights to the citizens thereof; for enlarging the system of water-works or extending the water-mains in said town; for the erection of a sewerage system for the town; for grading, curbing, macadamizing or paving the streets and sidewalks of said town, or improving the streets and sidewalks in any manner that the commissioners may deem best: Provided, that the amount of bonds for all the purposes, for lights, water, sewerage and streets, shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, and the rate of taxation for these purposes shall not exceed twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property and seventy-five cents on the poll.

For graded schools.

For electric-light plant, water-works and sewerage.

For street improvements.

Proviso: amount and tax rate.

Purchasers not responsible for application of funds.

Sec. 6. That the purchasers of the bonds shall in no way or manner be responsible for the application of the funds arising from the sale of the bonds.

Town commissioners to have control of work. Proviso: trustees for graded school.

Sec. 7. That the board of town commissioners shall have entire control and supervision over any and all buildings, plants or works established, built or erected under this act: Provided, that when the graded school buildings shall be completed and accepted by the board of commissioners they shall be turned over to the board of school trustees, and shall be subject to the act establishing the graded school in the town of Roxboro. (Chapter ninety-five, Private Acts one thousand nine hundred and three).

Sec. 8. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act shall be and are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 143.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE WATER-WORKS SYSTEM OF THE TOWN OF WAYNESVILLE, AND TO AUTHORIZE THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS THEREFOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Election on special tax.

Section 1. That the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Waynesville are hereby directed and required to submit to the qualified voters of said town, at the next election for municipal officers, to be held next May, the question whether an annual tax shall be levied on the property and polls of said town to pay the interest on the bonds in this act hereinafter provided to be issued, should a majority of the qualified voters of said town authorize the issuance of bonds as provided in this act.

Form of ballots.

Sec. 2. That at the election held under the provisions of this act those qualified voters who favor the levying of such tax and the issuance of said bonds shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "For Improvement Water-works System" upon it, and those qualified voters opposed to the levying of said tax and to the issuance of said bonds shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "Against Improvement Water-works System" upon it.

Bond issue

Sec. 3. That if a majority of the qualified voters shall vote at said election in favor of levying the said tax and the issuance of bonds, then the said board of aldermen of the said town shall issue, pledging the credit of the town of Waynesville, coupon bonds to an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, Amount. in such denominations as said board may elect, same to bear Denomination. interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, interest payable Interest. semi-annually, and both the interest and principal of said bonds to be payable at such place as said board of aldermen may designate, and said bonds shall become due and payable thirty years Maturity. from the date of the same. And the said bonds shall, together How bonds authenticated. with the coupons, be numbered and signed by the mayor of the said town and countersigned by the treasurer of said town, and a correct record shall be kept by the town clerk and by the town treasurer of all bonds, observing the number, the amount and to whom sold. The coupons shall be receivable in payment of any Coupons receivable for town taxes. and all debts or taxes due the town. And the said bonds shall not be sold at less than par, but the said board of aldermen may, Bonds not to be sold below par. in their discretion, pay a commission of not more than two and Commission. one-half per centum of the amount issued, should the same become necessary, to effect a sale of the said bonds.

Appropriation of proceeds.

Sec. 4. That the proceeds arising from a sale of said bonds shall be used exclusively, first, to make permanent improvement in the present water system of said town, so that sufficient pure water shall be furnished the inhabitants of the town of Waynesville, and then, if any surplus is left, the same may be expended in liquidating and paying any debts due by said town heretofore contracted by said board in order to improve either the water or sewer system of said town, and for no other purposes.

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 5. That in order to pay the interest on the said bonds as and when the same shall become due, and to create a sinking fund with which to pay the principal when the same shall become due, it is hereby made the duty of the said board of aldermen and their successors in office to annually compute and levy, at the time of the levying of other town taxes, a sufficient special tax upon the property and polls of said town, at all times observing the constitutional equation, with which to regularly and promptly pay the interest on said bonds, and with which to pay out of the sinking fund the principal of said bonds at the maturity thereof. This tax shall be collected by the town tax collector and by him paid to the town treasurer, and the taxes levied and collected under the provisions of this act shall be kept separate from other taxes and only applied as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That this act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 146.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 129, PRIVATE LAWS OF 1901, RELATIVE TO THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF WILLIAMSTON, NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Right to hold property increased.

Section 1. That section one of chapter one hundred and twenty-nine of Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one be amended as follows: In line eleven of said section strike out the word "ten," and insert in lieu thereof the word "thirty."

License taxes.

Sec. 2. That said chapter one hundred and twenty-nine, Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, be further amended by adding thereto the following: "Section 12. That the board of commissioners shall have power, in addition to the regular property tax, to levy and collect a specific or license tax on all trades, callings, professions or occupations and manufactories not specifically exempted by general law; merchants, brokers, peddlers, oculists, venders of any article whatever, hotels, restaurants, circuses of any kind, agents of all kinds, soda-water and ice-cream stands, saloons, draymen, livery stables; on all dogs, drays and wagons for hire, photographers, telegraph, telephone, express, gas and electric-light companies, steel railroads; any trade, business or pursuit of any kind, or persons plying it or their trade or having office or offices in the town limits; and shall have the power to regulate and control all shows, nuisances, or any pursuit that is likely to affect the health, peace or police regulations, that may happen or be about to happen within one mile of the town limits."

Bond issue to be submitted to voters.

Sec. 3. That the commissioners of said town shall have the power, when they deem best, a majority of the board being present and voting in favor thereof, to submit to the qualified voters of the town of Williamston the proposition to issue ten thousand dollars' worth of bonds for the erection and furnishing of a town hall; that for the purpose of paying the interest on and redeeming said bonds they be allowed to levy a special tax, not to exceed fifteen cents on the hundred dollars' worth of property, either real or personal, and forty-five cents on the poll. That said commissioners shall give thirty days' notice of said election, stating the object of the election, the amount of bonds, the maximum tax to be levied for this purpose; if, after giving thirty days' notice in the newspapers, or by posting same at the court-house and three other public places, a majority of the votes cast shall favor the bond issue by voting "Approved," then said bonds shall be issued, signed by the chairman and the secretary. Said bonds shall not exceed six per cent. interest per annum, payable semi-annually, and not sell below par. Those not so favoring said bond issue shall vote "Not Approved": Provided further, that if the commissioners shall desire to hold similar elections for the issue of bonds or to borrow money for any municipal improvements, as electric lights, sewerage, water-works or street improvements, and shall so vote at two separate meetings, not coming within two months of each other, and shall record such vote in their minutes, and have a majority present and a majority voting in favor of it at each meeting, they may order an election held in the same manner as above stated, by complying in every way with the full meaning and form of this act. Said elections shall be held as are elections of town officers, and no new registration had unless required by said commissioners.

CHAPTER 148.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE CHARLOTTE ELECTRIC RAILWAY, LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY, BEING CHAPTER 32 OF THE LAWS OF 1883.

Preamble.

Whereas, on the twenty-sixth day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, the Charlotte Street Railway Company was duly incorporated by an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, with the privilege of constructing and operating a street railway system in the city of Charlotte and vicinity thereof, and by amendments to said act, passed by the General Assembly of North Carolina on the sixth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and on the thirteenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one, the name of said corporation was changed to the "Charlotte Electric Railway, Light and Power Company," and its operating territory extended to the limits of the county of Mecklenburg; and whereas, the said Charlotte Electric Railway, Light and Power Company desires an enlargement of its corporate powers, that it may better serve the public within its territory: now, therefore,

Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter thirty-two of the Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three be and is hereby amended as follows:

First. By striking out section two (2) thereof and inserting in lieu of said section the following:

Capital stock.

"Sec. 2. The capital stock of said company shall be sixty thousand dollars, in shares of fifty dollars each, and said company may, by a concurrence of two-thirds in value of all its stock, increase its capital stock from time to time to an amount not exceeding two million dollars: Provided, however, that such increase shall be null and void until the amount of such increase shall be certified to the Secretary of State and the taxes prescribed therefor by law be paid; and the company shall have the right to borrow money, to make, negotiate and dispose of its promissory notes, drafts and bonds, and to mortgage any or all of its property and franchise to secure their payment."

Increase authorized.

Second. By striking out section three (3) thereof and inserting in lieu of said section the following:

"Sec. 3. That said company is hereby given power to make, construct, equip, operate and maintain a line or lines of railway, with one or more tracks, and with such cars, trolley-wires, cable-posts, side-tracks, switches, appliances, crossings, bridges, turnouts and branches as it may deem necessary, through, along and over the streets, avenues and its own right-of-way within the corporate limits of the city of Charlotte, North Carolina, as said corporate limits now are or may hereafter be extended, and through, along and over its own right-of-way and streets, avenues, roads and highways of all counties, towns and villages within a radius of fifty miles from the center of the said city of Charlotte, North Carolina, and connecting said city with the towns and villages, and any of said towns and villages with each other, and to such points in the vicinity thereof and within the radius aforesaid as the said company may from time to time determine; to cross any track of any street railway or railroad company now incorporated or hereafter to be incorporated; to erect and equip such stations, warehouses, offices, power plants, shops and other buildings as its said board of directors may deem necessary; to buy or otherwise acquire, generate, develop, store, use, transmit and distribute power in the forms of electric current, hydraulic, pneumatic and steam pressure, and in any and all forms now or hereafter in use for driving machinery and for propelling cars or carriages; to charge and collect such sums of money for the carriage of passengers, freight and the transportation of property between given points as may be reasonable: Provided, that its line or lines of railway shall be constructed over, across and along streets within the corporate limits of said cities, towns or villages, or over, along and across the public highways and avenues without said corporate limits, in the manner authorized and permitted by sections two thousand five hundred and sixty-seven (subsection six), two thousand five hundred and sixty-eight, two thousand five hundred and sixty-nine, two thousand five hundred and seventy, two thousand five hundred and seventy-one and two thousand five hundred and seventy-two of chapter sixty-one (61) of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, the provisions of which shall be deemed incorporated herein." Power to run street railways.

Third. That section six (6) thereof be stricken out and the following substituted in lieu of said section:

"Sec. 6. The conductors and other agents and servants of said company are hereby invested with the same authority, powers and privileges which belong to similar officers and agents of railway companies now operating in this State; and, in addition to the general powers conferred upon such agents and officers, they may eject and remove all drunken, profane and disorderly persons Powers of conductors, agents and servants. Drunken, profane and disorderly persons removed.

from any of the conveyances or cars of said company at any time, whether the fare of said drunken, disorderly or profane person has been paid or not."

Directors.

Fourth. That section seven (7) thereof be amended as follows: By striking out the words "not less than three nor more than five," in lines five and six thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "not less than three nor more than nine."

Fifth. By adding after section seven (7) of said act the following sections:

Powers as light, heat and power company.

"Sec. 8. That said company is hereby given power and authority also to make, transmit and furnish to individuals and corporations within said city of Charlotte, North Carolina, and within a radius of fifty miles from the center of said city, power, light and heat in the form of electricity or other forces, currents or fluids used for such purposes; to construct, maintain and operate a plant or plants in or near the city of Charlotte and at other point or points within a radius of fifty miles from the center of said city for the purpose of generating, manufacturing and transmitting the same; and either above or underground by wires, cables, tubes, pipes, conduits and all other ways and means now used, or which may be devised for transmission of power, light and heat, to transmit and distribute the same directly to consumers or users within the radius aforesaid, or to a distributing point therein, and from such distribution point to consumers and users as aforesaid; to make, buy, deal in, furnish, supply and sell electricity and any and all other kinds of powers, forces, currents, fluids, matters and materials now used or which may be discovered for the purposes of illumination, heat and power; to purchase, acquire, hold, improve, lease, operate and maintain water-powers, water rights and privileges, and to purchase, acquire, rent, lease, own, hold, improve and develop real property in such quantities as may be deemed necessary for the proper conduct of its business, and to lay out, plat and dedicate to public use, or otherwise, streets, avenues, alleys and parks.

Power to survey routes and condemn lands.

"Sec. 9. That in order to effect and carry out the purpose of its creation and the powers conferred upon it by its charter, said company may survey such route or routes for its line or lines of railway and for its ways and means of transmission and distribution of power, light and heat as may be deemed necessary and practicable, and if any lands of individuals or corporations, or any right, franchise, privilege or easement therein shall be found necessary for the location, construction and operation of its said line or lines of railway, branches and sidings, or its wires, cables, tubes, pipes and conduits, then in case said company shall be unable to agree with the owner or owners thereof for the purchase of such lands, rights, privileges or easements therein, it shall have the right to acquire title to the same in the manner and by the special proceedings prescribed in chapter sixty-one (61) of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, entitled 'Railroads': Provided, however, the right of the said company to condemn and take land under this act for railway purposes shall be limited to the space of fifty feet on each side of its road-bed, measuring from the middle of the same, except in cases of deep cuts or high embankments, when said company shall have the right to condemn as much in addition thereto as may be necessary for the construction of its road or roads: Provided further, that if necessary for depots, warehouses, station grounds, shops, turnouts, side-tracks, yards, gravel pits, borrow pits, quarries or other purposes necessary for the construction and operation of said road, it may condemn not exceeding ten acres in any one place. Said company shall also have and be entitled to exercise all rights and powers of eminent domain conferred upon railroads by virtue of chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, heretofore referred to, not in conflict with the provisions of its charter.

Proviso: limit on power of condemnation.

"Sec. 10. The said company may subscribe to or purchase the capital stock, bonds or other securities of any other corporation now in existence or hereafter projected, in the State or elsewhere, and any other such company may subscribe to or purchase the capital stock, bonds or other securities of this company.

May purchase stock and bonds of other companies.

"Sec. 11. That said company shall have the right to build and maintain a dam or dams across the Catawba River, in North Carolina, and pond back the waters of said river and its tributaries at any point or points thereon, within a radius of fifty miles from the center of the said city of Charlotte, for the purpose of utilizing such water-power or water-powers as it now owns or may hereafter acquire by purchase in manufacturing and generating electricity, to be used in the operation of its line or lines of railway, or to be sold and transmitted to individuals or corporations for use as power, light and heat, and for such other uses and purposes as said company may from time to time determine; and build, maintain and operate in connection with said water-power plants canals, bridges, ferries, aqueducts, water-ways, spill-ways, waste-ways, wells and reservoirs, and all other works, houses, shops and necessary buildings for use and operation in connection with said water-power plants. And whenever any other land for the ponding of water, or other water rights or easements may be required by said company for the purpose of constructing, operating and fully developing its said water-power plant or plants, then, in case said company cannot agree with the owner or owners for the purchase of such lands, water rights or other easements, the same may be condemned, appropriated and taken by the said company in the manner provided for the condemnation of lands for railroads, as provided for in chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five.

Entry on lands for survey.

"Sec. 12. It shall be lawful for said company, through its agents, superintendents, engineers or other persons in its employ, to enter at any and all times upon the lands or waters of any individuals or corporations for the purpose of exploring, surveying and locating its line or lines of railway and its water-power plant or plants, and pondage area or areas upon the same, and of making a plat or plats thereof.

Powers under general laws.

"Sec. 13. That the said Charlotte Electric Railway, Light and Power Company, in addition to the rights and powers specially conferred upon it by its charter, shall have all the rights and powers and enjoy all the privileges and immunities possessed and enjoyed by any other street railway, railroad company or electric power company by virtue of the general laws of the State.

Stockholders not individually liable.

"Sec. 14. That the stockholders shall not be individually or personally liable for any of the contracts, obligations, indebtedness, defaults or torts of the corporation, and no stockholder shall be liable to pay for more stock than he has subscribed for."

Former charter confirmed.

Sec. 2. That this act shall not be so construed as to repeal any of the provisions of the original charter of said company, or any act or acts amendatory thereto, not herein expressly repealed or amended.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 151.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE NEW BERN BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY.

Preamble.

Whereas, the New Bern Banking and Trust Company was incorporated by the Secretary of State on July sixteenth, one thousand nine hundred and six; and whereas, letters of incorporation were duly issued by him to James B. Blades, L. S. Blades, L. Carl Blades, George B. Pendleton and W. T. Old, their successors and assigns, and by said letters of incorporation they were authorized to do a commercial and savings bank business in the city of New Bern, with a total authorized capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars, which said letters of incorporation so issued by the Secretary of State bear date the sixteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six; and under said letters of incorporation and the authority therein said parties named have duly organized, and are now conducting the business authorized by the charter; and whereas, the board of directors of said corporation have passed a resolution declaring that an extension of the corporate powers and privileges is advisable; and whereas, at a meeting of the stockholders to take action thereon, held on the fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seven, it was unanimously resolved that the powers, rights and privileges of said New Bern Banking and Trust Company be changed and altered as hereinafter set out, and that the authorized capital stock thereof be increased from one hundred thousand dollars to four hundred thousand dollars as hereinafter specified: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the action of the New Bern Banking and Trust Company is hereby ratified and confirmed. Action of company confirmed.

Sec. 2. That the aforesaid New Bern Banking and Trust Company, of New Bern, North Carolina, which has been organized under the laws of the State, with letters of incorporation issued by the State, is hereby made, created and confirmed as a corporation of the State of North Carolina, with full power to sue and be sued, and to adopt and have a common and corporate seal, under the name and style of the New Bern Banking and Trust Company, and by which name it shall have the rights, powers and privileges incident to a corporation. Incorporation confirmed. Corporate name.

Sec. 3. That the capital stock of said corporation shall be one hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, with the power in the stockholders to increase said capital stock at any time to any amount not exceeding one million dollars. Capital stock.

Sec. 4. That the principal office and place of business of said corporation shall be in the city of New Bern, State of North Carolina; and the business of said corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than nine or more than fifteen directors, who shall choose such officers as they may deem necessary for the conduct of the business hereinafter authorized, and adopt such needful by-laws, rules and regulations for the conduct of the business, in accordance with the provisions of this act, as they shall deem necessary; and said corporation shall have the power to make contracts, sue and be sued in the courts of this State, as fully as natural persons; to buy, hold, possess and convey real, personal and mixed property, and to do all lawful acts and doings, and exercise all lawful powers and privileges which may be ordinarily incident to the conduct of a general banking business, with trusts and savings bank as hereinafter expressly allowed. Principal office. Directors, number and powers. Enumeration of corporate powers.

Sec. 5. The said corporation shall have the right to do a general banking business; to receive deposits, make loans and dis- General banking business.

counts; to obtain and procure loans for any person, company, partnership or corporation; to invest its own money or the money of others; to lend and invest money in or upon the security of mortgage, pledge, deed or otherwise, on any lands, hereditaments or personal property, or interest therein of any description; to lend money upon, or purchase or otherwise acquire, bills of lading or the contents thereof, bills, notes, choses in action, or any and all negotiable papers, or any crops of produce whatever, or any stock bullion, merchandise or other personal property, and to sell and dispose of the same in any manner which to the said corporation may seem proper.

May own stock of other companies.

Sec. 6. That said corporation may own by purchase, pledge or otherwise the capital stock of any other corporation, and may, by its duly constituted agent, cast the vote which the stock owned by it may entitle it to cast in the meetings of such other corporation; and it may engage as a dealer in stocks, shares, notes, bonds, debentures or other securities of any government, State, municipality, corporation, company, partnership or business; may engage or place said shares, stock, debentures, notes, mortgages or other security with or without guaranty or collateral obligations by said company; may sell or dispose of any of the property, real or personal, or any interest acquired by it, to any person or other corporation for any portion of its bonds, securities or obligations, as may be agreed upon, without liability on such stock so purchased or subscribed for beyond the agreed terms of said purchase or subscription. Said corporation may also receive on deposit all sums of money which may be offered, in such sums and at such times and on such terms as the board of directors may agree to.

Stock broker.

Deposits.

Savings bank.

Sec. 7. Said corporation shall be invested with all the powers and privileges usually incident to banking institutions and to savings banks, with the right to receive deposits, the limit to be fixed by its board of directors, and to pay interest thereon at fixed rates, or by way of dividends, out of the net earnings, according to the terms to be agreed upon between the corporation and the depositors; and the board of directors are hereby fully authorized to adopt all proper rules and regulations for conducting and carrying into effect the savings bank feature of this corporation.

What company to receive.

Deposits of minors, apprentices and married women.

Sec. 8. Said corporation shall have the right to receive lawful currency of the country, bills of exchange, gold and silver coin, and to receive deposits from any and all persons, firms and associations and corporations, including minors, apprentices and married women or other persons, on such terms as may be prescribed by this charter and by the by-laws, or as may be agreed upon by the parties, and may open accounts with them in their own names, whether for investment or not; and when deposit shall be made in the name of any minor or married woman, the said corporation may deal with such minor or married woman in reference thereto as though he or she was sui juris, and payments made to such minor or married woman on his or her receipt, or his or her check drawn against such deposit, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to such corporation for such deposit and interest thereon or any part thereof.

Loans and security.

Sec. 9. Said corporation shall have the right to pay out lawful currency of the country, bills of exchange, gold and silver coin, and may take and receive interest on the same at the time of making the loan or otherwise, free from all other control, contract or liability whatever; and may take such real, personal or mixed property as security for any loan, upon such terms and trusts and conditions for the payment thereof, or for money advanced or expended, as may be considered safe, expedient and beneficial.

Interest on deposits.

Sec. 10. Said corporation may pay to its depositors, who allow their deposits to remain three months or more, such rate of interest as the directors may agree upon, said interest to be computed semi-annually and added to the principal as a deposit, unless the deposit be wholly withdrawn earlier; in which case, if it has been in the company's hands three months or longer, interest shall be computed and paid up to date of withdrawal. But it shall be in the power of the directors to alter this section at their will so as to reduce the time required for deposits to be on hand before interest begins, and so as to make the computation and addition of interest on deposits monthly or quarterly, as they see fit, and as often as they please.

May act as agent.

Sec. 11. Said corporation shall have the right to act as agent, factor or trustee for any State, county, town, municipality, corporation, company or individual, on such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed upon, in registering, selling and countersigning, collecting, acquiring, holding, dealing in and disposing of, on account of any State, town, municipality, corporation, company or person, bonds, certificates of stock, or any description of property, real or personal, or for guaranteeing the payment of such bonds, certificates of stock, etc., and generally for managing such business, and may charge such premium, commission or rate of compensation as may be agreed upon in and for any of the matters and things authorized in this charter.

May act in fiduciary capacities.

Sec. 12. Said corporation shall have the power to receive money in trust, to become executor or administrator of any estate, and to accept and execute any other trust that may be committed to it by the court, corporation, company, person or persons; and it shall also have the power to accept any grant or transfer, devise or bequest, and hold any real or personal estate or trust created in accordance with the laws of this State, and to execute the same on such terms as may be established and agreed upon by the board of directors.

Courts may appoint company in fiduciary capacities.

Sec. 13. That in all cases where application shall be made to any court of this State for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, commissioner or guardian of any minor, or of any lunatic or insane person, it shall be lawful for such court, if it shall think fit, to appoint the New Bern Banking and Trust Company such receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, commissioner or guardian, and the accounts of such corporation in such fiduciary capacity shall be regularly settled and adjusted as if it were a natural person; and upon such settlement or adjustment all proper legal and customary charges, costs and expenses shall be allowed to said corporation for its services, care and management in the premises, and said corporation as such receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, commissioner or guardian shall be subject to all orders or decrees made by the proper tribunal under the laws of this State: Provided, that any oath required by law to be taken in order for qualification to any of the offices or trusts above mentioned may be taken by any officer of said company, and the oath prescribed by law be so modified as to apply to corporations instead of individuals.

May act as trustee or assignee.

Sec. 14. Said corporation is hereby fully authorized and empowered to act as trustee or assignee for any insolvent person, firm or corporation, and to receive on deposit all funds in litigation in the various courts of this State, and pay therefor such interest as may be agreed upon, not exceeding the lawful rate.

Deposits for safe-keeping.

It shall have the power and authority to receive for safe-keeping on deposit all money, bonds, stocks, diamonds and silver plate and other valuables, and charge and collect for same a reasonable compensation, which said charge shall be a lien upon such deposits until paid; and generally to do and carry on the business of a safety deposit and trust company. Said corporation shall also have the power to issue bills or notes to circulate as currency in such denominations as the board of directors may authorize, and under such regulations as are now authorized and provided or as may hereafter be authorized by the laws of the State or of the United States.

Powers of warehouse company.

Sec. 15. That, in addition to the powers above conferred, said corporation may build, erect, maintain, conduct and operate one or more warehouses or depots for the storage of goods, wares, merchandise, cotton and other products, and charge and receive commission, rents and compensation for the storage and keeping thereof, which charge shall constitute a first lien on the property so stored; make rules, regulations, contracts and by-laws fixing the terms and prices for storage, manner of inspection, form of receipts, insurance of property and all other matters affecting the safe and prudent conduct of such business; make advances of money or credit upon cotton or other products and merchandise stored as aforesaid, and do all such things as may be wise and profitable in and about said storage business and as are not contrary to law; and the receipts issued by said corporation shall be and are hereby declared to be negotiable instruments, and pass by endorsement and delivery, and to entitle the bearer thereof to the property marked and designated therein, in such manner as the original holder would be had not such assignment been made: Provided, that in the absence of any stipulation in the receipt, or any contract between the said company and any depositor of the property in said warehouse, the said company shall be held and deemed to be liable to exercise only ordinary care in the custody and protection of such property.

Purchase of property under lien.

Sec. 16. Whenever any real or personal property upon which the company may have a lien of any kind shall be exposed to sale under authority of law, the president of the company may purchase the same for and on behalf of the company, and such purchase, though made at a sale by the company as trustee, shall be valid and binding upon all parties having or claiming an interest therein.

Principal office.

Sec. 17. That the principal office of said corporation shall be in the city of New Bern, but it is fully empowered and authorized to establish branches of its business at any other point or points in the State of North Carolina which may be decided upon by the board of directors, and such branch or branches when so established shall be and become as fully empowered for the transaction of the business herein authorized as is the original corporation.

Branches.

Insurance agency.

Sec. 18. Said corporation is authorized to act as agent for any life, fire or other insurance company, and is authorized to have an insurance department for the transaction of life, fire and other insurance ordinarily conducted by any company, person or individual in this State, under such laws, rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the conduct of such insurance business.

Sec. 19. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 152.

AN ACT TO CONFIRM AND ENLARGE THE POWERS OF CUMBERLAND SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY, OF FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Charter confirmed.

Section 1. That the charter heretofore granted by the Secretary of State to Cumberland Savings and Trust Company is hereby confirmed, except as hereinafter amended.

Corporate powers.

Sec. 2. That Cumberland Savings and Trust Company, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, shall have continual succession for the term of ninety-nine years, and is vested with all the rights and privileges of banking institutions under the general banking laws of this State.

Capital stock.

Sec. 3. That the capital stock of said corporation shall not be less than ten thousand dollars, which may be increased from time to time by consent of the majority of the stockholders to a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, payable as the directors may designate; and the shares, when fully paid up, shall be non-assessable; nor shall any stockholder be liable for any other sum on account of said subscription.

Company may act as fiduciary.

Undertaking in lieu of bond.

Sec. 4. That said corporation shall also have the power and authority to act as guardian, executors, administrators, receivers, assignees, trustees and fiduciaries of all kinds. In lieu of the bond required by law to be given by administrator, guardian, trustee, receiver or other fiduciary, it shall be lawful, before assuming any such trust under order of any court, that said company shall file in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Cumberland County an undertaking, with sufficient security, with either personal sureties or bonds of the State of North Carolina, or of the United States, or of any county or city of the State of North Carolina, or any other security satisfactory to the court and to be approved by the said clerk; and the said undertaking, so secured, may be accepted by the said clerk and held as such security in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of any trust which may be committed to the said company by order of any court of North Carolina, as aforesaid.

Undertaking sued on.

In case of willful default in the performance of any trust so committed to said company as aforesaid, the said undertaking may be sued upon by the party injured, or his personal representative, in the Superior Court of any county of North Carolina where such default may have been made. (And the Superior Court of Cumberland County, whenever it shall be made satisfactorily to appear by sworn testimony that it is necessary in order to secure the faithful performance of all of said trusts, may require the said undertaking to be enlarged sufficiently to secure the faithful performance of the same). A copy of such undertaking, duly certified by the seal of the Superior Court of Cumberland County, and, if secured by the bonds of the State or of the United States or of any county or city or other security as aforesaid, a statement thereof, so certified, shall be evidence in all the courts of North Carolina. And the Superior Court, wherein the said company shall have been appointed guardian, executor, administrator, receiver, trustee or depository, shall have the power to make orders respecting such trust, and to require the said company to render all accounts which said court might lawfully make or require if such trustees were a natural person. And in accepting any of the trusts or powers hereunder the said corporation may qualify by one of its executive officers.

Sec. 5. That any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver or other trustee or public officer, having the care, custody or control of any bonds, stocks, securities, moneys or other valuable things whatsoever, shall be and is hereby authorized to deposit the same with said company. Deposits of trust funds.

Sec. 6. That said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and keep on deposit jewels, plate, money, certificates of stock, bonds, notes or any other article of value whatsoever, which may be left for safe-keeping with said company, and shall be entitled to receive compensation for the same; and for the complete preservation of same said company may lease or build or purchase vaults and safes for such purposes. Deposits for safe-keeping.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 153.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That section eleven of chapter eighty-nine of the Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five be and the same is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "That said 'The Tuckaseigee Railway Company' shall have two years from January first, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in which to begin the construction of its road and expend thereon ten per cent. of its capital." Time for beginning work.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 158.

AN ACT TO REPEAL CHAPTER 141, PRIVATE LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA, SESSION OF 1903, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO PROVIDE A DISPENSARY FOR THE TOWN OF CRESWELL AND TOWNSHIP OF SCUPPERNONG, IN THE COUNTY OF WASHINGTON."

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter one hundred and forty-one (141), Private Laws of North Carolina, session of one thousand nine hundred and three, be and the same is hereby repealed. Law repealed.

Sec. 2. On and after the ratification of this act it shall be unlawful for the board of dispensary commissioners for the said town of Creswell and township of Scuppernong to purchase any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or any other supplies for said dispensary. Further purchases forbidden.

Stock and property to be sold.

Sec. 3. On or before the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the said board of dispensary commissioners shall sell or cause to be sold in said dispensary all the stock of liquors and other property belonging to said dispensary, subject to the provisions and regulations prescribed by chapter one hundred and forty-one (141), Private Laws of North Carolina, session of one thousand nine hundred and three. And it shall be the duty of the treasurer of said board of dispensary commissioners, and he is hereby expressly commanded to make, on or before the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, full settlement of all accounts, due and to become due, of said dispensary; to pay all taxes for which it shall be liable, and to make final and complete distribution of any and all moneys remaining in his hands derived from said dispensary, as is provided in section six, chapter one hundred and forty-one, Private Laws of North Carolina, session of one thousand nine hundred and three.

Treasurer to make settlements.

Books, bills, vouchers and records to be deposited.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of said board of dispensary commissioners, the chairman or treasurer and manager, to deposit all books, bills, vouchers and records relating to the business of said dispensary in the office of the Superior Court Clerk, in the courthouse in Washington County, and it shall be the duty of the solicitor of that judicial district, at the next succeeding term of the Superior Court for said county of Washington, to make a careful examination of said books, papers and records, and report such facts as may be material to the judge holding said court, who shall either direct the discharge of all bonded officers of said dispensary, and of such other persons as may have been charged with the business of such dispensary, or order such action as to him shall seem proper: Provided, the said books, records, vouchers and papers must be deposited as above directed not later than the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 23d day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 159.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE ELKIN AND ALLEGHANY RAILWAY COMPANY, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That W. C. Fields, R. A. Doughton, H. G. Chatham, R. M. Chatham, C. W. Smith, A. A. Woodruff, H. E. Fries, J. N. Edwards, E. F. McNeer, A. G. Click, John T. Miller, C. C. Smoot, W. E. Cox and C. F. Fields, and such other person or persons as may be associated with them, their successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate under the name of the Elkin and Alleghany Railway Company, for the purposes hereinafter described; and under the aforesaid name and style shall have perpetual succession, and shall have power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all courts, whether in law or in equity, and may make and have a common seal and alter, renew or break the same at pleasure; and shall have, possess and enjoy all rights and privileges of a corporation or body politic under the general law, and also rights, privileges and franchises herein given. Corporators. Corporate name. Corporate powers.

Sec. 2. That said company shall have and it is hereby given the right and power to locate, construct, equip, maintain and operate, by steam power or electric power, a railroad, or any part thereof, upon one or more tracks, standard gauge or otherwise, from some point at or near Elkin, Surry County, North Carolina, through the counties of Surry, Wilkes, Alleghany and Ashe, by way of Sparta or its vicinity, or through any one or more of said counties to such point on the North Carolina and Tennessee line, or North Carolina and Virginia line, by such route as it may select; and it may also construct, maintain and operate such lateral and branch lines as may be necessary or advantageous to the extension, completion and operation of such railroad. And for these purposes it shall have the power to construct dams, culverts, trestles and bridges over and across streams, valleys and depressions; and it shall have the right to cross any navigable stream on its route; it shall have the right to cross at grade or over or under, to intersect, join or unite its railway with any other railway now constructed or that may be hereafter constructed in this State upon the ground of such other companies at any point on its route, and to build the necessary turnouts, sidings, switches and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its construction; and may, in making any intersection or connection with another road, have all the rights, powers and privileges conferred upon railroads by chapter sixty-one of Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, or any act of Assembly amendatory thereof. Said company shall also have the right to locate such station or stations along Power to construct railway. Beginning. Route. Branch lines. Right to cross other railways. Stations.

Schedules.

its railroad, and arrange such schedule or schedules for the running of its passenger or freight cars or trains, as it may think proper. For the construction of a railway provided by this act, the company shall have, for the purpose of acquiring lands, easements or rights-of-way, all the rights, powers and authorities given to railroads under chapter sixty-one of Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, or any act of Assembly amendatory thereof, as fully as if the provisions of said chapter were incorporated in this act.

Right to acquire land and rights-of-way.

Exclusive right to carry passengers and freight.

Sec. 3. Said company, its successors or assigns, shall have the exclusive right to carry and transport passengers and freight over and along said road and its branches, at such rate as said company may prescribe, subject to such general laws regulating the same as the General Assembly may from time to time establish; and it shall have the right to transport all manner of goods, United States mail or other property, and make and collect charges therefor, and to make, fix, charge and collect such tolls for the transportation of persons and property as it may think necessary, subject to the general law.

Right to use roads and streets.

Sec. 4. Said company shall have the right and authority to use any public road or highway or street for the construction or operation of its railroad, cars, poles, lines or other equipment, under such reasonable regulations as the authorities controlling said roads, highways or streets respectively shall, upon application from the company, prescribe.

Capital stock.

Sec. 5. The capital stock of the said railway company shall be one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, which may be increased from time to time by the votes of its shareholders to an amount not exceeding three millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each: Provided, such increase of capital stock shall only be made upon application to the Secretary of State and leave granted by him; such application to be accompanied by a receipt from the State Treasurer for the taxes prescribed in section one thousand two hundred and thirty-two and one thousand two hundred and thirty-five of chapter twenty-one of Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five for increase of capital stock. Each share subscribed shall be entitled to one vote in all the meetings of the stockholders of said company, and ten thousand dollars shall be the minimum subscription on which said company may be organized. The company may receive cash, labor, material, bonds, stock, contracts, real or personal property, in payment of subscriptions to its capital stock. A majority of the corporators hereinbefore named, or such of them as shall be subscribers, may organize the said company by electing a board of directors and providing for the election or appointment of such other officers by said board of directors as may be necessary for the control and management of the business and affairs of said company; and thereupon they shall have and exercise all the powers and functions of a corporation under this charter and the laws of this State. No subscriber shall be individually liable for the debts of the company. Subscribers not individually liable.

Sec. 6. It shall be lawful for the said company to borrow money, and issue and sell its bonds from time to time, for such sums and on such terms as its board of directors may deem expedient and proper, for any of the purposes of the company; and may secure the payment of said bonds by mortgage or deed of trust upon all or any portion of its property, real, personal or mixed; also on all its franchises, contracts, rights and privileges of every kind; and it may also, as the business of the company shall require, sell, lease or in any manner convey and encumber the same or any part thereof. Power to borrow money. Mortgage or deed of trust. May sell or lease.

Sec. 7. The said company may connect or unite its lines with those of any other railway company or companies, or consolidate and merge its stock, property and franchises with and into those of any other railroad company or companies incorporated under the laws of this State or any other State of the United States, operating or authorized to operate railway lines, upon such terms and under such name as may be agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting, merging or consolidating; and the said company may lease or sell any or all its property, real, personal or mixed, its contracts and privileges and its charter rights and franchises to any such other company upon such terms as may be agreed upon between them, and may in like manner acquire by lease or purchase any or all of the property, real or personal or mixed, and all contracts and privileges and the chartered rights and franchises of any such other company or companies; and full power and authority is hereby given to the said company or companies to make and carry out all such contracts as will facilitate and consummate such consolidation, leases, sales, mergers and changes of name. May unite or consolidate with other railway companies.

Sec. 8. The board of directors shall, as soon as they deem it practicable, proceed to locate the works of said company, and may have one or more locations from time to time as they may deem expedient; and the construction of some of said works shall be begun within five years after the ratification of this act. Location. Work to begin.

Sec. 9. That the principal office of said company shall be located at Elkin, North Carolina; and such branch offices as may be desirable for the purposes of the corporation shall be established at such places as the by-laws of the corporation shall designate and prescribe. But by consent of the board of directors the principal office may be removed to any place within the State most expedient to the management of its works. Principal office. Branch offices. Removal.

Sec. 10. Whenever from any cause the said railroad company cannot agree with the owners of the land over which the railroad shall go for the purchase of the land for the right-of-way and Procedure for condemnation of land.

depot purposes, the said company may proceed to condemn and enter same in the manner set forth in chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, and amendments thereto, or may file a petition before the clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the land lies, specifying the objects for which the land is desired, with a description and plot thereof. The clerk of the Superior Court shall thereupon issue a summons or notice to the owner, returnable to a day certain, after ten days' notice; and, after a hearing, shall, if not sufficient cause is shown against granting the prayer of the petition, make an order appointing three disinterested and competent freeholders of said county, who shall be summoned by the sheriff to meet on the premises at a time not more than ten days after the appointment, and, after being duly sworn, assess the damage of the land or right-of-way taken. In assessing the damages the jurors or appraisers shall take into consideration the actual value of the land, together with any special damages likely to accrue to the owner, and likewise shall consider any special benefits thereto; but general benefits pertaining to the public shall not be considered in reduction of damages. If the petition shall pray for a condemnation of the right-of-way only, the consideration or damages allowed shall be for the said easement only; but if for depot or building purposes, the consideration or damages shall be for the fee. The appraisers shall make their report to the clerk of the Superior Court within ten days from the time of their meeting on the premises. Said report shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds, after approval by the clerk and payment of damages assessed, and shall have the force and effect of a deed. Either party may appeal to the Superior Court in term-time from the approval or disapproval of the clerk, which appeal must be prayed within ten days of the approval or disapproval of the clerk.

Appeal.

Amount of land condemned.

Sec. 11. The right of said company to condemn and take land under this act shall be limited to the space of fifty feet on each side of their road-bed, measuring from the center of the same, except where cuts and fills require more, and then as much as may be required for a double track at grades; and for depots and warehouses they may condemn not exceeding ten acres in any one place; and in all cases where land or rights-of-way have been condemned the owner shall petition for assessment of damages within two years from condemnation and occupation, and not after, except in case of legal disabilities, and in such cases within two years from the removal of such disabilities.

Claims for damages to be filed within two years.

Part of line may be constructed and operated.

Sec. 12. A part of the railway line of said company may be constructed without completing its entire line, and the said part may be operated and charges may be collected therefor, notwithstanding the entire line of the company has not been completed.

By-laws.

Sec. 13. The stockholders of said company, or board of directors under a resolution of the stockholders, may enact such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the affairs of the company as they may deem proper and expedient. Meetings of the stockholders and directors may be held at such times and places as the stockholders and board of directors may respectively prescribe.

Meetings of stockholders and directors.

Election of directors.

Sec 14. The board of directors shall be elected at the stockholders' annual meeting, to be held on such days as the by-laws of the company may direct, and shall continue in office for the term of one year from and after the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified; and they shall choose from among their number a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, but one or more of said offices may be held by the same person. In case of death, resignation or incapacity of any officer or member of the board of directors during his term of office, the said board shall choose his successor for the unexpired term.

Term of office.

President and other officers.

Vacancies.

Public act.

Sec 15. This act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and a copy of any by-laws or regulations of the said company, under its corporate seal, purporting to be signed by the president, shall be received as prima facie evidence for and against the said company in any judicial proceedings.

Prima facie evidence.

Municipal corporations may subscribe to stock.

Sec. 16. That any county, township, city or town along or near the line of railroad may subscribe to the capital stock of the said company, or for bonds issued by the same, in the following manner: Upon presentation of a writing, signed by not less than fifty freeholders and resident tax-payers of the county, township, city or town, to the board of county commissioners of said county, or to the proper authorities of said city or town, requesting them to submit to the qualified voters of the county, township, city or town where said petitioners may reside a proposition to subscribe a definite sum named in said petition to the capital stock or bonds of said company, the board of commissioners of said county, or proper authorities of said city or town, may in their discretion order a new registration, and shall, within thirty days thereafter, order an election to be held in such county, township, city or town to submit to the qualified voters therein the question of subscribing to the capital stock or bonds of said company the amount specified in said petition; at which election all those qualified to vote who are in favor of such subscription shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For Subscription," and those opposed to such subscription shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "Against Subscription"; and the election for this purpose shall be conducted in the same manner and subject to the same rules and regulations as are provided for the election of county officers by

CHAPTER 173.

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE BOUNDARIES OF MAPLEVILLE GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the boundary lines of Public School District Number Two of the white race in Louisburg Township, Franklin County, known as the Mapleville District, be changed so that where the line of said district goes through the lands or home place of J. H. Wheless, the said boundary lines shall, instead, follow the boundaries of the said home place of J. H. Wheless, so as to leave the said home place of J. H. Wheless out of said district. New boundary.

Sec. 2. This act shall be in effect immediately upon its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 25th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 174.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 1, PRIVATE LAWS OF 1905, ENTITLED "AN ACT REPEALING CHAPTER 84 OF THE PRIVATE LAWS OF 1897, ENTITLED 'AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE AUXILIARY BOARD OF HEALTH OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY.'"

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the words and figures "five hundred dollars ($500)," appearing in the third line of the second section of said act, be stricken out, and the words and figures "one thousand dollars ($1,000)" be substituted therefor; and the words "five hundred dollars," appearing in lines five and six in said act, be stricken out, and the words "one thousand dollars" be substituted therefor; and by adding after the word "treatment," appearing in line nine of section two of said act, the following words: "said paupers to be admitted to said hospital for treatment, according to such rules and regulations as the Board of Commissioners of Edgecombe County and the Board of Managers of the Pittman Hospital may adopt," and by striking out the remainder of said section. Appropriation to Pittman hospital made $1,000.

Sec. 2. The Board of Commissioners of Edgecombe County are hereby authorized and empowered, at any time it may be deemed advisable, expedient or for the interest of the county, to take over, receive by deed of gift, purchase or acquire by other means such property as may be necessary for the operation and maintenance of a hospital, and to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary for its government.

Sec. 3. Whenever such a hospital shall be established the force and effect of section one of this act shall cease and determine.

Sec. 4. That the force and effect of section one of this act shall be discretionary, and not compulsory, on the board of county commissioners.

Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 176.

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE BOUNDARY OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 21, IN THE COUNTY OF POLK.

Whereas, pursuant to section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the Revisal, the Board of Education of Polk County has established Special School District Number Twenty-one in said county, and a special school tax has been voted therein, as provided by said section; and whereas, it is inconvenient for that portion of said district lying on the north of Green River and on the east of the public road leading from the Mills Gap road to the Cooper's Gap road to patronize said school; and whereas, the residents of said territory desire to belong to District Number Twenty-nine, on the north of said Green River: Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the northern boundary line of said district be changed so as to run from the corner of the outside boundary of R. M. Foster's land and the lands of Mrs. R. L. Hamilton with the dividing line between said lands to Green River, thence with the river to where the present line of said district strikes the river, at the eastern boundary of James Jackson's land. Northern line changed.

Sec. 2. That no school tax shall be levied for said district upon the property excluded from said district by the provisions of this act. Property relieved from tax.

Sec. 3. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. That this act shall be in force from and after the date upon which District Number Twenty-nine votes a special school tax for said district. When act effective.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 25th day of February, A. D. 1907.

The dividends upon the preferred stock shall be cumulative, and shall not exceed five (5) per cent. per annum; and if in any year dividends amounting to five (5) per cent. shall not be paid on such preferred stock, the deficiency shall be charged upon the future net earnings and be payable subsequently, before any dividend shall be set apart or paid upon the common stock.

Dividends on common stock.

After the dividends upon the preferred stock shall have been paid, or set aside as aforesaid, the holders of the common stock shall be entitled to receive from the surplus or net profits arising from the business of the said corporation dividends in such amount as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors, and which shall be payable at such time as shall be fixed by them.

Rights of preferred stock on dissolution.

The holders of the preferred stock shall, in case of liquidation or dissolution of the company, be entitled to be paid in full to the extent of the value of the said stock, before any amount shall be paid to the holders of the general or common stock. The said incorporators shall have power to organize the said company and commence business when one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) of the said stock shall have been subscribed, and the stockholders of the said company shall have power from time to time, by a majority vote of the same, to increase the capital stock of the said corporation to any amount, not exceeding five million dollars ($5,000,000) in all, divided into common and preferred stock in such proportions as to them shall seem best; and whenever any increase of said stock is desired by said corporation over and above the sum of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000), the said corporation shall make application to the Secretary of State for the increase desired, and upon payment to the said Secretary of State of the taxes for said increase, he shall issue to the said corporation a certificate, under his seal of office, authorizing the amount of increase of the capital stock of the said corporation, and after such certificate of the Secretary of State is issued the said corporation shall have power to increase its capital stock in the amount set forth in such certificate.

Quorum.

Sec. 3. W. D. Rymer, H. H. Carson, W. C. Jordan, P. A. Bly, Joseph McCrary and Hix McCrary are hereby appointed trustees of the said graded school of the said Rymer Graded School District, and they shall meet, qualify and organize within thirty days after the ratification of this act. As soon as the said trustees shall have qualified, they shall divide themselves by lot into three classes, the first class to be composed of two members, the second class of two members and the third class of two members. The members of the first class shall hold their office for a term of six years, the members of the second class for a term of four years and the members of the third class for a term of two years. At the end of each succeeding two years the county board of education, upon the recommendation of a majority of the board of trustees, shall appoint two trustees to succeed the two whose terms then expire. Members of the board of trustees shall be appointed for a term of six years. Vacancies caused by death, removal, failure to qualify or any other cause shall be filled by the board of trustees of said graded school. All acts and things herein authorized to be done by the said board of trustees may be done by a quorum thereof.

Collection of special taxes.

Trustees to fix levy.

Proviso: limit.

Sec. 4. That the moneys arising from the special taxes heretofore levied and collected for the purpose of running the public school in said graded school district shall be levied and collected in the manner prescribed in the general school law of the State and placed to the credit of the said board of trustees heretofore named; and the said board of trustees shall each year, on or before the first day of June, notify the county commissioners of the levy on property and polls desired to be made for that year, and the said board of county commissioners shall be bound to levy the amount asked for by the said board of trustees on property and polls: Provided, that the sum levied as special taxes shall never exceed thirty cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of property and ninety cents on the poll, as provided in the general school law and authorized by special election in said graded school district.

Apportionment from general fund.

Sec. 5. The moneys which shall from time to time be apportioned under the general school law to the public school in said Rymer Graded School District shall be placed to the credit of the school trustees provided for in this act.

Application of funds.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the said school trustees to use the moneys coming into their hands to the best advantage, in order to have the longest possible term of school each year in the said graded school district: Provided, that the term of school shall not be less than six months nor more than nine months in any one school year.

Proviso: length of term.

Reports.

Sec. 7. The said school trustees shall make an annual report to the Board of Education of Henderson County of the receipts and disbursements of all school funds under their control; and they shall also make all reports to the said board of education as now required or which may hereafter be required of public school committeemen of the various public school districts.

Trustees incorporated.

Corporate name.

Sec. 8. The school trustees hereby created shall be a body corporate by the name and style of the Trustees of the Rymer Graded School, and by that name shall be capable of receiving gifts and grants; of purchasing and holding real and personal estate, or selling, mortgaging and transferring the same for school purposes; of prosecuting and defending suits for or against the corporation hereby created. Conveyances to said trustees shall be to them and their successors in office.

Property transferred to trustees.

Sec. 9. The Board of Education of Henderson County are hereby authorized and directed to transfer, by the execution of proper deeds of conveyance, all public school property, both real and personal, of every description, now belonging to the public school in the territory hereby constituted a graded school district, to the Trustees of the Rymer Graded School as heretofore specified.

Sec. 10. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 26th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 185.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE ROCKY MOUNT GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Amount.

Application of proceeds.

Section 1. That the Board of Graded School Trustees of Rocky Mount is hereby authorized and empowered to issue coupon bonds of the Rocky Mount Graded School District to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, for the purpose of applying the proceeds arising therefrom to the payment of the balance of the indebtedness due on the Edgecombe Graded School lot, purchased from B. S. Herring in May, one thousand nine hundred and six, and thereafter to the erection of a school building thereon, to the equipment thereof and to the improvement and repair of the other school buildings of said graded school district.

Graded School Bonds," and those opposing the issuing of such bonds and the levying of such taxes shall vote a like ballot containing the words "Against Graded School Bonds."

Returns. Sec. 4. That it shall be the duty of the registrar and judges of election of the several wards or voting precincts of said city to incorporate in the returns of the result of such election in their respective wards or voting precincts the number of qualified voters therein, as shown by the registration books. The board Canvassers. of canvassers of said city shall, from such original ward or precinct returns, canvass the votes cast at such election, and shall judicially determine and declare the result thereof. Said board Canvass. of canvassers shall prepare and file with the city clerk an abstract setting out the number of votes cast and how cast in the several wards or voting precincts of said city at such election, the number of qualified voters therein, and the result of such election, as judicially determined and declared by said board; and said city clerk shall record such abstract as a permanent Record of result. record of said city, and shall forthwith furnish to said board of graded school trustees a copy thereof, to the correctness of which he shall certify over his hand and the corporate seal of said city.

Issue and sale of bonds. Sec. 5. That should the result of such election be favorable to such bond issue, said board of graded school trustees shall without unnecessary delay proceed to issue the same, in an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, and to make sale thereof, in such manner and upon such terms as said board may deem most advantageous.

Special tax for bonds, interest and schools. Sec. 6. That, for the purpose of providing for the payment of such bonds and the interest thereon, and of defraying the expenses of the public graded schools of said graded school district, the board of aldermen of said city, at the time of levying the municipal taxes for the fiscal year beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and annually thereafter, shall levy and lay the following particular taxes: First. On all real Property tax. and personal property within the corporate limits of said city, including money and solvent credits, and on all subjects of taxation upon which an ad valorem tax is or may be imposed by the General Assembly, a tax not exceeding ten cents on every one hundred dollars of valuation. Second. A capitation tax of not Poll tax. more than thirty cents on every taxable poll of male persons residing within the corporate limits of said city on the first day of June of each year.

Collection of tax. Sec. 7. That such taxes shall be collected by the city tax collector as other municipal and public graded school taxes are collected; and he shall pay over the same to the city treasurer as treasurer ex officio of said board of graded school trustees; and To be kept separate. said city treasurer shall keep such public graded school funds separate and apart from all other moneys in his hands, and shall pay out the same only upon the warrant of the chairman and secretary of said board of graded school trustees.

Proceeds of bonds to be kept separate.

Sec. 8. That said treasurer shall keep all moneys realized from the sale of such bonds as may be issued in pursuance of this act separate and apart from all other funds in his hands, and shall pay out the same only upon the warrant of the chairman and secretary of said board of graded school trustees; and said board of graded school trustees shall expend such moneys only for those purposes set out in section one of this act.

Payment.

Limits of district.

Sec. 9. That the limits of the Rocky Mount Graded School District shall be and remain conterminous with the corporate limits of the city of Rocky Mount.

Apportionment from general school fund.

Sec. 10. That the Boards of Education of Nash and Edgecombe Counties shall apportion to said graded school district its proportionate per capita part of any funds which may be set apart by either of said boards of education for the building, repair and equipment of school-houses.

Sec. 11. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 12. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 26th day of February, A. D. 1907.

body corporate by the name and style of the "Board of Trustees of the Franklinville Graded School District," and by that name may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire by gift, purchase or devise real and personal property, hold, exchange or sell the same, and exercise such other rights and privileges as appertain to corporations under the general law; and said corporation may have a corporate seal, which it may break and change at pleasure: Provided, that the office of trustee shall not constitute an office within the meaning of article seven, section fourteen, of the Constitution of this State.

Trustees to establish graded schools. Powers of trustees. Rules and regulations.

Sec. 5. That it shall be the duty of said board of trustees to establish and maintain in said district a system of public graded schools for the children resident therein between the ages of six and twenty-one years; and the board of trustees shall have full control of such schools, shall employ, fix the compensation of and dismiss all teachers and officers, and exercise all other powers which they may deem necessary for the proper and successful operation of said schools; that rules and regulations made by said board of trustees shall be as valid and binding, for the government of said schools, on the teachers, officers and pupils as are any of the provisions of this act.

Property vested in trustees. Further powers of trustees. Buildings and equipment.

Sec. 6. That all public school property, both real and personal, now belonging to the public school of District Number Three, white race, Franklinville Township, Randolph County, North Carolina, and the title thereto, shall be vested in said board of trustees. Said trustees may, in their discretion, sell the same or any part thereof, and apply the same to the use of said graded schools as in their judgment they may deem best; said trustees shall have the right to provide buildings and equipment for said schools in their discretion, and they are hereby empowered to pay for same out of any moneys that may come into their hands for the use of said schools.

School census.

Sec. 7. That said board of trustees shall cause to be taken, in the month of August of each year, an accurate census of the white children between the ages of six and twenty-one years residing in said district, as required by the general school law, and shall furnish a copy of said census for the county superintendent of said schools on or before the first Monday in September of each year; and the said board of trustees shall cause said census to be recorded in a book to be kept by them for that purpose, and shall deliver the same to the superintendent or principal at or before the opening of said schools each year.

Course of study and text-books. Tuition in higher grades. Non-resident pupils.

Sec. 8. That said board of trustees may from time to time fix the course of study and adopt text-books for said graded schools; and they may provide for further instruction other than that provided in the prescribed course, and fix a rate of tuition to be charged therefor, and admit pupils residing outside the district upon such terms as said board of trustees may prescribe.

Trustees to have powers of school committeemen.

Sec. 9. All powers conferred upon school committeemen under the general school laws of the State are hereby conferred upon said board of trustees, and said trustees shall be charged with all the duties and obligations imposed upon district school committeemen by the general school laws, and not inconsistent with this act.

Superintendent or principal.

Other teachers.

Reports.

Teachers' meetings.

Sec. 10. That said board of trustees shall elect annually, on the first Monday in April, or as soon thereafter as they may think best, a superintendent or principal for the said graded schools, whose duty it shall be to supervise the work of said graded schools, under the direction of the board of trustees, and exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by said board of trustees. It shall be his duty to examine and certificate all other teachers in said graded schools. Said superintendent or principal shall make reports for the said graded schools as required by the general school law. He shall hold teachers' meetings each week during the sessions of the graded school, for the benefit of the teachers, and he shall, at these meetings and at other times, advise with the teachers in said graded schools and assist them in planning their work in said schools.

Meeting of trustees.

Organization.

Rules and regulations.

Sec. 11. That the board of trustees provided for in section three of this act shall meet on the first Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and organize by electing a chairman, a secretary, a treasurer, a tax collector and such other officers as they shall deem necessary for the successful operation of said graded schools, and they shall, at that time or some other meeting called for the purpose, adopt rules and regulations for the government of said schools.

Treasurer.

Bond.

Duties.

Pay of treasurer.

Sec. 12. That the treasurer provided for in section eleven of this act shall receive and disburse all funds for the graded schools of Franklinville Graded School District; but before entering upon the duties of his office he shall execute a justified bond, with security, in an amount to be fixed by the board of trustees, not less than the amount of all school moneys to the credit of the district during the previous school year, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of the district school fund and for the payment over to his successor in office of any balance of school moneys that may be in his hands unexpended, said treasurer's bond to be approved by the board of trustees. The treasurer shall receive money only from the tax collector, and he shall pay out no money except upon an order of the board of trustees, signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary. The treasurer of the County Board of Education of Randolph County shall pay over to the treasurer of the Franklinville Graded School District all moneys coming into his hands for the said Franklinville Graded School District. The treasurer shall receive such compensation as the board of trustees shall allow, not to exceed one per centum of disbursements.

Special tax. Rate.

Sec. 13. That the County Commissioners of Randolph County shall, on the first Monday in June of each and every year, levy twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of property and seventy-five cents on each poll in the Franklinville Graded School District; and the clerk to the board of county commissioners shall, on or before the first Monday in September of each year, make out and transmit to the tax collector of said district a certified copy of the taxes for the current year, the name of said tax collector to be furnished to the clerk by the board of trustees not later than the first Monday in July of each year. It shall be the duty of the list-taker of Franklinville Township to list all property and polls in said Franklinville Graded School District at the time and after the same manner as other property or polls are listed for county and State taxes. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees to see that all property and polls in said district are listed, and to that end they shall furnish the list-taker and the board of county commissioners with a list of such property as shall not be listed by the list-taker at his usual appointment; and any person who willfully or carelessly fails to list his property or poll for said special school taxes in said district, shall be charged with double tax and subject to indictment under the general laws of the State.

Tax lists.

Trustees to revise list.

Double tax for failure to list.

Tax collector. Bond.

Sec. 14. The tax collector provided for in section eleven of this act shall be charged with the collection of all taxes levied for the graded schools in Franklinville Graded School District; but before he shall enter upon said duties he shall enter into a justified bond for the collection of and payment over to the treasurer of said taxes, in an amount equal to the amount of taxes listed for the current year, which bond shall not become void until said taxes are collected and paid over to the treasurer. The tax collector's bond shall be approved by the board of trustees, and any trustee who shall accept any other than a justified bond shall, by such acceptance, be held liable for his proportionate part of any losses by default of the tax collector; but when said tax collector shall have collected the taxes for which he shall be required to give bond in any year, and shall have paid them over to the treasurer, or when he shall resign and such resignation shall be accepted by the trustees, then the said bond shall be null and void.

Bond approved by trustees.

Officers to qualify.

Sec. 15. That all officers provided for in this act shall, before entering upon their respective duties, take the usual oath required to be taken by like officials under the general school law of the State, and they shall make such reports as are required of them by the general school law; and all reports made by such officers shall be made in the manner and form and at the time required by the general school law of the State.

Reports.

Compulsory attendance on schools.

Sec. 16. That upon petition of a majority of the qualified voters residing in said Franklinville Graded School District, the board of trustees provided for in section three of this act shall have the authority and be required to compel all children between the ages of eight and twelve years, and of sufficient mental and physical strength, to attend continuously the sessions of said graded schools: Provided, that attendance on any good private or public school may excuse such children as attend them, if the board of trustees shall have good and sufficient reason to believe that such attendance is in good faith, and not for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of this section.

Proviso: attendance on other schools.

Sec. 17. That the parent or guardian of any child between the ages of eight and twelve years, and which child shall not be excused from the requirements of this act, who shall fail to keep their said child or children in the said Franklinville Graded Schools or elsewhere, as provided by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of one dollar for the first offense and two dollars for each offense thereafter, or to be imprisoned not more than ten days. One day's absence without a valid excuse shall constitute an offense under this act. Teachers shall have the authority to excuse children who are known to be under the care of a physician on account of sickness, and the board of trustees shall have the authority to excuse any child whose reason for non-attendance is valid; but in no case shall a child be excused from attendance without a valid reason. All teachers and other officers having authority to excuse children from attendance shall submit a report of such, and the reason for each excuse, to the board of trustees at the end of each week during the session of the graded schools.

Failure of parent to enforce attendance of children a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

One day's absence an offense.

Teachers may excuse children.

Report of excuses.

Sec. 18. That any justice of the peace residing in said Franklinville Graded School District shall have jurisdiction over all cases arising from non-attendance of children as required by this act; and the said board of trustees may appoint a truant officer, who, when commissioned by the board of trustees, shall have the authority to arrest any one for the violation of the provisions of this act. Said truant officer shall be entitled to the same fees as a constable, and persons convicted under this act shall be taxed with the cost of such actions.

Jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

Truant officers.

Fees.

Sec. 19. That it shall be the duty of the teachers of said graded schools to report at the end of each week the names of the children who have failed to attend as required by this act; and it shall then be the duty of the chairman of the board of trustees, or some other person appointed by said board for that purpose, to prosecute all who have failed to send their child or children in accordance with the provisions of this act, unless such child or children shall have been excused.

Teachers to report absences.

ing, and when so excused the parent or guardian of such child or children shall not be subject to indictment under this act. The board of trustees may appropriate a sufficient amount to purchase books for children whose parents are too poor to provide them, and such books shall remain the property of the Franklinville Graded Schools.

Books furnished free.

Children to attend school.

Sec. 21. That any child in said district who is more than twelve and under twenty-one years of age, and of sufficient mental and physical strength, not regularly employed in some useful occupation, shall be required to attend the sessions of said graded schools, as required by section fifteen of this act; and upon failure so to do, or to work regularly at some useful occupation, shall be subject to indictment under this act, and for each and every offense shall pay a fine of five dollars, unless such child shall have completed the full course of study or its equivalent satisfactorily to the board of trustees, or been excused by the board of trustees for valid reasons.

Punishment for failure.

Sec. 22. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed so far as they apply to Franklinville Graded School District.

Sec. 23. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 189.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH GRADED SCHOOLS IN THE TOWN OF ROANOKE RAPIDS, IN HALIFAX COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That all territory lying within the corporate limits of the town of Roanoke Rapids, and all of that portion of Halifax County not embraced within said corporate limits but lying contiguous thereto, within the following boundaries, to-wit: Beginning at a point on Roanoke River, being the dividing line between the farms of the estate of M. A. Hamilton, deceased, and the late B. W. Bass tract; thence south to the canal of the Roanoke Navigation and Water-power Company; thence down the canal to Medlin and Fulghum's line; thence a straight line to the Weldon and Gaston County road; thence west along said county road to Tilghman's Cross Roads; thence along the southern fork of the county road to Chockoyotte Creek; thence up Chockoyotte Creek as it meanders to the dividing line between the J. C. Simmons' tract and John D. Shaw's line; thence along the western line of Boundaries of district.

the J. C. Simmons' tract to the northwestern corner of said tract, on the canal bank of the Roanoke Navigation and Water-power Company; thence from this last named point due north to the bank of the Roanoke River; thence down said river as it meanders to the point of beginning, shall be and is hereby constituted a public school district for white and colored children, to be known as the "Roanoke Rapids Graded School District."

District constituted.

Laws extended to district.

Sec. 2. That for the purposes and benefits of this act the provisions of all laws governing the assessment of real estate and personal property, the levy and collection of municipal taxes and the holding of municipal elections in the town of Roanoke Rapids shall be and are hereby extended to that portion of said school district lying without the corporate limits of said town as fully as if the same lay within said corporate limits; and that in all elections held under this act that portion of said school district lying without the said corporate limits shall be deemed a ward of said town.

Trustees to issue bonds.

Sec. 3. That the board of school trustees hereinafter provided for shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said school district to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars, of such denomination and of such proportion as said board of trustees may deem advisable, bearing interest from date thereof at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, with interest coupons attached, payable semi-annually, at such time and such place or places as may be deemed advisable by said board of trustees, said bonds to be of such form and tenor and transferable in such way [as said trustees may determine], and the principal thereof payable or redeemable as follows: Five hundred dollars ($500) on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, and five hundred annually thereafter till all are paid, at such place or places as said board of trustees may determine: Provided, that said board of trustees shall issue said bonds at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as may be required to meet the expenditure hereinafter provided for in section four of this act.

Amount.

Interest.

Maturity.

Proviso: bonds issued as required.

Application of proceeds.

Sec. 4. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended by said board of trustees in providing by purchase or otherwise such graded school buildings as may be required, and in furnishing the same with school furniture and other necessary equipment.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 5. That none of said bonds shall be disposed of by sale, exchange, hypothecation or otherwise for less price than their par value; nor shall said bonds nor their proceeds be used for any other purpose than that declared in section four of this act.

Exemption from town tax.

Sec. 6. That said bonds and their coupons shall not be subject to taxation by the town of Roanoke Rapids until they become due and tender of payment shall have been made, and such coupons shall be receivable in payment of all taxes and other dues of said town for any fiscal year in which said coupons become due, or thereafter; and if the holder of said coupons shall fail to present the same for payment at the time or times and at the place or places therein named, he shall not be entitled to interest thereon for the time they shall have been outstanding after maturity. Coupons receivable for town taxes.

Sec. 7. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, and of defraying the expenses of the public graded schools provided for in this act, the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Roanoke Rapids shall annually, and at the time of levying the municipal taxes, or as soon thereafter as practicable, commencing with the fiscal year beginning the first of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, levy and lay a particular tax on all persons and subjects of taxation within the limit of said school district on which said board of commissioners may now or hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purpose whatsoever; said particular tax to be not more than thirty-three and one-third cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on property and not more than one dollar on each taxable poll. Tax for bonds, interest and schools. Limit.

Sec. 8. That said taxes shall be collected by the Tax Collector of the Town of Roanoke Rapids at the time and in the manner that municipal taxes are collected, and said tax collector shall pay the same over to the treasurer of said town, who shall keep such moneys separate and apart from the municipal funds. And said treasurer shall pay out said taxes, and other funds which may come into his hands for the use of said graded schools, only upon the warrant of the chairman and secretary of the board of trustees: Provided, that said tax collector and said treasurer shall enter into bond in such amounts as the said board of trustees may direct, the former conditioned for faithful collection and paying over and the latter for the safe-keeping and proper distribution of said taxes and other funds that may come into the hands of either for the use and benefit of said graded school, the compensation to be fixed by the said board of trustees. Collection of taxes. School warrants. Proviso: bonds of tax collector and treasurer.

Sec. 9. That the provisions of sections three and seven of this act shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of said school district at an election on a day to be designated by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Roanoke Rapids, at any time after the ratification of this act; that thirty days' notice of such election, containing a copy of the provisions of sections three and seven of this act, or a synopsis of the same, shall be published in one or more weekly papers published in the county of Halifax and posted at three public places in said school district, as described in section one; and in all other respects said election shall be held and conducted under the provisions of the Election on bonds and tax. Notice of election.

law governing the holding of municipal elections in said town. Those qualified voters approving the issue of bonds provided for in section three and the levy and collection of the particular taxes provided for in section seven of this act shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "For Schools," and those disapproving the same shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "Against Schools." If a majority of such voters shall vote "For Schools," it shall be deemed and held that a majority of the qualified voters of said school district are in favor of granting to the aforesaid board of school trustees authority to issue such bonds and to the board of commissioners of said town authority to levy such particular tax, and said board of trustees and said board of commissioners shall have such authority. But if a majority of such qualified voters shall vote "Against Schools," then the said board of school trustees and said board of commissioners shall not have such authority: Provided, that the result of such election, duly ascertained in accordance with law, shall be enrolled among the public records of the town of Roanoke Rapids; and after thirty days from the date of such enrollment such record shall not be open to attack, but shall be held and deemed conclusive evidence of the truth of the facts therein recited: Provided further, that if a majority of the said qualified voters shall fail to vote in favor of issuing such bonds and of levying such special tax, the board of commissioners of said town of Roanoke Rapids shall order another election, at any time after the expiration of six months from the date of the former election; and if at such election a majority of the qualified voters shall vote "For Schools," it shall have the same force and effect as if no election had been previously held.

Form of ballots.

Effect of election.

Proviso: record of result.

Proviso: successive elections.

Trustees appointed.

Sec. 10. H. C. Cooper, S. B. Pierce, A. C. Hoyt, J. E. Wicker, William Ivey, L. S. Cannon, John L. Patterson, R. W. Brown and W. C. Edwards are hereby appointed and constituted a board of trustees for the graded schools of said district, who shall serve without compensation. The first three named shall hold their offices for the term of two years, the second three named for the term of four years, and the last three named for the term of six years. Vacancies occurring by reason of the expiration of the terms of office of the trustees aforesaid, by death or otherwise, shall be filled by the said board of trustees at a meeting called for that purpose, and shall be for the unexpired term of the trusteeships so filled, except when the vacancy occurs by reason of the expiration of the terms of office, when the term shall be for six years. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum: Provided, that the acceptance of said office of school trustee shall not disqualify any person so accepting from holding any other office of trust or profit whatsoever under the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Terms of office.

Vacancies.

Quorum.

Proviso: trustees not officers.

Sec. 11. That said board of trustees and their successors shall be and are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name and style of "The Board of School Trustees of Roanoke Rapids," and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, acquire by gift, purchase or devise real and personal estate, hold, exchange, mortgage or sell the same, and exercise such other rights and privileges as are incident to other corporations. And said corporation shall have a corporate seal, which it may break and change at pleasure. Trustees incorporated. Corporate name. Corporate rights.

Sec. 12. That it shall be the duty of said board of trustees to establish graded public schools for the white and colored children of said district: And said board of trustees shall appropriate and use the funds derived from said particular taxes and from other sources in such manner as shall be deemed just to both races, providing equal school facilities for each, due regard being paid, however, to the difference in the cost of maintaining said schools: Provided, that all donations to said schools shall be applied as directed by the donors. Graded schools to be established. Division of funds. Proviso: donations.

Sec. 13. That said board of trustees shall have exclusive control of all public schools in said school district; shall prescribe rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, for their own government and for the government of such schools; shall employ, prescribe the qualifications and fix the compensation of all officers and teachers of such schools; shall cause to be taken from time to time, in accordance with the general school law of the State, an accurate census of the school population of the said school district, and shall exercise such other powers as may be necessary for the successful control and operation of said graded schools: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be held to authorize the County Board of School Directors or the County Superintendent of Schools of Halifax County to exercise any authority or control whatever over the graded public schools of said school district or the officers and teachers thereof: Provided, that the schools established under this act shall be subject in all respects to the public school law regulating other public schools of Halifax County and of the State. Powers of trustees. School census. Proviso: county board of directors and county superintendent. Proviso: schools subject to general law.

Sec. 14. That all public school funds derived from the State and from the county of Halifax for the use and benefit of the public schools in said school district shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Town of Roanoke Rapids by the treasurer of said county for the use and benefit of the graded schools in said school district; and the property, both real and personal, of the various school districts embraced within the limits of said school district shall become the property of said graded schools, and the title thereto shall be vested in said board of trustees in trust therefor, and said board of trustees may, in their discretion, sell the same or any part thereof and apply the proceeds to the use of the said graded schools. Apportionment from general school funds. Title to school property vested in trustees.

Incidental fees.

Sec. 15. That said board of trustees may, if in their judgment necessary for the maintenance of said graded schools, require from each pupil entered therein an incidental fee of not more than two dollars per annum, payable as said board of trustees may direct: Provided, that such fee shall be applied exclusively to the maintenance of such grade in such schools as the pupil paying shall attend.

Proviso: application of fees.

Superintendent.

Sec. 16. That said board of trustees shall elect annually, at least thirty days before the opening of the fall term of said graded school, a superintendent, who shall supervise the graded public schools of said school district, and exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as said board of trustees may prescribe.

Curriculum and text-books.

Sec. 17. That said board of school trustees, together with the superintendent, are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to fix a curriculum of studies, and to adopt text-books for said graded schools, and to admit pupils residing without the limits of said school district upon such terms as said board of trustees may deem just and reasonable.

Reports.

Sec. 18. That it shall be the duty of said board of trustees to make to the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the Town of Roanoke Rapids annually, after the close of each school year, a full report of the operations of the graded public schools of said school district, and duplicate copies of said report shall be furnished to the County Superintendent of Schools of Halifax County.

Apportionment of funds.

Sec. 19. That the County Board of School Directors of Halifax County shall apportion the school funds coming to said school district direct thereto upon a per capita basis, in accordance with the provisions of section seventeen, chapter seven hundred and thirty-two, of the Public Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

Fines and penalties to use of school.

Sec. 20. That all fines and penalties imposed and collected in the court of the Mayor of the Town of Roanoke Rapids shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Town of Roanoke Rapids and by him credited to the fund for defraying the expenses of the graded schools provided in this act.

Sec. 21. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 22. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 26th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE REMOVAL OF CERTAIN BODIES FROM GRAVES AND THE RE-INTERMENT IN THE CEMETERY IN THE TOWN OF YADKINVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Removal of bodies authorized.

Section 1. That it shall be lawful for J. L. Sampson and F. R. Douthit, after due notice as hereinafter prescribed, at their own proper cost and expense, to remove the bodies of the persons buried on their respective lots in the town of Yadkinville, North Carolina: Provided, the said bodies are properly and decently re-interred in the Mackie Grave-yard, which is now being used as the cemetery for the whites in said town, and the tombstones and head-marks to said graves are likewise removed and erected in due order at the place where such bodies are re-interred.

Proviso: bodies to be re-interred.

Notice of removal.

Sec. 2. That the persons named in the preceding section shall not be entitled to exercise the powers therein conferred until such time as due notice of their intention so to do has been inserted for four (4) successive weeks in some newspaper published in the said town of Yadkinville, and in no event shall the removal of such bodies be made without the assent of the board of commissioners of said town first had and obtained, to be entered and spread upon the minutes of said board at a regular meeting thereof.

Assent of town commissioners.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

corporate limits of the town; and shall have full power and authority to condemn and appropriate any lands or land necessary for any of the purposes named in this section, upon making a reasonable compensation to the owner or owners thereof; but in case the owner of said land sought to be condemned or appropriated for the public use by the board of aldermen and the said board cannot agree as to the compensation, then the matter shall be referred to arbitration, each party choosing one, who shall be a freeholder and citizen of the town; and in case the owner of the land refuses to choose such arbitrator, then the mayor shall, in his stead, choose one for him; and in case the two chosen as aforesaid cannot agree, they shall select an umpire, whose duty it shall be to examine the land sought to be condemned and ascertain the damages that will be sustained by and the benefits accruing to the owner in consequence of the change, and the award of the arbitrators shall be conclusive of the rights of the parties and shall vest in the board of aldermen the right to use the land for the purposes for which it is condemned; and all damages agreed upon between the owner of the land and the board of aldermen, or awarded by the arbitrators, shall be paid, as other town liabilities, by taxation: Provided, that either party may appeal to the Superior Court from the decision of said arbitrators, as is now provided by law. Appeal.

Sec. 14. That the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Garner shall have power, not oftener than annually, to impose, levy and collect a tax upon all real and personal property within the corporate limits of the said town, and also upon all money on hand, solvent credits, and upon all polls and upon all other subjects of taxation taxed by the General Assembly for public purposes, not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars' worth of property and one dollar and fifty cents on the poll. Powers as to taxes.

Sec. 15. That in addition to the subjects for taxation for State purposes the board of aldermen shall have power to levy and collect a specific or license tax on the following subjects, to-wit: All itinerant merchants, peddlers or auctioneers who shall sell or offer to sell at public or private auction within the town limits, whether by ascending or descending bids; each express company, each telegraph company office and each railroad company having a depot within the corporate limits of the town; each itinerant photograph artist, or person taking likenesses of the human face; each broker or banker's office; each sewing machine company or agent; each life or fire insurance agent; all commission merchants and commercial brokers; each livery stable; every huckster or trader who buys produce on the streets for sale in the markets; each dray, butcher and each barber: Provided, the foregoing section shall not be construed to prohibit farmers from selling poultry, meat, eggs and other farm products of their own production. Specific or license taxes.

Sec. 16. That the board of aldermen shall have power to declare all horses, sheep, hogs, jacks, jennies, goats and dogs running at large within the corporate limits of the town a nuisance; and the said board may at their option impose a fine upon the owners of said animals running at large or may treat the same as a nuisance and have it abated totally: Provided, that this section shall not apply to dogs whose owners have paid such tax as may Animals running at large. Proviso: dogs.

be imposed on them and have otherwise complied with the ordinances in regard thereto.

Impounding and sale of animals.

Sec. 17. That the board of aldermen are empowered to make such rules and regulations as they may deem best for the impounding and sale of the animals mentioned in section sixteen of this act found running at large in the streets contrary to the ordinances of the town: Provided, that no animal shall be sold without first being advertised for five days at the door of the mayor's office and two other public places in the said town; all strays to be taken and duly advertised to be sold at public auction at the door of the mayor's office; the proceeds to be applied, first, to the payment of the fine and keeping, advertising and selling said animal: the balance, if any, to be paid to the owner of said animal, if known; if the owner be not known, and no claim for the same be set up and established to the satisfaction of the mayor within thirty days after said sale, the money to be turned over to the treasurer of the town for the benefit of the same; and the mayor is hereby empowered to make title to all such strays, after having fulfilled the requirements of this section.

Proviso: advertisement.

Application of proceeds.

Tax on circus, shows or exhibitions.

Sec. 18. That the board of aldermen shall have power and authority to levy and collect a special tax, not exceeding fifty dollars, upon every circus company for each separate exhibition within the town; upon every person or company exhibiting within the town limits, dogs or theatrical plays, sleight-of-hand performance, rope or wire dancing or tumbling, and menageries, and the exhibition for reward of artificial models or curiosities (models of useful inventions excepted), a tax not to exceed fifteen dollars for each separate exhibition, said tax to be paid before the exhibition, or the same may be doubled; upon any other exhibition for reward not enumerated above, five dollars for each exhibition: Provided, that this act shall not apply to exhibitions by amateur companies when said exhibition is for a religious or charitable object: Provided further, that the tax collector, in case of a failure on the part of any of the exhibitors above specified to pay said tax before exhibiting, shall, immediately after the exhibition closes, demand from said exhibitors, the manager or treasurer, if he or she be known or can be found, if not, any member of the company, double the amount of the tax; and if it be not paid, he shall immediately levy upon any of the goods or property belonging to said company or any of them, or which was used in the exhibition or exhibitions given by them.

Proviso: amateur exhibitions for charity.

Proviso: duties of tax collector.

Dealers in meat.

Sec. 19. That the board of aldermen shall have power and authority to levy and collect a special license tax on every person who sells, either on the streets, from wagons or from houses, as a business, any fresh meat for consumption in the town: Provided, that this shall not apply to any merchant who pays his regular tax and who purchases said meat in the course of his regular business.

Proviso: regular merchants excepted.

Sec. 20. That the mayor shall keep his office in some convenient part of the town, designated by the board of aldermen. He shall keep the seal of the corporation and shall perform such duties as shall from time to time be prescribed. When present he shall preside at all meetings of the board of aldermen, and when there is an equal division on any question or any election of any officers by the board, he shall determine the matter by his vote, and shall vote in no other case. He shall receive such compensation and fees as may be allowed him by the board of aldermen and as provided for in the general laws, not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five dollars annually. Office of mayor. Duties. Compensation and fees.

Sec. 21. That the board of aldermen shall form one board, and three of them shall constitute a quorum, and a majority of those present shall be competent to perform all duties prescribed for the board, unless otherwise provided. Within five days after the election they shall convene for the transaction of business, and shall then fix their days for meeting for the year, which shall be as often at least as once in every calendar month. Special meetings of the board may also be held on the call of the mayor or two of the members of the board; and when called by the mayor all members of the board shall be notified in writing; when called by any members of the board the mayor and such other of the members of the board as shall not join in the call shall be notified in writing. Quorum of aldermen. Meetings.

Sec. 22. That if the mayor or any member of the board shall fail to attend a general meeting of the board of aldermen or any special meeting of which he shall have notice as prescribed in this act, unless prevented by sickness of himself or family, or absence from the town on necessary business, he shall forfeit and pay for the use of the town the sum of one dollar. Forfeit for failure to attend meetings.

Sec. 23. That the board of aldermen when convened shall have power to make, and provide for the execution thereof, such ordinances, by-laws, rules and regulations for the better government of the town as they may deem necessary: Provided, that the same be consistent with this act and the law of the land. Ordinances, by-laws, rules and regulations. Proviso: consistent with law.

Sec. 24. All ordinances passed by the board shall be entered on the minutes of the meeting at which they were passed, and also recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall set forth the date of the passage thereof; and all ordinances so passed shall be in force after the same shall have been posted at the door of the mayor's office and two other public places in said town for five days. Ordinances recorded and posted.

Sec. 25. All moneys arising from taxation, donation or other sources shall be paid to the treasurer of the said town, and no appropriation thereof shall be made except for the necessary expenses of the town, and by a concurring vote of at least three of the members of the board; and no account shall be valid Appropriations of money. Approval and payment of accounts.

against the said town unless the same has been contracted by the board of aldermen by a majority vote at a regular meeting, and no account shall be paid by the treasurer until the same has been presented to the board at a regular meeting and ordered to be paid by a majority vote, and entered on a book to be kept for that purpose and to be known as the "Record of Accounts," except as hereinafter provided.

Quarantine powers.

Sec. 26. That the board of aldermen may take such measures as they may deem fit to prevent the entrance into the town or the spreading therein of any contagious or infectious disease; may stop, detain and examine for that purpose all things and persons coming from places believed to be infected with such disease; may cause any person in the town believed to be infected with such disease, and whose stay may endanger the public health, to be removed to some place within or without the town limits; may cause to be disinfected or destroyed such furniture or other articles which shall be believed to be tainted or infected with such contagious or infectious disease, or which there shall be reasonable cause to apprehend will generate or propagate disease, and may take all other reasonable steps to preserve the public health, and for this purpose may use any money in the treasury.

Duties of constable.

Sec. 27. That it shall be the duty of the constable elected by the board of aldermen to see that the laws, ordinances and the orders of the mayor and board are enforced, and report all breaches thereof to the mayor; to preserve the peace of the town, sheriff or constables of the county have; and he shall have the same fees on all process and precepts executed and returned by him which may be allowed to the sheriff on like process and precept, and also such other compensation as the board may allow:

Proviso: to be of full age.

Provided, that no person under twenty-one years of age be appointed constable.

Bonds of officers.

Sec. 28. That the board of aldermen shall have the power to designate such of the officers elected by them as shall give bonds, which bonds shall be with security, to be approved by the board, in a penal sum to be fixed by the board, payable to the State of North Carolina, with conditions for the faithful performance of the duties of the office held by said officer.

Powers and duties of tax collector.

Sec. 29. That any tax collector elected for the town of Garner shall have the same power and be subject to the same penalties in collecting the taxes levied by the town as the sheriffs of the State in the collection of the taxes by them.

Sec. 30. The said treasurer of the board of aldermen shall, within three days of the first of each and every month, make a complete report, under oath, of all moneys had and received by him, from what source derived and to whom paid, giving the name of each person from whom money was received and to whom it has been paid and for what purpose, specifically setting out each item, both of receipts and disbursements, had by him during the preceding month; and if the said treasurer shall fail and refuse to make such report for two consecutive months, he shall thereby forfeit his office and be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished in the discretion of the court, and it will be the duty of the said board of aldermen to immediately appoint his successor. Reports of treasurer. Failure to report a misdemeanor. Punishment.

Sec. 31. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act or any of its provisions are hereby repealed.

Sec. 32. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D. 1907.

Form of ballots.

Sec. 3. That at the election held under the provision of this act those favoring the levying and collecting of such tax shall vote a written or printed ballot, without device, with the words "For Schools" upon it, and those opposed to the levying and collecting of such tax shall vote a printed or written ballot, without device, with the words "Against Schools" upon it. The penalty for illegal or fraudulent voting shall be the same as in the election of members of the General Assembly. The board of commissioners shall give twenty days' notice of the time of holding said election, by causing the same to be published in a newspaper published in Bertie County, and by posting said notice at three public places in said district. The board of commissioners of said county shall appoint a registrar of the voters of said district, who shall be a qualified voter of said district, and who shall make an entirely new registration of such voters; and the said board of commissioners shall appoint two judges of election, who shall be qualified voters of said district; and they, together with said

Proviso: limit on tax rate.

Proviso: tax only levied when necessary.

Sec. 5. That thirty-seven and a half per cent. of the net profits of the Windsor dispensary shall be paid to the treasurer elected by the board of trustees of said graded school district as hereinafter provided for.

Profits of dispensary.

Sec. 6. That the special taxes levied and collected under this act and said thirty-seven and a half per cent. of the net profits of said dispensary shall, together with any funds received from other sources, be expended in keeping up separate schools for the white and colored children in said districts, between the ages of six and twenty-one years, in such manner as may be deemed just to both races, providing equal school facilities for each, due regard being paid, however, to the difference in the cost of maintaining said schools.

Funds for graded schools.

Sec. 7. That the board of graded school trustees hereinafter provided for shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said graded schools to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars, of such denomination and of such propor-of trustees may determine: Provided, that said board of trustees shall issue bonds at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as may be required to meet the expenditures hereinafter provided for in section eight of this act.

Application of proceeds of bonds.

Sec. 8. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended by said board of graded school trustees in providing by purchase or otherwise such graded school buildings as may be required and in furnishing the same with school furniture and other necessary equipment.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 9. That none of said bonds shall be disposed of by sale, exchange, hypothecation or otherwise for less prices than their par value; nor shall said bonds nor their proceeds be used for any other purpose than that declared in section eight of this act.

Payment of bonds and interest.

Sec. 10. That the interest on said bonds and the bonds themselves shall be paid from the funds and taxes levied for said school district, and from the thirty-seven and one-half per cent. of the net profits of said dispensary hereinbefore provided in this act.

Trustees named.

Sec. 11. That A. S. Rascoe, George L. Mardre, J. B. Stokes, for two years; W. L. Lyon, M. B. Gillam, E. L. Gatling, for four years; S. W. Kenney, Thomas Gilliam and J. H. Matthews, for six years, shall be and are hereby constituted a board of trustees

Duties of trustees.

Sec. 13. That it shall be the duty of said board of graded school trustees to establish graded public schools for the white and colored children of said graded school district in accordance with the provision of this act; and said board of school trustees shall have exclusive control of all public schools in said district, free from the supervision and control of the county board of education, and shall prescribe the qualifications, employ and fix the compensation of all officers and teachers of such schools; shall prescribe rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, for their own government of such schools; shall cause to be taken from time to time, in accordance with the general school law of this State, an accurate census of the school population of said school district, and shall exercise such other powers as may be necessary for the successful control and operation of said graded schools: Provided, that the County Board of Education of Bertie County, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, shall exercise over the public schools in said district all such powers as have heretofore been exercised by said board of education over the public schools in said county: Provided further, that on the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the said county board of education shall turn over to said board of graded school trustees all public school property in said graded school district. And the treasurer of Bertie County school funds shall, on said thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, pay to the treasurer of said board of graded school trustees all funds in his hands belonging to the public schools in said graded school district.

for the said graded schools in said district; and said board of graded school trustees may, in their discretion, sell the same or any part thereof and make title to the purchaser, and apply the proceeds to the use of the public graded schools to be established in said graded school district.

Superintendent.

Sec. 15. That said board of graded school trustees shall elect annually, at least thirty days before the opening of the fall term of said graded schools, a superintendent, who shall supervise the graded schools of said graded school district, and exercise such powers and discharge such duties as said board of trustees may prescribe.

Curriculum and text-books.

Sec. 16. That said board of graded school trustees are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to fix a curriculum of studies, and to adopt text-books for said graded schools as provided by the general school law; to provide for instruction other than that included in the prescribed course, and to admit pupils residing without the limits of said graded school district, upon such terms as said board of trustees may deem just and reasonable.

Non-resident pupils.

Reports.

Sec. 17. That it shall be the duty of said board of graded school trustees to make to the County Superintendent of Bertie County annually, after the close of each school year, a full report of the operations of the public graded schools of said graded school district.

Sec. 18. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 19. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF TARBORO TO ISSUE BONDS TO IMPROVE ITS STREETS, AFTER FIRST SUBMITTING THE QUESTION OF THE BOND ISSUE TO THE PEOPLE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Streets to be improved.

Section 1. That, whereas the town of Tarboro, Edgecombe County, has resolved to improve that portion of its Main Street and sidewalks embraced within the following boundaries, viz.: Beginning at a point on the north side of Church Street where Church and Main Streets intersect, and moving south down Main Street the distance of four blocks, according to the map and plot of said town, to the foot of the Tar River bridge; and the board of commissioners of said town desire to issue bonds for the purpose of raising a fund wherewith to pay off and discharge such indebtedness as it shall of necessity incur in undertaking and beginning and completing said work; the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the said Town of Tarboro are hereby fully empowered and authorized to issue coupon bonds to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars for the purpose of paving and otherwise improving said street and sidewalks between the points and distances hereinbefore designated and pointed out; said bonds to bear interest at a rate not to exceed six (6) per cent. per annum, the interest to be payable semi-annually, upon such dates as the mayor and board of commissioners of said town may determine. The principal and interest of said bonds shall be payable in current funds of the United States Government, and at such places as the said board may direct. The said bonds shall be issued in denominations of one thousand dollars each. Said bonds and their coupons shall be numbered, and the bonds signed by the mayor of said town and countersigned by the town clerk, and the corporate seal of the said town shall be affixed, and the coupons shall bear the lithographed fac-simile signature of the mayor. Said bonds shall be sold under such regulations as the board of commissioners may direct, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than par; and the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the payment and discharge of such indebtedness as may be created by the paving, macadamizing or otherwise improving said street and sidewalks of said town within the bounds and limits as aforesaid.

Bonds to be sold not below par.

Application of proceeds.

Sec. 2. The principal of all of said bonds shall be due and payable as follows: One thousand dollars on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and one thousand dollars on the first day of each succeeding January thereafter, until the full quota (twenty-five thousand dollars) of the bond issue is consumed and paid off; said bonds becoming due and payable in the order of their numbers.

Maturity.

Sec. 3. The coupons of said bonds shall be receivable for all taxes due or to be levied by said board of commissioners of the said town of Tarboro, or by its successors in office, and the interest on said bonds shall be payable out of the ordinary revenues and taxes of the said town, if said revenues are sufficient, after paying the current necessary expenses of each year.

Coupons receivable for town taxes.

Sec. 4. To further provide for the payment of the interest upon the said bonds and the principal as they may mature, the said board of commissioners or its successors shall, in the event that it becomes necessary, levy an annual special tax on the polls, personal and real property, and other subjects of taxation in the said town, of not less than five nor more than twenty cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on property and not less Notice.

Polling places.

Form of ballots.

Sec. 5. That before any of the bonds hereinbefore provided for shall be issued the question of issuing same shall first be submitted to the qualified voters of said town, after thirty days' notice in some newspaper published in said town, at an election to be held under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed by law for elections of mayor and board of commissioners of said town, save and except that for the purposes of the election herein provided for there shall be only two polling places in said town, viz.: At the town hall and the county court-house. The qualified voters residents of wards numbers one, three and five of said town shall be required to attend the polling place located at the town hall, and those qualified voters residents of wards numbers two, four and six of said town shall be required to attend the polling place located at the county court-house. Such notice herein provided for shall set forth the object for which said bonds are to be issued, the amount of same, the rate of interest, the time when they mature, and the rate of tax to be levied and collected to pay the same. Those qualified voters approving the issue of such bonds and levying and collecting the taxes to pay the same shall deposit a ballot in a separate ballot-box with the words "For Bond Issue" thereon; those disapproving the same shall deposit a like ballot with the words "Against Bond Issue" thereon. If at such election a majority of the qualified voters shall vote for bond issue, the board of commissioners of the town shall issue the bonds provided for in such notice, and may levy and order the collection of the taxes therein named and authorized by this act.

Street improvements, if bonds are voted.

Sec. 6. That in the event a majority of the qualified voters of said town as aforesaid, at the election held for the purpose, cast their ballots for said bond issue, and the same is duly ordered by the board of commissioners of said town, then the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro as aforesaid, out of funds available from the sale of bonds under and by virtue of section one of this act, shall have full power and authority to grade, pave, macadamize and otherwise improve for travel and drainage that portion of Main Street of said town embraced within the bounds and limits hereinbefore defined, and to construct sidewalks and pave the same, and put down crossings, curbings and cross drains, and otherwise properly improve those portions of Main Street and its sidewalks as are embraced within the bounds and limits hereinbefore defined.

Cost of sidewalks assessed on property.

Sec. 7. In order to more effectually carry out the authority existing and by this act delegated, to improve those portions of the street and sidewalks hereinbefore defined of said town, the said mayor and board of commissioners shall have the right to assess the entire cost of grading, paving and otherwise improving the sidewalks, including the cost of all necessary curbing for same, on Main Street of said town, on the real estate abutting on the streets and on the side of the street on which the sidewalk is so improved, and each lot shall be charged with its ratable proportion of said assessment according to its frontage.

Assessment a lien on lots.

Sec. 8. The amount of the assessment for such improvement of sidewalks and curbing as authorized in the preceding section of this act on each piece of real estate or lot shall be a lien on such real estate, and the amount of said lien and of said assessment against all property abutting on said street or streets as aforesaid shall become due and payable as follows, to-wit: In three equal installments, payable three, six and nine months from the date of the assessment, and in case of failure to pay either of said installments within thirty days after its maturity, then all shall become due at once and enforceable against the property on which a lien is authorized, at the instance of the town of Tarboro by suit instituted in the Superior Court of Edgecombe County; and in his answer to the action so instituted the owner shall have the right to deny the whole or any part of the amount claimed to be due by the town and to plead any fact relied upon to question the legality of the assessment, and the issues raised shall be tried and the cause in other respects disposed of according to law and the practice of the court.

Payment of assessments.

Payment enforced.

Bonds exempt from town tax.

Sec. 9. That no bonds or bond issued under and by virtue of this act shall be subject to taxation by the municipality for municipal purposes.

Sec. 10. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 201.

AN ACT TO LEGALIZE THE MARRIAGE OF WILLIAM SAUNOOK AND MINNIE SAUNOOK, NEE MINNIE BRADLEY.

Preamble.

Whereas, on the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, William Saunook, a Cherokee Indian, and Minnie Bradley, a woman of mixed white and Cherokee blood, were married in the State of Tennessee, in the county of Sevier; and whereas, doubt exists as to the legality of said marriage in the State of North Carolina, where the said William Saunook and Minnie Saunook now reside, they being members of the eastern band of Cherokee Indians: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Marriage legalized.

Section 1. That the marriage of William Saunook and Minnie Saunook, nee Minnie Bradley, be and the same is hereby legalized and made valid in every respect.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 202.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 472, PUBLIC LAWS OF 1899.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter four hundred and seventy-two of the Public Laws of one thousand eight hundred and nine-nine be amended by repealing section seven thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: The county board of education shall, on the first Monday in July, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter, appoint three intelligent men of good moral character and business qualifications of said district, and who are known to be in favor of public education, who shall serve for two years from the date of their appointment as school committeemen in said district, and until their successors are elected and duly qualified.

Appointment of school committee.

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 27th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 203.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE AMERICAN-JAPANESE COMPANY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That F. L. Fuller, Jones Fuller and John F. Wily and their associates and successors be and they are hereby declared a body politic and corporate under the name of American-Japanese Company, and by that name may sue and be sued, have perpetual succession, make any and all kinds of contracts, have and use a common seal and the same alter at pleasure; receive, purchase, hold, improve, mortgage, convey, transfer and sell all kinds of property, both real and personal, goods, wares and merchandise; make and establish all such by-laws and regulations as shall be found meet and expedient for the government of the said corporation and the management of its business and property, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the State of North Carolina or the United States, and do all lawful acts and things and exercise all lawful franchises, rights, powers and privileges incident to corporations under the laws of this State. Corporators. Corporate name. Corporate powers.

Sec. 2. The principal office of the said corporation shall be in the city of Durham, North Carolina, with such other places of business and branch offices in said State, and in any other State or States or foreign country, as the board of directors of said company may deem necessary. Principal office. Branch offices.

Sec. 3. That the objects for which said company is formed are to build and maintain a dam or dams across any river or other stream in the State of North Carolina, at any place or places in said State or in other States, for the purpose of utilizing the water power thereof; and to build, maintain and operate electric and other power plants, bridges and ferries, cotton mills, cotton gins, paper mills, pulp mills and all other kinds of mills or factories; canals, aqueducts, water-ways, waste-ways, wells and reservoirs needful for the mills, factories and other places of business; to make and sell power, light, heat, gas, electricity, and goods and products of every kind and material; also to establish settlements or towns, and to supply to the public, including individuals and corporations, in towns thus established or in other municipalities within the State of North Carolina or elsewhere, water for domestic or manufacturing purposes, power in the form of electrical current, pneumatic or steam pressure or any of the said forms, or in any or all other forms for use in driving machinery and for light, heat or other uses for which the power so applied can be made applicable, and to fix, charge, collect and receive payment therefor; and for the purpose of enabling the company to supply power as aforesaid, the company is authorized and em- Objects of company.

powered to buy or otherwise acquire, generate, develop, use, transmit and distribute power of all kinds, and to locate, acquire, construct, equip, maintain and operate from any place or places in the State where the said company may establish plants to any distributing points in the State where they may elect, and from the same to any other points, by the most practicable routes, to be determined by the board of directors of the company, lines for the transmission of power by wire, on poles or underground, by cables, pipes, tubes, conduits and all other convenient appliances for power transmission, with such connecting lines between the lines above mentioned, and also with such branch lines as the directors of the company may locate or authorize to be located for receiving, transmitting and distributing power; and as appurtenances to the said lines of power transmission and their branches the company may acquire, own, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of water powers and water privileges in the State of North Carolina and elsewhere, and may locate, acquire, construct, equip, maintain and operate all necessary plants for generating and developing by water, steam or any other means, and for storing, using, transmitting, distributing, selling and delivering power, including dams, reservoirs, gates, bridges, tunnels, stations and other buildings, boilers, engines, machinery, switches, lamps, motors and all other works, structures and appliances, in the State of North Carolina; and also the power to build, own, control and operate electric railway lines for the transportation of freight and passengers, and to charge, collect and receive tolls therefor; and may own, rent, lease or sell power for any other uses to which electricity, steam or water power can be applied; and the said corporation, for the purpose of acquiring lands or water rights which would be damaged by reason of the erection of a dam or dams as aforesaid, and for the various other purposes set forth in these articles of incorporation, shall have power to condemn land, water rights or any easement or interest therein; and the proceedings for the condemnation of such lands, water rights or any easement of interest therein shall either be as prescribed in chapter sixty-one, volume one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, and the laws amendatory thereof, or the said corporation may file a petition before the clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the land or water rights lie, specifying the objects for which the land or water rights are desired, with a description thereof. The clerk of the Superior Court shall thereupon issue a summons or notice to the owner of said land or water rights, returnable to a day certain, and after ten days' notice and after a hearing, shall make an order appointing three disinterested and competent freeholders of said county, who shall be summoned by the sheriff to meet on the premises at a time not more than ten days after the appointment, and, after being duly sworn, assess the damage of the land, water rights or other easement or interest therein desired. In assessing the damages the jurors or appraisers shall take into consideration the actual value of the land, water rights or other interests desired, together with any special damages likely to accrue to the owner, and likewise shall consider any special benefits thereto. If the petition shall pray for a condemnation of the right-of-way only the consideration or damages allowed shall be for the said easement only, but if for lands or water rights the consideration or damages shall be for the fee. The appraisers shall make their report to the clerk of the Superior Court within ten days from the time of their meeting on the premises; said report shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds, after approval by the clerk and payment of damages assessed, and shall have the force and effect of a deed. Either party may appeal to the Superior Court in term-time from the approval or disapproval of the clerk, which appeal must be prayed within ten days of the approval or disapproval of the clerk: Provided, that lines and appurtenances hereinbefore authorized for distributing power and light are to be constructed, when on public streets or highways of any county, city or town, under such reasonable regulations as the authorities respectively thereof shall, upon application from the company, prescribe.

Appeal.

Proviso: lines on streets and highways.

Sec. 4. That said corporation shall likewise have the right, power and authority to lay out, build, construct, maintain and equip with suitable rolling or other stock and operate such roads, whether electric railway, plank or turnpike, and to erect, establish, maintain and operate such telegraph and telephone lines and apparatus as may be necessary; and shall likewise have the right, power and franchise to charge such tolls, fares, fees and compensation as is reasonable for the use, service or travel over such roads, turnpikes, bridges, canals, telegraph or telephone lines as it may erect, construct and operate.

Electric railway, plank or turnpike roads.

Sec. 5. That said corporation is also authorized and empowered to lease or deal in or otherwise acquire lands, tenements, hereditaments and all other manner of real and personal property, including cotton mills, factories, office buildings, houses, water powers, mineral rights, roads, bridges, electric railways and all kinds of real property or personal property whatsoever, to such an extent as may seem proper, and as fully as citizens of the State may do, and may sell and convey or lease the same to other persons or corporations; and said corporation is authorized to pay for such real estate or other property as it may purchase or acquire by issuing bonds and executing mortgages to secure the payment thereof.

Power to deal in real and personal property.

Sec. 10. That the said corporation shall have full power to buy, lease, own or hold and improve real estate and personal property of all kinds, and to sell, lease, convey and dispose of the same in such lots and upon such terms as the board of directors may determine; to make and pledge its property, both real and personal; may act as factors, brokers or agents in borrowing or lending money, buying and selling stocks and securities, and in doing other acts not inconsistent with the law, and investing such money as may be entrusted to its care or management for investment in bonds, stocks or other securities and property; may subscribe to stock in other corporations and accept subscriptions for stock in this company either in real estate or personal property, or in bonds or stocks of other incorporated companies; it may insure or guarantee the payment of any dividends, bonds, notes, undertakings, mortgages or other securities or evidences of indebtedness to any person, partnership or corporation; and may guarantee the title to any and all real estate, situate within or without the State. It may guarantee or become surety upon all kinds of fiduciary or other bonds or undertakings not prohibited by law, including those of guardians, executors, administrators, collectors, receivers, trustees of any sort, suitors in any court, public officers of the United States or of any State, county or municipality, and all employees or agents of any person, company or corporation, under such regulations as may be determined by the board of directors, and may charge and receive for such service such sums as may be agreed upon: Provided, said company shall comply with the laws of the State relative to surety companies.

Deposits of minors and married women.

Sec. 11. That when any deposit shall be made by any person being a minor or feme covert, the said corporation may, at its discretion, pay to said minor or feme covert such sums as may be due to him or her, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor or feme covert shall be to all intents and purposes valid in law and equity to fully discharge the said corporation from any or all liabilities on account thereof. And if money be deposited in said corporation by a minor or feme covert, either as investment or otherwise, such money may be withdrawn by said minor or feme covert without the consent of the parent or guardian of said minor or the husband of the feme covert, and his or her receipt therefor shall be as binding upon such minor or feme covert as though he or she were of full age or unmarried.

Deposits of court and trust funds.

Sec. 12. And every court in which moneys may be paid, lodged or deposited by agreement of parties or by order, judgment or decree of said court may order or direct the same to be deposited with the said company, and when such deposit shall have been made the same, like all other moneys deposited with the said company by individuals or corporations, shall be at all times subject to withdrawal by the person entitled and duly authorized to withdraw the same; and any executor or administrator, guardian, collector, receiver or other trustee or public officer of the State, or any county or city or town, having the control of any bonds, moneys, stocks, securities or other valuables belonging to others shall be and is hereby authorized to deposit the same for safe-keeping with said company.

Deposits for safe-keeping.

Sec. 13. That said company may receive upon storage, deposit or otherwise merchandise, money, specie, plate, stock, promissory certificates and evidences of debt, contracts and all other personal properties whatsoever; take charge and custody of real and personal estates and securities, advance money thereupon on such terms as may be established by said company; and in all cases in which public officers or municipal or private corporations are authorized to deposit moneys, stocks or bonds or evidences of debt.

Sales of property under lien.

Sec. 14. That it shall be lawful for the said company to sell at public auction all property or securities of whatsoever kind mentioned or specified in any contract or agreement between the company and the other party or parties, after the maturity of an obligation under said contract or agreement, upon giving ten days' notice by advertising of the time and place of sale in some newspaper published in the same county where said company is carrying on its business, and to reimburse itself out of the proceeds of such sale for the money due it, with interest, storage, cost and charges, and to indemnify itself for any loss it may have sustained for the non-fulfillment of such contract, or by reason of any misrepresentation, fraud or concealment.

Power of purchase.

Sec. 15. That when the corporation shall have cause to sell any of the property of any of the debtors of the company, on which it has a lien or claim to secure the debt, or when such property shall be sold for its benefit, the company may bid for and purchase any and all such property, and its title thereto, when so acquired, shall be valid and binding in all respects: Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall operate or be so construed as to delay or impair the mortgagor's equity of redemption.

Power to act in fiduciary capacities.

Sec. 16. That the said corporation be and is hereby authorized and empowered to accept and exercise any trust of any and every description which may, with its consent, be committed or transferred to it by any person or persons, co-partnership, corporation, county or municipality, or by any court of the State of North Carolina or the United States or any one of the States of the United States, and to accept the appointment and office of executor, administrator or trustee or assignee of any kind or nature, whenever such office or appointment is made or conferred by any person or persons, co-partnership, corporation, county or municipality, or by any court of competent jurisdiction of this State or any one of the United States, and in all such cases when the application shall be made to any court for the appointment of any receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian of any minor or committee of a lunatic, it shall and may be lawful for such court to appoint said corporation, with its assent, such receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee; and where any person shall appoint the said company the executor of his or her will, or any court shall appoint the said company a receiver, trustee, administrator, assignee, guardian or committee, or shall order the deposit of any money with said company, the capital stock as paid in shall be taken and considered as a security required by law for the faithful performance of the said duties of such executor, administrator, trustee, assignee, guardian or committee, and shall be absolutely liable for any default; and in addition thereto the court may require the said company to give such other and additional security as it may judge to be expedient, and the court may, if it deem necessary, examine officers of the company under oath or affirmation as to the sufficiency of the capital stock or as to such security. The accounts of said company as such receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, assignee, guardian, or committee shall be regularly adjusted and considered before such court or officers as shall have jurisdiction thereof, which said court or officers shall, upon such jurisdiction and settlment being made, allow to the said corporation all proper and legal and customary cost, charges, expenses and commissions for its care and management of the trusts and the estates aforesaid. The said company with respect to the same shall be subject to all lawful orders and decrees made by the proper tribunal under the laws of this State.

Security.

Accounts as fiduciary.

Sec. 17. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 18. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT TO AMEND AND RE-ENACT CHAPTER 109 OF THE PUBLIC LAWS OF 1905, AND TO ESTABLISH PINNACLE GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN STOKES COUNTY.

Preamble. Whereas, at the session of the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and five an act was passed (chapter one hundred and nine of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five) establishing Pinnacle Graded School District, in Stokes County, and directing that an election be held in said district under the provisions of said act; and whereas, it appears that an election was thereafter held in said district, and at the same a majority of the qualified voters therein voted "For the Graded School"; and whereas, it further appears that through inadvertence said election was irregularly called and held; and whereas, a large number of the resident citizens of said district have petitioned the General Assembly to amend and re-enact said chapter one hundred and nine of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Boundary set out. Section 1. That all the territory lying and included within the following boundaries, to-wit: The boundary to include a part of Stokes County, beginning at the Surry County line at Mount Zion Church and the corner of the legislative district known as the Phillips District, and running with the line of said district in a northeast direction to the Little Yadkin River; thence with the meanderings of said river to J. W. Fleming's line; thence with the outside lines of J. W. Fleming, J. W. King, G. W. Bowman, W. H. Boyles, S. J. Cook, T. O. Mickey, V. G. Watson and S. P. Jones to the Surry County line; thence south with the Surry County line to the beginning; the lines and outside lines of the parties above mentioned shall be known as the boundary line, shall be and is hereby constituted a public graded school district to be known as the "Pinnacle Graded School District."

Pinnacle graded school district established.

Laws extended to district. Sec. 2. That for the purposes and benefits of this act the provisions of law governing the assessment of real and personal property, and the levying and collection of taxes on the same, shall be and the same are hereby extended to said graded school district, as in the levy and collection of State and county taxes of the county of Stokes; and all elections shall be held and conducted within said territory for graded school purposes and benefits in the same manner as in the election of county officers of the county of Stokes, as nearly as may be.

Tax recommended by trustees. Sec. 3. That for the purpose of establishing and defraying the expenses of the public graded school provided for in this act the board of trustees hereinafter named shall annually recommend to the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County the amount of tax to be levied upon persons, polls and property in said district; and at the time of levying the county and State taxes, commencing with the fiscal year beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County shall levy and lay a special tax on all persons, polls and property subjects of taxation within the limits of said graded school district, to conform to the recommendations of the said board of trustees, on which the board of commissioners of said county may now or hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purpose whatsoever; said particular tax to be not more than thirty-three and a third cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on property and not more than one dollar on each taxable poll; which said taxes so levied and assessed shall be collected by the sheriff or tax collector of the county of Stokes at the same time and manner said sheriff or tax collector shall collect the taxes for State and county, and he shall pay the said taxes so collected for the graded school purposes over to the treasurer of the board of trustees hereinafter to be named by said board of trustees.

County commissioners of Stokes to levy tax.

Proviso: subsequent elections.

Sec. 10. That the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County are hereby authorized and required to call an election on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, after thirty days' written public notice, at not less than three public places in said graded school district, to submit to the qualified voters of said graded school district the question of levying for the support of said graded schools an annual tax on all taxable property and polls within such district, not to exceed thirty-three and a third cents on the hundred dollars assessed valuation of property, and one dollar on each taxable poll; that the said board of commissioners shall order a new registration in said district and shall appoint three qualified electors in said district to hold said election, one of whom shall be designated as registrar and two of whom shall be designated poll-holders, and that said election shall in all other respects be held and conducted under the provisions of the laws governing the holding of elections for county officers; that at such election those favoring the levying of such tax shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "For the Graded School," and those opposing the levying of such tax shall deposit a ballot containing the written or printed words "Against the Graded School." The result of said election shall be canvassed and declared by said registrar and judges of election, and the returns made within ten days to the board of county commissioners and filed in the office of the Register of Deeds of Stokes County: Provided, however, that if at said election on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, a majority of the qualified voters shall vote "Against the Graded School," then, upon request of a majority of the board of trustees named in this act, the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County shall order another election to be held in the said district at such time as said board of trustees shall name, under the same provisions for holding and conducting that election as those prescribed in this section and act.

Appropriation of tax heretofore levied.

Sec. 11. That after the payment of the salary of Miss Nora McCollum, the teacher employed by the committee of the special tax district established by the county board of education, under section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the public school law, in the same territory included in section one of this act, for the term covered by her contract, not to exceed four months, any and all funds now in the hands of the Treasurer of the Board of Education of Stokes County, or that may hereafter come into his hands, belonging to the said district as a local tax district, arising from the collection of special taxes assessed and levied under section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, shall be turned over by said treasurer to the treasurer of the board of graded school trustees for said district, for the use and benefit of said graded school district, and paid out by said treasurer as other school funds belonging to said graded school district, under the direction of its board of trustees. That this act shall not in any way affect the collection of any taxes heretofore levied in said territory as a local tax district, under section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five. The Board of Commissioners of Stokes County will make no further levy of special taxes in the territory embraced in this act under section four thousand one hundred and fifteen of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, but only such levies as the board of trustees for said graded school district shall recommend as is hereinbefore set forth.

Act to take effect only if tax voted.

Sec. 12. That in case a majority of the qualified voters of said graded school district shall vote in favor of the tax set forth in section ten of this act, then all the provisions of this act shall be in full force and effect, and the Board of Commissioners of Stokes County shall annually levy and have collected the tax as hereinbefore provided. In case a majority of the qualified voters of said graded school district shall not vote in favor of such tax, then, in that event, none of the provisions of this act shall be in force.

Sec. 13. That this act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 28th day of February, A. D. 1907.

Proviso: manufacture and sale of liquors forbidden.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 28th day of February, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 209.

AN ACT TO REVISE, AMEND AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF ROCKY MOUNT, TO BE HEREAFTER KNOWN AS THE CITY OF ROCKY MOUNT.

Whereas, owing to the growth of the town of Rocky Mount, its charter, now contained in numerous acts of the General Assembly, enacted from time to time, is no longer suited to its needs; and whereas, the governing authorities of said municipal corporation and its citizens are desirous that its powers shall be enlarged and its boundaries extended, and that it shall hereafter be known as the "City of Rocky Mount": therefore, Preamble. Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the inhabitants residing within the city boundaries hereinafter located and defined shall be and remain a body politic and corporate under the name and style of the "City of Rocky Mount," and under such name and style may adopt a corporate seal, and contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded; acquire by purchase, devise, bequest or otherwise such real and personal property, within or without said city, as may be deemed requisite and necessary for the proper government of said city, or for the welfare, improvement and convenience of its inhabitants; hold, use, improve, govern, protect and control, and, in pursuance of resolution of its board of aldermen, sell or otherwise dispose of the same and reinvest the proceeds arising therefrom, and have all other powers, rights and privileges requisite and necessary or usually belonging or pertaining to municipal corporations. And said city shall succeed to and is hereby invested with all the property and rights of property and all other rights, franchises, privileges, powers and authorities belonging to the municipal corporation now known as the "Town of Rocky Mount," under any other corporate name or names heretofore used or known; and said city shall likewise succeed to every duty, debt or obligation owing by said town of Rocky Mount to any person or persons or corporation, and the lawful performance of the same is hereby imposed upon said city. Incorporation. Corporate name. Corporate powers.

BOUNDARIES.

Sec. 2. That the corporate limits and boundaries of said city of Rocky Mount shall be located and defined as follows: Beginning at a point on the southern side of Tar River at the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad bridge; thence eastwardly with said river to a point where a line down the center of Atlantic Avenue, as shown in the plot of the lands of "J. H. Logan, Trustee," if extended, would intersect the southern line of said river; thence south- Boundaries.

Sec. 5. That W. L. Thorp shall be mayor of said city, and J. C. Braswell and Thomas H. Battle, of the First Ward; R. P. Lindsey and George S. Edwards, of the Second Ward; F. M. Draughn and James E. Humphries, of the Third Ward; F. W. Tremain and H. E. Brewer, of the Fourth Ward; R. R. Gay, of the Fifth Ward, and Thomas C. Gorham, of the Sixth Ward, shall constitute the board of aldermen of said city until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified; and the successors of the said W. L. Thorp, J. C. Braswell, R. P. Lindsey, F. M. Draughn and F. W. Tremain shall be chosen at the election to be held on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven; and the successors of the said Thomas H. Battle, George S. Edwards, James E. Humphries, H. E. Brewer, R. R. Gay and Thomas C. Gorham shall be chosen at the election to be held on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

Election of successors.

ELECTIONS.

City elections.

Sec. 6. That an election shall be held in the several wards or voting precincts of said city on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and on the first Monday in May annually thereafter. At such election to be held on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said city a mayor, and by the qualified voters of their respective wards one alderman from each of the several wards of said city, except the Fifth and Sixth; and said mayor and aldermen shall hold their said offices for a term of two years from the date of their election, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified; and at the election to be held on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and eight, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective wards one alderman from each of the several wards of said city, who shall likewise hold their said offices for a term of two years from the date of their election, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified.

Officers elected in 1907.

Term.

Aldermen elected in 1908.

Voting precincts.

Sec. 7. That each of the said wards, located and defined in section three of this act, for the purposes of all municipal elections herein or otherwise provided to be held, shall constitute a separate voting precinct; but the board of aldermen shall have power to subdivide any one or all of said wards into two or more voting precincts whenever in the judgment of said board public convenience shall require that such action be taken.

Power of subdivision.

Elections under supervision of aldermen.

Sec. 8. That the annual elections for officers of said city herein provided for, and all other municipal elections whatsoever hereafter held in said city, shall be under the supervision and control of the board of aldermen, and shall be held under and in accordance with the provisions of chapter seventy-three, subchapter seven, of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, in so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with this act.

Law governing elections.

MEETINGS OF BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Regular meetings of aldermen.

Special meetings.

Meeting for qualification and organization.

Sec. 9. That the board of aldermen shall meet regularly on the first and third Thursdays of each month; and said board shall fix the hour of meeting on such days, and may by resolution change the time of such regular meetings, and may provide for such other meetings as may be deemed necessary. Special meetings of the board of aldermen may be called by the mayor when deemed necessary, and shall be called upon the written request of four or more aldermen, of which special meetings all aldermen shall be notified in writing or otherwise. On the Thursday next succeeding each annual election of aldermen the incoming board of aldermen shall, at the hour of eight o'clock P. M., convene at the municipal building for the purpose of the qualification of all aldermen-elect as hereinafter provided, and shall thereupon organize and proceed with the election of city officers and such other business as may come before said board; and said board may adjourn from day to day until said business shall be disposed of.

ELECTION AND QUALIFICATION OF CITY OFFICERS.

Elections by aldermen.

Mayor pro tem and treasurer.

Term.

Other officers.

Offices of clerk and tax collector may be consolidated.

Creation of offices.

Sec. 10. That, at the meeting of said board of aldermen to be held on the Thursday next succeeding each annual election of aldermen, said board shall proceed to elect from among its members a mayor pro tempore and a city treasurer, who shall each hold his said office for the term of one year from the date of his said election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified; and said board shall, at said meeting, likewise proceed to elect a city clerk, a city tax collector, a chief of police, a chief of the fire department, a superintendent of public works, a superintendent of health and such policemen as said board may deem necessary for the maintenance of the public peace and the quiet and good order of said city and community, all of whom shall possess such qualifications and hold office for such term or terms as the board of aldermen shall prescribe. The board of aldermen is hereby authorized and empowered to combine the offices of city clerk and city tax collector whenever and for so long a time as it shall be deemed advisable; and said board of aldermen is likewise authorized and empowered to create such other offices as may be deemed necessary for the better government of said city; to define the powers and limit the length of the terms of the holders thereof; to prescribe their duties and qualifications, and to fill said offices from time to time and to abolish the same when deemed no longer necessary.

Present officers continued.

Sec. 11. That, pending the election and qualification of the officers of said city named in the preceding section of this act, as therein provided, all officers of said town of Rocky Mount heretofore elected by its board of commissioners shall continue to discharge the duties of their said offices, in the name of and under the government of said city, subject, however, to removal at the will of the board of aldermen of said city.

Officers to be sworn.

advisable, make written reports to the board of aldermen touching any matter herein or hereafter committed to his charge or oversight, and suggesting such action as may be deemed necessary for the correction of abuses and the better government of said city. In pursuance of resolution of the board of aldermen, he shall, in the name of said city, execute in its behalf all deeds and contracts. He shall have power to appoint special policemen when deemed necessary, and to administer oaths in all cases whenever required; and he shall exercise such other powers, not inconsistent with this act, as are usually incident to the office of mayor.

Duties of mayor pro tem.

Sec. 14. That the mayor pro tempore shall enter upon and discharge the duties of the office of mayor whenever the mayor shall be absent from the city, or from any other cause unable to discharge the duties of his said office; and said mayor pro tempore shall, for the time, be clothed with every power conferred by law upon the mayor.

Duties of treasurer.

Sec. 15. That it shall be the duty of the city treasurer to receive all moneys belonging to said city, and all other moneys by law directed to be paid to him; to keep them separate and apart from his own funds, and to apply them and account therefor as required by law; to keep a true account of the receipts and disbursements of all such moneys in books provided for that purpose by said city; to pay out such moneys only upon proper warrant, as directed by the board of aldermen or other lawful authority; to call upon the city tax collector and other officers having city moneys or other public funds payable to him in hand at least once in every month, or oftener, if necessary, for the purpose of collecting the same; to exhibit his books, accounts and public moneys to the board of aldermen or a committee named by said board, whenever called upon to do so; to render to the board of aldermen at the end of each fiscal year a full, perfect and itemized statement of all receipts and disbursements, and to post a copy of the same at such public place and for such time as said board shall direct; and to surrender to his successor in office, when duly elected and qualified, all books and other records of his said office, and pay over to him all public moneys remaining in his hands.

Annual statements.

Statements to be posted.

Sec. 16. That it shall be the duty of the city clerk to be present at all meetings of the board of aldermen and to keep, and record in a book to be provided for that purpose by said city, regular and fair minutes of all proceedings of said board; to preserve all books, records, documents, papers and other articles committed to his use, care or custody during his term of office, and to surrender them to his successor in office when duly elected and qualified; to be the custodian of the common seal of said city; to attest the execution of all deeds, contracts and obligations by the mayor in behalf of said city, and to affix its common seal to all deeds and such contracts and obligations as it shall be deemed necessary to so attest; and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this act or by the board of aldermen.

Duties of city clerk.

Sec. 17. That it shall be the duty of the city tax collector to collect all taxes of whatsoever nature levied or imposed for city purposes, or levied by the board of aldermen for public school purposes; to collect all moneys due on account of city light and water service, and all moneys owing to said city on any other account whatsoever, except cost accruing in the recorder's court; to pay over to the city treasurer from time to time as collected all taxes and other moneys collected as aforesaid; to keep a full, true and itemized account of all moneys collected and paid over to the city treasurer as aforesaid, and such other records and accounts as the board of aldermen may require, in books provided for that purpose by said city; to render to the board of aldermen upon request a full, perfect and itemized statement of all moneys collected and paid over as aforesaid, and of all unpaid taxes and other moneys due on account of city light and water service; and to perform all other duties prescribed by law or by the board of aldermen. And for the collection of said taxes said city tax collector is hereby clothed with every power, privilege and immunity, not inconsistent with this act, now possessed by or which may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs and tax collectors in the collection of State and county taxes.

Powers of tax collector.

Chief of police: supervision and control of police force.

Duties of chief of police.

Sec. 18. That the chief of police shall have supervision and control of the police force of said city, and he shall report to the mayor and board of aldermen the failure of any member thereof to properly discharge the duties of his office; it shall be his duty to attend the sessions of the recorder's court and cause to be brought before said court for trial all persons arrested by him and other policemen of said city charged with offenses committed within the territorial jurisdiction of said court, and to file with said court information as to such other offenses as are alleged or reported to have been committed within said territorial limits, and perform such other services in connection with said court as shall by the recorder be deemed necessary; and he shall possess such other powers, privileges and immunities, not inconsistent with this act, as are usually incident to the office of chief of police of cities and towns, and shall perform such other duties as are prescribed by law or as may from time to time be imposed upon him by the board of aldermen of said city.

Powers, privileges and immunities.

Policeman designated to perform duties of chief.

Sec. 19. That, in case the chief of police shall for any cause be unable to discharge the duties of his said office, such other member of said police force as shall have been theretofore designated by the board of aldermen, or in default thereof by the mayor, shall, during the continuance of such disability, discharge the duties of said office.

Powers of chief of police and policemen.

Sec. 20. That the chief of police and other policemen of said city shall have power to execute anywhere within the limits of Nash and Edgecombe counties any writ, precept or process, either civil or criminal, which shall be directed to them generally or to any one of them in his own proper name, or in the name of his office, by any court of record or not of record, organized and existing under the laws of this State; they shall have power and it shall be their duty to suppress all breaches of the public peace and all disturbances of the quiet and good order of said city, and they may, with or without warrant, arrest anywhere within the corporate limits of said city or within one-half mile thereof any person charged with the violation of any ordinance of said city or with any other offense whatsoever against the public peace or the quiet and good order of the community; they shall have power, with or without warrant, to break and enter any building or enclosure for the purpose of preventing a felony or of apprehending any person whom they shall have reason to believe to have committed a felony; they shall have power and it shall be their duty to re-arrest upon the original warrant in the case any defendant or party who shall have escaped from lawful custody or who, having been released by order of the recorder, upon promise to pay any fine and costs or costs only, shall fail to pay the same as promised; they shall possess such other powers in making arrests and in conserving the public peace as are usually possessed by sheriffs and constables; and they shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board of aldermen. Re-arrests on original warrant.

Sec. 21. That the chief of the fire department shall have supervision and control of the fire department of said city, under such rules and regulations for the government thereof as may from time to time be adopted by the board of aldermen. Chief of fire department.

Sec. 22. That the superintendent of public works shall be charged with the custody, supervision and control of said city's electric light, water supply and sewerage systems, under such rules and regulations for the government of his said department as may from time to time be adopted by the board of aldermen; and said superintendent of public works shall possess such other powers, not inconsistent with this act, as may be conferred upon him by the board of aldermen, and he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by said board. Superintendent of public works.

Sec. 23. That the superintendent of health shall be charged with the care and supervision of the public health within the corporate limits of said city; and, in addition to the powers conferred upon him by the laws of the State relating to public health, such superintendent of health shall possess such other powers, not inconsistent with this act, as may be conferred upon him by the board of aldermen, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by said board. Superintendent of health.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Sec. 24. That a special court for the trial of misdemeanors is hereby established, and said court shall be known as the "Recorder's Court of Rocky Mount." Special court established. Title.

Sec. 25. That said recorder's court shall be a court of record, and shall be presided over by a recorder, who shall be a bona fide resident and a duly qualified voter of said city, and shall be elected by the board of aldermen of said city at the meeting to be held on the Thursday next succeeding the election for mayor and aldermen, to be held on the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and biennially thereafter; and such recorder shall hold his said office for a term of two years from the date of his said election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Pending such election and so long thereafter as the board of aldermen shall fail to fill said office by the election of a recorder, the mayor of said city shall be ex officio Court of record. Qualifications and election of recorder. Term of office. Mayor recorder ex officio.

recorder, and as such shall exercise every power conferred upon and perform every duty imposed upon such recorder by this act.

Vice-recorder.

Sec. 26. That whenever the board of aldermen of said city shall, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section, elect a recorder said board shall likewise proceed to elect a vice-recorder, who shall possess the same qualifications and hold office for the same term as the recorder; and said vice-recorder shall enter upon and discharge the duties of the office of recorder whenever the recorder, on account of sickness, absence from the city or other good and sufficient cause, shall be unable to do so, and he shall for the time be clothed with every power conferred by law upon the recorder: Provided, that so long as the mayor of said city shall be ex officio recorder the mayor pro tempore shall be ex officio vice-recorder, and as such shall be clothed with every power conferred by law upon such vice-recorder.

Proviso: mayor pro tem. ex officio vice-recorder.

Sessions of court.

Sec. 27. That the recorder's court shall hold daily sessions in the court-room of the municipal building in said city, and shall possess every power in the regulation and ordering thereof usually possessed by other courts of record in like cases.

Jurisdiction.

Sec. 28. That said recorder's court is hereby vested with and shall exercise jurisdiction as follows:

For violations of ordinances.

(1) Exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors committed within the corporate limits of said city or within one-half mile thereof growing out of the violation of the ordinances, rules and regulations of said city adopted by the board of aldermen in pursuance of the powers herein conferred.

Exclusive jurisdiction for offenses of grade lower than felony committed within city.

(34) Upon every dog or bitch, an annual tax of not more than two dollars and fifty cents. Dogs and bitches.

(35) Upon every surface privy, an annual license tax of not more than two dollars and fifty cents. Surface privy.

(36) Upon every trade, calling, business or profession not hereinbefore specified, upon which the General Assembly may levy or impose a license or privilege tax, an annual tax of not more than five hundred dollars. Other trade, calling, business or profession.

Sec. 47. That all taxes levied or imposed by the board of aldermen in pursuance of the preceding section shall be payable in advance by the person, firm or corporation exercising the privilege, trade, calling, business or profession, or owning the property taxed thereunder; and all licenses taken out or granted in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be issued by the city clerk and countersigned by the mayor, and shall not be transferable. No reduction or abatement in the amount of such license tax paid or to be paid shall in any case be allowed, otherwise than as may be prescribed by the board of aldermen prior to the payment thereof. License tax payable in advance.

Sec. 48. That all annual licenses issued in pursuance of this act shall expire on the thirty-first day of May next succeeding the date of issuance, and all semi-annual licenses shall expire on the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December next succeeding the date of issuance. Times of expiration of license.

Sec. 49. That no license for the exercise of any right or privilege taxable under subsections one, two, three, four, five, six and thirteen of section forty-six of this act shall be issued until the application therefor shall be first passed upon and approved by the board of aldermen; but every other license for the exercise of any right or privilege taxable under said section shall be issued by the city clerk upon application to him made, unless said board shall otherwise direct. Application for certain licenses submitted to board of aldermen. Other licenses issued by city clerk on application.

section of section forty-six of this act, and within the limits therein prescribed may graduate the license taxes imposed thereunder.

CONDEMNATION AND ASSESSMENT.

Power to condemn lands.

Sec. 51. That the board of aldermen shall have the right to acquire for said city by condemnation such lands, within or without the corporate limits of said city, as may be necessary for the following purposes:

For street and like uses.

(1) For the establishment, construction and maintenance of public streets, sidewalks, alleys, crossings, water-ways and parks, and for the widening, extension or other modification or improvement thereof.

For light, water and sewer systems.

(2) For the establishment, construction and maintenance of municipal systems of electric lighting, sewerage and water supply, including power houses and plants, reservoirs, stand-pipes, lines of metal and terra-cotta piping, conduits, mains and other like appurtenances, and for the enlargement, extension or other modification or improvement thereof.

For municipal buildings.

(3) For the erection of all necessary municipal buildings or for any other necessary or proper municipal purpose whatsoever.

Agreement with owner to be sought.

Sec. 52. That the board of aldermen shall not undertake to exercise the right of condemnation conferred in the preceding section without having first sought to secure such lands as may be required for any public use therein set out by private agreement with the owner or owners thereof; but when such effort shall have been made without success, said board may proceed to condemn such lands, by first adopting a resolution declaring that the same are required for the public use therein stated; which resolution shall describe such lands with sufficient particularity for the identification thereof, and shall state the name or names of the owner or owners thereof, if known, and if not known, shall so state.

Resolution for condemnation.

Copy of resolution to owner of land.

Notice to appear and show cause.

Sec. 53. That, upon the adoption of such resolution, the city clerk shall cause the owner or owners of such lands to be served with a copy thereof, together with notice issued by said city clerk, requiring such owner or owners to appear before the board of aldermen at the court-room in the municipal building in said city at a time therein stated, not less than five days after the service thereof, to show cause why such lands should not be condemned and taken for the public use set out in such resolution; which resolution and notice shall be served, as other notices are served, by the chief of police or any other policeman of said city, or by the sheriff or any other lawful officer of any county in this State. If the person upon whom such service is to be made is unknown, or if he resides without the State, or cannot with the exercise of due diligence be found within the State, and such fact be shown to the satisfaction of the city clerk by affidavit, then such service may be made, under the direction of such city clerk, by publishing such resolution, together with the notice requiring such person to appear before the board of aldermen at the time and place therein named to show cause why such lands should not be condemned and taken for the public use set out in such resolution, which resolution and notice shall be published at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in said city.

Service on guardians of persons under disability.

Sec. 54. That whenever any infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis shall be the owner of any lands sought to be condemned, or the owner of any interest therein, service of such resolution and notice shall likewise be made upon the general or testamentary guardian of such infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis, if there be such within the State; and if such infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis be without a general or testamentary guardian within this State, the clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which such lands are situate shall, upon the application of the city clerk setting forth such fact, together with such resolution, appoint some discreet and competent person as guardian ad litem to defend in behalf of such infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis in such condemnation proceedings; and service of such resolution and notice shall likewise be made upon such guardian ad litem.

Guardian ad litem.

Lands condemned if cause not shown.

Sec. 55. That, due service of such resolution and notice having been made upon the owner or owners of the lands sought to be condemned, should such owner or owners fail to appear before the board of aldermen at the time and place named in such notice or, having appeared, should fail to show cause why such lands should not be condemned, said board, having first found that such lands are necessary for the public use set out in such resolution, shall thereupon order that such lands be and that they are thereby condemned to be taken for such public use; and said board shall in such order of condemnation appoint five discreet and competent freeholders, residents of said city, or, if such lands be situate without the corporate limits of said city, residents of the county in which such lands are situate, as commissioners to appraise the damage suffered by the owner or owners of such lands by reason of such condemnation. Said board shall likewise appoint a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners; and the city clerk shall forthwith notify each freeholder named of his appointment and of the time and place appointed for the first meeting of such commissioners.

Commissioners to appraise damage.

First meeting appointed.

Commissioners notified.

Proceedings of commissioners.

Sec. 56. That such commissioners shall meet at the time and place appointed by the board of aldermen, and having first been duly sworn by the mayor or some other person authorized to administer oaths, shall proceed to view the lands condemned and to hear such evidence bearing upon the value of such lands and the value of the special benefits and advantages accruing to the owner or owners thereof by reason of such condemnation, after which they shall appraise the value of such lands and the value of such special benefits and advantages, and any excess of the former over the latter shall represent the full amount of damages to be assessed against said city. Each of such items shall be separately stated in the written report of such commissioners, to be filed with the city clerk not later than sixty days after the date of their appointment, and such report must be signed by not less than three of such commissioners. Such proceedings may be adjourned from time to time, and such one of said commissioners as shall be chosen chairman shall have power to subpœna witnesses and to administer oaths thereto.

Itemized report.

Appeal.

Sec. 57. That either said city or the owner or owners of such lands, if dissatisfied with the award of such commissioners as set out in their report, and for no other cause, may appeal to the Superior Court of the county in which such lands are situate, under the rules governing appeals from the courts of justices of the peace. Notice of appeal in such case shall be given by filing written notice thereof with the city clerk not later than ten days after such commissioners shall have filed their report. Said city clerk shall send up to the Superior Court, as the record of such case on appeal, the resolution adopted by the board of aldermen in the first instance, the notice or notices to the owner or owners of such lands, the order of condemnation and appointment of commissioners, the report of such commissioners, the notice of appeal, and, in case that an infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis is the owner of such lands or any interest therein, the application for and order appointing the guardian ad litem; and said city clerk shall, over his hand and the corporate seal of said city, certify that such record is correct.

Notice of appeal.

Record on appeal.

Order of condemnation not reviewable.

Sec. 58. That the finding of the board of aldermen that such lands are necessary for a specified public use and the order condemning the same to be taken for such public use shall not be reviewable by any court, but shall conclude all parties. And said city is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon such lands and to forthwith devote them to such public use, upon the payment or tender of payment to the person or persons entitled to receive the same of any amount awarded against said city by such commissioners in their report filed with the city clerk; and said city may so enter without any formality whatsoever when such commissioners in their report shall make no award of damages against said city: Provided, that the filing of a notice of appeal from the award of such commissioners by the owner or owners of such lands, or any one of them, or said city's payment into the office of the city clerk of the amount so awarded against it to the use of the person or persons entitled to receive the same, shall dispense with the necessity for any other payment or tender of payment.

Record certified to court when lands owned by persons under disability.

Sec. 59. That in any case where an infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis shall have been seized or possessed of any lands condemned as hereinbefore provided, or of any interest therein, and no appeal shall have been taken from the award of the commissioners, it shall be the duty of the city clerk to certify up to the clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which such lands are situate the complete record of such condemnation proceedings, as in cases of appeal; and such clerk of the Superior Court in every such case, and in every such case certified up on appeal, in which a final judgment shall have been rendered, shall record such complete record, including any final judgment rendered in the Superior Court, in the book of special proceedings; and such record shall bar and conclude every such infant, idiot, lunatic or person non compos mentis, and all persons claiming under him.

Record.

Bar of record.

Improvements removed on reversion.

Sec. 60. That whenever any lands condemned as hereinbefore provided shall no longer be devoted to a public use, and by reason of non-user shall revert to the original owner or owners or his or their heirs, said city shall have the right to remove therefrom all buildings and other structures and improvements which said city may have erected thereon.

Owners of lot to improve sidewalks and streets.

Sec. 61. That the owner or owners of any lot abutting upon any street of said city shall, if so ordered by the board of aldermen, improve, curb or repair the sidewalk of such street for the distance that it extends along such lot, and shall likewise, if so ordered, macadamize, pave or otherwise improve not more than one-fourth of the street adjoining such sidewalk; and such improvement shall be made in such manner and with such material as said board may specify, and such work shall be done under the supervision and control of the street committee which may be named by said board, or under the supervision and control of such officer as may be charged with the supervision and control of the improvement and repair of the streets of said city.

Copy of order served on lot owner.

Service.

Sec. 62. That the city clerk shall cause a certified copy of any order of the board of aldermen requiring that such improvement be made to be served upon the owner or any one of two or more owners of every lot embraced therein, if residing in either of the counties of Nash or Edgecombe, or, if not residing therein, upon any known agent of such owner or owners residing therein; which certified copy of such order may be served by the chief of police or any other policeman of said city, or by the sheriff or any other lawful officer of either of said counties, and shall be served as other legal notices are served. If with the exercise of due diligence service of such order cannot be made as hereinbefore provided, such service may be made by publishing the same for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in said city.

Work done by city on default of owner.

Sec. 63. That should the owner or owners of any lot embraced in such order neglect or refuse to comply with the same for ten days after due service thereof shall have been made in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section, such street committee or such officer as may be charged with the supervision and control of the improvement and repair of the streets of said city shall cause the improvement which the owner or owners of such lot were by such orders required to make to be made without further delay, and the cost thereof shall be borne by the owner or owners of such lot, and shall constitute a lien thereon to the same extent as the municipal taxes assessed against the same constitute a lien thereon.

Cost of work a lien on lot.

Enforcement of payment.

Sec. 64. That should the owner or owners of any such lot neglect or refuse to pay the amount charged against the same as provided in the preceding section, it shall be the duty of the city tax collector to proceed to collect such amount by the advertisement and sale of such lot, as is provided by law in case of nonpayment of taxes assessed against lands for municipal purposes.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

License not to excuse unlawful act.

Sec. 65. That no license issued by said city in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be held to confer any immunity from punishment upon any person thereunder exercising any business or calling or doing any act forbidden by law.

Ordinances of town to continue in force.

Sec. 66. That all ordinances, rules and regulations heretofore adopted by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Rocky Mount for the government thereof shall remain in full force and effect as ordinances, rules and regulations of the city of Rocky Mount until amended or repealed by the board of aldermen of said city.

Violation of ordinance a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Sec. 67. That any person violating any ordinance, rule or regulation of said city shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both fined and imprisoned.

Offenses declared petty misdemeanors.

Sec. 68. That all offenses below the grade of felony as at present defined which shall be committed within the corporate limits of said city, or without the corporate limits thereof and within the boundaries set out in subsection three of section twenty-eight of this act, are hereby declared to be petty misdemeanors.

Policemen to accept bail.

Sec. 69. That the chief of police and other policemen of said city are hereby authorized and empowered to accept bail for the appearance in the recorder's court of any person who shall be taken into custody charged with a bailable offense, when such person cannot conveniently be taken before the recorder for such purpose; and such police officers shall commit to the city prison for safe-keeping all such persons as shall fail to furnish bail for their appearance in the recorder's court, or who may be drunk or disorderly.

Conflicting laws repealed.

Sec. 70. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, and no statute hereafter enacted shall be held to deprive the board of aldermen of said city of any power conferred by this act, unless such statute shall expressly so provide.

Sec. 71. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 28th day of February, A. D. 1907.

lars nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned or worked on the streets of said town not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days for each offense.

Sec. 9. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF MEBANE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Former charter amended.

Section 1. That chapter one hundred and thirty-two, Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, entitled "An act to incorporate the town of Mebane, in Alamance County," and all acts amendatory thereof, be amended to read as follows:

Incorporation.

That the inhabitants of the town of Mebane shall be and continue, as heretofore they have been, a body politic and corporate, and henceforth the corporation shall bear the name and style of

Corporate name.

"The Town of Mebane," and under that name and style it is Invested with property and rights.

hereby invested with all the property and rights of property which now belong to the present corporation of "Mebane," and by the Corporate powers.

corporate name of the Town of Mebane may purchase and hold for its own use all such estate, real or personal, as may be conveyed, devised or bequeathed to it, and under such corporate name may sell and convey such estate, when deemed advisable by its board of commissioners, and under such corporate name said corporation may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any and all courts of this State; it may contract and be contracted with, and may adopt and use a common seal, and shall have all the rights, powers and privileges conferred upon municipal corporations by and under chapter seventy-three of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of subsequent sections of this act, and shall have in addition thereto such powers and privileges as are granted under the provisions of subsequent sections of this act.

Corporate limits.

Sec. 2. That the corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Commencing at a point in the center of the main track of the North Carolina Railroad Company immediately in front of the center of the present railroad station house, running thence north one-half mile; thence west one-half mile to an iron bolt; thence south one mile to an iron bolt; thence east one mile to an iron bolt; thence north one mile to an iron bolt; thence west one-half mile.

Town officers.

Sec. 3. The administration of the affairs of said town shall be vested in a mayor and five commissioners, who shall be elected biennially, as provided in chapter seventy-three of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina. That until the regular election of said mayor and commissioners provided for in said Revisal the present mayor and commissioners shall continue in office, with all the powers and privileges herein given such officers.

Present mayor and commissioners continued in office.

Duties of mayor.

Sec. 4. The mayor, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, and when there is an equal division upon any question or in the election of any officer by the board, he shall determine the matter by his vote. He shall vote in no other case. The board shall, at its first meeting after its election, choose some one of its own number to act and serve as mayor pro tempore in the absence of the mayor, or when for any cause he shall be unable to serve and act.

Mayor pro tempore.

Commissioners one board: quorum.

Sec. 5. The commissioners shall form one board and a majority of them shall be competent to perform all the duties of the entire board.

Regular meetings.

At the first meeting of any board held after their election it shall fix time and place for regular meetings, which shall be as often as at least once in every month. Special meetings of the commissioners shall be held upon the call of the mayor or any two commissioners. Special meetings shall be called by a writing signed either by the mayor or two commissioners, and such call shall be read to all the commissioners at least four hours before the time of meeting, and such special call shall specify the time, place and object of such special meeting.

Special meetings.

Mayor and commissioners to qualify within one week.

Sec. 6. The mayor and commissioners elected at any election held in said town shall appear, take the oath of office and enter upon the discharge of their duties within one week after the time of their election.

Vacancies.

Sec. 7. Any vacancy which shall arise for any cause in the office of mayor or commissioner shall be filled by the remaining commissioners, and the person so elected to fill such vacancy shall hold office till the next regular election of mayor and commissioners.

Power to issue bonds.

Sec. 8. The board of commissioners shall have power, with the assent of the qualified voters of said town, to issue bonds and levy additional taxes for the payment of the interest on the same, and to provide a sinking fund for the liquidation of said bonds at maturity, for the following purposes, to-wit: For the mending and improving of the streets and sidewalks of said town by paving or otherwise; for the providing a supply of water for the use, convenience and health of the inhabitants of said town, and as a protection against property loss by fire; for a sewerage system and for the furnishing of lights for said town and the inhabitants thereof. Before any bonds are issued for any of said purposes the proposition to do so shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said town, either at a special election called for that purpose or at a general election held for the election of mayor and commissioners. Whether such question is submitted at a special or at a regular election, thirty days' notice thereof shall be given, and in said notice the people shall be told whether there is a new registration required, and shall be given the names of the registrar and poll-holders and notified of the time and place where parties who are qualified and wish to do so can register and vote. If the question is submitted at a special election, then such special election shall be held under the rules and regulations provided for holding general elections for mayor and commissioners, and only those persons shall be entitled to vote who could vote if such special election was a regular election held for the election of mayor and commissioners. The question of issuing all or any of said classes of bonds may be submitted at any regular election, or special election called for that purpose, and the board of commissioners shall submit the question of the issuing of any of said classes of bonds, upon there being filed with them a petition requesting them so to do, signed by twenty-five qualified voters of said town, and they shall submit such question within ninety days after the filing in proper form of such petition. The issue of bonds for lights shall not exceed six per cent. of the assessed value of the real and personal property of said town; the issue of bonds for water-works and a water supply shall not exceed six per cent. of the assessed value of the real and personal property of said town; the issue of bonds for the establishing of a sewerage system shall not exceed six per cent. of the assessed value of the real and personal property of said town, and the issue of bonds for street improvements shall not exceed six per cent. of the assessed value of the real and personal property of said town. Those bonds issued for the purpose of supplying said town with lights shall be designated on their face "Light Bonds"; those for supplying said town with water, "Water Bonds"; those for supplying said town with a sewerage system, "Sewerage Bonds," and those for improving the streets of said town shall be designated "Street Improvement Bonds." The electors who, at any election, desire to vote for the issuance of any class of bonds shall vote a ballot printed or written on white paper with the word "Approved" before the name of the bond for which they desire to vote, and those who shall desire to vote against the issuance of any bonds or class of bonds shall vote a ballot printed or written on white paper with the word "Disapproved" before the name of the bond against which they wish to vote. The votes shall be counted, tabulated, returned, and the result declared in all respects as provided for in the election of mayor and commissioners, with this exception: When the issue of bonds is not approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the town, then a copy of the returns need not be sent and filed with the clerk of the Superior Court; but if the issuance of any class of bonds is approved by the votes of a majority of the qualified voters of the city, then a copy of the returns, certified by the mayor of said town and the clerk to the board of commissioners of said town, and the poll books used in the election concerning the issuance of said bonds, shall be transmitted to the clerk of the Superior Court and shall be by him recorded and filed. Should the proposition to issue bonds for either of the purposes above mentioned be approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the town, then the board of commissioners shall proceed to forthwith issue said bonds in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, as they may see fit, and they may issue said bonds all of one denomination. Said bonds shall be what are known as coupon bonds (the interest payments to be evidenced by coupons attached to and made part of said bonds), and shall carry interest at a rate not in excess of six per cent., and shall be payable thirty years after date of issue, and shall be sold for not less than par. In the notice calling an election upon the question of issuing any of said bonds the board of commissioners shall specify what kinds of bonds are to be issued, the amount of bonds to be issued, the interest rate they are to bear, and the denominations in which said bonds are to be issued; and said bonds when issued shall be in accordance with such notice. The funds raised by the sale of bonds for furnishing lights shall be exclusively used for that purpose; those issued for the purpose of supplying water shall be exclusively used for that purpose; those issued for the purpose of installing a sewerage system shall be exclusively used for that purpose, and those issued for street improving shall be exclusively used for that purpose. In the event the question of the issuance of any or all of said classes of bonds is submitted to the voters of said town at a regular or special election, the board of commissioners shall have the power to decide whether there shall be a new registration of the voters of said town. In the event the issuance of any of said bonds is approved by a majority of the qualified voters of said town and said bonds are actually issued, then the commissioners of said town shall levy a special tax of a sufficient amount to pay accruing interest on said bonds so issued, and for the establishing of a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds at maturity; and such special tax shall be levied at the same time and collected by the same person and in the same manner as are taxes levied and collected for general municipal purposes.

Sec. 9. The board of commissioners of said town shall have the right and power, in the name of said corporation, to make contracts with private individuals, firms or corporations for the supplying of said town and the inhabitants thereof with water or lights, and they shall have the power to become part owners with either individuals, firms or corporations in plants for supplying either water or lights to said town and the inhabitants thereof.

Powers of commissioners as to streets.

Sec. 10. That the commissioners of said town shall have full right and power to discontinue, close or make narrower any of the streets or alleys at present open in said town, or to open, broaden or change the location of any of said streets or alleys, or to open new streets or alleys. When any land or right-of-way shall be required for the opening, changing or broadening of streets in said town, and the land-owner and the town cannot agree upon the price to be paid such land-owner, then the same may be taken as is provided by law for the county of Alamance to take property for opening public roads, and the amount to be paid such land-owner shall be ascertained in the same manner as that provided by law for ascertaining the amount to be paid a land-owner for property taken by the county for road purposes.

Proceedings when land-owners under disability.

Sec. 11. In case the owners of the land upon which an easement is desired for the purposes stated in the preceding section are infants, lunatics or non-residents, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners to file a petition before the clerk of the Superior Court for Alamance County on behalf of said town of Mebane, making defendants the parties on whose land the right-of-way or easement is desired, and in said petition shall be set forth in detail the lands over which such right-of-way or easement is desired, and such proceeding shall be governed as to notice and time of hearing by the law governing other special proceedings; and upon the hearing the clerk shall appoint three disinterested freeholders of said town of Mebane, who shall view the premises, and report under their hands and seals what amount shall be paid by said town to said land-owners by way of damages; and if the said report is approved by the clerk, then a copy of said report, together with the judgment of the clerk approving the same, shall be spread upon the minutes of the meetings of commissioners of said town, and shall operate to give said town the easement and right-of-way over said property, when said town shall have paid to the proper parties the amount awarded them as damages for the taking of said right-of-way and easement.

Taxing.

Tax lists.

Sec. 12. All property the subject of taxation by the State and county shall be likewise subject to taxation by said town, and the board of commissioners shall have power to levy privilege taxes as it may see fit, not inconsistent with the laws of the State. It shall be the duty of the mayor of said town personally, or through his duly authorized agent, to obtain from the office of the Register of Deeds of Alamance County the assessed value of all real and personal property in said town liable to taxation therein, and to compute the tax upon the same and have the same ready to turn over to the tax collector of said town on the first Monday in October of each year, at which time all taxes due and owing said measures and establish all necessary quarantines to preserve said town from danger from contagious and infectious diseases.

Cemeteries.

Sec. 14. That the board of commissioners of said town shall have the right and power to establish two or more cemeteries, and to appropriate money from the funds of said town for the purchase of land for such cemeteries and for the proper care of said cemeteries. They shall have the power of laying off such cemeteries, when established, into individual plots, and selling and conveying to individuals the exclusive right to bury in such plots; but any amount they may receive from such sale of the rights to bury in individual plots shall be used in caring for said cemetery.

Burial forbidden except in cemeteries.

It shall be unlawful for any person to bury the dead in any part of the incorporate limits of said town, save and except in those cemeteries which may be established by said town: Provided, however, that this act shall in no wise interfere with the burial of the dead in any cemetery already established and now in use in said town.

Special assessment for improvement of sidewalks.

Sec. 15. That the land in said town abutting on sidewalks shall be liable to special assessment for the improvement of the sidewalk upon which the land may abut, the improvement to be by grading, curbing, paving, or in such manner as the board of commissioners of said town may elect; and to that end the board of commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to designate such sidewalks as shall be improved, and to improve such sidewalks or parts of sidewalks so designated in such manner as it may see fit, and assess the land abutting thereon for the payment of a portion of the cost of such improvement, not to exceed fifty per cent. thereof: Provided, the total cost thereof

specify a time, not less than six months from the service thereof, for the payment of said assessment, and if the notice is served by publication, then the period of six months shall start from the time of the completion of said four weeks' publication. The said assessment shall be a lien on said property so abutting on the sidewalk improved, and if the owner shall neglect or refuse to pay the full amount of said assessment so made against any lot or parcel of land within the said town, then the mayor of said town shall sell the same at public outcry to the best bidder for cash in hand, and he shall make said sale on the property to be sold, after advertising time, place and terms of sale as required by law for sheriffs in selling land under execution; and if said land shall not bring more than the assessment against it and the cost of advertising the sale, the said mayor shall bid it in for the town. If bid in by the mayor for the town, then the owner may in one year pay the amount of said assessment, together with the cost of advertising said sale, and ten per cent. thereon, and shall thus divest the land of any lien on account of said assessment. If the owner shall fail to pay in one year, then the mayor shall execute a deed conveying said land to the town, and his deed shall convey to the town the title of the owner. If the land shall be knocked down to another than the town, then the purchaser shall be given a receipt for the price bid, and shall apply so much money of the price bid as shall be necessary to pay the amount of said assessment and advertising, and the balance he shall turn over to the owner, and the owner may, within one year from the day of said sale, pay to the bidder the amount bid, together with ten per cent. thereon, and the purchaser shall surrender to him the receipt of said mayor, and have no further claim on said land. If the owner shall not pay this in one year, the mayor shall, at the expiration of said year, execute a deed conveying said land to the purchaser, and this deed shall be sufficient to convey the estate of the owner therein.

Assessment a lien on property.

graphed thereon; that a record shall be kept of the said bonds, showing the numbers and the denominations thereof, and to whom sold, the dates of the issuing thereof, and when the same will mature, and the interest-bearing rate thereof, the amount received from the sale of same, and the date of paying the proceeds into the treasury of said city, and such other data in relation to the same as the board of aldermen may direct to be kept.

Sec. 2. That the bonds hereby authorized to be issued shall not be sold for less than their face value, and the mayor of the city shall not deliver said bonds, or any of them, to the purchaser thereof until the purchase-money thereof shall be paid to the treasurer of said city and his receipt to the purchaser produced before the mayor as evidence of such payment; and the treasurer of the city shall receive all such moneys paid in the purchase of the bonds in his official capacity as treasurer of said city, and he and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable to account for and pay over the same, as is provided in this act or as may be otherwise provided by the laws relating to the treasurer of said city of Durham; and it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of the said city of Durham to see to it that the bond of said treasurer shall at all times be sufficient in amount and with satisfactory sureties to provide against any loss of money arising from the sale of said bonds, and to that end they may at any time require said treasurer to renew his official bond in such sum and with satisfactory sureties as they may require, and in default thereof remove him from his office as treasurer.

Bonds not sold below par nor delivered until paid for.

Sec. 3. That the Treasurer of the City of Durham shall keep separate from all other public moneys coming into his hands the moneys arising as proceeds from the sale of said bonds, and the same shall be expended under the direction of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham in grading, curbing, macadamizing and paving, and otherwise improving and repairing the streets and sidewalks of the city of Durham: Provided, however, this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said city of Durham for their ratification or rejection, at an election to be held in said city at such a time as the aldermen may appoint, within two years from the ratification of this act. The said election shall be advertised by the said Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham for thirty days prior to the day of election, in one or more newspapers published in said city, and the said election shall be held under the supervision of inspectors and poll-holders or judges of election appointed by said board of aldermen, and the returns of the result of said election be made and certified in like manner as all other elections in said city, and in like manner the returns of said election and the result thereof be canvassed by the said board of aldermen and the result declared. At the said election those in favor of issuing said bonds shall vote "For Street Bonds," and those who are opposed shall vote "No Street Bonds," on written or printed ballots; that the number of the ballots cast for and against said bonds and deposited in the ballot boxes provided for that purpose shall be counted and the result of the said election certified and returned to the said Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham; and the same, when canvassed and declared as aforesaid, shall be certified, under the hand of the mayor of the said city and the clerk of the

Sec. 4. In order to pay the interest on said bonds, and to create a sinking fund to pay the principal of said bonds at maturity, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham shall levy and collect a special tax of not exceeding eleven cents on every hundred dollars" worth of taxable property in the said city, or such other special tax as may be necessary for that purpose; and the money paid into the city treasury, received from the taxes under this act, shall be appropriated for the payment of said bonds and coupons, and for no other purpose whatsoever: Provided, all moneys remaining in the treasury belonging to said fund, after all the aforesaid bonds and coupons shall have been redeemed, may then be transferred by order of said body corporate to the general funds of said city of Durham.

Proviso: surplus to general fund.

Trustee may be appointed.

Sec. 5. The Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham may, if in their opinion at any time it becomes necessary or advisable, appoint a trustee, whose duty it shall be to receive from the tax collector of the city of Durham all taxes collected under this act, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and for creating a sinking fund to pay the principal of said bonds at maturity, and the said board of aldermen may prescribe the duty of said trustee, fix the amount of his compensation and the bond for the faithful performance of duty on his part. It shall be the duty of the trustee to invest or lend the money coming into his hands for the purpose of creating a sinking fund in safe securities and upon real estate situated in the city of Durham: Provided, however, that no such investment or loan shall be made without the consent and approval of said body corporate hereinbefore referred to.

Duty, pay and bond of trustee.

Investment of sinking fund.

Proviso: approval of loans.

Commission of treasurer.

Sec. 6. The Treasurer of the City of Durham shall be allowed in full payment for his services a commission of not exceeding one-fourth of one per centum of the amounts disbursed under this act, arising from the sale of said bonds, but shall not be allowed anything for receiving the same from the city tax collector.

Sec. 7. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 215.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF ELIZABETH CITY AND TO AUTHORIZE THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF SAID CITY TO ISSUE BONDS AND LEVY A SPECIAL TAX FOR PAVING THE STREETS OF SAID TOWN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That chapter fifteen, Private Laws of one thousand nine hundred and five, be amended by adding to section forty-eight the following: The board of aldermen of the corporation of Elizabeth City shall also have the power to require every owner of real estate in the corporation of Elizabeth City to have one-fourth of the street or streets in front of his or her land paved in such a manner and with such material as said board of aldermen may deem best, and to enforce such requirements by proper fines and penalties; and upon the failure of such owner to do such paving, the corporation of Elizabeth City may have the same done and the cost thereof may be assessed upon the property of such a delinquent, and shall become a lien upon said land and improvements thereon, and be added to the taxes against him or her and collected in the same manner that other taxes or assessments are collected; or the lien for said amount may be enforced by a judgment of the Superior Court of Pasquotank County, condemning said land to be sold for the payment thereof and cost: Provided, said corporation may allow any one to pay same in equal annual installments, with five per cent. interest, not exceeding five years.

Assessment of street work on land-owners.

Work done by city on default of land-owner.

Cost a lien on property charged.

Enforcement of payment.

Proviso: payment by installments.

Sec. 2. To enable the corporation of Elizabeth City to pave the said streets as set out above, and also to get stone curbing, it is hereby authorized and empowered to contract for said paving of said streets, and also to issue its bonds from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary up to and not exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, drawing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the date of issue, payable annually: Provided, said bonds shall be sold at not less than par, and to become due and payable twenty years from the issue thereof. That one hundred thousand dollars arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for paving the streets as aforesaid, and twenty thousand dollars to be used in the different wards for stone curbing of sidewalks, in proportion to the amount of taxes each ward pays.

mayor and commissioners of said town, and shall mature and be made payable in not less than thirty years from the date of their issue, and shall be signed by the said mayor and countersigned by the clerk of said board of commissioners; and the clerk shall keep a record of the number and amount of each class of bonds issued, the date of issue, when the same matures and to whom payable. Maturity. How authenticated. Record of bonds.

Sec. 2. That said bonds shall not be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than par value, nor shall said bonds or their proceeds be used for any purpose other than the purposes mentioned in section one of this act. Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of the interest on said bonds, as well as the redemption of the same at their maturity, said mayor and board of commissioners shall annually, at the time of levying other town taxes, levy and lay a special and particular tax on all persons, property and subjects of taxation which are now subject to taxation under the charter of said town and the various amendments thereto, or which hereafter by future amendments may become subject to taxation, sufficient to meet the interest on said bonds. The taxes provided for in this section shall be collected in the same manner and at the same time and places as the other town taxes are collected, and shall be accounted for and kept separate and apart from the other town taxes, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes for which they are collected; and it is further provided that after the expiration of five years from the issuance of said bonds or any part of them, an additional special tax (if that be deemed expedient) may in like manner be levied, laid and collected each and every year, sufficient in amount to redeem, retire and take up each and every year thereafter five per cent. of said bonds issued and outstanding, otherwise all of them at their maturity. Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 4. That none of these bonds shall be issued until this act shall be submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of said town of Reidsville, at an election to be held in said town on a day to be designated and fixed by said mayor and board of commissioners at any time after the ratification of this bill, and after the expiration of a public notice for thirty days preceding the election, giving time when and place where the said election will be held; which said notice shall contain a synopsis of the object and purposes of this act, and shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks immediately preceding said election, in the newspapers published in the town. Said election shall be held and returns thereof be made under the same provisions, rules and regulations as exist in cases of election for mayor and commissioners of said town. Those qualified voters approving the provisions of this act shall vote "Issue," and those not approving its provisions shall vote "No Issue." If it shall appear from returns of said election that a majority of Act to be approved by voters. Notice of election. Law governing election. Ballots.

qualified voters of said town have voted in favor of the issuance of the said bonds, then the same may be issued in accordance with the provisions of this act; otherwise not.

New registration ordered.

Sec. 5. That a new registration shall be ordered by the said board of town commissioners for the purposes of this election.

Sec. 6. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 7. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 217.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF BONSAL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

CHAPTER 221.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 316, PRIVATE LAWS OF 1903, AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF WENDELL, IN WAKE COUNTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Corporate limits.

Section 1. Amend section two of said act by striking out all after the word "lines," in line two of said section, and substituting therefor the following: "That the corporate limits of said town shall be in the form of a regular octagon, inscribed in a circle whose radius shall be one-half mile, with center of circle in the center of the crossing of the Norfolk and Southern Railway's main line, where Main Street crosses said railway track."

Tax rate.

Sec. 2. Amend section seven of said act by striking out the words "twenty-five cents," in line three of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "thirty cents"; and by striking out the words "seventy-five cents," in line four of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "ninety cents."

Sec. 3. Add a new section to said act, to be numbered section eight, as follows: "That the board of commissioners of said town shall have power and authority to provide for the working and keeping in repair the streets of said town; and to this end the said commissioners are empowered to enact an ordinance requiring each able-bodied male resident of said town to work on said streets not more than four days in each year, and to provide penalties for failure to obey said ordinance, and may in such ordinance provide for the payment of a sum of money in lieu of such road service, not exceeding one dollar per day for the required time." Powers of commissioners as to streets.

Sec. 4. That the section of said act now numbered section eight shall be changed to section nine.

Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 222.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF HICKORY TO ESTABLISH AND OPERATE AN ELECTRIC-LIGHT PLANT, AND TO ISSUE BONDS THEREFOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Hickory are hereby authorized and empowered to issue coupon bonds to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, for building an electric-light plant and improvement of the streets of said city; said bonds to be in denominations of not more than one thousand and not less than one hundred dollars, and to draw interest at five per cent. from date of said bonds. Bond issue authorized. Amount. Denominations. Interest.

Sec. 2. The said bonds shall be numbered, and shall be signed by the mayor and the secretary and treasurer of said city, and shall bear said city's common seal. The interest on the same shall be payable semi-annually, in the city of Hickory, on the first day of January and the first day of August, respectively, of each year. Bonds to be numbered. How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 3. Before any bonds shall be issued under this act, the proposed issue shall first be approved by a majority of the qualified registered voters of said city, at an election to be called by the mayor and board of aldermen of said city, upon not less than thirty days' notice in some newspaper published in said city. The mayor and board of aldermen shall have full power to prescribe rules and regulations for conducting said election and to appoint necessary officials to hold the same and announce the result. Issue to be approved by voters. Election called by mayor and aldermen. Notice of election. Rules and regulations.

Bonds exempt and coupons receivable for city taxes.

Sec. 4. Said bonds, and all proceeds arising therefrom, shall be exempt from city taxes before maturity, and the coupons thereon shall, when offered, be received in payment for city taxes.

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Sec. 5. That, for the purpose of providing a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon, the said mayor and board of aldermen are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a special tax annually, not to exceed thirty cents on the hundred dollars' worth of real and personal property and ninety cents on the poll; said tax to be levied whenever said mayor and board of aldermen shall deem the same necessary.

Amount of issue to be voted on specified in notice of election.

Sec. 6. That in ordering any election to approve or disapprove any issue of bonds as aforesaid, said mayor and board of aldermen shall fix the amount of the issue of said bonds, and shall specify the same in the advertisement and notice of said election hitherto provided for in this act; and said mayor and board of aldermen shall specify the time at which said bonds shall be due and payable, which shall not exceed forty years from the date of issue of said bonds.

Maturity.

Sale to highest bidder not below par.

Sec. 7. Said bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder, for not less than par value, after thirty days' notice by said mayor and board of aldermen in such periodical or periodicals, newspaper or newspapers, as they may consider most likely to facilitate the advantageous sale of said bonds.

Successive elections.

Sec. 8. Said mayor and board of aldermen shall have power to order elections from time to time for the issue of bonds as aforesaid, until such bonds shall have been issued to an amount, in the aggregate, of fifty thousand dollars.

Lenoir college included in city.

Sec. 9. That the corporate limits of the city of Hickory are hereby extended on the east side so as to include within the limits of the said city what is known as Lenoir College grounds and campus and all buildings thereon, and over this territory the authorities of the city of Hickory shall exercise the same authority as over her other territory.

Sec. 10. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 223.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE MAYOR AND BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF HICKORY TO ISSUE BONDS TO PAY OFF A DEBT CONTRACTED FOR SEWERAGE EXTENSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That whereas, the amount of bonds hitherto issued by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Hickory, under and by virtue of chapter one hundred and seventy-one, Private Laws one thousand nine hundred and one, for the construction of a system of sewerage in said city, has proved inadequate to the completion of said system; and whereas, the completion of the same was a necessary expense to preserve the health and safety of the inhabitants of said city; and whereas, said mayor and board of aldermen have have been compelled to borrow the sum of eleven thousand dollars in order to complete the same: Preamble.

Sec. 2. Said mayor and board of aldermen are hereby authorized and empowered to issue coupon bonds in an amount not exceeding the sum of eleven thousand dollars, the proceeds of which bonds when sold, as hereinafter provided, shall be applied to the payment of the sum borrowed, as aforesaid, to complete said system and lawful interest now due or hereafter to become due thereon. Said bonds shall be in denominations of not more than one thousand nor less than fifty dollars, and shall draw interest at the rate of six per cent. from date of issue, and shall be payable in said city semi-annually, to-wit: On the first day of May and on the first day of November until said bonds shall be fully paid off and discharged. The said bonds shall become due and payable ten years from date of issue, and shall be signed by the mayor and the secretary and treasurer of said city, and shall bear the common seal of the said city. Bond issue authorized. Amount. Application of proceeds. Denominations. Interest. Maturity. How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 3. Said bonds shall be sold to the highest bidder, after thirty days' advertisement in such newspaper or newspapers as the mayor and said board of said city shall choose as most likely to facilitate the sale of said bonds to the best advantage; and none of said bonds shall be sold for a sum less than their face value. Bonds sold to highest bidder. Not to be sold below par.

Sec. 4. The mayor and board of aldermen are empowered, whenever it shall be necessary so to do for the satisfaction and payment of the principal or interest of said bonds, to levy a special tax each year upon all subjects of taxation upon which said mayor and board now have or upon which they shall have thereafter power to levy a tax according to law. Said special tax shall be used to create a sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, and shall in no case exceed fifteen cents on Special tax. Rate.

the hundred dollars' worth of real and personal property and forty-five cents on the poll.

Sec. 5. That all acts and clauses of acts in conflict with the provisions of this law are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 1st day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 224.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE TOWN OF MURPHEY, IN CHEROKEE COUNTY, TO ISSUE BONDS FOR WATER-WORKS AND SEWERAGE.

Preamble.

Whereas, at an election held in and for the town of Murphey on the twenty-eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and six, the duly qualified voters of said town authorized the board of commissioners thereof to issue bonds to the amount of forty thousand dollars for water-works and sewerage: now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Amount.

Maturity.

Interest.

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Murphey are hereby authorized and empowered to issue, from time to time, to an amount not exceeding forty thousand dollars, bonds in the name of the town of Murphey, in such denominations and form, and payable thirty years after date, and bearing interest at no greater rate than six per cent. per annum, payable annually or semi-annually, as said board of commissioners may determine.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Application of proceeds.

Sec. 2. That said bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for a less sum than their par value; and that the money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for the erection, maintenance and establishment of a system of water-works, sewerage and necessary adjuncts in and for the town of Murphey.

Receivable for town taxes.

Sec. 3. That said bonds and their coupons shall be receivable in payment of town taxes for any fiscal year in which they fall due or thereafter; and if the holder of any of said bonds shall fail to present same at the time and place named therein for payment, he shall not be entitled to more than ten days' interest thereon for the time said bonds shall have been outstanding after maturity.

Special tax for interest.

Sec. 4. That the coupons annexed to said bonds shall represent the interest, and for the purpose of paying off, taking up and cancelling said coupons on any or all of said bonds as the same shall become due and payable, it shall become and be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town, and they are hereby empowered to levy and collect a sufficient special tax upon all subjects of taxation under the charter of said town and all amendments thereto for the payment of the interest on the same. And said taxes, when collected, shall at all times be kept separate from other taxes levied and collected in and for said town.

Record of bonds.

Sec. 5. That said bonds shall be issued under and by direction of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Murphey, a record of which shall be made and kept by the clerk thereof; and said bonds and the coupons thereon shall be dated, numbered and signed by the mayor, and sealed with the corporate seal and countersigned by the town treasurer, who shall receive the money derived from the sale thereof. It shall be the duty of said treasurer and of the mayor each to keep a book suitable for the purpose wherein they shall enter the number of the bonds sold, the amount and date thereof, and to whom issued or sold; and in addition, the treasurer shall enter in the book kept by him the amount of bonds and coupons cancelled by him, the numbers and dates thereof, and from whom received and when cancelled; and for the faithful performance of his duties under this act, and the proper disbursement of the moneys received by him under the same, the treasurer shall give bond, with good and sufficient sureties, in an amount and form as may be prescribed by the board of commissioners of said town.

How authenticated.

Mayor and treasurer to keep record.

Bond of treasurer.

Easements for water-works.

Sec. 6. That the said board of commissioners may acquire by gift or grant lands or easements thereof, or rights-of-way over the same, or the right to use springs, branches or other water courses for the purpose of erecting, operating and maintaining water-works, sewers, etc., or for conducting water to or conveying sewerage from said town.

Condemnation of land.

Sec. 7. If the said board of commissioners cannot agree with the owners upon a price for the lands or any of the rights named in the preceding section, they shall have the right to have the same condemned and compensation therefor assessed and fixed, by filing a petition before the clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County against the owners of such land, setting forth the facts necessary and proper to be set out, specifying what land is desired as accurately as can reasonably be done, or what easements, and proceeding as provided in the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five, chapter sixty-one, section two thousand five hundred and seventy-five to two thousand five hundred and ninety-six, both inclusive. And in such proceeding there shall be no appeal from any interlocutory order or judgment, and if the land or right demanded and required shall be condemned, no appeal shall stay further proceedings for establishing said water-works or sewerage, upon payment or deposit with the clerk of the Superior Court of the sum fixed as the value of the land or rights demanded. The final judgment rendered by the court, if it shall condemn lands or other rights, shall, on payment of the compensation fixed, either to the parties or into court for them, have the force and effect of a deed or grant for an easement only in conveying to or vesting said lands or rights in the board of commissioners of said town.

Erection of waterworks.

Sec. 8. That the board of commissioners of said town of Murphey is hereby authorized and empowered to provide a suitable water supply for said town, either by erecting waterworks and a system of sewerage or by contracting with other persons or corporations to erect and provide the same, and to make such other public improvements of like character as the health of the citizens and safety of property in said town may require.

Contracts for water supply.

Watershed.

Sec. 9. That said board of commissioners of said town may acquire and hold a sufficient watershed for a water supply for said town; and if same cannot be had by agreement with the owner or owners, it may be condemned, as provided in section seven of this act.

Sec. 10. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Corporate powers. Company, and under that name may sue and be sued in any court of the State of North Carolina or elsewhere; may have and use a common seal; may acquire by purchase, gift, devise, lease or otherwise any real, personal or mixed estate, and lease or sell the same, as the interest of the company may require; may acquire, operate or lease any quarries, mines, forests, lumber yards or furnaces, also steamships, docks, wharves, lighters, barges, tugs, steamboats and vessels; may lease, buy or construct telegraph and telephone lines along and near its right-of-way, and charge tolls, under such rules and regulations as are prescribed by the laws of this State; or, at the option of its board of directors, may lease or rent these privileges to other corporate bodies or persons; may build branch roads, not exceeding more than fifty miles each, from any point on its main line; may change the name of said company by a vote of a majority of its stockholders at a regular or special meeting, and may make all such by-laws for the government of said company as may be deemed proper and are not inconsistent with law. Branch roads.

Sec. 2. That the authorized capital of said company shall be one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. That said capital stock may be subscribed for and paid in money, lands, mines, mineral property, materials, bonds, timber, labor, depot or terminal facilities, franchises, rights-of-way, water craft or otherwise, as may be agreed upon between the subscriber or subscribers and the said company. Capital stock. Payments of subscriptions.

Sec. 3. That books of subscription to the capital stock of said company shall be opened by the corporators, or a majority of them, acting in person or by proxy, at such times and places and under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe. That as soon as ten thousand dollars have been subscribed for bona fide to the capital stock, the said company shall be authorized to commence operations, and to exercise all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises granted by this act; and said corporators, or a majority of them, acting in person or by proxy, shall be authorized to call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of organization at such place or places as they may deem advisable, giving ten days' notice thereof in some newspaper published in Warren or Vance County, and at such meeting, and each annual meeting thereafter, a board of not less than seven directors shall be elected by the stockholders. That said board of directors shall hold office for one year, and until their successors are elected, and shall appoint a president, vice-president and such other officers, agents and employees as they may deem proper, and fix their duties, and may fill any vacancy occurring in the office of director, president, vice-president or other officer. Books of subscription. When business to begin. Meeting for organization. Directors. Term of office. President and other officers, agents and employees. Vacancies.

Sec. 4. That after the organization of said company the president and board of directors may again, from time to time, open books of subscription to the capital stock of said company, at such times and places and under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe. No stockholder shall be responsible for any amount greater than his unpaid subscription. Books of subscription re-opened. Stockholders not individually liable.

Power to construct, maintain and operate railroad. Termini and routes.

Sec. 5. That said company shall have the power to locate, construct and operate a railroad for the transportation of freight, passengers, mail and express from the Virginia line, either in the counties of Warren or Vance, North Carolina, thence in a southeasterly direction through the counties of Franklin or Nash, Johnston or Wilson, Wayne or Greene, Lenoir, Craven or Jones, or any of them, to reach tide-water in the eastern part of North Carolina, as shall be determined by said board of directors, and to build branch roads as above provided.

Powers and privileges under general law.

Sec. 6. That the said railroad company may build its railroad and branch roads as may be deemed most advantageons and expedient, and it shall have all the powers and privileges contained in volume one, chapter forty-nine, of The Code of North Carolina, and all of the acts of the General Assembly of North Carolina amendatory thereto.

Power to cross, intersect with or join other roads.

Sec. 7. That said company shall have the right to cross at grade or over or under, intersect, join or unite its railroad with any railroad now built or constructed, or which may hereafter be built or constructed within the State of North Carolina, at any point of its main line or branches, with the necessary turn-outs, sidings, switches and other conveniences, and, when necessary, to use the right-of-way of other roads, when the same is not occupied with tracks or buildings, and have the right to cross public highways, also streets in incorporated towns.

Power to use streets.

Power of condemnation of land.

Procedure for condemnation.

Sec. 8. That when any right-of-way may be required by the company for the purpose of constructing its railroad and branches, and for want of agreement for any cause it cannot be purchased from the owner, the same may be condemned in accordance with volume one, chapter forty-nine, of The Code of North Carolina, and all the acts of the General Assembly of North Carolina, amendatory thereof, to the extent of fifty feet on each side of the track of said railroad and branches, measuring from the center of same. And the company shall have the power to appropriate and condemn land in like manner for the building and erection thereon of depots, warehouses and shops and houses for servants and employees and other purposes, not exceeding five acres in any one lot or place.

Right to borrow money.

Sec. 9. That said company shall have the right to borrow money, when so authorized by its board of directors in general or special meetings assembled, and to issue coupon bonds at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent., and to secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust or trust agreement with any bank, trust company or corporation, on its property, franchises and effects, or otherwise. And should said company issue second mortgage bonds, as hereafter provided, then, in that event, it shall not issue first mortgage bonds exceeding fifteen thousand dollars per mile of its main road and branches.

Limit to first mortgage bonds if second mortgage bonds issue.

Work to begin at any point of line.

Sec. 10. That the said company may begin work upon any point of its line, and upon the construction of any part or portion thereof may operate any such part or portion with all the rights, powers and maintain privileges hereby granted to this company. That it may, under purchase, lease, agreement or such running arrangement as it can make with any other railroad company, operate any railroad as a link between different portions of its own line.

Part of line may be operated.

May operate other roads.

Interchange of traffic.

Sec. 11. It shall be compulsory with the Virginia and Eastern Carolina Railroad and all other railroads with which it connects to interchange traffic in a prompt manner, to prorate on a mileage basis, unless by mutual arrangement with managers of railroads in North Carolina to make the divisions of rates otherwise on all business originating at or destined within the borders of the State, and routing orders of consignees by all transportation lines shall be respected. That all railroad companies shall switch cars to and from industries, loading or unloading tracks, warehouses and other places for handling freight, for each other, within any city limits or three miles from same, for not more than two dollars per loaded car; empty cars shall be handled free; and that no railroad company shall make a higher switching charge for one railroad than it does for another.

Switching charges.

Second mortgage bonds.

Sec. 12. That for the purpose of aiding in the construction of the Virginia and Eastern Carolina Railroad Company, the board of directors of said company shall have the power, in general or special meeting, to issue coupon bonds to an amount not exceeding four thousand dollars per mile upon said railroad and branch roads, bearing interest at five per cent., payable semi-annually; the principal of said bonds to be made payable fifty years from the date of issue; and to secure the payment of said bonds and interest by a second mortgage or deed of trust on its property, franchises, effects, or otherwise. That it shall be lawful for any county, township, city or town in or through which the said road or its branches may be located, or which may be interested in its construction, to subscribe to the said second mortgage bonds of said railroad company in such sums as a majority of the qualified electors of any such county, township, city or town may authorize, anything contained in the charter of any such city, town or other corporation to the contrary notwithstanding. That the said subscription shall be made in coupon bonds, bearing interest at five per cent., interest payable semi-annually, and the principal of said bonds to be due and payable fifty years from the time of issue, the said bonds to be received by said railroad at par, and upon receiving the same the said railroad company shall deliver to such counties, townships, cities or towns as shall subscribe a like amount of its second mortgage bonds in exchange therefor. All of said bonds to be in denominations of five hundred or one thousand dollars each.

Counties, townships, cities and towns may subscribe for such bonds.

Subscription made in bonds.

Denominations.

Election ordered on petition of taxpayers.

Sec. 13. That for the purpose of determining the amount of such subscription it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of any county in which the said railroad has the right under this charter to construct its road or branches, or which may be interested in the construction of said road or branches, or of the board of aldermen or the board of commissioners or other municipal authorities of any city or town in or through any part of which the said railroad has the right under this charter to construct its road or branches, or which may be interested in the construction of said road or branches, upon the written application of fifty taxpayers of any such county, or thirty in any township, city or town, specifying therein the amount to be subscribed in bonds, to submit to the qualified electors of such county, township, city or town, as the case may be, the question of "Subscription" or "No Subscription" to the second mortgage bonds of said railroad company. And said board of county commissioners, board of aldermen, board of commissioners or other municipal authorities of such city or town, as the case may be, shall order an election, specifying the time, place and purpose of the election, and shall provide for the holding of the same as is now provided for the holding of elections for members of the General Assembly, except as hereinafter provided for the said election in any city or town. That at said election ballots shall be provided upon which shall be printed the word "Subscription," and also ballots shall be provided upon which shall be printed or written the words "No Subscription"; and said board of county commissioners, board of aldermen or board of commissioners or other municipal authorities of such city or town, having first fixed the amount proposed to be subscribed according to the request of the petition submitted to them, shall give public notice of said election, not exceeding sixty days immediately prior thereto, in one or more newspapers published in the county in which such election is to be held, and if there is no newspaper published in such county, then in some newspaper published in the county nearest thereto, and also at the court-house door of such county, that such an election will be held upon the day therein named. That a new registration may be ordered in accordance with law by such board of county commissioners, board of aldermen, board of commissioners or other municipal authority, as the case may be, of the qualified voters of said county, township, city or town for the said election.

Question to be submitted.

Election to be ordered.

Sec. 15. That to provide for the interest of said bonds and their redemption at or before maturity, the board of county commissioners aforesaid, or board of aldermen or board of commissioners or other municipal authorities aforesaid, subscribing shall, in addition to other taxes, each year compute and levy on all property of any such county, township, city or town as may make a subscription of bonds to the said second mortgage bonds, preserving the constitutional equation of taxation, a sufficient tax to pay such interest, and an additional tax sufficient to provide each year a sum equal to one-fiftieth part of the principal of the said bonds, for a sinking fund, which amount shall annually be collected as the other taxes are, and paid to the county treasurer or other officer of said county, city or town authorized by law to perform the duties of treasurer, as commissioner of sinking fund, and by him invested in said bonds, which shall be cancelled by the county commissioners or the municipal authorities of the city or town, as the case may be; but in case said treasurer or other officer shall be unable to invest the sinking fund herein provided for in said bonds at or about par value, he shall invest the same in solvent bonds or securities, as may be selected and approved by the county commissioners aforesaid, or the proper authorities of any city or town, as the case may be, subscribing to the second mortgage bonds of said railroad company.

Special taxes where subscriptions made.

Investments of sinking fund.

Townships incorporated.

Sec. 16. That for the purpose of this act, all the townships along the line of said railroad and its branches, or which are interested in its construction, are hereby declared bodies politic and corporate, and are vested with the necessary powers to carry out the provisions of this act, and shall have all the rights and be subject to the liabilities in respect to any right or cause of action growing out of the provisions of this act. The county commissioners of the respective counties in which are situated the respective townships subscribing are declared to be the corporate agents of the township so incorporated and situated within the limits of the said counties respectively.

County commissioners corporate agents of townships.

Convict labor in construction of road.

Sec. 17. That the State, county and city convicts may be used in the construction of said railroad and its branches, in such numbers and at such times as may be agreed upon by the proper authorities in charge of said convicts and by said railroad company, and the payment of same to be made in first or second mortgage bonds, or legal money of the United States, as is arranged by the proper authorities in charge of said convicts and the railroad company. The settlements for such labor shall be made monthly.

CHAPTER 231.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF DURHAM TO ISSUE BONDS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION AND ERECTION OF A SEWERAGE DISPOSAL PLANT, AND TO IMPROVE AND EXTEND THE SEWERAGE SYSTEM OF THE CITY OF DURHAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the aldermen of the city of Durham be and the same are hereby authorized to issue coupon bonds not to exceed in amount the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, and in denominations of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, bearing interest from date of bonds at Bond issue authorized. Amount. Denominations. Interest.

a rate not to exceed five per centum per annum, and payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, until the said bonds are paid; that the said bonds shall be made payable at a time to be fixed by said aldermen and named therein, not to be less than five nor more than thirty years from date thereof: Provided, however, that the said aldermen of the city of Durham may divide said bonds into classes, as they may determine best, and have them mature at different convenient dates between the limits aforesaid. It is further enacted that said bonds and their coupons shall be numbered, and the bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the City of Durham and countersigned by the clerk of the board of aldermen of said city, and have the corporate seal of said city affixed thereto; and the coupons attached thereto shall bear the fac-simile signature of the mayor of said city, engraved or lithographed thereon; that a record shall be kept of the said bonds showing the numbers and denominations thereof, and to whom sold, the dates of issuing thereof, and when the same will mature, and the interest-bearing rate thereof, the amount received from the sale of same, and the date of paying the proceeds into the treasury of said city, and such other data in relation to the same as the board of aldermen may direct to be kept.

Maturity.

Proviso: bonds may be classified.

How bonds authenticated.

Record of bonds.

Bonds not to be sold below par.

Not delivered before payment of purchase-money.

Sec. 2. That the bonds hereby authorized to be issued shall not be sold for less than their face value, and the mayor of said city shall not deliver said bonds, or any of them, to the purchaser thereof until the purchase-money thereof shall be paid to the treasurer of said city, and his receipt to the purchaser produced before the mayor as evidence of such payment; and the treasurer of the city shall receive all such moneys paid in the purchase of the bonds in his official capacity as treasurer of said city, and he and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable to account for and pay over the same as is provided in this act, or as may be otherwise provided by the laws relating to the treasurer of said city of Durham; and it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of the said city of Durham to see to it that the bond of said treasurer shall at all times be sufficient in amount and with satisfactory sureties to provide against any loss of money arising from the sale of said bonds, and to that end may at any time require said treasurer to renew his official bond in such sum and with satisfactory sureties as they may require, and in default thereof remove him from his office as treasurer.

Funds to be kept separate.

Application of proceeds of bonds.

Sec. 3. That the Treasurer of the City of Durham shall keep separate from all other public moneys coming into his hands the moneys arising as proceeds from the sale of said bonds, and the same shall be expended under the direction of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham, for the construction and erection of a sewerage disposal plant, and improve and extending the sewerage system of the city of Durham: Provided, however, this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said city of Durham for their ratification or rejection, at an election to be held in said city at such a time as the aldermen may appoint, within two years from the ratification of this act. The said election shall be advertised by the said board of aldermen of the said city of Durham for thirty days prior to the day of election in one or more newspapers published in said city, and the said election shall be held under the supervision of inspectors and poll-holders or judges of election appointed by the said board of aldermen; and the returns of the result of said election be made and certified in like manner as all other elections in said city, and in like manner the returns of said election and the result thereof be canvassed by the said board of aldermen and the result declared. At the said election those who are in favor of issuing bonds shall vote "For Sewerage Bonds," and those who are opposed shall vote "No Sewerage Bonds," on written or printed ballots; that the number of the ballots cast for and against said bonds, and deposited in the ballot boxes provided for that purpose, shall be counted and the result of said election certified and returned to the said Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham, and the same, when canvassed and declared as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hands of the mayor of the said city and the said clerk of the said board of aldermen and the corporate seal of the said city of Durham to the Secretary of State, which said certificate of result of said election shall be filed by the Secretary of State in his office. If at said election a majority of the qualified voters of the city of Durham shall not vote "For Sewerage Bonds," then this act shall be thereafter of no force and effect; but if at said election a majority of the qualified voters of the city of Durham shall vote "For Sewerage Bonds," then the said board of aldermen shall proceed at once to issue and sell said bonds, or so many thereof as shall be necessary, in the judgment and discretion of said body corporate, for purposes aforesaid.

Proviso: ratification or rejection of act to be voted on.

Notice of election.

Law governing election.

Ballots.

Count and return of vote.

Result certified to secretary of State.

Act rejected.

Bonds to be issued.

Sec. 4. In order to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund to pay the principal of said bonds at maturity, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham shall levy and collect a special tax of not exceeding one cent on every hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in the said city, or such other special taxes as may be necessary for that purpose; and the money paid into the city treasury, received from the taxes under this act, shall be appropriated for the payment of said bonds and coupons, and for no other purpose whatsoever: Provided, all moneys remaining in the treasury belonging to said fund, after all the aforesaid bonds and coupons shall have been redeemed, may then be transferred by order of said body corporate to the general funds of said city of Durham.

Special tax for interest and sinking fund.

Rate.

Appropriation of tax.

Proviso: surplus carried to general fund.

Trustee of sinking fund.

Sec. 5. The Board of Aldermen of the City of Durham may, if in their opinion at any time it becomes necessary or advisable, appoint a trustee, whose duty it shall be to receive from the Tax Collector of the City of Durham all taxes collected under this act for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and creating a sinking fund to pay the principal of said bonds at maturity; and the said board of aldermen may prescribe the duty of said trustee, fix the amount of his compensation and the bond for the faithful performance of duty on his part. It shall be the duty of the said trustee to invest or lend the money coming into his hands for the purpose of creating a sinking fund in safe securities and upon real estate situated in the city of Durham: Provided, however, that no such investment or loan shall be made without the consent and approval of said body corporate hereinbefore referred to.

Duty, pay and bond of trustee.

Investment of sinking fund.

Commission of treasurer.

Sec. 6. The Treasurer of the City of Durham shall be allowed in full payment for his services a commission not exceeding one-fourth of one per centum of the amount disbursed under this act, arising from the sale of said bonds, but shall not be allowed anything for receiving the same from the city tax collector.

Sec. 7. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE IOTLA GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT, IN MACON COUNTY, AND PROVIDE FOR THE RUNNING AND MAINTENANCE OF A GRADED SCHOOL THEREIN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Territory constituted graded school district.

Boundary.

Section 1. That all the territory included in the Iotla High School District Number Two, in Macon County, and more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the Tennessee River, near the Thomas Shepherd place, and running with the southeast boundary line to the Lyle Knob; then with the divide between Cowee and Mason Branch to the Big Rocks at the upper end of Mrs. Bryson's field; then crossing the Tennessee River, and down the river to the lower end of Thomas Downs' field; then a southwest course to N. L. Barnard's line, and with his outside line around to the road near W. R. Fout's; then with said Barnard's line to Lack Barnard's; then running so as to include all the territory in the Double Branch District to the beginning, shall be and the same is hereby constituted a graded school district, to be known as the Iotla Graded School District. Name.

Sec. 2. That the Commissioners of Macon County, upon the petition of one-third of the freeholders of said district, endorsed by a majority of the board of trustees, hereinafter provided for, for said graded school district, shall cause an election to be held at the Iotla graded or high school building at a time, notice of which time and place shall be published in some newspaper published in Macon County, and posted at three public places in said district for twenty days prior to the holding of said election; and submit to the qualified voters of said district the question of whether or not an annual tax shall be levied for the support of public or graded schools in said Iotla Graded School District, above referred to and mentioned. The election under this act shall be held under the same rules and regulations that govern the election of members of the General Assembly, by a registrar and two judges appointed by the Board of County Commissioners of Macon County; said registrar and judges to be qualified voters of said district. The registrar shall make an entirely new registration of the voters of the district for the purposes of this act, and, together with the judges above provided for, shall hold the election herein provided for, under the rules and regulations provided by law for the election of members of the General Assembly, at the time and place designated in the notice of such election. And all those favoring the levy and collection of such tax shall vote a written or printed ballot, without device, with the words "For Schools" upon it; and all those who are opposed to the levying and collection of such tax shall vote a written or printed ballot, without device, with the words "Against Schools" upon it. The penalty for illegal and fraudulent voting shall be the same as in general elections. And upon the conclusion of such election the registrar and judges shall canvass and judicially determine the result, and shall certify to the board of county commissioners the number of votes cast for schools and the number of votes cast against schools, together with the number of voters in said district, as shown by the registration books. Cost of election to be paid out of funds of the district.

County commissioners on petition to order election.

Notice of election.

Question to be submitted.

Law governing election.

New registration.

Ballots.

Registrar and judges to canvass and determine result. Certificate.

Sec. 3. That if a majority of the qualified voters of said district shall vote for schools the said tax shall be levied by the county commissioners, and collected by the tax collector of the county in said graded school district, under the same rules and regulations under which other taxes are levied and collected. And the said tax collector shall be subject to the same liabilities and penalties, for the collection and disbursement of said taxes, as he is for other school taxes of the county; and shall receive as compensation for such services two per centum commission:

Tax levied if school voted for.

Commission of tax collector.

Proviso: tax rate.

Provided, that the special tax so levied and collected under this act, shall not exceed thirty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property, and ninety cents on the poll; and the said tax collector or county treasurer shall pay the amount so collected under this act to the treasurer of the board of trustees for the benefit of the graded school of said district, as hereinafter provided for. But if a majority of the qualified voters of said district shall vote against schools, then and in that event no special tax for the support of the graded school in said district shall be levied or collected, unless ordered by a future election, which may be held under the same rules and regulations as the first election under this act: Provided, that no new election for this purpose shall be held in said district, until after the expiration of six months from the time of holding the previous election: Provided further, that in the event of a new election in said district for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters thereof the question of levying and collecting a special tax for the support of the graded school in said district, and a majority of the qualified voters of the same voting for schools, then the tax herein provided for shall be levied, collected and applied according to the provisions of this act, the same as if no other or former election had been held.

Successive elections.

Proviso: no new election within six months.

Proviso: tax levied if voted for at subsequent election.

Trustees and terms of office.

Sec. 4. That the following named persons shall constitute the board of trustees for said graded school district, to-wit: John Ramsey, for a term of one year; James L. Poindexter, for a term of two years; Robert V. Williams, for a term of three years; W. A. Ramsey for a term of four years, and Norman L. Barnard, for a term of five years. That the successor of each member of the board of trustees shall be elected by the County Board of Education for Macon County for a term of two years; and all vacancies in the board of trustees caused by death, resignation or removal shall be filled by the remaining members of the board, for the unexpired term of the trustee or trustees whose office may become vacant.

Election of successors.

Vacancies.

Organization.

Sec. 5. The board of trustees shall organize by electing a chairman, secretary and treasurer; the secretary and treasurer may be one person; he shall hold his office for a term of two years, and shall give a good and sufficient bond in the sum of two thousand dollars to be approved and accepted by the board of trustees; and the same shall be filed and recorded as other official bonds, and may be increased, if so demanded by the board of trustees. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, the receipts and disbursements of all funds belonging to the graded school district; and shall take an accurate census of the children within the school age living in the district, and report the same to the county superintendent of schools, as required by the general school law. They shall have power to elect, employ and fix the compensation of a superintendent or principal and such other teachers as shall be deemed necessary for the conduct and management of said graded school. And with the aid of the superintendent, may examine the applicants for positions as teachers, and pass upon their qualifications; and do and perform any and all other acts necessary to be done in managing and maintaining the graded school of the district: Provided, that if the superintendent above provided for be not elected by the board of trustees, then the superintendent of schools for the county, under the general school law, may be ex officio superintendent of said graded school, as he is for other public schools in the county.

Proviso: superintendent ex-officio if none elected.

Sec. 6. That the board of trustees and their successors in office shall be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name and style of The Board of Iotla Graded School Trustees, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, acquire by gift, purchase or otherwise real and personal property, hold and exchange, mortgage and sell the same for the benefit of said graded school. And all moneys received from all these sources, and all money from the State and county public school fund, which may from time to time be collected and apportioned under the general school law for general school purposes for the children of the district, together with all money to which the district may be entitled under this act, by reason of the special tax herein provided for, shall from time to time be paid over to the treasurer of the board of trustees, to be applied in keeping, running and maintaining the graded school in said Iotla Graded School District; the same to be expended and disposed of under the direction of the said board of trustees, whose warrants, signed by the chairman and two other members, shall be the only valid vouchers in the hands of the treasurer for the disbursement of said money, in any settlement required of him by law.

Trustees incorporated.

Corporate name.

Corporate powers.

School funds.

School warrants.

Sec. 7. That the property of the public schools of said district shall become the property of said graded school district, and shall be vested in the board of trustees in trust for said graded school: Provided, that in the event of the discontinuance of said graded school, then all the property thereto belonging shall revert to and become the property of the public school of the Iotla High School District Number Two as now constituted.

Property vested in trustees.

Proviso: property to revert on discontinuance of school.

Sec. 8. That the board of graded school trustees shall have exclusive control of all the school interests and property in said graded school district. They shall establish, run, operate and maintain a graded public school at the Iotla graded or high school building, for white children and pupils; and they shall adopt, to be used in said school, the text-books recommended by the State Board of Education, together with such other text-books as said board of trustees shall deem necessary for the best interests of said

Trustees to have exclusive control of schools.

graded school and pupils, and shall fix the rates of tuition to be paid for the same in all the grades: Provided, that children of the school age living in the district shall not be required to pay tuition during the public school term. They may admit pupils residing outside the limits of said district upon such terms as shall seem reasonable and just: Provided, there shall be accommodations more than adequate for all the pupils or children of school age, living within the limits of said graded school district.

Grades. Additional grades.

Sec. 9. The grades in said graded school shall run from one to ten (1 to 10), and additional grades may be established, or additional studies included in the established grades, whenever the board of trustees and the superintendent shall deem that the interests of the school and those of the pupils require the establishment of higher grades or studies. The graded school shall have graduating powers, and any student having completed the course prescribed in the regulations of said graded school, and passing a satisfactory examination in the studies pursued in all the grades shall be entitled to a diploma or certificate of graduation, to be signed by the chairman and secretary of the board of trustees and the superintendent and faculty of said graded school. And when the same is approved and countersigned by the county superintendent of schools, it shall be a sufficient license to teach in the public schools of the State, and in the county where so approved, for a term of two years.

Graduating powers. Diplomas. Diplomas license to teach.

Training department.

Sec. 10. That, for the purpose of elevating the standard of education and supplying the public schools with more efficient teachers, a high school or training department, to which advanced pupils, and those pledging and obligating themselves to become teachers, and public school teachers of Macon County may have access, shall be established in said graded school, in accordance with such laws as are or may be enacted establishing public high schools in this State.

Sec. 11. That all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 12. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 233.

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE TOWN OF MADISON TO ISSUE BONDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Madison is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of the town of Madison in such denominations and forms as it may determine, to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), payable at such times and places as the board of aldermen may prescribe: Provided, that the time of payment of such bonds shall be not less than thirty (30) and not more than fifty (50) years from their date. Bond issue authorized. Denominations. Amount. Maturity.

Sec. 2. That the said bonds shall bear interest at no greater rate than six (6) per cent. per annum, and the interest shall be made payable annually or semi-annually, as the board of aldermen may prescribe; such bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. Beginning at the mouth of Broom Field Run on South Creek, and running up said run with its ravine courses to W. R. Swain's east line and then northwardly to Swain's northeast corner and westwardly with Swain's and L. M. Broom's north line to the J. Pate southwest corner, and thence northwardly with Pate's west line to his northwest corner, and thence north with Pate's line extended to Whitehurst Creek run or swamp; thence eastwardly with Whitehurst Creek run to South Creek; thence up South Creek to the beginning. The above de- Boundary. Aurora graded school district.

scribed district shall constitute and be known as the Aurora Graded School District, which is only a part of the original Aurora Graded School District as first established. That the Board of County Commissioners of Beaufort County shall order an election in the new territory described herein on a day appointed by it; said board of county commissioners shall give thirty days' notice of said election at two public places in said territory; shall designate one polling place in said territory; shall appoint a registrar, who shall register all qualified voters in said territory according to law; shall appoint two qualified voters residing in said territory as poll-holders who, together with said registrar, shall hold said election at the polling place designated and shall canvass the returns and declare the result and certify the same to the county commissioners, who shall have said returns of said election recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Beaufort County. At said election the question of levying on all polls and property in said territory a special tax for school purposes of same rate as that now levied on all polls and property for the same purpose in the territory embraced in the other part of the Aurora Graded School District shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters in said new territory, and those favoring the levy of such tax shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed "For School Tax," and those opposed shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed "Against School Tax." If a majority of the qualified voters shall cast their votes "For School Tax," then the same tax as is now levied on all polls and property in the Aurora Graded School District for the support of the public schools thereof shall be levied and collected on all polls and property for the same purpose, in the same manner, at the same time and by the same officer in said territory in which said election is held, and the funds arising from said tax shall be paid over to the treasurer of said Aurora Graded School District, and said territory shall be added to and constitute a part of said Aurora Graded School District; and all children of school age residing in said territory shall be entitled to all the privileges of the public schools conducted in the Aurora Graded School District in all respects as are other children of school age residing in said district.

Election to be ordered.

Effect if majority of voters vote for schools.

Special tax levied by town commissioners of Aurora.

Sec. 2. That for the purposes of providing for and defraying the expense of the Aurora Graded School District for white and colored children, provided for in this act, the Board of Town Commissioners of the Town of Aurora shall annually and at the time of levying the municipal taxes levy and lay a particular tax on all persons, property and subjects of taxation within the limits of the Aurora Graded School District, as heretofore described, on which said board of town commissioners may now or hereafter be authorized to lay or levy taxes for any purpose whatsoever. The said particular taxes to be and remain the same as when the original Aurora graded school was first established, which is thirty cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation on all personal and real property of whatsoever kind and ninety cents on each taxable poll of said district. Rate.

Sec. 3. That for the purposes and benefits of this act the provisions of all laws governing the assessment of real and personal property, the levy and collection of municipal taxes and the holding of municipal elections in the town of Aurora shall be and are hereby extended to that portion of said graded school district lying without the corporate limits of said town as fully as if the same lay within said corporate limits, and that in all elections which shall be held under this act, that portion of said graded school district lying without said corporate limits shall be deemed a ward of said town. Town rights extended to district.

Sec. 4. That said taxes shall be collected by the Tax Collector of the Town of Aurora at the time and in the manner that the municipal taxes are collected, and said tax collector shall pay the amount collected over to the treasurer of said town, who shall keep such money separate and apart from the municipal funds, and the treasurer shall pay out said taxes and other funds which may come into his hands for the use of said graded school, only upon the warrant of the chairman and secretary of said board of graded school trustees: Provided, that said tax collector and said treasurer shall enter into bonds in such amount as said board of trustees may direct, that of the former conditioned for the faithful collection and paying over the said taxes and other funds that may come into his hands for the use and benefits of said graded school and that of the latter for the safekeeping and proper disbursement of same. Collection of tax. Proviso: bonds of tax collector and treasurer.

Sec. 5. That R. L. N. Bonner, B. W. Miller, Dr. S. W. Staley, J. B. Whitehurst and L. T. Thompson be and are hereby constituted a board of trustees for the public school of said graded school district. That the above named trustees shall hold office until the first Tuesday in May, one thousand nine hundred and nine, or until their successors are duly elected as hereafter provided for, which shall be every two years thereafter, who shall be elected by the board of town commissioners immediately after it has been installed in office or at its meeting after said board of town commissioners has been duly elected. That in the case of death or resignation the remaining trustees shall duly elect other trustees to fill the vacancies, who shall hold the same length of time as that of the retiring trustees. Trustees appointed. Term of office. Vacancies.

Sec. 6. That the said board of graded school trustees and their successors shall be and are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name and style of the Board of the Aurora Graded Trustees incorporated. Corporate name.

Corporate rights.

School Trustees of Aurora, North Carolina, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, acquire by gift, purchase or devise real and personal property, hold, change, mortgage or sell the same and exercise such other rights and privileges as are incident to other corporations, and said corporation shall have a corporate seal which it may break and change at pleasure.

Trustees to establish schools.

Sec. 7. That it shall be the duty of said board of graded school trustees to establish graded public schools for the white and colored children of said graded school district. The said board of trustees shall appropriate and use the funds derived from said particular taxes and from other sources in such manner as may be deemed just to both races, providing equal school facilities for each, due regard being paid, however, to the difference in the cost of maintaining said schools: Provided, that all donations to said schools shall be applied as directed by the donors.

Proviso; donations applied as directed.

Trustees to have exclusive control of schools.

Sec. 8. That said board of graded school trustees shall have exclusive control of all public schools in said school district free from the supervision and control of the county board of school directors and the County Superintendent of Schools of Beaufort County. The board of trustees shall cause a census to be taken of all the children, same as directed by law, once each year, which shall be forwarded to the superintendent of county board of schools, and shall employ and fix the compensation of all officers and teachers of schools and shall exercise such powers as may be necessary for the successful control and operation of said graded school.

School census.

Apportionment from general school funds.

Sec. 9. That all public school funds derived from the State and from the county of Beaufort for the use and benefit of said graded school district shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Town of Aurora by the treasurer of said county for the use and benefit of the said graded school in said graded school district; and the property, both real and personal, of the various public school districts embraced within the limits of said graded school district shall become the property of said graded school district, and the title thereto shall be vested in said board of trustees in trust therefor; and said board of trustees may in its discretion sell the same or any part thereof and apply the proceeds to the use of the public graded schools established in said graded school district.

Title to school property vested in trustees.

Incidental fee.

Sec. 10. That said board of graded school trustees may, if in its judgment necessary for the maintenance of said graded school, require from each pupil entered therein an incidental fee of not more than two dollars and a half per annum, payable as the board of trustees may direct: Provided, that such fees shall be applied exclusively to the maintenance of the graded school in the graded school district.

Sec. 11. The said board of graded school trustees shall elect annually all teachers and exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties as it may deem necessary for the betterment of the graded schools in the said graded school district. Election of teachers.

Sec. 12. The said board of graded school trustees is hereby authorized in its discretion to fix the studies and adopt the books for said graded schools. Trustees to fix studies and adopt books.

Sec. 13. That it shall be the duty of the said board of graded school trustees to make to the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the Town of Aurora annually, after the close of each school year, a full report of the operations of the graded schools of said graded school district, and duplicate copies of said report shall be furnished to the County Superintendent of Schools of Beaufort County. Reports.

Sec. 14. That the several boards of trustees having authority under the general school law of the State shall, in the apportionment of all public school funds to said graded school district, apportion same upon a per capita basis. Apportionments per capita.

Sec. 15. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 16. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

thereto, which said bonds and their coupons shall be exempt from taxation until after they become due, and the coupons shall be receivable in payment for town taxes. That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, as the interest becomes due, it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen, and it is hereby empowered so to do, to levy and collect each year a sufficient special tax upon all subjects of taxation which are now or may hereafter be embraced in the subjects of taxation under the charter of said town, and in the manner and at the same time as other taxes are levied and collected under the said charter: Provided, that the taxes collected under this act for the payment of said interest coupons as aforesaid shall be used for no other purpose and it shall be the duty of the town treasurer, as said coupons are paid, to cancel the same and return them to the board of aldermen with a report showing their number and amount, to be further canceled or destroyed by the board of aldermen, and the treasurer shall make such report and turn in said coupons as often as he has said coupons.

Special tax.

Proviso: specific appropriation of tax.

Power subject to approval of voters.

Sec. 4. That the board of aldermen shall not issue said bonds or any of them nor levy nor collect said tax until it shall have been authorized and empowered so to do by a majority of the qualified registered voters of said town, at an election to be held at such time and place as the said board shall appoint, of which notice shall be given for twenty (20) days in some newspaper published in the said town; and at said election those favoring the issue of said bonds as specified and the levy and collection of the tax for the payment of the said bonds and coupons shall vote a written or printed ticket with the words thereon "For Bonds," and those opposing it shall vote a written or printed ticket with the words thereon "Against Bonds." The board of aldermen shall order an entirely new registration of voters, and the said board of aldermen may call an election under this act at any time it may see fit after giving the proper notice.

Notice of elections.

Purpose of issue.

Sec. 5. That the said bonds may be issued for the purpose of constructing, extending, enlarging and maintaining the sewerage system now in course of construction, and for the purpose of paving or otherwise improving the streets, and aiding in establishing a training school in or near the town of Greenville, if one shall be authorized by law, and the board of aldermen is hereby authorized to use so much of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for either of said purposes as it may deem proper, and said money shall not be used for any other purpose.

Appropriation.

Sinking fund.

Sec. 6. That, beginning ten years from the ratification of this act, the board of aldermen of the said town shall begin to set aside from the taxes and other revenues of said town a sinking fund to pay the principal of said bonds at maturity; and for this purpose it may levy a special tax not to exceed the sum of fifteen

(15) cents on every hundred dollars' ($100) worth of taxable property and forty-five (45) cents on every taxable poll within said town, unless a greater sum shall be authorized by a special act of the General Assembly, ratified and approved by the qualified voters of said town at a special election to be held for that purpose.

Sec. 7. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 8. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 237.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF CANTON TO ISSUE BONDS AMOUNTING TO $65,000 FOR A WATER SUPPLY, SEWERAGE, ELECTRIC LIGHTS, A GRADED SCHOOL BUILDING AND STREET IMPROVEMENTS, AND TO LEVY A SPECIAL TAX TO MEET THE INTEREST AND PAY SAID BONDS, AND FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF A GRADED SCHOOL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Canton, in Haywood County, is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to issue sixty-five thousand dollars in bonds in the name of the town of Canton for the purpose of establishing a water supply and sewer system, providing for electric lights, purchasing the necessary land and erecting thereon a graded school building or buildings and for street and sidewalk improvements in said town of Canton: Provided, that a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall authorize the same in an election to be held as hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than five per cent. per annum, payable thirty years after the date thereof, the same not to be sold for less than par and to be of the denomination of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars each, interest to be due and payable semi-annually and to be so expressed on the face of said bonds. Each of the said bonds shall be numbered and have attached thereto the requisite number of coupons, each coupon to represent the interest that shall become due semi-annually on each of said bonds. Said bonds and coupons shall be payable at the Champion Bank of Canton, North Carolina. The said bonds shall be signed by the mayor and countersigned by the clerk of said town, and it shall be sufficient to have a facsimile signature of the mayor and clerk lithographed in the coupons, and said bonds shall have the corporate seal of the town of Canton affixed thereto. The said bonds and coupons shall express upon their face that they are payable out of the taxable property and polls of the town of Canton, only observing the constitutional equation; and it shall be lawful for and the duty of the board of commissioners of said town to levy annually on the taxable property and polls of said town a sufficient tax to pay the interest of said bonds as it shall accrue and to create a sinking fund for the purpose of paying off and discharging said bonds as they become due.

Tax for interest and sinking fund.

Issue voted on at next town election.

Sec. 2. That at the next general election to be held for the said town of Canton on Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the board of commissioners of said town shall submit to the qualified voters thereof the question as to whether the said town shall issue the sixty-five thousand dollars of bonds for the purposes aforesaid and levy a special tax annually to pay the interest on said bonds as it accrues and to create a sinking fund for the purpose of paying off and discharging said bonds as they become due, and for the purpose of maintaining and carrying on said graded school; and those favoring the issuing of said bonds and the levying of said special taxes shall be permitted to cast one ballot upon which shall be written or printed the words "For Bonds and Schools," and those opposing shall be permitted to cast one ballot upon which shall be written or printed the words "Against Bonds and Schools."

Ballots.

Notice of election.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of said town to have published for thirty days before said election, by posters at three public places, a notice stating that the question as to the issuing of said bonds and the levying of said special taxes for the purposes aforesaid will be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of said town at said election, and a copy of said notice shall be recorded on the minutes of the board of commissioners of said town.

Bonds to be issued.

Sec. 4. That if, at said election, a majority of the qualified voters of the town of Canton shall cast their votes "For Bonds and Schools," then the board of commissioners of said town shall so declare and certify, and shall issue said bonds for the purposes aforesaid and sell the same and levy said special taxes as herein provided.

Bonds lithographed.

Sale of bonds.

Sec. 5. That the board of commissioners of the town shall cause said bonds to be lithographed or printed and pay for such work out of the funds of the town, and may sell said bonds at either public or private sale as it may deem to the best interest of the town, after giving notice of said sale by advertisement, as it may decide best, for thirty days, but shall not sell said bonds for less than par, but may pay a commission to a broker or to any one with whom it may contract to negotiate a sale of said bonds, and who may sell said bonds, not to exceed one thousand dollars. That if said bonds are sold for cash, the proceeds of sale shall be forthwith paid over to the treasurer of the town upon said treasurer first giving a good justified bond, with good sureties, or in some good surety company, in double the amount of the funds going into his hands. Said bond to be approved by the board of commissioners of the town and when so approved shall be kept by said board of commissioners in some safe place. The treasurer shall be allowed such compensation for receiving and disbursing said fund as shall be fixed by the board of commissioners of the town, not to exceed two per cent. on both receipts and disbursements or one per cent. on receipts and one per cent. on disbursements. That the treasurer shall keep an account of said funds separate and apart from any and all other funds of the town received and disbursed by him and shall make a written report of his receipts and disbursements of said funds to the mayor and board of commissioners of said town every sixty days, and oftener if requested by them to do so.

Commission to brokers.

Proceeds paid over.

Treasurer to give bond.

Commission of treasurer.

Seperate accounts.

Reports.

Sec. 6. That if said bonds are not sold for their par or face value for cash, the board of commissioners for the town may, if it elect to do so, sell the same for not less than their face or par value to any person, firm or corporation, who may contract with the town to make any of the improvements or to do any of the work for which said bonds are issued, except the purchase of the real estate for the erection of the graded school building and for the erection of the buildings thereon, and for these the said funds or bonds shall be turned over to the graded school trustees hereinafter named as hereinafter provided.

Exchange of bonds for improvements.

Sec. 7. That Omar Carr, W. T. Sharp and C. T. Wells be and they are hereby appointed a finance committee to aid the board of commissioners of the town in making the improvements contemplated by the provisions of this act, and to aid the graded school trustees, hereinafter provided for, in the establishment of a graded school; and no money realized from the sale of said bonds shall be paid out by the treasurer of the town on the warrant of the commissioners unless the approval of said finance committee is endorsed thereon, nor shall any contract be valid for work or improvements contemplated by the provisions of this act unless approved by the said finance committee.

Finance committee.

Payments and contracts to be approved.

Sec. 8. That subject to the approval of the finance committee aforesaid, the board of commissioners of the town is authorized, empowered and directed as follows:

Powers of town commissioners subject to approval of finance committee.

(1) To employ one or more experts, if it deem it advisable to do so, to make an estimate of the probable cost of any or all of the improvements contemplated by the provisions of this act.

To employ experts.

To employ engineers.

(2) To employ one or more competent engineers, together with the necessary assistance and help, to do any work contemplated in this act.

To advertise and let contracts.

(3) To advertise for thirty days and to let contracts to the lowest responsible and competent bidder for the improvements herein contemplated, except the necessary real estate for the erection of the graded school buildings and for the erection of such buildings thereon. That the contracts for the different improvements may be let separately or as a whole as the commissioners and finance committee may deem best. That said commissioners and finance committee, if they deem best, may reject any and all bids and re-advertise for bids or proceed to have the work done as they deem best: Provided, that the commissioners of the town, subject to the approval of the finance committee, may, if they deem best, let a contract for lighting the town for a term of years instead of establishing its own electric light plant.

Power to reject all bids.

Proviso: contract for lighting town.

Bonds of contractors.

(4) To require any and all contractors to file good solvent bonds for the faithful performance of their contracts, which bonds shall be approved by the board of commissioners of the town and the finance committee.

Payments on contracts pending completion.

(5) To pay to the contractor or contractors for any of the improvements contemplated by the provisions of this act, as often as once a month, a sum of money not to exceed ninety per cent. of the work done by said contractors, the same to be ascertained by an estimate to be made by an engineer or some one appointed to make such estimate by the board of commissioners and the finance committee, the remaining ten per cent. to be paid when said contractor or contractors shall have fully completed their contract or contracts and after the work shall have been received by the board of commissioners of the town and the finance committee.

Other powers.

(6) To do any and all other work and things necessary to be done in order to make the improvements contemplated by this act.

Purchase of lands for water supply.

Sec. 9. That for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act and making the improvements contemplated, the board of commissioners of the town, subject to the approval of the finance committee, shall have full power and authority, in addition to the powers above named, to purchase the necessary land anywhere in the county of Haywood suitable for a water supply for the said town of Canton and a boundary of land for a watershed to keep said water pure, together with the necessary right-of-way to lay pipes and convey said water to the said town of Canton and to lay pipes, etc., to conduct the sewerage through and out of said town; and to purchase the necessary land, rights-of-way, etc., for erecting an electric light plant and for transmitting power for operating and maintaining electric lights. But in case such land and rights-of-way cannot be purchased on terms satisfactory to the board of commissioners of said town and the finance committee, then and in that event the right is hereby given to the said town of Canton or any person, firm or corporation that may contract with said town to furnish said water, erect an electric light plant or furnish electric lights or to do any other work herein provided for, to enter upon the land needed for said water supply and water-shed and to erect an electric light plant and transmit power for lighting the town and to lay pipes for the water, sewerage, etc., and to do such other work as may be necessary to make the improvements contemplated in this act, and to proceed and condemn and pay for said lands, rights-of-way, etc., as provided by chapter sixty-one, entitled "Railroads," Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina, or as otherwise provided by law for condemning lands for such purposes; but the town, person, firm, company or corporation seeking to condemn lands, rights-of-way, etc., for the purposes aforesaid shall set forth in a petition the quantity of land, giving the location of the same or the number of feet in width desired for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, that in all cases of appraisal, where the mode or manner of conducting all or any of the proceedings to the appraisal and the proceedings consequent thereon are not expressly provided for by chapter sixty-one entitled "Railroads," aforesaid, otherwise provided for, the courts before which such proceedings may be pending shall have the power to make all the necessary orders and give the proper directions to carry into effect the object and intent of this act, and the practice in said cases shall conform as near as may be to the ordinary practice in such courts: Provided further, that such lands, rights-of-way, etc., so purchased or condemned as aforesaid, shall be paid for out of the funds realized from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds aforesaid.

Procedure for condemnation.

Proviso: powers of court.

Proviso: fund for payments for land.

Sec. 10. That in case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise in the finance committee, the same shall be filled by the other two members thereof. That the members of said finance committee shall be allowed the same compensation for their services as is allowed to the members of the board of commissioners of the town, not to exceed five dollars per day and expenses for the time actually engaged in the performance of their duties, to be paid for out of the proceeds of said bonds.

Trustees to establish schools.

Sec. 15. That it shall be the duty of said board of trustees to establish a graded school for the white children and one for the colored children of said town, if any; and to appropriate the funds derived from said special tax and all other sources for said graded schools for white and colored children so as to equalize school facilities between the two races.

Apportionment from general school fund.

Sec. 16. That the public school money which may from time to time be collected and apportioned under the general school law for general school purposes for the children in said town, shall be applied to keeping up said graded schools under the order and direction of the said board of trustees of said graded schools.

Non-resident pupils.

Sec. 17. That the board of trustees of said schools is hereby authorized and empowered to admit into the said schools children residing out of the said school district, upon the payment of such rates of tuition as may be established by the board: Provided, that said board may admit free of tuition children of parents who own taxable property within said town.

Proviso: free tuition.

Property vested in trustees.

Sec. 18. That the property, both real and personal, of the public schools of said town shall become the property of the said graded schools, and shall be vested in the said board of trustees and its successors in trust for said graded schools: Provided, that in the event of the discontinuance of said graded schools all the property thereto belonging shall revert to and become the property of the said public schools of said town: Provided further, that the said property belonging to or used for the graded school for white children shall revert to the public schools of said town for white children, and the property belonging to or used for the graded school for the colored children shall revert to the public school for colored children of said town.

Proviso: reversion or discontinuance of school.

Proviso: specific reversion.

Purchase of ground and erection of buildings.

Sec. 19. That the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Canton be and it is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to turn over to the board of trustees of said graded schools either fifteen thousand dollars of the proceeds arising from the sale of the sixty-five thousand dollars of bonds aforesaid or bonds to that amount, to be used by said board of trustees in the purchase of suitable and sufficient grounds for the erection of said graded school buildings and to erect said buildings. Said sum of money shall be turned over to the treasurer of said town, for which he shall be bonded and allowed commissions as hereinbefore provided for the other proceeds from the sale of said bonds. Said sums shall be drawn out only for the purposes aforesaid and upon the order of the board of trustees of said graded schools, subject to the approval of the finance committee aforesaid: Provided, that if the said sum of fifteen thousand dollars is not needed for the purchase of said grounds and the erection of said buildings, the surplus may be used by said trustees in maintaining the graded schools aforesaid.

CHAPTER 241.

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITY OF WILMINGTON TO ISSUE BONDS FOR WATER AND SEWERAGE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized.

Section 1. That the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, by and with the concurrence of the board of audit and finance of said city, after a majority of the qualified voters of the city of Wilmington have approved and authorized the same as hereinafter provided, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of the city of Wilmington, North Carolina, in such denominations and forms as it may determine, to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), payable at such times and at such places as the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance may prescribe: Provided, that the time of payment of such bonds shall not be less than thirty (30) years and not more than fifty (50) years from their date.

Denominations.

Amount.

Proviso: maturity.

Sec. 2. That said bonds shall bear interest at no greater rate than five per centum per annum, and that the interest shall be made payable annually or semi-annually as the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance may prescribe, and the said bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value. Interest. Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 3. The said bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the city clerk and treasurer and sealed with the corporate seal of the city, and shall have interest coupons attached thereto, which said bonds and the coupons shall be exempt from city taxation until after they become due and the coupons shall be receivable in payment of city taxes. That for the purpose of paying said bonds at maturity and the coupons as they become due, it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance, and they are hereby empowered so to do, to levy and collect each year a sufficient special tax upon all subjects of taxation, which are or may hereafter be embraced in the subjects of taxation under the charter of said city and the general law, and in the manner and at the same time as other taxes are collected under said charter and the general law: Provided, that the taxes collected under this act for the payment of said bonds and interest coupons as aforesaid shall be used for no other purpose, and it shall be the duty of the board of audit and finance as said coupons are paid off and taken up to cancel same. How bonds authenticated. Exemption from city taxation. Special tax for bonds and interest. Proviso: specific appropriation.

Sec. 4. That the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance shall neither issue said bonds or any of them, nor levy or collect said tax, until they shall have been authorized and empowered so to do by a majority of the qualified voters of said city at the regular election of the board of aldermen of said city to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, it being the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and the same rules and regulations as are required for the election of the members of the board of aldermen shall govern in the election required by this act, to-wit: Those set forth in subdivision seven of chapter seventy-three, entitled "Towns," of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina; and at said election those favoring the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of the tax for the payment of said bonds and coupons shall vote "For Water and Sewerage," and those opposing it "Against Water and Sewerage." Bonds not to issue until issue approved by voters. Time of elections. Law governing elections. Ballots.

Sec. 5. Should a majority of the votes cast at the election to be held as aforesaid, or at any future election herein provided for, be "Against Water and Sewerage," such rejection on the part of the voters shall not operate to prevent a re-submission of same proposition to the qualified voters of the said city of Wil- Successive elections.

mington at any other time or times that the said board of aldermen and board of audit and finance may designate: Provided, however, the question of issuing said bonds shall not be submitted within a period of twelve months from and after any election held hereunder: and provided further, that at any and all elections held under the provisions herein, the same rules and regulations shall govern the same as are then in force for the regulation of elections of members of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington.

Proviso: elections not allowed oftener than annually.

Proviso: rules and regulations.

Purpose of issue.

Sec. 6. That the bonds issued under this act shall be for the purpose of maintaining, extending, enlarging and operating a water-works plant to furnish water for the use of the city and its citizens and to build, construct and maintain a sewerage system in said city; but the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance may, with the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds, in their discretion, purchase any established system of water-works and sewerage, or either of them, now or hereafter operated in said city.

Purchase of established systems.

Condemnation of land.

Sec. 7. When any land or right-of-way within or without the limits of said city of Wilmington shall, in the opinion of the water and sewerage commission hereinafter provided for, be required for the purpose of laying sewer pipes or water pipes or making man-holes or acquiring water rights and other property, or for any other purpose connected with and necessary for the successful operation of such sewer system or water system, or both, and the owners of said property and said commission cannot agree as to the damage by reason thereof, the same shall be condemned and damages assessed thereon in the manner prescribed by the charter of the city for condemnation of land for streets. For the purpose of successfully constructing and operating such sewer system and water-works plant said commission shall have power to extend the system or systems, or any branch or branches thereof, beyond the limits of said city in any direction or directions which it may think proper, and to exercise all rights and privileges in the establishment, operation, repair and control of such sewer system or water-works system, or both, and any and all branches thereof, whether within or without the limits of said city.

Extension of system beyond city limits.

Power to enforce connections.

Sec. 8. That when the water and sewerage commission shall have caused the proper water and sewerage pipes to be laid through any of the streets of the city, the said commission shall keep in proper condition and repair the same from time to time, and shall require each and every house bordering upon any street upon which said water and sewer pipes have been laid to make such connections with the sewer and water pipes whenever the sanitary conditions and health of the community require it; and said commission shall direct the contractor, builder, owner or other person having the charge and control of such building or buildings to make such sewerage and water connections as above stated, under the direction of an engineer selected by said commission, and in case such builder, owner, contractor or other person having charge of the property shall fail to make such connection with sewer and water within sixty days after notice shall have been served upon him, then it shall be the duty of the said commission to order such connection with sewer and water to be made under the direction of the said engineer, and the reasonable cost thereof shall be certified by the said engineer, whose certificate shall be prima facie evidence thereof and of its reasonableness, to the city clerk and treasurer, who shall enter the same in a specific book kept by him for that purpose, in which shall be set forth the owner or owners of the property, the location thereof, the amount due and the purpose for which due, and said amount shall be paid by the city and shall constitute, from the date of the filing of said certificate by said engineer, a lien upon the land and buildings into and upon which said connection has been made and work done, and the same shall become due and payable as follows: One-third at the end of ninety days from the filing by said engineer of the certificate of cost aforesaid and the balance in equal installments of one, two, three, four and five months thereafter. The said amounts shall bear interest from the date of the filing of said certificate until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum but if said cost and charges for said work are not paid as above set forth, then the whole amount or balance thereof shall forthwith become due and payable, and shall be collected by the city clerk and treasurer of said city in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the collection by said city of taxes upon real estate.

Connections by city on failure of builder or owner.

Cost a lien on land and buildings.

When payable.

Interest on deferred payments.

Enforcement of payments.

Sec. 9. That after the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance shall have purchased any sewerage system or water-works system now operated in said city, or shall have determined, in lieu thereof, to lay and construct a new system or systems of sewerage or water, then for the proper management or construction, as the case might be, of said systems of water and sewerage a commission to be known as the "Water and Sewerage Commission" is hereby established, which said commission shall consist of three (3) members to be appointed as follows: One by the board of aldermen, one by the board of audit and finance and one by the mayor. The one (1) to be appointed by the mayor to hold office for two (2) years, the one (1) to be appointed by the board of aldermen to hold office for four (4) years and the one (1) to be appointed by the board of audit and finance to hold office for six (6) years. And their successors shall be appointed in like manner as in this section hereinbefore provided and for the terms hereinbefore respectively designated, and in case of vacancy otherwise than by expiration of the term, the power appointing the member shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The said commission shall organize by electing one of its members its chairman, whose term as chairman shall be fixed by said commission: Provided, however, that no member of the said commission shall be an employee or officer of the city of Wilmington.

Vacancies.

Organization.

Proviso: officers and employees of city ineligible.

Powers of commission.

Sec. 10. That said commission shall have entire supervision and control, after the board of aldermen and board of audit and finance have purchased any established system or systems of water and sewerage, or either of them, or have determined, in lieu thereof, to lay and construct a new system or systems, of the maintenance, construction, operation, extension, improvement and management of said system or systems, and shall fix uniform and reasonable rates for water and sewerage, but said rates shall always be subject to the approval of the board of aldermen and board of audit and finance.

Water rates.

Proceeds of bonds to be kept separate.

Sec. 11. That the proceeds derived from the sale of the bonds issued under this act shall be turned over to the city clerk and treasurer, which said proceeds shall be kept by him separate and apart from all other funds of said city and paid out and disbursed by him only upon warrants and drafts drawn by said commission, signed by its chairman and at least one other member of said commission. Should the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance, however, elect to purchase any system or systems of sewerage and water, or either of them, which have been established in said city as hereinbefore provided for, then and in that event said city clerk and treasurer shall pay out so much of the proceeds of said bonds as may be necessary to pay the purchase price of said system or systems upon a warrant or warrants drawn and signed as is now prescribed for the disbursements of other funds of said city, and the residue thereof upon warrants and drafts drawn upon him by said commission in the manner hereinbefore in this section prescribed.

Warrants for payments.

Warrants for purchase money if system purchased.

Commission to report monthly.

Sec. 12. Said commission shall, on the first Monday of each and every month, file with the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance of the city of Wilmington an itemized statement of all warrants drawn by it upon the city clerk and treasurer to be by him paid out of the proceeds of said bonds as aforesaid, with the name of the payee, the amounts and the purposes of the same, and also of all contracts made and entered into by it for the preceding calendar month.

Clerk and treasurer to commission.

Sec. 13. The said commission shall keep the funds derived from the management and operation of said system or systems in the hands of a clerk and treasurer to be elected by said commission and in an account kept separate and apart from other city funds. That said funds shall be paid out by him only on the order of said commission and at the end of each quarter the said commission shall report to the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance its receipts and itemized statement of its disbursements and the profit or loss for the period. In the event that there should be a net gain, the said commission shall turn over so much thereof as in its opinion shall not be required and necessary to meet and pay present or prospective needs and requirements of said system or systems to the chairman of the sinking fund of said city for the purpose of creating a fund to pay the bonds issued under this act, or in lieu thereof, to the city clerk and treasurer to pay the coupons on the bonds issued under this act: Provided, however, that should the report of the said commission show a deficit at the end of any quarter, the said deficit shall be paid out of the general fund of the said city, and the same shall be returned to the general fund by said commission from the future receipts derived from the operation of said system before any part thereof can be paid to the chairman of the sinking fund or the city treasurer as aforesaid.

Quarterly reports.

Surplus to sinking fund.

Proviso: loss paid from general fund.

Sec. 14. The books to be kept by said water and sewerage commission shall at all times be open for the inspection of the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance or any committee or committees duly appointed by them, or either of them, and said boards, or either of them, shall have power in its or their discretion, at all times to employ competent accountants and auditors to inspect and audit the same.

Books open for inspection.

Sec. 15. The said commission shall employ such agents and employees as may be necessary for the proper conduct and management of the said systems of water and sewerage, but their compensation shall be fixed as is now provided, or may hereafter be, by the charter of the city of Wilmington for officers and employees, and the said board of audit and finance of said city shall determine which of said agents and employees shall give bond and the amount thereof.

Agents and employees.

Sec. 2. Said company, upon organization as herein provided for, shall have power to construct, maintain and operate a railroad and telegraph line from some point on the Southern Railway between the cities of Charlotte and Greensboro, North Carolina, through the counties of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Rowan, Davidson, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery, Stanly, Richmond, Scotland, Robeson, Columbus and Brunswick, to the town of Southport, North Carolina; the main line of said road crossing Little River in Richmond County and passing within one mile of the town of Rockingham, North Carolina.

Main line to pass within one mile of Rockingham.

Capital stock.

Sec. 3. The capital stock of the said railway company shall be one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), which may be increased from time to time by the votes of its shareholders to an amount not exceeding three million dollars ($3,000,000), to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each: Provided, such increase of capital stock shall only be made upon application to the Secretary of State and leave granted by him; such application to be accompanied by a receipt from the State Treasurer for the taxes prescribed in section ninety-seven of chapter two of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one for increase of capital stock. Each share subscribed shall be entitled to one vote in all the meetings of the stockholders of said company, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall be the minimum subscription on which said company may be organized.

Proviso: procedure for increase.

Stock vote.

Books of subscription.

Sec. 4. That said incorporators shall have the power to open books of subscription in person or by agents duly appointed by a majority of them at such place or places as they may determine, and to keep the same open for such time and under such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary or expedient. Said incorporators may, when they deem proper, after twenty days' notice to the subscribers, call together the subscribers of said shares of stock at any place in or out of the State; and said subscribers shall then complete the organization of said company by electing a board of directors and such other officers as they may see fit, and at such meeting and all other meetings of the stockholders of said company each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, which may be cast by the owner of said share or by his proxy; and the said directors shall thereupon proceed to elect one of their number president, and to elect such other officers as the by-laws of said company prescribe, and may do and perform all other acts necessary to complete the organization of said company and to carry into effect the objects of this charter, in accordance with the direction of the stockholders. The directors elected shall serve such period, not exceeding one year, as the stockholders may direct, and the stockholders shall fix the time and place of meeting, said stockholders' meeting to be held annually; but if the day of annual election should under any circumstances pass without any election, the corporation shall not thereby be dissolved, but the directors formerly elected shall continue in office until a new election shall take place.

Term of directors.

Annual meetings of stockholders.

Election by ballot.

Sec. 5. The election of directors shall be by ballot, each stockholder having as many votes as he has shares in the stock of this company, and the persons receiving majorities of the votes cast shall be duly elected directors; and at all elections and upon all votes, when at a meeting of the stockholders, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, to be represented either in person or by proxy, and the proxies may be verified in such manner as the by-laws of the corporation prescribe.

Each share of stock to have one vote.

Vacancies in board of directors.

Sec. 6. The board of directors may fill any vacancies that may occur in it during the period for which it has been elected. The president of the company and a vice-president shall be annually elected by the directors from among their number in such manner as the regulations of the company shall prescribe, and shall hold their offices until their successors shall be elected. The secretary and treasurer shall also be elected by the directors, and may be one and the same person. In the absence of the president or secretary at any meeting of the directors, they may appoint a president and secretary pro tempore to fill his place, except when the vice-president is present; in that case the vice-president shall act.

Election of president and vice-president.

Secretary and treasurer.

Issue and transfer of stock.

Sec. 7. The company shall issue certificates of stock to its members, and said stock may be transferred in such manner and form as may be directed by the by-laws of the company.

Power to purchase other roads.

Sec. 8. The said company shall have power to take by purchase, lease or otherwise the railroad franchises and property of any other railroad now constructed or that may hereafter be constructed in this State or elsewhere. It shall have power to consolidate its franchises and property with any other road under such name as shall be agreed upon. It may assign or lease its property and franchises, or any part thereof, to any other railroad, and the road so leasing or purchasing this road shall hold, own and enjoy all the property and franchises so leased or purchased as though they had been originally held and constructed by the railroad so leasing or purchasing; and the road so purchasing or leasing shall be entitled to all property, franchises, privileges and immunities belonging to or pertaining to the road created by this act: Provided, nothing in this act shall be construed to allow the said railroad company to become the channel through which any competing railroad companies shall consolidate. Any of the powers and privileges conferred and authorized by this section may be exercised and effected by the directors of the companies concerned in such manner and on such terms as the stockholders of each company may determine. The said company may subscribe to the capital stock of any other corporation now in existence or hereafter projected in this State or elsewhere, and hold shares in the same. It shall have power to use any section or portion of its road before the whole of the same shall have been completed and charge for transportation of passengers and freight thereon.

Power to subscribe to stock of other corporations.

Power to use section of road before completion of whole.

Sec. 9. The said company shall have the right, when necessary, to construct its said road across any public road or other railroad, or alongside any public road: Provided, said company shall not obstruct any public road without first constructing one equally as good and convenient as the one taken by the company, and which has been accepted by the board of county commissioners.

Power to cross roads and railroads.

Proviso: obstruction of public road.

Sec. 10. Whenever from any cause the said railroad company cannot agree with the owners of the land over which the railroad shall go for the purchase of the land for the right-of-way and depot purposes, the said company may proceed to condemn and enter same in the manner set forth in chapter sixty-one of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five and amendments thereto, or may file a petition before the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the land lies specifying the objects for which the land is desired, with a description and plot thereof. The Clerk of the Superior Court shall thereupon issue a summons or notice to the owner, returnable to a day certain after ten days' notice, and after a hearing shall, if not sufficient cause is shown against granting the prayer of the petition, make an order appointing three disinterested and competent freeholders of said county, who shall be summoned by the sheriff to meet on the premises at a time not more than ten days after the appointment, and, after being duly sworn, assess the damages of the land or right-of-way taken. In assessing the damages jurors or appraisers shall take into consideration the actual value of the land, together with any special damages likely to accrue to the owner, and likewise shall consider any special benefits thereto; but general benefit pertaining to the public shall not be considered in reduction of damages. If the petition shall pray for condemnation of the right-of-way only, the consideration or damages allowed shall be for the said easement only, but if for depot or building purposes, the consideration or damages shall be for the fee. The appraisers shall make their report to the Clerk of the Superior Court within ten days from the time of their meeting on the premises. Said report shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds after approval by the clerk and payment of damages assessed, and shall have the force and effect of a deed.

Appeals. Either party may appeal to the Superior Court in term-time from the approval or disapproval of the clerk, which appeal must be prayed within ten days of the the approval or disapproval of the clerk.

Limit on power of condemnation. Sec. 11. The right of said company to condemn and take land under this act shall be limited to the space of fifty feet on each side of its road-bed, measured from the center of the same, except where cuts and fills require more, and then as much as may be required for a double track at grades; and for depots and warehouses it may condemn not exceeding two acres in any one place; and in all cases where land or rights-of-way have been condemned the owner shall petition for assessment of damages within two years from condemnation and occupation, and not after, except in case of legal disabilities, and in such case within two years from the removal of said disabilities.

Subscriptions of counties, townships, cities and towns authorized. Sec. 12. That any county, township, city or town along or near the line of railroad may subscribe to the capital stock of said company or for bonds issued by the same in the following manner:

Procedure. Upon presentation of a writing signed by not less than one-fourth of the freeholders, being qualified voters of any county, township, city or town, to the board of commissioners of said county, or to the proper authorities of said city or town, requesting them to submit to the qualified voters of the county, township, city or town where said petitioners may reside a proposition to subscribe a definite sum named to said stock or bonds of said company, the board of commissioners of said county or proper authorities of said city or town, may, in their discretion, order a

Such election shall be held after thirty days' notice thereof shall have been given, specifying the amount of the proposed subscription, posted at the court-house door of said county and at every polling place of said county, township, city or town where the said election shall take place; and the return thereof shall be made to the board of commissioners of said county or proper authorities of said city or town. Returns of election.

Sec. 13. If a majority of the qualified voters vote for subscription then the board of commissioners of said county, or proper authorities of said city or town, shall immediately make such subscription, and shall issue coupon bonds to the amount of said subscription in order to pay the same; and the bonds shall upon their face indicate on account of what county, township, city or town they are issued. They shall be in a denomination of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, and shall run for such number of years and bear such rate of interest as the petition and order of election shall indicate. Subscriptions made. Bonds issued. Denomination. Maturity. Interest.

Sec. 14. The county authorities in any county voting for subscription, or in which there is a township voting for subscription, who are legally empowered to levy taxes in order to provide for payment of the bonds authorized to be issued by the preceding section, shall compute and levy each year, at the time of levying other taxes, a sufficient tax upon the property and polls in said county, township, city or town to pay the interest on the bonds issued on account of such county, township, city or town, and shall also levy a sufficient tax to create a sinking fund to provide for payment of said bonds at maturity. The taxes levied as above shall be annually collected as other taxes, and shall be paid by the collecting officer of such county, township, city or town to the treasurer thereof; and the taxes levied and collected for these purposes shall be kept distinct from all other taxes, and shall be used for the purposes for which they were levied and collected and for no other. The sinking fund shall be invested as may be directed by the board of commissioners of said county, or by the proper authorities of such city or town issuing such bonds. Special tax in counties and townships voting subscription. Fund kept separate. Investment of sinking fund.

Sec. 15. It shall be lawful for the said Piedmont and Atlantic Railway Company chartered by this act to issue coupon bonds in such denomination and running for such time and having interest at such a rate and payable at such a time and places as the board of directors may direct, to be sold or hypothecated by the direction of said company, and to secure payment of the same the company is authorized to execute a mortgage to such person or corporation as the company may select on all real and personal estate of said company, together with all its franchises and privileges; or in case the road may be divided and built in sections, which the said company is authorized to do, such mortgages may be placed upon such separate sections and in such manner as the company may direct; and it is hereby provided that the registration of any mortgage provided to be executed in this section may be made in Richmond County, and upon regis- Power of company to issue bonds and mortgage. tration in Richmond County, it shall be a lien on such property and franchises conveyed in such mortgage as fully and completely as if the same were registered in each and every county through which the road passes.

Directors of penitentiary may hire convicts to company.

Sec. 16. That the board of directors of the penitentiary may, on the application of the president of said company, approved by the Governor, turn over to said company convicts not otherwise appropriated, not less than two hundred in number, to be worked in construction of said road, on such terms as may be agreed upon; said convicts to be guarded and superintended by the authorities of the penitentiary, and to be hired to said company as provided by law.

Stockholders not personally liable.

Sec. 17. That the stockholders of said company, with the private citizens of other corporations, public, private or municipal, shall not be personally liable for the debts of said company.

Time for organization.

Sec. 18. The company hereby incorporated may organize at any time within two years from the ratification of this act.

Sec. 19. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act, so far as they affect the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

CHAPTER 244.

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITY OF WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, TO ISSUE BONDS FOR STREET IMPROVEMENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Bond issue authorized subject to approval of voters.

Section 1. That the board of aldermen, by and with the concurrence of the board of audit and finance, of the city of Wilmington, North Carolina, after a majority of the qualified voters of the city of Wilmington shall have approved and authorized the same as hereinafter provided, is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of the city of Wilmington, North Carolina, in such denominations and forms as it may determine, in an amount not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), payable at such times and at such places as the said board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance may prescribe: Provided, that the time of payment of such bonds shall not be less than thirty (30) years and not more than fifty (50) years from their date.

Denominations.

Amount.

Maturity.

Interest.

Sec. 2. That said bonds shall bear interest at no greater rate than five per centum per annum, and that the interest shall be payable annually or semi-annually, as the board of aldermen and board of audit and finance may prescribe, and the said bonds shall in no case be sold, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of for less than their par value. Bonds not to be sold below par.

Sec. 3. That said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of the City of Wilmington, North Carolina, attested by the city clerk and treasurer and sealed with the corporate seal of said city, and shall have interest coupons attached thereto, which said bonds and coupons shall be exempt from city taxation until after they become due, and the coupons shall be receivable in payment of city taxes. That, for the purpose of paying said bonds at maturity and the coupons as they become due, it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance, and they are hereby empowered so to do, to levy and collect each year a sufficient special tax upon all subjects of taxation which are now or may hereafter be embraced in the subject of taxation under the charter of said city and the general law, and in the manner and at the same time as other taxes are collected under said charter and the general law: Provided, that the taxes collected under this act for the payment of said bonds and interest coupons as aforesaid shall be used for no other purpose; and it shall be the duty of the board of audit and finance, as said coupons are paid off and taken up, to cancel the same and report, not less than twice a year, to the board of aldermen the numbers and amounts so cancelled. How bonds authenticated. Exemption from city tax. Coupons receivable for city taxes. Special tax. Proviso: specific appropriation.

Sec. 4. That the board of aldermen and the board of audit and finance shall neither issue said bonds, or any of them, nor levy nor collect said tax until they have been authorized and empowered so to do by a majority of the qualified voters of said city at the regular election of the members of the board of aldermen of said city, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, it being the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven; and the same rules and regulations as are required for elections of members of the board of aldermen shall govern the election required by this act, to-wit: Those set forth in subdivision seven of chapter seventy-three of the Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five of North Carolina and any amendments thereto; and at said election those favoring the issue of said bonds and the levy and collection of the tax for the payment of said bonds and coupons shall vote "For Street Improvement," and those opposing it shall vote "Against Street Improvement." Bonds not to be issued unless authorized by majority of qualified voters. Date of election. Law governing election. Ballots.

Sec. 5. Should a majority of the votes cast at the election to be held as aforesaid, or at any future election herein provided for, be "Against Street Improvement," such rejection on the part of the voters shall not operate to prevent a resubmission of the same proposition to the qualified voters of the said city of Wilmington at any other time or times that the said board of alder- Successive elections.

men and board of audit and finance may designate: Provided, however, the question of issuing said bonds shall not be submitted within a period of twelve months from and after any election held hereunder: Provided further, that at any and all elections held under the provisions herein the same rules and regulations shall govern as are then in force for the regulation and conduct of elections of members of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington.

Purpose of bonds.

Sec. 6. That the bonds issued under this act shall be for the purpose of grading, curbing, macadamizing, paving, draining and improving the streets of the city of Wilmington.

Commissioners of streets established.

Sec. 7. Should the issuance of the bonds hereinbefore provided for be authorized at the election to be held as aforesaid, then and in that event a commission, to be known and designated as "Commissioners of Streets," is hereby established. Said commission shall be composed of five members, one from each of the five wards of the city of Wilmington, none of whom shall be an officer or an employee of said city. The members of the said commission from the first, second and third wards shall be elected by the board of aldermen of said city, and the members from the fourth and fifth wards by the members of the board of audit and finance of said city, all of whom shall hold their said offices for a term of four (4) years from and after their election, and their successors shall be elected in like manner as in this section hereinbefore provided, and for the terms hereinbefore respectively designated.

Election of commissioners.

Term of commissioners. Election of successors.

Organization.

Clerk and other officers.

Sec. 8. Said commission shall organize by electing one of its members as its chairman, and shall have power and authority to employ a clerk and such other officers as may be necessary to properly carry out the duties imposed upon said commission by this act, and the compensation of said commission and of the officers and employees thereof shall be fixed by the board of audit and finance of said city.

Compensation of commissioners, officers and employees.

Powers of commissioners.

Sec. 9. That said commissioners of streets shall have entire supervision and control of the construction, paving, draining and repairing of the streets, sidewalks and alleys of said city and the character and location of all such work, subject, however, to the provisions hereinafter contained relating to the construction of sidewalks. All work done by said commission, materials furnished and improvements made, shall be awarded by contract after due and reasonable advertisement for bids therefor.

Contracts for work, material and improvements.

Proceeds of bonds to be separate fund.

Sec. 10. That the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds, whenever received, shall be turned over to the city clerk and treasurer, which said fund shall be kept by him separate and apart from the general funds of the city, and the same shall be paid out and disbursed by him only upon warrants and drafts drawn upon him by said commissioners of streets and signed by their chairman and at least one other member of the commission.

Warrants for payment.

Sec. 11. Said commission shall, on the first Monday of each month, file with the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance of the City of Wilmington an itemized statement of all warrants drawn by it on the city clerk and treasurer, with the names of the payees, the amounts and purposes of same, and also of all contracts made and entered into by it for the preceding calendar month; and the books to be kept by said commissioners of streets shall at all times be open for the inspection of the board of aldermen and board of audit and finance, or any committee or committees duly appointed by them or either of them, and said boards or either of them shall have power, in its or their discretion, at all times to employ competent accountants and auditors to examine and audit the same. Itemized monthly statements. Books open for inspection. Accountants and auditors.

Sec. 12. The board of audit and finance of said city shall determine who, if any, of the officers and employees herein provided for shall give bond and the amount thereof. Bonds of officers and employees.

Sec. 13. Any member of said commission may at any time be removed from office for just and reasonable cause by the power appointing him, and any vacancy thus created, or any vacancy caused by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled for the unexpired term by the same power and in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for. Removal for cause.

Sec. 14. That it shall be the duty of the duly appointed assessors of real estate for taxes of the township of Wilmington, before the first day of June of each year, to view and examine such real estate in said city that abuts on any street or streets that may have been, prior to the first day of January of such year, improved under the provisions of this act, and which has not been previously specifically assessed for such improvement, and if in their opinion the value of any such real estate so abutting as aforesaid has been increased or enhanced by reason of any such improvement, to increase the assessed value thereof by such an amount as the same has been enhanced by such improvements, and the taxes levied thereafter shall be upon a basis of such new assessment or assessments: Provided, however, that any owner or owners of any real estate reassessed as aforesaid shall have the same right of appeal from any such assessment as is now provided by law in cases of general assessments of real estate for taxation: Provided, however, that no further charge or assessment for such particular improvement or improvements, other than is hereinbefore in this section provided, shall be made and imposed upon and against any real estate so abutting on said street or streets so improved as aforesaid: Provided further, that nothing in this act contained shall in any manner affect, impair or repeal any liability, rights or remedies which have heretofore accrued to or vested in said city of Wilmington by reason of any improvements heretofore made by said city upon any of the streets therein by virtue and in pursuance of the Increase of assessment on property improved. Taxes on new assessment. Proviso: right of appeal. Proviso: no other charge or assessment. Proviso: rights accrued under former improvements not affected.

provisions of any law or laws heretofore enacted with reference thereto.

Orders, rules and regulations.

Sec. 15. That the mayor and board of aldermen of said city are hereby authorized and empowered to make, pass, ordain and enforce any and all orders, rules and regulations that may be necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this act.

Gas, water and sewer connections to be made pending improvement of streets.

Sec. 16. And for the preservation and protection of the pavements and improvements herein provided for the commissioners of streets of said city shall have and are hereby given power and authority, in all cases where any of the public streets or alleys of said city whereon gas, water and sewer pipes have been laid or are conveniently accessible are being paved or are about to be paved, to require the owner or owners of any lots or parcels of land bordering on or abutting thereon, under the supervision of the city engineer, to make proper branch gas, water and sewer connections for such lots or parcels of land from said gas, water and sewer pipes to the edge of such lots or parcels of land, upon like notice and terms and under the same regulations as are hereinafter provided for paving sidewalks; and upon failure of the owner or owners of such lots or parcels of land to make such connections within the time required, said commissioners of streets may make such connections and charge the cost thereof against the said lots or parcels of land in the same manner as herein provided in the case of sidewalks, and such cost so charged shall constitute a lien upon such lots or parcels of land to the same extent, to be enforced and collected in the same manner as the liens hereinafter provided with respect to the sidewalks in said city: Provided further, that in all such cases as are herein mentioned the commissioners of streets of said city may require any person, firm or corporation owning or using gas mains, gas pipes, water pipes and sewer pipes, or any other pipes whatever, or underground electric or other wires, in or under said streets so being paved or about to be paved, to forthwith make all of their lateral connections in said streets at least to the edges thereof before the said streets are paved, so as not to interfere with the progress of the paving; and for failure for twenty days after notice of said requirement to comply with same, said person, firm or corporation so in default shall thereby forever thereafter forfeit the right to use said street for the purpose aforesaid, and the board of aldermen of said city may, at its discretion, remove said gas mains, pipes and wires from said streets.

Connections made by city on default of landowner.

Cost a lien on lands.

Proviso: lateral connections to all pipes and conduits made pending street improvement.

Forfeit for default.

Owners of lots to pave and repair sidewalks.

Sec. 17. Whenever any streets in said city shall have been graded, guttered and curbed in whole or in part, including sidewalks, it shall be incumbent on the owner or owners of the land along said streets or parts thereof so improved to pave, repave and repair, whenever in the opinion of the commissioners of streets it may be necessary, the sidewalk on their own sides respectively the full width across their respective fronts with such material and in such manner as the commissioners of streets of said city shall direct. Whenever any street shall have been graded, guttered and curbed, the commissioners of streets of said city shall, through the city clerk and treasurer, notify the owner or owners of the land fronting or cornering thereon at once to pave, repave or repair, as may be required, the sidewalks thereof as hereinbefore provided; and should such owner or owners fail for fifteen days after such notice to comply therewith, said commissioners of streets, unless they shall extend the time therefor, shall cause said sidewalks to be built, repaved or repaired and charge the cost thereof against such lots respectively, and cause the same to be entered by the city clerk and treasurer in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the said clerk and treasurer shall forthwith proceed to collect the same and account therefor in the same manner as for taxes of said city. The amounts of such charges shall be and constitute, from the commencement of the work for which they are charged, liens on the respective lots upon which they are charged, and if any of them are not paid on demand, so much of the lot upon which it is charged as may be sufficient to pay the same with interest and cost, or the whole of such lot, shall be advertised and sold by the city clerk and treasurer of said city for the payment of the same, under the same rules and regulations and rights of redemption and in the same manner as prescribed by the charter of said city and general law for the sale of real estate for unpaid taxes; but said commissioners of streets may, in their discretion, divide any such charges in such manner that the same may be paid in three quarter-annual installments from and after the commencement of such work, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum from the date of such commencement: Provided, however, that nothing in section fourteen (14) of this act shall conflict with the provisions of this section applicable to sidewalks.

Notice to owners.

Work done by city on default of owner.

Cost charged to lots and collected as taxes.

Charges a lien on lots.

In default of payment lot sold as for taxes.

Charges may be paid in installments.

Interest.

Proviso: provision as to increased assessments not to conflict.

Sec. 18. That any and all street railways or railroads, which have heretofore constructed or may hereafter construct any such roads over the streets of the city of Wilmington, shall do so only upon the following conditions, to-wit: First, that they shall use only such rails and of such character as shall be designated by the commissioners of streets of said city; second, shall properly place, grade and complete the street and pave the same between the lines of rails, including the space between double tracks and for eighteen inches upon the outside of each rail, with such material, in such manner and at such grade as they shall be directed by the commissioners of streets of said city; third, and the said railroad or railway company shall be required to keep the said streets between its rails, including the space between double tracks and for eighteen inches upon the outside of each rail, in good condition and repair, as required by the commissioners of streets of said city, as long as the same shall be used by the Powers in dealing with property.

Sec. 4. That said corporation shall have and is hereby given the power and authority to purchase or otherwise own and deal in stocks, bonds, mortgages, debentures, securities and obligations of every nature, and to receive, collect and dispose of interest, dividends, income upon, of and from any of the stocks, bonds, mortgages, debentures, securities and obligations and other property, and any and all rights, powers and privileges of individual owners thereof; to do any and all acts and things tending to increase the value of the property at any time held by the corporation; to furnish capital, material, etc., in the organization and development of corporations and business enterprises; to borrow money for use in its corporate name and to secure the same by obligations, pledges, mortgages or otherwise; to issue bonds and debentures, with right of redemption subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions and limitations contained in the by-laws, which terms, conditions, restrictions and limitations shall also be expressed upon the face of said bonds or debentures and constitute a part thereof; and shall have power to lend money on mortgages and receive as security therefor its own bonds or debentures or certificates of indebtedness, with power to grant and purchase annuities, including the power to act as agent for leasing, managing, mortgaging, buying, selling and improving real estate, and to act as agent or on its own account in buying and selling stocks, bonds, mortgages, debentures, securities and obligations of every nature, and to collect interest or dividends thereon, and to act as agent in the management and investment of estates or funds of every nature, with full power of agency in the premises, and to act under appointment made by power of attorney by will or deed or otherwise in any manner, transaction or thing whatsoever, with power to guarantee the payment of principal and interest of mortgages and other securities, and in general to make any contract or guaranty which the directors may deem advisable, and to charge and receive for such services such sums as may be agreed upon.

Powers in dealing in stocks, bonds and property of like nature.

Sec. 5. Said corporation shall have and is hereby given power to raise money by the issue of shares, bonds, debentures or certificates, and to invest the money so raised in the purchase of, or otherwise to acquire and hold, any stocks, bonds, debentures, shares, scrip or security issued or having any guaranty by any government, municipality, trust, legal authority or other body, incorporated or unincorporated, public or private, of the United States or any country or State under the protection of the United States; or any stocks, bonds, debentures, shares, scrip or security issued or having any guaranty by any corporation or company incorporated, constituted or carrying on a business in the United States or elsewhere; to acquire any such investment as aforesaid by original subscription, underwriting, participation in syndicates or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and may make payments thereon as called for or in advance of calls or otherwise, and to underwrite or subscribe for the same conditionally or otherwise, and either with a view of investment or resale or otherwise, and to vary the investment of the company; and generally to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of or deal in and turn to account any of the assets of the company; to negotiate loans; to offer for public subscription or otherwise aid or assist in placing any such investments as aforesaid; to give any guaranty in relation to any such investment issued by or acquired through or from the company; to offer for public subscription any shares of stock in the capital, or debenture of stock or other securities, or otherwise to establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any company, association, undertaking or public or private body; to take, make, execute or enter into, commence, carry on, prosecute or defend all contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements and plans, and to do all other acts, matters and things which shall at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the protection of the company as holder of or interested in any investments and securities as aforesaid.

Powers as guarantee company.

Sec. 6. That said corporation shall have and is hereby given power and authority to guarantee the payment of principal or interest of existing bonds, bills of exchange, acceptances, checks or other securities or evidences of debt, including the obligations of such corporations as may have secured their payment by deed of trust or otherwise, and to receive such compensation as may be agreed upon by the parties.

Powers as surety company.

Sec. 7. That said corporation shall have and is hereby given full power and authority to act as surety for any person or persons or corporations, upon the bonds of public or private persons, agents or clerks doing business of trust or confidence, and also upon bonds for cost in any case in any of the courts of the several States of the United States, also to guarantee the fidelity of persons in positions of trust, private or public, and to act as surety on official bonds and for the performance of other obligations, as well as to guarantee the validity of titles to real estate and other property, and generally to do a title guaranty business, and to charge and receive for such services such sums as may be agreed upon: Provided, such company shall comply with the laws of the State relative to surety companies.

Powers as trust company and in fiduciary capacities.

Sec. 8. That said corporation shall have and is hereby given power and authority to accept and execute trusts of all kinds which may be committed to its care, with its consent, by any person or persons whomsoever, or by any corporation or corporations, or by any court in this or any other State or Territory of the United States; to act as trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, committee of lunatic, or committee of habitual drunkard, commissioner, assignee, receiver, broker, factor, agent or attorney for any person or corporation, and for its services shall receive such fees and compensations or emoluments as are or may be allowed to individuals in like cases. And in lieu of the bond or undertaking required by law to be given by an administrator, guardian, trustee, receiver or other fiduciary, it shall be lawful for said corporation to file in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Guilford County an undertaking in the sum of not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) with sufficient security, either personal surety or bonds of the State of North Carolina, or of the United States, or of any county or city in the State of North Carolina, or any other surety satisfactory to the said clerk, and to be approved by him, and the said undertaking shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of any and all trusts which may be committed to the said corporation by order of any court of said State, and it shall be renewed every three years. In case of default in the performance of any trust so committed to said corporation, said undertaking may be sued upon by or for the party injured, or his legal representative, in the Superior Court or any court of any county in the said State where such default shall have been made. A copy of such undertaking, duly certified by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Guilford County under his official seal, shall be evidence in the courts of said State. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Clerk of said Superior Court that it is necessary, in order to secure the faithful performance of all of said trusts, he may require the said undertaking to be increased to such an amount as he may deem sufficient. And the Superior Court of any county, or the Judge of the Superior Court having jurisdiction of such matters, whenever any such trust shall have been committed to said corporation, shall have the power to make orders respecting such trusts and to require it to render all accounts which said court might lawfully make or require of natural persons; and in accepting any trusts or powers hereunder said corporation may qualify by one of its executive officers. That said corporation shall have discretionary power to invest the funds received by it in trust in bonds of the United States or any State, or the bonds duly authorized to be issued by any county or incorporated city, or other good securities, or in safe real and personal securities; but all such investments shall be at the sole risk of said corporation, and for all losses by reason of such investment the capital stock, property and effects of said corporation shall be absolutely liable. The corporation shall use due diligence to enhance the yearly rents and profits of any trust estate in its hands, but shall not be liable for any greater income, rents and profits than can be reasonably earned by safe and prudent investment.

Powers as savings bank.

Sec. 9. That said corporation shall have the right to do a general savings bank business, receive deposits from, or make loans for, and obtain and procure loans for any person, company, corporation, co-partnership or association, including apprentices, minors, and femes covert; to invest its own money or the money of others; to loan and invest money on or upon the security of mortgage, pledge or deed of trust, lend money upon, purchase or otherwise acquire bills of lading or the contents thereof, bills, notes, choses in action or any and all negotiable and commercial paper, or any credit, or any personal property, and sell, invest or dispose of the same, and to charge no rate of interest except that allowed by law, with the power to act as trustee in the mortgages or deeds of trust securing bonds or other corporate obligations.

Interest on deposits.

Sec. 10. That said corporation shall pay to its depositors who allow their deposits to remain two years or more such lawful rate of interest as the directors may agree upon, such rate of interest to be computed annually or at such other short periods as the directors may agree upon, and added to the principal as a deposit, and the directors may prescribe and provide the terms on which deposits may be made, evidenced and withdrawn as a condition precedent to an agreement on the part of the corporation to pay interest thereon.

Transfer of stock.

Sec. 11. That the stock of this corporation held by any person shall be transferred only on the books of the corporation, either in person or by power of attorney.

Principal office. Branch offices.

Sec. 12. The principal office of said corporation shall be in the county of Guilford, State of North Carolina, but the directors may establish branch offices at such other places as may be deemed advisable by said board of directors.

Power to act as fiscal agent.

Sec. 13. That said corporation shall have and is hereby given power to act as fiscal transfer or business agent for any State, county, city, municipality, body politic, or corporation, for any person or persons, and in such capacity may receive and disburse money, negotiate, sell, transfer and register certificates of stock, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness.

Power to act as insurance agents.

Sec. 14. Said corporation shall have and is hereby given power to act as agents or brokers in the business of marine, fire, life, accident, fidelity, casualty, employer's liability and every other form of insurance in all of its branches.

Sec. 15. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 2d day of March, A. D. 1907.

CHAPTER 246.

AN ACT TO RE-CHARTER THE TOWN OF BELHAVEN, BEAUFORT COUNTY, AND TO REPEAL FORMER CHARTER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Charter of town and amendments thereto repealed. Proviso: present officers to fill out terms.

Section 1. That the charter of Belhaven and all amendments thereof be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, however, that the members of the present board of aldermen, mayor, chief of police, city clerk, treasurer and all the appointive officers, except such as may be removed for cause or otherwise, shall continue to serve until their present terms expire or their successors are elected and qualified.

Corporate limits.

Sec. 2. The corporate limits of Belhaven shall be bounded as follows: Beginning at the north corner of the I. O. O. F. cemetery, thence westwardly with the cemetery road to the new Bullock road; thence with said road to the Bullock railroad crossing; thence south forty-seven degrees west to the channel of Pantego Creek; thence with said channel of Pantego Creek to the channel of Pungo River; thence with said channel of Pungo River to Baker's Creek; thence up said Baker's Creek to Jones' Creek; thence up said Jones' Creek to the lead ditch of Ryan and Simmons; thence up said ditch to the public road; thence with said public road to a black gum in a branch at north corner of J. G. Jackson's line; thence a direct course to the northeast corner of the back line of the Interstate Cooperage Company's tenement property; thence with said back line to the northwest corner of said company's tenement property; thence a direct line from said northwest corner of said company's tenement property to the beginning.

Town elections.

Sec. 3. The first election for the corporation of Belhaven shall be held on the second Monday in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and there shall be held successive elections in Officers to be elected.

said town biennially thereafter. At said election there shall be elected by the qualified voters of the said corporation of Belhaven a mayor, a treasurer and five aldermen, all of whom shall hold their offices for two years, and shall be installed in office on the first Monday in May following the election. The said aldermen shall be elected, three from the east side of Haslin Street and two from the west side of said street. The board of aldermen shall have power to order a new registration of voters at any time they deem it necessary. Notice of said election shall be given at least four weeks preceding the same, and the polling places shall be designated by the board of aldermen and ballot boxes provided them. Location of aldermen. New registration. Notice of election.

Sec. 4. Every male person who is now or may hereafter be qualified to vote under the Constitution of North Carolina as now amended and under the laws of North Carolina, chapter eighty-nine, Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, shall be qualified voters of said town. Voters.

Sec. 5. The registrar in said town of Belhaven shall open his books for the purpose of registering such persons as apply for registration one week prior to any election and keep same open until sunset Saturday preceding the election. Registration.

Sec. 6. The oath to be administered by the said registrar in said town shall be the same as now prescribed by and for the general elections of North Carolina. Oath.

Sec. 7. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties the registrar shall make oath before some one authorized by the laws of North Carolina to administer oaths that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of his office. A certificate of the administering of said oath shall be made in the registration book by the party administering the same, with the date of administration. Registrar to be sworn.

Sec. 8. The registrar and poll-holders shall meet at their polling place in said town on the Saturday before the election to hear and determine challenges made by any person registered in said town. But before they proceed to determine the rights of any person to vote, they may require proof of notice to the party challenged, which may be signed by any voters in the town, but must be served by the chief of police or any police officer of the county authorized to execute civil process. Challenge day.

Sec. 9. Whenever it is decided that a party registered is not entitled to vote, the registrar shall erase his name from the books, writing the date of the erasure and the cause thereof. In case the poll-holders cannot agree the registrar shall cast the deciding vote. Names to be erased from book.

Sec. 10. On the morning of the election the registrar and poll-holders of the town shall meet at their polling place, and after being duly sworn shall proceed to open the polls at six o'clock and thirty minutes A. M., and receive the votes, depositing the same in the boxes prepared for that purpose. The polls shall be closed at six thirty P. M. Time of opening polls. Time for closing polls.

Registrar to check voters. Poll-holders to keep list.

Sec. 11. The registrar shall check off the name of each man as he votes, and the poll-holders shall keep a list of those who vote.

Count of votes.

Sec. 12. Immediately upon closing the polls the poll-holders and registrar shall proceed to count the votes cast for all the officers voted for, in the presence of such voters as may desire to attend, and make two certificates thereof, one of which is to be returned to the chief of police and the other to the clerk, to be turned over by them to the board of aldermen, who shall canvass the votes. Whoever shall receive the greatest number of votes in said town for mayor shall be declared elected mayor for the term of two years; whoever shall receive the greatest number of votes in said town for treasurer shall be declared elected treasurer for the term of two years; whoever shall receive the greatest number of votes in said town for aldermen shall be declared elected aldermen for two years.

Canvass of votes.

Who declared elected.

Law governing elections.

Sec. 13. The vote shall be counted and canvassed by the said poll-holders and registrar of election according to the laws of North Carolina, chapter eighty-nine, Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and one, and there shall be two ballots and two boxes at the polling place; there shall be one ballot to contain the names of the aldermen, which shall be deposited in one box, and there shall be another ballot to contain the names of the mayor and treasurer, which shall be deposited in the other box; and the said ballots may be printed or written on white paper with or without device.

Certificates, registration and poll books filed.

Sec. 14. The certificates to the clerk, the book of registration and the list kept by the poll-holders and registrar shall be filed with the clerk of the board of aldermen within three days after the election, and the clerk shall notify the aldermen, mayor and treasurer elect of the election within five days thereafter.

Clerk to notify officers-elect.

Sheriff to hold election on failure of town officers.

Sec. 15. Should the present board of aldermen or the clerk fail to perform the duties imposed on them in any of the preceding sections within five days from the time when same ought to have been done, the Sheriff of Beaufort County is hereby directed and empowered to make the appointments and perform the acts imposed upon said aldermen and clerk.

Aldermen to qualify and assume office.

Sec. 16. On the first Monday in May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the aldermen-elect, after having taken and subscribed an oath or affirmation before some justice of the peace for said county to support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of North Carolina and to perform faithfully the duties of their office (which oath or affirmation shall be entered upon the minutes of the corporation, subscribed as aforesaid and attested by some justice of the peace), shall take their seats and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. They shall organize by electing one of their members chairman, who shall act as mayor in case of vacancy, absence or sickness of the mayor. They shall proceed to fill vacancies caused by death or failure to elect in the town, whether by virtue of tie or on a certificate of fraud, and shall fill any and all vacancies in any office, elective or appointive, which may occur during their term of office. Vacancies to be filled.

Sec. 17. After said board has been organized it may proceed to the election of a clerk, chief of police, city attorney, street commissioner, chief of fire department, health officer and as many policemen as it deems necessary, who shall hold office during the term of the board of aldermen appointing them: Provided, however, they shall be subject to removal at any time by the board for misconduct or other causes upon charges preferred by any member of the board and heard before and sustained by a majority of the board. Election of clerk, chief of police, city attorney, street commissioner, chief of fire department, health officer and policemen. Term of officers. Proviso: subject to removal for cause.

Sec. 18. The Board of Aldermen of Belhaven shall have power to make and provide such ordinances for the government of the town as it may deem necessary, not inconsistent with the laws of the land, and it shall have power by all needful ordinances to secure order, health, quiet and safety within the town limits and for one mile beyond; to establish one or more markets and to require the sale of such articles therein it deems proper; to take all necessary means to prevent and extinguish fires; to make regulations for the observance of the Sabbath; suppress and remove nuisances; control and regulate keeping powder in the town; to regulate the speed of riding and driving on the public streets; to keep or require to be kept the sidewalks clear of all obstructions; to cut and remove all limbs, branches and parts of trees or shrubbery extending upon or overhanging the sidewalks or streets at the expense of the owners of the adjacent lots who may refuse to do the same on five days' notice from the mayor of the town; and shall regulate buildings and building material within specified limits. It shall also have the right to regulate the charge for the carriage of persons, baggage and freight by omnibus or other vehicles and issue license for same. The board of aldermen shall have the authority to appoint an inspector of meats, fish, oysters, vegetables and milk, and to pay said inspector such a salary as it may deem necessary, not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum. Power of aldermen.

Sec. 19. The board of aldermen shall have power to fill any vacancies in the board that may occur during its term of office, and also to appoint all officers it may deem necessary for the efficient administration of the regulations, ordinances and by-laws of the town, and shall prescribe their term of office. That any vacancies in any of the offices of said town from any cause, death, disability, removal from office or otherwise, shall be filled by the board of aldermen. Power to fill vacancies and appoint officers.

Quarantine powers.

Sec. 20. The board of aldermen may take such means as effectual to prevent the entrance into the town of any infectious or contagious disease; may stop, detain and examine for the purpose every train, boat, conveyance or vehicle coming from places believed to be infected with such diseases; may establish and regulate hospitals within the town or within three miles thereof; may cause any person in the town suspected to be infected with such disease, and whose stay may endanger health, to be removed to the hospital; may remove from the town or destroy any furniture or other articles which may be suspected of being tainted or infected with contagious or infectious disease, or where there shall be reasonable cause to apprehend that they may pass into such a state as to generate disease; and may lay a sanitary tax as hereinafter specified. With the view of preserving the health of the town, a health officer may be appointed when deemed necessary.

Judgments for expense of removing persons to hospitals.

Sec. 21. That in case any person be removed to the hospital, the board of aldermen may obtain before any justice of the peace a judgment against such person for the expense of his or her removal, support, nursing and medical attendance, and, in case of death, against his or her legal representative, and in that event, burial expenses also, if the town incur that expense.

Powers as to streets.

Sec. 22. The board of aldermen shall have power to lay out and open any new streets within the corporate limits of the town whenever by it deemed necessary, and shall have power at any time to widen, change, extend or discontinue any street or streets or any part thereof within the corporate limits of the town, and shall have full power and authority to condemn, appropriate or use any land or lands necessary for any of the purposes named in this section, upon making a reasonable compensation to the owner or owners thereof. In case the owners of the land and the board of aldermen cannot agree upon a price, the said board of aldermen shall appoint five freeholders, residents of Belhaven, who shall assess the land to be condemned and make report to the board of aldermen. If the board of aldermen accept the report made, it shall pay or tender to the said land-owner the amount in legal tender of this country, and thereupon the title shall become vested in said board of aldermen and its successors. If the land-owner shall think the amount assessed is below the actual value of the land taken, nothing herein shall be construed to deprive him of his right to appeal or bring suit de novo for damages against the corporation for the value of the land taken.

Power to condemn land.

Procedure for assessment of damages.

Right of appeal.

Taxing power.

Sec. 23. The board of aldermen shall have the power to annually impose, levy and collect a tax for general corporation purposes (not exceeding seventy-five cents on one hundred dollars assessed valuation as made by and accepted by the County Commissioners of Beaufort County) upon all real and personal estate within the corporate limits of said city, and may levy a tax equal to the State tax upon all other subjects of taxation taxed by the General Assembly for public purposes; and may levy upon every person, firm or corporation who issues or sells to any person, firm or corporation or merchant any trading stamps to be redeemed by the person, firm or corporation issuing or selling same an annual tax of not more than five hundred dollars; and may levy upon every merchant, dealer or tradesman who receives trading stamps from any person, firm or corporation, or who issues, delivers or sells to customers or other persons any trading stamps to be redeemed by the person, firm or corporation issuing, delivering or selling the same, or by any other person, an annual tax of not more than five hundred dollars; and any person receiving trading stamps and having same redeemed for any article as a present, gift or otherwise shall be subject to a tax of such an amount as may be levied or assessed, not exceeding twenty dollars; and may furthermore enact an ordinance to punish such as use them, make same a misdemeanor, but the punishment shall not exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for thirty days.

Tax on trading stamps.

Sec. 24. That, in addition to subjects liable for taxation for State purposes, the aldermen shall have power to levy and collect a specified or license tax on the following subjects, to-wit: All itinerant auctioneers, merchants or peddlers vending or offering to vend in the town; each electric light company; each telephone company; each street railway company; each broker, or brokers, dealers in patent rights, commission merchants and commercial brokers; each junk dealer; each distiller of fruit or grain; each livery stable keeper; every non-resident huckster or trader or agent of such who buys produce for sale in other markets; each rectifier or compounder of spirituous liquors; each gift enterprise or lottery; each dray, each omnibus, each circus, each traveling theatrical company; each person or company making any exhibit or show for compensation; each billiard table and pool table, each ten-pin alley used by the public; each skating rink; each oil tank in said town of two hundred gallons or over; on each butcher doing business in said town, which said tax on each butcher shall not be more than fifty dollars per annum.

License taxes.

Sec. 25. That no person shall retail or sell any spirituous liquors, wine, cordial, ale, porter, lager beer, cider, malt extracts, bitters or any other spirituous or intoxicating liquors, vinous or malt liquors within the corporate limits of the town of Belhaven. That any person violating this section shall be fined fifty dollars or imprisoned thirty days for each and every offense: Provided, that the board of aldermen shall have a right to levy a license tax upon all persons selling by retail any cider, malt extracts,

Sale of liquors forbidden.

Punishment.

Proviso: license tax for selling non-alcoholic beverages of not less than $1.000.

bitters or other non-alcoholic beverages, said tax not to be less than one thousand dollars annually.

Power as to animals running at large.

Sec. 26. That the aldermen shall have power to declare all domestic animals or fowls running at large within the corporate limits of the town a nuisance and sell same; and the aldermen may at their option impose a fine of ten dollars upon the owner or owners of said animals or fowls running at large, or may treat the same as a nuisance, and have it abolished in such a way as seems to said aldermen best.

Power in abatement of nuisances.

Sec. 27. That the board of aldermen may require and compel the abatement and removal of all nuisances within the town at the expense of the person causing same or the owner or tenant of the ground, wherever the same may be. It may also prevent the establishment of and regulate, if allowed to be established, any slaughter house or place, or the exercise within the town of any offensive or unhealthy business, trade or employment.

Tax for fire engine and fire apparatus.

Sec. 28. In addition to the tax hereinbefore permitted to be levied on real and personal property within the corporate limits of the town, the aldermen are hereby empowered to levy a tax not to exceed seven cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation of said real and personal property, for the purpose of defraying the necessary expenses of keeping the fire engine and extinguishing apparatus in good condition and repair, and of defraying the expenses of the fire department. The chief of the fire department shall have supervision of the fire department, and shall make report of the expenses of the fires extinguished, estimated amount saved, labors and general services of the fire department, the loss of the property estimated and such other statements as may be proper, said report to be made every month to the board of aldermen.

Chief of fire department.

Reports.

Powers in checking progress of fire.

Sec. 29. The fire chief shall be present at each fire and have control of the fire department, and if he deem it necessary to check the progress of any fire, he may cause any house or houses to be pulled down or blown up, and shall not be liable to any person for the damages caused thereby. But should the fire chief be absent, then the foreman of the Fire Company Number One shall be vested with the powers herein conferred on the fire chief; and should the foreman of Fire Company Number One be absent, the mayor shall be vested with the powers herein conferred on the fire chief. The fire chief shall be vested with power to lay hose across any street, railroad track or through any building to check any fires.

Chief to have engine at each fire.

Sec. 30. The chief of the fire department shall use his best endeavors to have the engine at each fire, and for that purpose he may use such means and aid as he deems best. And the board of aldermen is hereby authorized and permitted to make appropriations from the amount collected from the special tax mentioned in section twenty-eight, to be disbursed and used as it directs.

Pay and duties of fire chief.

Sec. 31. The board of aldermen may allow the fire chief not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum for his services, and the duties of the chief shall be what the State law provides. In addition to that, his duties shall be to see that all fire apparatus belonging to the corporation shall be kept in first-class order for immediate service at all times, and that all hydrants shall be inspected twice a year. It shall be the duty of the chief of the fire department to communicate in writing to the board of aldermen when a building, occupied or unoccupied, store, dwelling or warehouse within the corporate limits is a menace to property or in a dangerous or unsafe condition, and the said board of aldermen shall have the right and authority to summons the owner or agent of said building to appear before it and show cause why said building should not be removed; and should said owner or agent fail or refuse to repair or remove said building as ordered by said board of aldermen, then the said board of aldermen shall have the authority to declare said building a nuisance and order it to be removed or torn down, as it may deem best; same to be done at the expense of the owner.

Dangerous buildings to be reported.

Persons failing to pay tax or fine, penalty or forfeiture to be worked on streets.

Sec. 32. The board of aldermen shall have the power to put to and keep at work on the streets of the town any person or persons who may fail to pay any tax or fine, penalty or forfeiture which may be imposed on such person or persons for violation of any ordinance, by-law or regulation of said town, and said aldermen shall have authority by their ordinances and by-laws to confine, control and manage such persons until the said fines and penalties or forfeiture, together with cost thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied, under such rates for labor and board as the aldermen may adopt.

Aldermen to receive no pay.

Sec. 33. The board of aldermen shall not receive any compensation for its services.

Duties of mayor.

Sec. 34. The mayor who shall have been elected in April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, and his successors in office shall preside at the meetings of the board of aldermen: Provided, in no case shall said mayor or presiding officer be allowed to vote except there be a tie vote. It shall be the duty of the mayor to communicate in writing, whenever it shall be deemed expedient, a general statement of the situation and condition of the town in relation to its government and improvement. Second, to recommend to the board the adoption by the board of aldermen of all such measures, connected with the police, security, health and cleanliness of the town, as he may deem expedient. Third, to be vigilant and active in causing the laws and ordinances for the government of the town to be duly executed and enforced. He shall have power over the police force. He shall have a general supervision of the street commissioner, with authority to direct Precepts of mayor to issue to policemen.

Sec. 35. That the mayor may issue his precepts to the chief of police or any policeman, who may execute the same anywhere in Beaufort County, or such other officers to whom a justice of the peace may issue and direct his precepts. All endorsements by the mayor of the names of witnesses upon a warrant or summons shall be the authority for the officer to execute same. The mayor shall keep a faithful minute of the precepts issued by him and of all his judicial proceedings.

Treasurer to give bond.

Pay of treasurer.

Reports.

Penalty for failure.

Sec. 36. The treasurer shall give bond, payable to the corporation of Belhaven, in the sum to be fixed by the board of aldermen, with sureties to be approved by said board. For his services he shall receive a compensation not to exceed one-half of one per cent. on a dollar for receipts and two per cent. for disbursements on all funds coming into his hands. He shall disburse no funds except on orders signed by the clerk of the board of aldermen and countersigned by the mayor. He shall make a report of the funds coming into his hands, at the end of the term, and for a failure to do so he shall be fined not to exceed two hundred and twenty-five dollars, to be recovered by suit in the Superior Court, for which his bond shall be responsible.

Sec. 37. He shall keep his accounts so that the tax levied and collected for each fund shall be separate, and shall pay out of each separate fund only such amounts as are due the same, and when the proceeds are paid over to him by an officer of the corporation, they shall be credited to the fund for which the tax is levied to raise revenue for the same. He shall report to the board of aldermen at each regular meeting in every months the balance he has due each fund in his hands, showing the amount due each fund by the tax levy and the amount paid into each fund and the amount paid out on account of same. Accounts of treasurer. Monthly reports.

Sec. 38. The clerk shall keep a faithful record of all proceedings of the board of aldermen; he shall keep and file all papers presented to the board, all reports made to same and all bonds; he shall keep an order book with stubs. The orders shall be consecutively numbered and shall state on face for what the order is issued. He shall not deliver the order to the payee until countersigned by the mayor; he shall sign all licenses granted by the board of aldermen, and collect the money therefor; he shall collect all taxes levied upon real or personal property, except the huckster tax; he shall have the same power to enforce and collect taxes as the Sheriff of Beaufort County; he shall collect all rents from the markets or other property of the town; he shall settle with the treasurer at the end of each month; he shall pay over to the town treasurer such sums as are collected by him for the account of each separate fund by the tax levy of the corporation, and take the treasurer's receipt for the same to the account of each fund for the amount due the same by the tax levied either for license or other tax and the corporation tax levied on railroad property by the board of aldermen, and shall furnish the town treasurer with a statement of the amount due each separate fund according to the tax levied in each and every year, when he has completed the tax book, which shall not be later than August first in each and every year. On failure to settle at said times, he shall be fined for each failure a sum not to exceed ten dollars. He shall give bond, payable to the corporation of Belhaven, with security to be approved by the board, in a sum fixed by it. His compensation shall be fixed by the board of aldermen. He shall carefully preserve all books, papers and articles committed to his care and deliver same to his successor. Duties of clerk. Penalty for failure. Bond of clerk. Pay.

Sec. 39. The chief of police shall give bond with approved sureties, in a penal sum to be fixed by the board of aldermen, and payable to the corporation of Belhaven, conditioned to diligently perform all duties imposed upon him by virtue of his office, and faithfully pay to the treasurer all sums of money collected or received by him to and for the use of the town, and shall hold his office for the term of two years. The chief of police and other police officers shall wear a regular uniform, to be adopted by the Chief of police to give bond. Term of office. Chief and officers to wear uniform.

The compensation of the chief of police shall not exceed six hundred dollars per annum in full for all services rendered, and all fees collected by him for services rendered in any court shall be turned into the treasury of the said town by him, and his bond shall be responsible for such. He shall be under the direct supervision of the mayor, subject to such rules and regulations as the board of aldermen shall adopt. He shall not be allowed to serve in any civil process. He shall serve such processes as are issued to him by the police justice for the violation of the town ordinances or criminal law. He shall perform police duty under direction of the mayor. He shall be subject to removal as provided for in section eighteen. He shall also act as harbor-master.

Monthly settlements.

Sec. 40. It shall be the duty of the chief of police to pay over to the town treasurer all the money that may be collected by him to and for the use of the town at least once every month, and he shall communicate to the board of aldermen at its monthly meetings in writing a full statement of all costs, fines, taxes and fees collected, and the disposition made of same.

Power to preserve the peace.

Sec. 41. It shall be the duty of said chief of police and the policemen to preserve the peace by suppressing disturbances and the apprehension of all offenders; and the chief of police or any policeman shall have the power to summon as many persons as he may deem necessary to assist in the performance of the above duties.

Power of street commissioner. Duties of street commissioner.

Sec. 42. The street commissioner shall be vested with the power of a policeman, and it shall be his duty to keep in repair all of the streets, ditches, bridges, wells, pumps, drains, canals, sidewalks, crossings, etc., within the town boundaries, under direction of the mayor; and the board of aldermen shall direct all labor due the town from all sources to be at his disposal, the board of aldermen to furnish material and tools, horses, carts, etc., as it may deem necessary, on requisition made by the commissioner. He shall be subject to removal as provided for in section eighteen.

Duties of city attorney.

Sec. 43. It shall be the duty of the city attorney to attend all of the meetings of the board of aldermen for the purpose of giving such legal advice as may be necessary; to represent the town in all criminal and civil actions to which the town shall be a party. It shall be his duty to advise the mayor of the town when requested so to do, and to prosecute any violation of the town ordinances before the mayor. For services rendered he shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the board of aldermen. He shall be subject to removal as provided in section eighteen.

Interest.

Sec. 2. For the foregoing purpose it shall be lawful for the said corporation of Thomasville to issue and sell, at a price not less than par, the coupon bonds of said corporation to an amount not exceeding seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), said bonds to be in denomination of five hundred dollars ($500) and to run for a period of thirty years from the issue of the same, and to bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of June and December of each year after their issue.

How bonds authenticated.

Sec. 3. Said bonds and coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and signed by the mayor and clerk of the corporation of Thomasville, and it shall be the duty of said clerk to keep an accurate account of the same.

Coupons receivable for town taxes.

Sec. 4. The coupons of said bonds shall be receivable by the tax collector and treasurer of the corporation of Thomasville in payment of all taxes and dues to the said city.

Water-works and sewerage for private use.

Sec. 5. It shall be lawful for the said corporation of Thomasville, in addition to supplying the demands of the said city as hereinbefore provided, to provide water-works and sewerage, either or both, for private use at a uniform rate to be prescribed by the board of aldermen for said town, and the receipts arising from said rentals shall be kept by the treasurer of said town, and shall be applied to the payment of interest on said bonds as the coupons may fall due, and for the purpose of creating a sinking fund of one thousand dollars per annum or more, which sinking fund it shall be the duty of the authorities to lay aside annually from any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, and from any surplus arising from said rentals in excess of the amount sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds; and the sinking fund above provided for may temporarily be applied to the payment of operating expenses of said water-works plant or sewerage plant, either or both, as the case may be, and any deficiency in the amount necessary for the payment of either sinking fund, interest or operating expenses shall be paid from the current tax receipts of said town and shall be charged as necessary "water expenses."

Specific appropriation of sinking fund.

Investments of sinking fund.

Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for the said authorities of said corporation of Thomasville to use the sinking fund herein provided for otherwise than as provided for, and it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of said corporation to safely invest, at not less than the legal rate of interest, annually the sinking fund herein provided for, under the advice of the city attorney; or said board of aldermen may purchase, at a price not exceeding the face value of the said bond or bonds, any of the outstanding bonds herein provided for from any person desiring to dispose of the same.

Fiduciaries authorized to invest in bonds.

Sec. 7. All administrators, guardians and other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity are hereby authorized and empowered to invest the funds intrusted to them in said bonds.

Commission to locate site for plant and water-shed.

Sec. 8. The Board of Aldermen of the Corporation of Thomasville, whose duty it is to erect or purchase a water-works plant provided for in this act, shall appoint three freeholders of the corporation of Thomasville, who, with the assistance of an engineer to be employed by the corporation, shall locate the site for said plant, and who shall survey, map out and designate by proper metes and bounds an ample water-shed to secure the purity of water flowing and draining into the stream from which said water supply may be taken, and locate and plan a suitable reservoir for said water supply, or to locate a suitable site for a deep well, if in their judgment the latter plant is preferable.

Protection of water-shed.

Sec. 9. Any person who shall willfully place or deposit in the stream from which said water supply may be taken or any of its tributaries, or upon the ground drained by them or any of them, within a distance from said reservoir so marked and designated by the three freeholders and engineer aforesaid, or upon the water-shed herein provided for, any dead carcass of any animal, or any filthy or poisonous substance, or any other substance or thing by which the water of said stream or its tributaries may become liable to be rendered unwholesome, contaminated or otherwise unfit for domestic purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Establishments or work liable to contaminate water declared nuisances.

Sec. 10. It shall be unlawful for any person to erect, establish or maintain upon the water-shed of the stream upon which the said water-works plant may be located, or any tributary thereof, within the boundaries and marks and designations provided for in this act, any establishment or works the effect of which in its operation or use shall be deleterious to the water of the stream upon which said plant shall be located, or its tributaries above the points and boundaries named, and any such establishment, contrivance or works is hereby declared to be a public nuisance: Provided, that all such establishments, contrivances or works which are standing, established and maintained at the time of the survey provided for in this act shall be condemned as provided for in this act for condemning land and shall be removed.

Proviso: condemnation and removal of existing works.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the Board of Health of the Corporation of Thomasville to exercise due surveillance over the water-shed, streams and tributaries mentioned in the preceding section, and to report to the Board of Aldermen of the Corporation of Thomasville, whose duty it shall be to abate the nuisance forbidden in the manner provided by existing laws.

Board of health to inspect water-shed and report nuisances.

Sec. 12. Any person who shall willfully injure any of the property of said water-works plant, or in any manner willfully or maliciously interfere with or obstruct the operation of its works, or shall cast, throw, place or deposit any deleterious substance in any of the filters, common mains, pipes, tanks, reservoirs or other receptacles of water connected with said water-tank or water-works shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Injury to plant or contamination of water a misdemeanor.

Punishment.

Sec. 13. The Board of Aldermen and Engineer of the Corporation of Thomasville, and any other agent or agents appointed by said board of aldermen, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon the lands of all persons, firms and corporations, within or without the limits of said corporation, for the purpose of making the surveys provided for in this act, laying or putting down any pipes, drains, machinery or appliances, or for the purpose of erecting any reservoir or other necessary building, or doing any other act necessary to be done towards the erection and maintenance of such system of water-works or sewerage, either or both, and towards the maintenance and protection of the same when erected, and the said board may condemn such real estate, easement or interest in real estate as may be necessary for the purpose of this act, and make a record of its proceedings upon its minutes, and cause the same to be registered in the register's office of Davidson County.

Entrance on land for surveys and construction of plants.

Real estate to be condemned.

Sec. 14. That when any person or persons whose lands are taken, used or condemned under the provisions of this act claim damages thereof, and within thirty days petition the Board of County Commissioners of Davidson County for a jury to assess the damages, the said commissioners within not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days after the taking possession of said lands and filing said petition shall order a jury of three freeholders to be summoned by the sheriff or constable, as provided by law, who shall give said land-owners or their local representatives and the Mayor of the Corporation of Thomasville, North Carolina, forty-eight hours' notice of the time and place when and where said jury will meet to assess damages, and it shall report in writing its findings to the board of county commissioners for confirmation or revision: Provided, that if said land-owner be a non-resident of the county and have no local representative, it shall be deemed sufficient service of such notice for said sheriff or constable to forward by United States mail a written notice of the purpose, time and place of meeting of said jury to the last known post-office address of such land-owner seven days in advance of such meeting, and also to post a notice of such meeting at the court-house door of said county.

Proviso: notice to non-resident land-owners.

Right of appeal.

Sec. 15. That in case the land-owner or his local representative or the corporation of Thomasville, North Carolina, shall be dissatisfied with the findings of the jury as provided for in this section and with the decision of the county commissioners, such dissatisfied party may appeal from such decision of said county commissioners to the Superior Court of the county, all such appeals being governed by the law regulating appeals from courts of justices of the peace, and the same shall be heard de novo; but the Judge may in his discretion require said land-owner to give bond when the case is taken by appeal to the Superior Court.

Bond on appeal.

Aldermen may call election.

Sec. 16. That the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Thomasville may at any time and of its own motion call an election, which shall be held at the regular voting place in the town of Thomasville, for the purpose of ratifying or approving by a majority of the qualified voters of said town the issuance of the bonds herein provided for; and upon the written petition of fifty citizens of the town of Thomasville, it shall be the duty of said board of aldermen to call the election as aforesaid, and the amount of issue shall be determined by a resolution of the said board. It shall be the duty of the Mayor of the Town of Thomasville to publish the resolution calling an election in the Thomasville Times or Davidson Dispatch, and to post a copy of the same at the post-office and four other public places in the town of Thomasville at least two weeks prior to date of election: Provided, after said election is held it shall be conclusively presumed that such publication of notice was made.

Upon petition aldermen must call election.

Proviso: notice presumed after election.

New registration to be ordered.

Registrar.

Registration.

Sec. 17. The Board of Aldermen of the Corporation of Thomasville shall, upon calling an election, order a new registration of voters and appoint a registrar, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath to perform them according to law. He shall keep the registration books open at the mayor's office in Thomasville, North Carolina, from ten o'clock A. M. to four o'clock P. M. for five days prior to the election, not including Sunday. He shall register at such times all persons whom he considers would be qualified to vote in an election for mayor of said corporation, and shall administer to them the oath prescribed for electors offering to register and vote in the mayoralty elections in said corporation.

Judges of election.

Sec. 18. The board of aldermen of said corporation shall appoint two judges of election, who shall take an oath of office before entering upon the discharge of their duties that they will perform the same faithfully and according to law. It shall be the duty of the registrar and judges to open the polls on the day of the election within one hour after sunrise and keep them open until sundown. They shall hear any challenges made on the day of the election, and pass upon the right of the elector to vote. They, together with the registrar, shall count the vote and within two days after said election certify to the Board of Aldermen of the Corporation of Thomasville the votes cast and how cast and the result of the election. It shall be the duty of the said board of aldermen on the third day after the election to canvass the returns and declare the result of the election and spread the returns as ascertained by it upon the minutes of the said board of aldermen, and certify under the seal of the said corporation a copy of its minutes in reference thereto to the Register of Deeds of Davidson County, who shall record the same in the records kept in his office for recording results of elections certified to his office.

Bonds to be issued.

Successive elections.

Sec. 20. That in case the board of aldermen shall fix, for the election to be held, the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued at less than seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), or in case the election at such time is against the issuance of said bonds as herein provided, the said board of aldermen may, at any other time it deems proper to do so, fix by resolution the amount of bonds or any additional amount of bonds to be issued as herein provided for and for the purposes herein expressed, and after advertising for thirty days in some newspaper published in the county, and at ten public places in said town of Thomasville, that an election will be held upon the question of issuing bonds under said act, and the purposes and amount of such bonds, and the time of holding such election, which shall be determined by said board of aldermen, an election shall be held at such time as is provided in said resolution and under the rules and regulations and in the manner herein prescribed: Provided, that after any election is held under this act, it shall be conclusively presumed that the same was held as herein provided for, and that all advertisements and orders of the board of aldermen required to be made before holding such election were given as required by law.

Proviso: election presumed to have been legally held.

Purchase or establishment of electric light plant authorized.

Sec. 21. That the corporation of Thomasville is further authorized and empowered to purchase or otherwise establish and operate an electric light plant and system for the use of the said town and its citizens, and to that end may purchase, hold, establish, maintain and operate all necessary lands, works, machinery and appliances wherewith to supply and operate said system. And for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section the corporation of Thomasville is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds to the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) under and according to the provisions made in this act for issuing bonds for water-works and sewerage system.
